To complete the picture of Township Maintenance the following construction projects were completed during the year of 1947.

Bay Township	Approximately (.25) One-quarter Mile Grade Widening started in 1946.
Boyne Valley	3 Bridges: 2 on South Branch of the Boyne River; 1 on North Branch of the Boyne River; 90 ft. of 60 inch C. M. P.
Hayes	1.6 Miles Grading and Drainage Structures.
Hudson	1.6 Miles Grading and Drainage Structures.
Marion	1.4 Miles Grading and Drainage Structures. 0.9 Miles Gravel Surface.

Norwood	1.1 Miles Gravel and Drainage Structure Structures.
Peaine	0.6 Miles Gravel Surface (Iron Ore Bay).
St. James & Peaine	1.7 Miles Double Asphalt Seal.
South Arm	1.1 Miles Grading and Drainage Structures. 0.5 Mile Gravel Surface.
Wilson	Place 30 ft. of Armco Metal Arch 8'x6' Deer Creek south of Afton.

Recapitulation of Receipts and Expenditures:

Received from the McNitt Fund	$ 37,148.96
Received from Liquor Tax	19,453.71
Received from Snow Removal	2,029.06
Total Received	$ 59,529.73
Total Disbursed	$ 79,150.50
Overspent on McNitt Roads	$ 19,620.77

It will be noted from the above figures that unless the townships reimburse the Commission the overspent amount through billings to be made on the Snow Removal costs, that the difference must come from the County Roads Fund.

Below is enumerated the cost per mile of all operations in the respective townships:

Bay	$147.30	Hudson	$152.41
Boyne Valley	135.22	Marion	137.55
Chandler	70.00	Melrose	08.80
Charlevoix	06.44	Norwood	147.18
Evangeline	86.58	Peaine	142.36
Eveline	104.65	St. James	103.03
Hayes	115.37	South Arm	100.54
Wilson	$137.66

It should be easily discerned that the McNitt allocation of approximately $58.00 per mile cannot supply enough financial aid to partially maintain Township Roads.

SNOW PLOWING COSTS FOR THE WINTER OF 1946-1947

	Snow Removal	Snow Fence	Total	Miles	Cost per Mile
Bay Township	$ 1,010.87	$ 298.38	$ 2,100.25	10.	$210.92

	$27,385.71	$4,716.84	$32.102.55	185.25	$173.29

The above figures were published in June, 1647, but inasmuch as the costs are computed for the winter season it is made part of this report. Snow Fence costs in many instances include new fence purchases which is charged directly to the township in which it is used. The above figures compare favorably with adjacent counties and naturally the terrain and snowfall will vary with each plowing season. In township betterment projects, it has been the policy of the Commission to eliminate snow-traps wherever possible.

MATERIALS PURCHASES

Inasmuch as the Materials Purchased do not correctly picture all purchases made, because of the fact that many items are charged to the cost of the project, equipment or account, only a few of the more important purchases are listed below:

			Ava. cost per gal.
Gasoline	112,080 gallons	$13,319.00	.1188
Diesel Fuel	18,040 gallons	2,206.05	.125
Concrete Tile		1,523.96
Tires & Tubes		1,619.61

Most of the tires and tubes have been charged directly to the unit using the same. Since the tires and tubes have again become plentiful, bids were issued this year for the Equipment needs and considerable amount of saving was made for the county without sacrificing quality.

GRAVEL PITS:

These costs include labor and equipment rental to maintain fourteen pits of various size and discription. Approximately 280,600 yards of gravel, sand and clay are estimated to be available in these pits.

The foregoing cost record of equipment does not include all County equipment as space and time will not permit, however the representative units are listed.

Depreciation of each unit of equipment should be considered in the over all picture of costs of maintenance. These figures can be found on the inventory list which follows.

Equipment numbers will correctly designate the type of unit on the cost record.

Operation Costs: Contains the cost of gasoline, fuel oil, lubricating oil, alcohol, etc.

Supplies: This cost designates the price paid for parts and necessary accessories to the unit listed and where excessive amounts are listed, usually a major overhaul has been completed, or new motor installed.

Labor: This lists the mechanics wage and other wages while working on the unit of equipment.

Tires: This cost also includes tire repair, recapping, etc.

Storage: This represents the cost of maintaining the county garages and although every unit of equipment cannot be stored in these garages it is felt that each unit should bear the proportionate cost inasmuch as garage machinery is used in repair to these units and many are in and out of the garages during the year. This amounts to approximately $2.03 per day per unit.

Members of the Board:

The Board of County Road Commissioners make the following recommendations for the coming year:

That the Board of Supervisors allocate and/or assess the amount of one (1) mill of the total valuation of the County for the year of 1948-49 to be applied as follows:

Maintenance of Township (McNitt) Roads	$6,232.95
Equipment	3,952.93
	$16,185.88

All of which is respectfully submitted.

LYLE B. WANGEMAN, Chairman
ANGUS L. FOCHTMAN, Vice-Chairman
SAMUEL E. ROGERS, Member

Members of the Board:

The Board of County Road Commissioners make the following recommendations for the coming year:

1. That when any 1948 Weight and Gasoline Taxes are received from the State, three-quarters of the same to be credited to the County Road for Maintenance of County Roads and the other quarter of said Weight and Gasoline Taxes shall be apportioned as follows: Twenty-two and twenty-nine one hundredths (22.29) percent to the City of Boyne City, Seventeen and sixty-four (17.64) one hundredths percent to the City of Charlevoix, Thirteen and twenty-four hundredths (13.24) percent to the City of East Jordan. One and sixty-three hundredths (1.63) percent to the Village of Boyne Falls, and forty-five and two tenths (45.2) percent to the County Road Fund for maintenance of County Roads: the above mentioned percentages being based on the proportion of the respective populations of the above named cities and villages to the total population of the County as shown by the 1940 census (Federal) which gives the populations as follows: City of Boyne City, 2,904; City of Charlevoix, 2,299; City of East Jordan, 1,725; and the Village of Boyne Falls, 213.

Note:—See Act Number 362 of Public Acts of 1915, as amended by Act Number 165 of Public Acts of 1933 and as amended by Act Number 7 of Public Acts of Extra Session of 1034, as amended by Act Number 340 of Public Acts of 1937, as amended by Act Number 13 of Public Acts of 1939; as amended by Act Number 257 of Public Acts of 1941.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

County Clerk.

Military Services Held Here for F. Lynn Kerr

Military services for F. Lynn Kerr, 28, World War II navy veteran, were held at the See Funeral Home at 2 p. m. Saturday with Rev. W. D. Wood officiating.

Burial was in the Brookside cemetery. Mr. Kerr, who has been residing in Flint, died Sunday in Milwuakee, Wis., where he had gone a few days before for a visit.

Born in Charlevoix, he attended the Charlevoix schools and in June, 1941, volunteered for service in the U. S. Navy. He served as a radioman, first class, with the Naval Air Corps where the major part of his enlistment was spent doing convoy duty in a Carribean area. Later he served at Guam and was discharged in December, 1946.

He is survived by his father, Alex J. Kerr, with whom he had been living in Flint; and five brothers, Crayton and Allen of Charlevoix, Keith and Forrest of Flint and Aiton of Jackson. Another brother, Leith, was killed in action over Germany in April, 1944, while serving with the Army Air Forces.

New CoOp Interviews Turkey Growers

Turkey growers of the Emmet, Charlevoix, Antrim county area are being interviewed these days by representatives of the proposed new poultry processing co-op here.

As soon as they are signed up to send their birds to the new plant, which will be built this summer on Stover Road, work on plans and what remaining legal steps are required will be begun.

people, cars were parked all along the roads. Everyone was on the hunt for mushrooms." . . . Should be about time for the Bob Bridges to be starting their trek back from California. While there they have called on Minnie Payton; also the Frank Millwards did the same thing while they were in California and it was one happy woman who welcomed her Charlevoix friends . . .

Little Bobby Mayne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mayne, was not at school all last week. She fell from the wall behind Wallace's and broke a bone about an inch below the ball and socket of her left arm. She will be about ready to celebrate the removal of the cast when school is out . . . Have you noticed how diminutive Mt. McGravel has become. During the winter months it was in competition with Mt. McSaubie and lo! and behold! it is fast disappearing . . . Then there was that Charlevoix doctor who went out to Ironton, hooked the first steelhead of the season and lost it. Tough luck! . . . Maxine Lewis, Joan Heise and Bill Ochs were home from MSC this week-end . . . A week-end guest at the Don Campbell home was Dick Herrick of Albion, house guest of Anne Campbell . . . Mr. and Mrs. Dale Stafford and son of Detroit spent a few days this week at their cottage between Charlevoix and East Jordan. Mr. Stafford is managing editor of the Detroit Free Press . . .

Harrison Warner came in contact with a saw recently cutting nerves and cords on his right hand. This week the east was removed and the hand is coming along fine . . . Eleanor Freedman was all smiles this week when she said that the Craft Corner had brought in $14.00 the first month. Craft Corner will occupy a spot in Geiken's Shop when the new candy and gift shop opens . . . If you don't think the next week is a busy one ahead, just note that the Junior play is Friday night, the Perch Race is Friday, Saturday and Sunday. There is Open House at school Wednesday, May 12, the massed band concert on the 13th and the J-Hop on the 15th. And we just beginning to think we could draw a long breath. I am hoping that the summer people get here soon so that the Charlevoix folks can get a little rest in, maybe . . .

Have you seen the new sign of Selma Pearl's Beauty Shop? Makes another blue post in town . . . House cleaning is on at the Turkey Wing . . . The highway will be full of cars this week-end, for it will be Mother's Day . . . Dal Henry said that he did not sing all the while he was in Florida. Can you imagine Dal without a song? Anyhow the first night he got home there was a singfest . . . The Walt Moores are at home again after spending two weeks down in Georgia . . . Rev. and Mrs. Ansley Claypoole returned last Friday from Fowlerville where Rev. Claypoole was asked to say the last rites for one of his former parishioners.

Better tune in Friday morning to the Listening Post program, for at that time Bill Ratigan's story that appears in this week's Saurday Evening Post is to be dramatized over the air. We are proud of our Bill and may he keep on writing more yarns for the Post. And we will be a'listenin'. . . Save your pennies. The parking meters made their debut on Main Street this week.

Charlevoix is proud of its high school band and its leader Clarence Odmark. The band did itself proud at the State Band Festival Saturday in East Lansing . . . Manie Fessenden said they have been having some mighty anxious moments in the Hahn family during the past week. Little the nine year old Janice, daughter of Lola Hahn, suddenly developed a strange lump in her body. Last week she underwent an operation in the Charlevoix Hospital and Monday word was received back from Ann Arbor that there was nothing malignant and all is well . . . Have you noticed the clever "fishing look" Main street has, for the Perch Festival.

Looks good to see the neon lights on again at the Parkside. Leon Abbey was one of the fellows out on the opening morning of the trout season. He got a beautiful 3½ lb. brown trout and shortly afterwards a three pound rainbow. He put the fish on the bank for a minute, put a board on it and ran to get a flashlight. In just that instant Mr. Fish decided to make his get-away and somehow did. And that's no fish story and poor Leon is lamenting the loss of that rainbow . . . Otto Krueger says things are really coming along at the Chicago Club. He has had a large staff of women at work housecleaning and getting things in readiness. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Flaherty of Charleston, S. C., have already arrived to take over the managership of the club house for the coming season. On Friday of this week Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. King are due to arrive to be in their cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brown are at home from their winter vacation in Florida. They are feeling fine and looking fine. "Of all the Charlevoix folks we saw down the road!" said Mrs. Brown.

It's milk at lunch time that helps keep Mollie, the Milkmaid, bright and awake even in the middle of the afternoon. Her marks are better and she feels fine, she says. And she drinks pure Charlevoix Dairy milk.

District Track Meet Will Be Here Saturday

The annual Northern Michigan Class C conference track and field meet will be held at the South Side track on Saturday, May 15, with at least five conference teams participating. Charlevoix has won the last ten meets.

Harbor Srings, Pellston, East Jordan, Boyne City have already notified the Charlevoix Athletic Association that they would send teams to the meet. The event will start at 10 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. Officials will be Leonard Burns, Ray Kipke, Uno Suomela and Clarence A. Odmark.

Charlevoix won a total of 38 points to take second place in the Central Michigan invitational high school track meet at Mt. Pleasant on Saturday.

Algonac was first with 43½ points, Charlevoix won the Class C division last year.

Placing in the meet were: Bob Carey who threw the shot put 49 ft. 3 in. for first place; Bill Carey, who placed second in the high hurdles which were run in 16.1 seconds; Bob Shanahan and Bob Case tied for the high jump at 5 ft. 8½ in.; the shuttle hurdle relay team of R. Carey, D. Smith, D. Burke and W. Carey tied for first place with two other schools.

In the mile relay Charlevoix's team of J. Jolliffe, G. Bryan, D. Coney and D. Hardy placed second; Bob Carey was third in the 100 yard dash and Lagerman placed fourth in the mile.

Thirty-four thinclads made the trip, accompanied by their coach S. E. Coleman, Uno Suomela and Hans Burns, the driver.

Spring Garden Is Setting for J-Hop Saturday Night

Decorations transforming the high school gym into a spring garden will be a feature of the annual J-Hop to be held on Saturday evening.

Dancing will start at 8:30 p.m. and continue until midnight. Couples will dance to the music of Fred Gleason and this orchastra of Traverse City.

Dick Jolliffe, popular high school athlete and Junior class officer, and his guest, Joan Brumm, will lead the Grand March.

Chaperones for this annual dance which closes the high school social whirl will be Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kipke, Mr. and Mrs. Clair S. Webster and Mr. and Mrs. Don Swinton.

Former Resident Dies In West

Word has been received here of the recent death of Clinton B. Whitmoyer, 78, in Vallejo, Calif.

A former resident, he had taught in the Chicago high schools and the Chico State College, Chico, Calif., where he was chemistry professor.

He was one of the early graduates of the Charlevoix high school and a brother of the late Mrs. George Burns. He had lived in the West since 1907.

Rod & Gun Club Makes Plans For August Sportsman's Day

Plans have been started by the Charlevoix Rod and Gun Club for their second annual Sportsman's Carnival, scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, August 14-15.

An even more successful program than last year's one-day event is in prospect. At last Thursday's club meeting, committees were selected and a tentative outline of events set up.

General chairman for the carnival is Glenn Ingalls. Working with him are the following committees:

Casting events—Earl W. Miller, Keith Nickerson, J. C. Marshall.

Archery—John Nordrum, Art and Bob Wexstaff.

Skeet—Gordon Moeller, Glenn Rose, Harry Walstad.

Entertainment — Don Coney, Carl Kohler, J. C. Marshall.

Tickets—Karl Erber, Kit Carson, Elroy Deszell, Pete Scott, Glenn Ingalls.

While entertainment plans are still indefinite, it is planned to have Spikehorn Myers and his trained bears from Harrison as a feature of the program.

Substantial prizes will be given in casting, archery and skeet events. Prizes are to be awarded for the largest fish caught during the summer in waters of Charlevoix county and adjacent territory. Prize fish will be brook trout, brown trout, rainbows, steelhead, lake trout, bass and perch.

Also being given away are a 1948 Oldsmobile 8 sedan, and $500 in other prizes.

Sonny Catches Whitefish, Shows Doubting Dad

It takes the kids to show up dad occasionally.

Sunday afternoon Bill Cowdrey, 11, wanted to go fishing. His father, George, said all right but laughed at his chances of catching anything. Bill went, with his pola and soma fish worms. Fifteen minutes later he was back home with a 2¼ pound whitefish.

Ha caught it on the city dock.

400 Band Musicians In Thursday Festival To Compete Here

More than 400 young musicians epresenting ten high school bands will gather in Charlevoix on Thursday for one division of the Northern Michigan Band Festival. East Jordan will be host to the ten other bands of the district on Friday.

Ken Bovee, director of the Oxford band for 14 years, will be adjudicator and guest director at both Charlevoix and East Jordan.

Features of the festival will be individual 20-minute concerts by each band starting at 12:30 through 3:30 p. m. when a parade of bands will form at the school, march down Park ave., through the business district and back to the gym via Antrim st., for a massed band rehearsal. Anyone may attend any or all of the individual concerts in the gym. There will be no charge.

A massed band concert with 275 musicians under the direction of Mr. Bovee will be held in the gym at 8:15 p. m.

An admission charge to assist in defraying the expense of the festival will be charged at the evening concert.

Serives Held Here For Mrs. Bailey

Funeral services for Mrs. Zora May Bailey, former Charlevoix and Bay Shore resident, who died Sunday in Grand Rapids, were held at the See Funeral Home at 2 p. m. Tuesday.

Rev. W. D. Wood officiated. Burial was in the Brookside cemetery. She had made her home in Grand Rapids for the last four years.

Surviving are her husband, George H. Bailey; two brothers, Frank Bassett of Grand Rapids, and George Bassett of Newaygo; two sisters, Mrs. Lily Lingclap of Chicago, and Eva Bassett of Lapeer.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Is Friday

Something different is planned for the Mother-Daughter Banquet of the Church of God Friday night at the IOOF Hall.

Chairmen in charge are Mrs. Peter Timmer, tickets; Mrs. James Fiedler, program; Mrs. Hazel Murray, dinner; Mrs. Ingma Pontius and Miss Delora Richardson, hall. Tickets are limited to 120.

Vera Marie Towsley, 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Towsley was taken to the Charlevoix Hospital Saturday morning for treatment of cuts and bruises when she fell from her bicycle on South Bridge St. The child was unconscious for some time after striking her head as she fell to the ground.

Nine seniors and 12 eighth grade graduates of St. Mary's school will have their Baccalaureate Sunday May 30. They will attend Mass and receive Holy Communion in a body.

Pomona Grange To Meet May 20

The regular May session of Charlevoix County Pomona Grange will meet at Rock Elm Grange Hall May 20.

The business meeting will start at 9 a. m. The program follows and the Rock Elm Grange will furnish a lunch.

Mrs. Mabel Madison of Hubbard Lake is the Special Conservation Deputy of the State Grange and will lead a discussion on Conservation.

Congregators Buy New Church Rug

The Congregators held the final meeting of the year last Wednesday night at the Congregational church.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hawley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duerr and Dr. and Mrs. Fred Young were in charge of the program. Following the potluck cafeteria, there was a brief business meeting at which $23.15 was contributed to buy a new rug for the church vestibule.

The weather being wet, an indoor treasure hunt was staged and won by Mr. and Mrs. William Supernaw. Dr. Young showed movies of Japan, Italy and Charlevoix.

Mrs. Abraham, 70, Dies At Charlevoix

Mrs. Addie Abraham, 70, widow of Reinhold Abraham, died late Saturday evening at the Charlevoix Hospital where she had been a patient for four days. She had resided in this community for ten years.

She is survived by two sons.

The body was taken to Grand Rapids for funeral services and burial on Wednesday.

Public to Elect Chest Directors Monday Night

Nine directors, who will guide the Community Chest during the coming year, will be elected at the open public meeting Monday night at the Community Room in the City Hall.

It will start at 8 p. m.

Open to all citizens of the community, they will nominate and then from the nominations submitted will elect nine persons to the board. These nine will choose the usual officers from their own number.

This is the first permanent organization of the Chest, the one named last Fall serving only as a temporary set-up until a legal organization could be established.

Cunningham Will Represent City at Girls' State

Shirley Cunningham has been named as a candidate to the annual American Legion Auxiliary Girls' State to be held on the University of Michigan campus, Ann Arbor, June 15-22, the Auxiliary of the Leslie E. Shapton Post No. 226 has announced.

Miss Cunningham, who is 17 and completing her junior year in high school, is the daughter of Orlin Cunningham, and the grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cunningham.

This is the second year she has attended the Charlevoix schools. Prior to that she lived in Forester and attended the Deckerville high school. She recently completed student training as a telephone operator and will be employed in the local Michigan Bell office this summer.

A good student, she likes "everything" and is particularly fond of sports and follows the high school teams with keen interest.

After school closes and before she goes to Ann Arbor she and her brother and sister Ron and Sandy plan to go to Forester to visit their maternal grandfather, Eli Herrick.

VFW Ladies to Sell Poppies May 27-29

Memorial poppies will be sold for three days—May 27-28-29—by members of the VFW Auxiliary.

Proceeds go to help disabled veterans and to carry on the children's work of the order.

Those in charge are Mrs. Mildred Coblentz and Mrs. Gladys Griffen, chairman and assistant; Mrs. Edith Geer, Mrs. Pauline Russell, Mrs. Estelle Suratt and Mrs. Bessie Whitley.

Carey Will Help Coach At Cheboygan

Charles Carey of Charlevoix and Cheboygan, has accepted a part-time position as assistant football coach at the Cheboygan high school. He will assume his new duties in the fall.

A graduate of the Charlevoix high school where he was an outstanding athlete, Carey later played on the Michigan State football team and while in the Navy played with the Great Lakes football team in '42. He was assistant coach at Traverse City in '46.

He now operates a shoe store in Cheboygan.

Mothers Honored At Church Service

The Church of God held a special Mother's Day program at the church after Sunday School on Sunday.

Gifts were presented to Mrs. Harold Taylor who had the most children in the Sunday School; Mrs. James Whitley as the youngest mother present and Mrs. Oscar Ward as the oldest mother at the service.

Mrs. Winifred Baumbach and Mrs. John Stephens were program chairmen.

• Mrs. Henry A. Smith celebrated her 70th birthday last Thursday with a family party at her home, 211 West Upright. Those present were the Albert Smith, the George Smith and the Dan Peters families.

The Tow Line

News of folks, your neighbors and mine . . . but did you know that—

Orchids to the telephone operators who were plenty busy Sunday handling the long distant calls that mothers received from their too-far-away-to-get-home sons and daughters for Mother's Day . . . Mrs. Frank Kenyon has returned from Cheboygan where she spent a week with her nephew and niece, Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Mayne.

The popular spot Sunday in town was at the Pamberton home. They have a new baby colt up in their pasture. Every kid in the neighborhood was there and cars were stopping all day to watch the youngsters playing with the white faced, tan colt . . . Three cheers, Doug Nettleton was out in front of his office for the first time Monday morning.

Don't fail to read the ad about the free porch lights in this week's Courier, in fact, don't fail to read every ad in the paper. Taking advantage of bargains your local merchants have to offer means dollars in your pocket and saves wear and tear on your cars driving miles to get the item that could be found in your home town store.

Airport Inn has had a redecorating job on the interior. It is so shiny that one could see to comb his hair anywhere in the place . . . Mrs. Carl Left and children from Beaver Island were in Charlevoix for the week-end . . . "Well, my name is now MUD", said Hans Burns as he started in on his summer job of checking the car meters along Bridge street . . . Mrs. Bertha Gordon visited her daughter, Mrs. Harry Gebeau for several days last week. On her return to Greenville she was accompanied by her daughter and Mrs. William Wallace.

Some man passed through town the other day and what a stir he caused. He had a truck with chickens and one of them got away and decided to visit Bridge Street. The man went merrily on and Mrs. Chicken decided to do some window wishing on her own, but some folks had visions of that chick in the pot. Finally folks on the street were given the "go" sign and whoever caught the unsuspecting hen could have it. Polly Haggard opened the door to her shop and tried a come hither look, but no success, others did their bit to entice the chick to them, but it was Dorothy McKinney of Ironton who was the winner . . .

Up at the Perch Fry at St. Mary's Hall Saturday it was little Virginia Hamlin who made the remark of the week. She had finished eating and was wandering around the hall. Finally she walked up to the table where folks were sitting and all big-eyed she said in awe and wonderment, "Jesus Christ just went through the door." It proved to be one of the good men of the town badly in need of a shave.

Little four year old Buzzy Englehart, son of Bud and Bonny Englehart underwent an operation last week in the Munson Hospital in Traverse. Tendons grafted into his leg, as the lad suffered infantile paralysis when 18 months old. Blond and curly headed Buzzy is already a great favorite with the nurses and it will be hard to keep from spoiling him.

It's wonderful to have a book shop in town again and Miss Floy Edsón has really been up to her ears in work getting ready for the opening of her shop on Friday, where the Yarn Shop used to be on Mason Street . . . Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wycoff are home again from Florida where they were through the winter. They considered it a real privilege to attend so many fine concerts, hear so many outstanding men. "Sometimes we went to church three times on Sunday and on Easter we went four times," said Mrs. Wycoff . . . Capt. and Mrs. John Roen of Sturgeon Bay are expected this week end at the home of Mr. Roen's sister, Mrs. Anna Isaksen . . . Speaking of Mrs. Isaksen, recently she received a beautiful wool, handmade rug,

District Will Vote on First Unit of High School At Election Monday

Monday the citizens of School District No. 1 will decide whether their children will have a new and adequate high school, or continue with the present one.

The special election on the question of a $225,000.00 financing program will be held then in the school gymnasium. The polls will open at 10 a. m. and close at 6 p. m. To meet the legal requirements, there will be two ballots. One will be on issuing five year bonds. The other will allow the tax limit to be raised for the next five years by 1.5 percent to obtain the money to pay the bonds.

The 5 mill increase, voted five years ago, ends this year.

The need for a new building has been discussed at three public meetings, the fact last fall, and repeated news stories. The present building is almost 50 years old and was designed for 150 pupils and a simple curriculum. Today there are 350 and a demand for agriculture, science, home making, band, shop and similar specialized courses. The new building would meet these needs.

"No high pressure campaign methods have been used," said Mrs. Walter Bergeon, Board of Education secretary. "We have tried to explain what is needed and why. Now it is up to the citizens of the district to decide what sort of a school they want for their children."

Weather Puts Monkey Wrench In Perch Race

The weather after being almost perfect for three weeks, Thursday tossed the worst storm of the season at Charlevoix and a mammoth monkey wrench into the Perch Run last week end.

In place of the hundreds of cars expected from other places, heavily a handful came, scared off by the freezing weather and an erroneous announcement that Charlevoix was already filled up.

Despite these handicaps a few did brave the cold and catch perch. The weather cleared Saturday morning and the Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the event, staged the parade at noon. Entries included Ironton fishermen, a Charlevoix beach scene, McSauba winter sports, the fire truck, the school band, youngsters on bikes, and several pony riders. Costume winners were Montie Withers and young Kit Carson.

Saturday evening Robert McLaughlin, deputy Conservation Commissioner, awarded the Perch Race prizes at the high school. W. R. Kimberly, Holland, had the largest fish; H. E. Rodarman, Grand Rapids, the largest catch; Ted Gravelin, Imperial Valley, Calif., came the farthest. In the resident class Enos Bacon had the largest fish and Bill Ratigan the largest catch.

The Rod and Gun Club had more than 30 entries in the skeet shoot Sunday morning. Winners were Alex Gruler, Frank Gruler, Keith Nickerson, Petoskey; Robert Livingston and Gordon Moeller, Charlevoix; Ralph Shapton, Detroit.

Argonne Bowlers Win Petoskey Title

The annual Petoskey Bowling Banquet with 120 members present was held at the Argonne last Wednesday evening.

The Argonne team was awarded the city tournament trophy. With the team are Steve Shockey, Bob Miller, Dick Hull, Bill Mattzinger, Bruce Henley, Chuck and Paul Filiatrault.

Group Attends Traverse Clinic

A cerebral palsy clinic was held at the Central Michigan Children's Clinic at Traverse City by Dr. Meyer Perlstein, Chicago pediatrician and nationally known authority on cerebral palsy.

He is also in charge of a special school for such children at St. John's Hospital, Chicago.

Mrs. Dean Davenport, school nurse, Miss Frances Milner, Mrs. Dorothy McRae and Miss Mary Simmons attended the clinic.

Juanita Dickie Is Youth Center Head

Juanita Dickie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dickie, has been appointed director of the Youth Center at Anderson, Ind.

For the past two years she has served as the Center's assistant director. Her appointment by Mayor McDonald was recommended by the director of the Club Tom Tom. This group has 1400 members and is open to students of the Anderson Senior High and St. Mary's High Schools.

Has VenToura Agency

Capt. Don Clothier has the Charlevoix agency for the VenToura house trailer, made at Elwood, Ind.

• The Norman Houcks have a new daughter, Harriett Stevens, born Tuesday and weighing 7 lbs. 6 ounces.

Illinois Priest Will Conduct Mission

Rev. Fr. George Warth, S. J. of Oak Park, Ill., will hold a mission at St. Mary's church here from May 16 through May 23, Rev. Leo Zielinski, pastor of the church, has announced.

Father Warth was here last year when he conducted a Cana Conference for the people of St. Mary's parish.

The mission will close on Sunday with the Coronation of the Blessed Virgin.

On May 25, The Most Reverend Francis J. Haas, Bishop of Grand Rapids, will be here for Confirmation. The Confirmation service will start at 2 p. m.

Men of St. Mary's To Sponsor Dance

Planned as a social affair to provide a good time for all, the men of St. Mary's church will have a dance party at the Parish Hall Thursday.

It will start at 9 p. m. Lunch will be served.

They're Doing a Fine Civic Job

The Courier wants to pay its respects to two new organizations in this community both of which in its opinion have done a lot for Charlevoix in a few short months.

The two are the Cougregators and the Junior Chamber of Commeree.

Both are active enough so that they have been criticized, which is a sure sign of vitality. For it is true of an organization as it is of an individual—the man who never antagonizes anyone never does anything or amounts to much.

Consider the record each has made in its first winter:

The Cougregators have held two meetings a month, which have provided a lot of fun, besides serving to get quite a few newcomers and townsfolk aequainted.

They sponsored the County Fair at the school which raised $400 for the Hospital. They proposed and gave the Life Guard project its initial push.

The JCC was started because a group of younger businessmen felt they wanted to have some way to contribute to the advaneement of the community.

They have launched two events of major importance. First was the Sports Banquet at the close of the basketball season, as well-planned and handled an event as one could ask. The other is the Perch Raee, which can become an annual drawing card for this community in the spring.

In addition, the JCC has revived the Mt. McSauba winter sports area plan, and has voluuteered to help put across the Venetian Night on July 25.

There are two impressive records for any group, especially in the first year.

What's Cookin' . . .

To the Town's Taste

Kitchen Catch-all

No whatnot holds so much, I think,
As the window sill o'er the kitchen sink.
A rooted cutting, a single pink
The garden shears, the India Ink,
Half an onion, a lemon section
(How are you doing with your collection?)

—Ex.

If you have reached that point in meal preparation this time of the year that you feel that your meals are about as prosaic as the monthly bank statement, why not try dressing them up with breads?

It was from Mrs. Helen Cook I learned to make Banana Bread and it graced our table for Mother's Day dinner. And is it good!

Banana Bread

1 cup white sugar
½ cup lard
½ teaspoon soda
2 eggs, well beaten
3 bananas (or 2 large bananas)
2 cups flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
Salt
¼ cup nutmeats.

Cream sugar and lard. Add eggs, bananas, (well mashed), flour, baking powder, soda, salt. Bake in a loaf pan at 325 degrees for ¾ hour.

If you want to give your meal a real party effect, make Mrs. Cook's

Schnecken

1 yeast cake
1 cup milk
1 egg
½ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons melted butter
2 tablespoons granulated sugar
½ cup brown sugar
2 cups flour

Dissolve yeast and granulated sugar in warm milk, add 1 cup flour. Beat and let raise. Cream butter, add brown sugar, salt and beaten egg. Mix with yeast batter, and add the rest of the flour to make a soft sponge. Knead and put in greased bowl to raise.

Put a teaspoon each of melted butter and brown sugar in muffin pan. Turn dough unto floured board. Roll ½ inch thick. Rub with melted butter. Sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon and chopped nuts or raisins. Roll up like jelly roll and cut in inch pieces. Put in muffin pans. Let raise and bake 20 minutes in medium oven.

Another bread from Mrs. Cook's recipe book is

All Bran Brown Bread

1 cup Kellogg's all bran
1 cup sour milk
½ cup raisins
1 tablespoon molasses
½ cup sugar
1 cup flour
1 teaspoon soda
¼ teaspoon salt

Mix all bran, sour milk and raisins, then add molasses, sugar and flour which has been sifted with the soda and salt. Put mixture into a greased can and cover tightly and steam for three hours. Or put bread in a glass casserole and cover with waxed paper and bake in a slow oven 1½ to 2 hours.

If you are looking for a cake rule that stays moist, and is almost like a fruit cake, make a Gum Drop Cake. This rule is a favorite with Mrs. Cook and is one of her mother's, Mrs. Helen Newman.

Gum Drop Cake

½ cup shortening
1 cup white sugar
2 eggs, well beaten
1 teaspoon baking powder
2 cups flour
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup milk
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 pound seeded raisins
¾ cup gum drops (cut fine).
1 cup nutmeats.

Cream butter and sugar, add baking powder, salt, nutmeg and cinnamon to flour and sift. Add beaten eggs and other ingredients and bake 1¼ hours at 325 degrees.

Mother's Day Is Theme at Guild

Mother's Day was the theme of the devotions given by Mrs. Earl Faber at the regular meeting of the Women's Guild of the Congregational church Wednesday afternoon when they met at the home of Mrs. James Bellinger.

Mrs. W. H. Miller was in charge of the lesson and used as her topic timely world subjects. A general discussion followed.

Mrs. P. R. Ross Is Head of Rebekahs

Mrs. P. R. Ross was named president of District 18 of the Rebekah lodge at the 22nd annual district conference held Thursday at Central Lake.

The business sessions, the installation of officers and the banquet were all at the high school gym.

The Charlevoix lodge was in charge of draping the flag. Those participating in the ceremony were Mrs. W. E. Goss, Mrs. Fred Southwood, Mrs. Alvin Morrow, Mrs. Ronald Swanson and Mrs. Joe Williams. Mrs. Edward Swanson was pianist.

Others who attended the meeting were Mrs. E. E. Stroud, Mrs. Leroy Allers, Mrs. Fred Gill, Mrs. Elmer Poole, Mrs. George Cook, Mrs. Earl Blood, Mrs. William Ager, Mrs. Ed Stutzman, Mrs. Bertha Roberts, Mrs. Lawrence Swanson, Mrs. John Bugbee, Mrs. Jud Hardy, Mrs. Charles Hyers, Mrs. Eugene Lewis, Mrs. Sims Baker, Mrs. Howard Griffin, Mrs. Ray Seymour.

Shower Is Given For Recent Bride

Mrs. Eldon Potter, the former Anah Harriman, was honored guest at a post-nuptial shower given Tuesday evening by Mrs. Edward Boss and Mrs. Franklin Boss at the latter's home.

Guests enjoyed various games and refreshments after which Mrs. Potter was presented with many gifts.

Present were Mrs. Abel VanStedum, Mrs. Hans Burns, Mrs. Gerald Boss, Mrs. Shelby Goss, Mrs. Lawrence Boss, Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. Inez Harriman, Mrs. Richard Potter, Mrs. Bud Heeres, Mrs. Leo Fairbanks, Mrs. Peter Timmer and Miss Betty Potter.

Gifts for New Son Presented at Party

Mrs. Ronald Swanson, who recently adopted a son, Daniel Ray, was honored at a stork shower on Friday.

Mrs. Jeff Novotny and Mrs. Arnold Copeland were hostesses at the latter's home. Guests enjoyed games with prizes going to Mrs. John Swanson and Miss Rosemary Swanson. Gifts were placed on a table decorated in pink and blue under an umbrella in the same colors.

Present were Mrs. Lena Swanson, Mrs. Lawrence Swanson, Mrs. Edward Swanson, Mrs. Fred Southwood, Mrs. A. F. Novotny, Mrs. Bradford Foster, Mrs. Joe Williams, Mrs. Uno Suomela and Mrs. Walter Yemmans.

Mrs. Lusk Is Hostess For Mrs. Chambers

Mrs. William Lusk was hostess at a stork shower honoring Mrs. Gerald Chambers at the V.F.W. hall Friday evening.

The guests played games and later enjoyed refreshments and a social hour. The refreshment table was decorated with spring flowers, lighted tapers and centered with a cake topped with a miniature pink umbrella.

Guests were Mrs. Elmer Barber, Mrs. John Bissell, Mrs. Keith Wagner, Mrs. Lester Smith, Mrs. George Plumm, Mrs. Emerald LaBlance, Mrs. Floyd Potts of Petoskey, Miss Ina Stutt and Miss Elaine Taylor.

WHITEHALL House Signs

Send your host or hostess one of these charming and original house markers. It's a clever and eloquent way to say "thank you."

The signs are all metal and weather-pronfed for long life. Ornaments are highlighted with Swedish iron finish. Size: 10" high overall, 12" long. Name or house number painted on panel for slight additional charge.

Four of the most popular designs are illustrated. Other attractive models are on display in our store. Why not stop in today to see them?

World Wide Guild Has Last Meeting

The girls of the World Wide Guild of the Baptist church held their last meeting of the year on Monday evening with a supper at the Walker Miles home. Ten members were present. The meeting also honored Patsy Davis who is graduating from high school this spring and who has served in the guild for many years.

Circle Honors Two Of Its Members

The Margaret DuBois circle of the Baptist church met with Mrs. R. T. Davis Wednesday for a birthday luncheon honoring Mrs. A. B. Claypoole and Mrs. Charles Novotny.

Rev. Claypoole gave several verses and an Irish story and also led the devotions.

Girl Scout News

Girl Scout troop 4 met Monday. We formed a circle and listened to a talk by our leader, Mrs. Homer Brady, about our summer camp plans. We elected new officers for the month as follows: president, Phyllis Williams; vice president, Nancy Wachelin; secretary, Benny Kipke; treasurer, Harriet Hooker.

Janet Todd, scribe

Eleanor Schmitt, of the Chicago regional office of the Girl Scout Council, will be in charge on June 10-11.

She will conduct a training school in keeping with the national training program to teach leaders and workers the newest ideas in scouting. The initial meeting will be held at the Community Room.

Girl Scout troop 1 met at the City Hall Tuesday. After we paid our dues we talked about our camp site at Wilderness Park.

Mrs. Davenport gave us a lesson on First Aid.

On Friday we met again with the Senior Girl Scouts and signed up for hours at the Junior Chamber of Commerce hot dog booth in the park on Saturday.

Barbara Biee, scribe

Court Opens Monday With Light Calendar

Court opens next Monday for the May term with a comparatively light calendar facing it.

Only three criminal cases are listed: Robert Bradfield for nonsuffort; Clayton Arnold for indecent exposure; William A. Curley for forgery.

On the civil side are two trespass cases—Fred A. Gilford and Joseph M. Spalter vs. Donald Watson; C. G. Harris and Ben L. Shifrin vs. Edward Topolinski. The Freedman-Starkstein land title case also is scheduled again.

Eight divorce actions are listed.

Five persons are asking naturalization: Emil Chvatil, George and Mary M. Glados of Charlevoix; Rocco DeMaio of East Jordan and Eva Adeline Pearson of Boyne City.

Quick Run Averts Fire Damage

Tommy Thomas, 50, arrested Sunday on a drunk and disorderly charge following a small fire on the John Cross fish tug, was fined $50 and ordered to pay $5.00 court costs in Justice Court Monday morning.

He was ordered to serve a year's probation or 60 days in jail. This was his third offense in a year.

He was arrested late Sunday afternoon after the fire department was called to the Cross dock on Round Lake off Belvedere avenue to extinguish a blaze reported by passersby. The blaze reported was from a torch used to start the engine of the tug. No damage was done.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks to all our relatives, friends and especially to the members of the American Legion, who so beautifully performed their rituals with kindness and sympathy at the depot and burial service of our beloved son and brother, Pfc. Delta Richardson. We wish to thank Glenn See for his services; Fr. Leo Zeilinski for words of comfort; the male quartette for their beautiful singing; the pallbearers; the village merchants, who sent beautiful flowers; and all who helped in any way.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Richardson
Mr. and Mrs. Milton Richardson and family.

from Trygve Lie, who is at the head of the UN. In the days back when, Mrs. Isaksen lived in Norway and roomed at the Lie home there. She read about Mr. Lie in the paper but never dreamed that it was the boy back there. Then along came some newspaper clippings on which was written, "Remember Me" and sure enough, it was he. A few days ago she received the beautiful handmade gift from him. A pillow of the same pattern is also on the way . . .

The E. J. Wissels are now comfortably settled in the Neilson home on Clinton Street that has undergone extensive repairs since a fire in early winter damaged the interior . . . The Blessing of the Blossoms ceremony, an annual affair on the old Mission point out of Traverse is scheduled to be held on Sunday, May 16 at 3:30. Hope the cold weather has not affected the blossoms. We have looked forward to going to this ceremony . . .

Surely Larry Ecklund is deserving of a Good Neighbor reward or a Good Citizen award. Realizing that his delivery truck stirred up dust, he took it upon himself to have clay dirt put in the alley and fixed the road so that housewives would not need to worry about their freshly washed clothes getting dirty. That is real consideration! . . . Young Tommy Erber really got a nasty blow in the mouth from a baseball bat, cutting his upper lip so that six stitches had to be taken, breaking some teeth off and loosening others . . .

That's a sharp looking car the Pat Hawley's are driving these days . . . The Bob Bridges arrived home from California this week. M. K. Chew arrived home Monday night after being gone for six weeks. Mrs. Chew spent the month of April in St. Jospeh's Hospital in Ann Arbor. Now she is convelescing at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, the Galo Chews at Alma. While Mrs. Chew was in the hospital Mr. Chew visited friends and relatives in Bay City, Flint, Ann Arbor, Kalamazoo and Alma. Also he spent a week with his brother in Conneaut Lake, Pa., a resort not unlike Charlevoix. "Yes, sir," said Mr. Chew "I have been gone six weeks and it seems six months. It is the longest I have been away visiting in 50 years."

BABY TALK

Births recorded recently at the Charlevoix Hospital include:

A daughter, Susan Allise, born to Mr. and Mrs. A. Wihner Olstrom of East Jordan on May 3.

A daughter, Rita Virginia, born to Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Ernst, Jr. on May 5.

A daughter, Colleen Marie, born to Mr. and Mrs. Perry P. Smith on May 5.

A daughter, Linda Kay, born to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Tornga on May 7.

A daughter, Ola May, born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Whitney of East Jordan on May 7.

Mrs. Edwards Goes To District Maetings

Mrs. Arthur Edwards, vice president of the district association of the W. S. C. S. of the Methodist church, attended several subdistrict meetings of the organization last week.

On Tuesday she was in Manistee; Wednesday, Mesick; Thursday, Elk Rapids and Friday, Petoskey.

Kroger

$80 WORTH OF MERCHANDISE = ONE NET PROFIT

How to Make a Dollar

Did you know that Kroger has to sell $80 worth of merchandise in order to make a net income of $1? That's the way our low-profit margin figures out—we use $79 out of the $80 to buy our merchandise, get it into your hands, and meet general business expenses. That's why Kroger prices are always close to cost.

IT HAPPENED ON ....
BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

Perch, suckers and smelt take to the Beavers during the month of May to spawn. During the past week the suckers arrived en masse in the Jordan River.

It is great sport among the Island lads to spend an evening scooping suckers from the river with pitch forks. It takes no time to fill a wash tub.

Bruce McDonough, Donald Cole and Donald McDonough went sucker scooping one evening last week. With their tub filled, they set about to smoke their catch. After the usual preparation, the fish were placed in Vesti McDonough's smoke house and this venture not only smoked up the house but burnt it down, fish included.

Over the week end, a number of perch fishermen arrived.

The Mary Margaret made a special trip Friday to bring over fishermen and their cars. Saturday the North Shore was loaded to capacity with cars and a number of fishermen. By Saturday afternoon six planes had arrived and parked at the airport.

The King Strang Hotel opened Friday for the perch season.

Sunday morning, Archie LaFreniere, Sr., was busy launching his boats to accommodate the anxious anglers.

The Sundew stayed over night in Beaver Harbor Wednesday after setting the buoys in the vicinity of the Island.

The contest to beautify Beaver Island with attractive lawns, flowers and window boxes is stimulating a number of villagers to start work right away.

A lot of drift wood and old dock piles have been removed from the down town beach near LaFreniere's dock.

Ed McQuaid, Charlevoix furnace man was on the Island for a few days last week.

In the future, Mike Cull's packed fish will nestle among ice flakes manufactured by his own machine. He has bought a York Flake machine capable of producing 100 lbs. of flaked ice per hour.

Lawrence McDonough has bought Bob McDonough's interest in the Pine Tree Dairy.

Mrs. Vernon LaFreniere flew to the mainland Saturday to bring her little son, Leon, home. Leon was in Little Traverse Hospital this past week.

Mrs. Annie McCann, Charlevoix, came over Friday to spend a few days with Mrs. Edwin McCann and to be present for the First Communion of her two grandchildren.

Mother's Day was also Eva McDonough's birthday. Sunday afternoon a group of friends dropped in for a little surprise party to help celebrate the occasion.

Guy Stevers, Fred Webber, Red Dugan and Ed Grob, all of Ann Arbor came up Saturday for the perch season. Henry Allen drove up with the group and remained on the Island over the week end.

The Traverse City Manufacturing Association will hold a three-day convention at the King Strang Hotel beginning Friday. Reservations have been made for 30 men.

Joan Spalding, who is employed in Chicago, was rushed to Wesley Memorial Hospital for an emergency appendectomy last week.

St. James Seniors To Be Prom Guests

The Parish hall will be the scene of the high school banquet and prom Thursday.

The decorations will be in blue and gold, the school colors. Place cards and specially designed favors will adorn each place at table. The floral decorations will consist of mixed bouquets between blue and gold candles. Balloons and bags of confetti will add to the fun.

Toastmistress is Charlotte McDonough, junior class president. Participating in the program are these: Jack and Patricia O'Donnell, Madonna and Joy McDonough, Margaret Ricksgers, Walter McCauley, Lillian Greene, Mary Malloy, Mary LaFreniere, Dorothy Lee McCann and Mary Margaret Greene.

The banquet will be followed by the prom, consisting of a Grand March, square dances, waltzes, fox trots, and the schottische. To lead the Grand March are Madonna McDonough and Jack O'Donnell, senior class officers.

22 Receive First Communion Sunday

Clad in traditional white suit or in white dress and veil and carrying rosary and prayer book, 22 Island youngsters received their First Holy Communion on Mother's Day.

Four altar boys led the following First Communicants in procession: Brian Gallagher, Gary McDonough, Billy Bennett, Michcal McCann, Billy Pischner, Kenneth McDonough, Eugene Mooney, John Kenwabakise, Marcus Martin, Jean Catherine LaFreniere, Loretta LaFreniere, Caroline Kenwabakise, Kathy McCann, Noreen Cross, Marian Napont, Grace Palmer, Eleanore Pischner, Kathleen Gatliff, Sally Dubiel, Margaret O'Donnell and Sally Martin.

The altars were decorated for the occasion with bouquets of carnations and other colorful flowers between a circle of lighted candles. The First Communicants sang: "Dear Little Jesus", "Jesus, Jesus, Come to Me", and "On this Day". They made their preparation for and Thanksgiving after Communion aloud. Parents, relatives and friends joined them in receiving Communion.

After the Mass, Father Fabian Keenan distributed certificates to each of the children.

Clark Community

Mrs. Wm. Parsons

Sunday dinner guests of the William Jolliffe family were Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Lord of Atwood and Mrs. Gerald Derenzy and two sons of East Jordan. Afternoon visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Lord and children of East Jordan and Mrs. Raymond Stafford and Imogene of Norwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Potter were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl McBride.

The William Jolliffe family are the owners of a new Allis-Chalmers tractor purchased last week from Charlevoix Oil Co. in Charlevoix.

Sunday visitors at the Charles Warner home were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Warner of Elk Rapids. Saurday evening callers were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Beck and son, David, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Warner and family, Clyde Warner and Betty and Arlyle, Joan and Junior Roberts

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Beck are new settlers in the community, hailing from Detroit. They have purchased the farm just north of Harwood Lake and plan to build a new home and possibly some cabins too.

Mrs. Clyde Warner entered the Munson Hospital in Traverse City for medical treatment.

LaVerne Harwood Dies In Illinois

LaVerne J. Harwood, 48, World War I veteran and former resident, died April 29 at Hines General Hospital, Ill. Funeral services and burial at Elkhart, Ind., on Monday.

Born at Atwood, Mr. Harwood lived there until enlisting in the Infantry in 1917. While in France for a year he received an injury which kept him hospitalized in Detroit and Chicago for several years after his return. He later attended Wheaton College and in 1936 was married to Alice Freeman of Alberta, Canada.

In December, 1945 he entered Hines General Hospital for treatment and was released to his home in Elkhart a year later. He reentered the hospital in November, 1947.

Besides his wife he is survived by a daughter, Lois Lynne; his mother, Mrs. Albert Harwood and one brother, Lester of Atwood.

Concert Series Tickets Will Go On Sale Monday

The Community Concert Association will begin a membership drive here on Monday for tickets for a series of concerts comparable to those presented by the Association this last year at the Petoskey auditorium.

C. A. Odmark, local member of the Board of Directors and Artists Selection Committee is in charge of the drive.

Only a limited number of tickets will be offered for sale and one must have a season ticket to attend. No tickets for individual concerts will be on sale at the door.

The program cannot be made up until tickets are sold and the Association knows the amount it will have available for the season. However, patrons will be assured of an interesting and varied program series of the same calibre presented last year, Mr. Odmark said.

Family Night Thursday

The last of the Church Family Nights for this year will be held Thursday at the Congregational church basement. It will start with a potluck supper.

Maple Grove

By Mrs. Gerald Burke

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rennie of Marshall visited from Saturday to Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. James O'Brien, Sr.

Barney and Grace Englehart went to Traverse City Sunday to visit their grandson, Elmer (Buzzy) Englehart, Jr., who underwent surgery at Munson Hospital. He is coming along fine.

Mrs. Charles Newberry and children of Cass City spent the week-end with Mr. Newberry at Camp Ta-Wa-Ma-Na.

Little Wilma Honeysette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Honeysette, returned home Sunday from Little Traverse Hospital where she had been confined since her accident. Run over by a cultipacker, she suffered a skull fracture and a broken leg, but is well on her road to recovery now.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Crump of Royal Oak were at their summer home over the week end.

Agnes Dvoracek Bride of Robert Olson

Miss Agnes Dvoracek became the bride of Robert L. Olson April 24 at a candlelight ceremony at the Salem Norwegian Lutheran church in Detroit.

The bride is the daughter of Joseph Dvoracek of Charlevoix; Mr. Olson is the son of Edwin E. Olson of Detroit.

She chose an aqua spring suit with matching aecessories and a corsage of orchids. Following the ceremony, there was a reception at the bridegroom's home. Afterwards the couple left on a short honeymoon trip.

Among the out-of-town guests wer Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bauman of Boyne City, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rajskub, Jr., of Van Dyke, Joe Dvoracek and Miss Martha Dvoracek of Charlevoix.

• T. L. Belding, father of Archie, and George, his brother, arrived Sunday from Garden City and opened the latter's cottage on Lake Charlevoix.

• Mrs. Frank Gillespie of St. James is spending several days with her sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Supernaw and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Pischner.

• Mrs. T. L. Pearl returned home Saturday after spending the winter months in Detroit. Her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thad Pearl, brought her home.

WHY...Should Your Food Cost More on Monday and Tuesday Than on Friday and Saturday?

A&P Sees No Reason

A&P

Why should a Monday shopper pay more than a Saturday shopper? Why should you be penalized on Tuesday for the shopping you do on Friday? Why should identical items cost you more the early part of the week than they do the latter part? We agree with you . . . it just doesn't make sense. We believe that every shopper is entitled to the best possible food values EVERY day. So we never juggle prices at A&P . . . never mark a few things down once or twice a week and make up for it by marking other things up the rest of the week. Instead, we keep ALL prices as low as we can ALL the time. Result? ANY day is a good day to shop and save at A&P. Try it and see!

Freedman Makes Desks for State Schools; Adds to Line

Two hundred-sixty students at the Michigan School of Mines this summer and fall will be doing their studying at desks produced here in Charlevoix.

This week the Freedman Artcraft Engineering Corp., finished shipping 130 new desks it built as a special order for the Houghton and Soo school. Each desk is for two students, combines a book rack with the study desk, and was patterned after a sample sent down by the school on which improvements were made.

When a representative of the school of Mines came here to look over the desks, he was so impressed by the new Freedman office desks that he ordered ten.

The student desks are typical of the special work being done all the time at the new plant here. Another order on which work is being started is for the Post Office department—80 big cabinets to be sent to various offices around the country.

To handle this tpye of special work, the company has a separate section, called the sample department. Now using only three men, Gordon Freedman says he would like to have, and could use, eight men there turning out sample items and small lot orders.

Asked what prevented getting them, he said it boils down to housing. The Freedman company is carefully building a reputation for careful workmanship and fine products. This requires skilled craftsmen. Charlevoix has almost no experienced men in this work. So the company has had to train them. Training requires key men who know how to do the work.

These key men can be had,

New Group Will Unify Promotion Work Of All Three Cities In County

The stock of Charlevoix County is a lot better investment this week than it was last.

The cause was the meeting held at the Argonne May 12 when 28 men from the Chamber of Commerce of East Jordan, Boyne City and Charlevoix met there to spend an evening talking over county affairs.

Harry Jennings, the new C of C secretary at Boyne City, summed up the idea and the conclusion neatly:

"If we will forget the old squabbles of the past, work on things that affect all of us, we can do a lot more pulling together than we ever can separately."

Starting out merely as an informal session to eat and talk, the idea of county-wide cooperation caught on and the men approved a proposal to meet again June 9 and adopt a permanent county set-up. This group, which probably will be composed of members of the three groups and others interested will meet four times a year.

Several definite programs were suggested. A. G. Smith of the Boyne Citizen, proposed a county-wide smelt dipping plan for the spring, with accompanying publicity. It was approved unanimously. Two men from each community will be appointed to work it out and direct it.

S. E. Coleman suggested the proposed group could plan the year's program so there be no conflict of major dates, and each community could help promote the others' events. This was approved. East Jordan and Boyne City, which already have a partial conflict on the weekend of the Fourth, agreed during coming years to alternate on this holiday celebration.

The other two communities representatives also said they would back Charlevoix in having the last Sunday in July for Venetian Night.

Credit for proposing the meeting and program was paid to Don Watkins, president, and Harry Jennings, secretary of the Boyne City Chamber.

Robert Fochtman, president of the Charlevoix group, welcomed the men from the other cities.

Mr., Mrs. Delbert Ingalls to Observe 50th Wedding Anniversary May 25

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert E. Ingalls will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary May 26.

In honor of the occasion they will hold open house at their home, 321 Mason St., from 3 to 5 p. m. and from 7 to 9 p. m. No invitations will be issued.

Mr. and Mrs. Ingalls, who were married at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Mary E. Edson in Marion township on May 26, 1898, have been practically life-long residents of this community. Following their marriage they lived in Banks township until April, 1910 when they moved to Marion township. They made their home there until April, 1942, when Mr. Ingalls retired from farming and they moved to Charlevoix.

They have always been members of the Baptist church here and when they resided on the farm were active in the Gleaners organization.

Mr. Ingalls, who celebrated his 79th birthday anniversary in January, was born in Banks township. Since he retired in 1942 he has managed to keep busy in spite of his age. He first remodeled their present home and then, later on, "just for something to do," he built a small house on the back of their lot on Mason St.

Mrs. Ingalls enjoys church work and is still an active member of the Baptist church. She is 72 years old and was born at Traverse City, coming to Charlevoix as a small child.

The couple have two daughters and one son, Mrs. James Courier, Mrs. Laverne Heise and Glenn Ingalls, all of Charlevoix. They also have three grandchildren, Lois and Leone Courier and Donald Heise.

Poppies to Be Sold Three Days Here

"A poppy on every coat—remembrance in every heart" is the goal of the American Legion Auxiliary and the V. F. W. Auxiliary for Poppy Day which will be observed in Charlevoix on May 27-28-29.

Poppy Day contributions will be used to support the organizations' work for disabled war veterans and needy children of veterans.

• Jack Alexander received a cut eye this week when a glass insulator broke,

• Lily Novotny is expected home soon from Traverse City, where she has been staying for the last three weeks.

Girl Scout Camp To Be June 14-19 At Camp Grounds

A Day Camp, open to any Girl Scout or Brownie will be held June 14 to 19 at the Church of God Camp Grounds. Mrs. John Nordrum, chairman for the Day Camp announces.

Already about 75 Scouts and Brownies have signified their intention of being at camp. Mrs. Clarence Odmark will be the Day Camp director. Mrs. Helen Richards will act as Registrar. There will be a leader for each group of eight girls at camp.

Other persons who will help at the camp are J. C. Marshall, sanitation; Margaret Hamilton, transportation; Esther Miles, equipment; Mahel Kipke, finance; Margaret Davenport and Helen Cook, camp nurses; ElDean Towe, publicity.

In connection with the camp Miss Smidt, the Regional Worker, will be in Charlevoix June 10 and 11 and will give instructions and other information to unit leaders as well as all persons interested in Scouting.

Classes will be given in bead work, bird study, finger painting, story telling, spatter painting and nature study. A staff is being organized to handle the projects.

Big Muskie Is Caught At Ironton

Here's a 48 inch muskie, weighing 27½ pounds, from South Arm. It was caught May 8 by Bill Cameron, Lansing insurance man, near the Island on an Audy Reeker No. 3. With him in the boat was George Alderton, sports editor of the Lansing State Journal at Lansing.

Bishop Will Be Here Tuesday

The Most Reverend Francis J. Haas, D. D., Ph. D., L. L. D., Bishop of the Grand Rapids diocese of the Roman Catholic church, will preside at Confirmation services at St Mary's church at 2 p. m., Tuesday, May 25.

Bishop Haas was formerly chairman of the President's Fair Employment Practices Committee and had participated in the settlement of labor difficulties throughout the country.

T. H. Coxe Elected New President of Junior Chamber

T. H. Coxe was elected president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce at a meeting held Wednesday evening. He succeeds Henry Supernaw who has headed the group since it was organized last January.

Other officers are: vice presidents, Dr. Earl H. Faber, and Tom Cox; secretary, Joe Abbey; treasurer, Jack Mailhot; board of directors, Grover Glossenger, Ormiston Bergeon, Hayward Leslie, John Swanson, Wayne Belding, Larry Ecklund, who is also state reprentative, and Henry Supernaw, who becomes a member of the board as past president. The officers also serve with the board of directors.

The new officers will be installed at a banquet to be held later this month. They will assume their duties on June 1.

The group now has 35 members. Meetings will be held at the Legion hall and will include a fellowship hour, business session and refreshments.

Call Is Issued For Softball Players, Teams

Charlevoix has an opportunity to have a team in an Tri-County Softball League this summer.

A call has been sent out to all softball players to meet this Friday at 8 p. m. at the Michigan Cleaners plant to talk over forming a city league, as well as putting teams in the proposed three-county loop. Barnard, Ironton and the neighboring rural area all are included in the invitation to join.

The other committees in the league would be Boyne City, Boyne Falls, East Jordan, Gaylord, Ellsworth and Central Lake.

Who Will She Be?

Who will represent Charlevoix in the competition for the 1948 Cherry Queen at Traverse City's annual Festival in July?

She must be between 17 and 25, unmarried and willing both to compete and if chosen to go through the three day round as Queen.

The responsibility for choosing this community's contestant has been given the Board of Commerce. Always a difficult job, this one of chnosing a queen, the Board is asking the public to name contestants by filling out the coupon on page three.

Leave this in the sealed boxes at Central Drug or Schroeder & Hovey stores before Saturday night. At that time they will be picked up, the nominations counted and results announced next week.

Honeymooners Are Starting to Arrive

The honeymooners are coming through at the rate of at least one couple a day.

That's the report of Fred Bancroft's Cabins.

A few of the newlyweds make no bones of the fact they're just wed. With the others, well, he says, it's just self-evident.

Track Team Wins District, Goes to Regional Meet

The Charlevoix thinelads won their eleventh Northern Michigan Class C Conference track and field meet at the South Side track Saturday against Harbor Springs, the only other team entered in the meet.

The Rayders piled up a total of 126 points and took 12 first places in the 13 events scheduled.

Harbor had 57 points with their crack miler, Dale Radle, taking their only blue ribbon in the meet. No new records were set in the meet which was run off in a driving rain and showers.

Other schools which were to have participated cancelled their reservations in the meet on Friday.

Saturday the Rayders will participate in the Regional meet to be run nff at Cadillac, Charlevoix has won eight regional meets. The following Saturday, May 29, the state meet will be held at East Lansing, with the winners of the Regional meet entering.

Work Starts on New US-31 Road

Work on the new US-31 pavement began Monday when the Loselle Construction Co., the contractors, started a crew swamping out the roadway at Bay Shore.

The work is directed by Franklin Loselle, a member of the firm. According to him, work will begin at the Bay Shore end and come this way.

For the first mile an entirely new grade must be made, the old pre-war grade having ended that far west of the county line. Some work must be done on this old grade itself. For quite a distance it was too close to the lake, which has risen. Here the grade must be moved back and the lake side rip-rapped with stone. All along the grade water damage must be repaired.

During the summer three short detours will be constructed. One about a quarter of a mile long will be at Bay Shore and will parallel the railway tracks, then swing south across the new right of way. Another, now being built, will carry traffic around the underpass a mile this way from Bay Shore.

The third will be at the Charlevoix end. Present plans call for the traffic to go north by the skeet range, then east by the Allen ranch to the railroad where a temporary crossing will be put in and a new road built south by the Argonne to the present road.

The new paving will come to the top of the hill just west of the present railway crossing, and will not extend into town.

Edwards Food Mart Joins IGA Chain

Charlevoix now has an IGA Store.

Edwards Food Mart has joined the organization of the Independent Grocers Alliance and will handle IGA groceries in addition to its other lines.

Friday and Saturday will be the Grand Opening Sale at the store marking the change to the big food organization.

Shirley to Attend Girls' State

Miss Shirley Cunningham has been chosen by the Charlevoix American Legion Auxiliary to attend the annual Girls' State at the University of Michigan in June.

Regular Air Service to Start Next Thursday; DC3's Will Be Used on Detroit Flight

Charlevoix will have regular air service to Detroit, Lansing, Cadillac and Marquette starting May 27.

This news was brought here Wednesday by Irving I. Stahl, general manager of the Copper Country Airlines, which was granted approval for its new lines last week by the Michigan Department of Aeronautics.

Twenty-one passenger DC3's will be used. The plane will arrive from the south at 11:40 a.m. and from the north at 1:40 p.m. Round trip fare to Detroit will be $38.82, one way $18.90.

St. Mary's Makes Bazaar Plans

Plans for St. Mary's Bazaar and summer festival are being formulated by the committees named recently by Henry C. Heckler, general chairman.

Tickets are also on sale by members of the parish for a 1948 Chevrolet Aero Chevrolet sedan, an electric stove and an electric refrigerator. Other major prizes including $150 in cash as part of the annual summer girls party will also be included.

Proceeds from the bazaar and festival will be used to enlarge the school room space and purchase new equipment. The added room and equipment are necessary because of the increased enrollment in the school. The enrollment in the eight grades has increased from 59 pupils in 1946-47 to 72 for the present school year. 80 students already are registered for the next term.

It has been necessary to employ a part-time teacher this year. A third fulltime teacher will be added to the staff next fall and a third room will be necessary.

All But Two of Present Faculty Sign Contracts

All but two members of the present faculty have signed contracts for the 1948-49 school year, Supt. Roy G. Bennett has announced.

It is expected that these two will arrange other business matters so that they may be able to remain in Charlevoix.

There may be one more teacher added to the staff but that will not be determined until the program for next year is completed.

Driver training will be the only new course offered in the curriculum next fall. A course in agriculture which the school had hoped would be offered, will not be included until proper facilities can be acquired.

Funds Will Be Used to Engage Life Guard

Funds contributed to the Life Guard Fund will be used this summer for that purpose.

Enough has been raised now to engage one guard for the coming season and if the benefits continue to increase the fund, according to Chairman Anne Higman, there will be almost enough for a second guard.

Night Lights Will Be Installed at Airport

Charlevoix will soon have a lighted airport.

Following an application made at Lansing by Mayor Ray Hamilton and Supt. Angus Leitch, word was received this week from the Michigan Aeronautics Commission that the loan of a complete emergency airport lighting installation to the city had been approved.

These outfits, made during the war for emergency fields, are loaned by the Commission to communities which must install and maintain them. They consist of a series of runway lights which can be powered by a self-contained unit or attached to the city system. With the city power plant not having enough load at night, likely the field will be kept lighted during the summer.

Assembly of God Plans Musical

There will be a musical treat this Thursday at 8 p. m. at the Charlevoix Assembly of God church on Bridge street when Rev. Funk and his party of Hawaiians will give an evening of singing, playing and pictures.

Rev. Funk will talk on Hawaii. There is no admission charge.

• Joe Abbey of Abbey's and Tom Coxe of the House of Jewels were at Mackinac Island the first of the week getting the stores ready which the two businesses will have there this summer.

Vote Is No On New School

Bringing out many who hadn't voted for years, the proposition to raise money for a new high school building lost decisively last Monday at the special election.

The vote on the two questions was:

	Yes	No
Issuing bonds	189	324
Raising millage	220	336

Nine Directors Elected to Head Community Chest

Nine directors, who will form the first permanent board of the Community Chest, were elected Monday niht by 11 citizens who attended the public meeting in the City Hall.

Under the new set-up, three of the directors elected at this first annual meeting will serve for three years, three for two and three for one. After this three will be elected each year for three years.

Those elected and their terms are: Mrs. Walter Bergeon, Robert Bridge, George Haggard, one year; Ted Foster, Dr. Robert McClintock, L. E. Towe, two years; Howard Brumm, Mrs. Kit Carson, Gordon Freedman, three years. Length of term was decided by drawing numbers from a hat.

School Invites New Pupils' Parents

Supt. of schools Roy G. Bennett and Mrs. Dorothy McRae, kindergarten teacher, have extended an invitation to parents of children who will be eligible to attend school in the fall to visit the kindergarten some time before school closes.

Parents are reminded that children must be five years of age before Nov. 1st in order to attend kindergarten.

Charles Andersons Buy Dixon Hotel

The Crestview, a small summer hotel at 106 West Dixon ave. has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson of Detroit from Mrs. Ruth Badgley of Anderson, Ind.

The Andersons, who formerly owned and operated the Charlevoix Hotel, will operate the hotel during the summer months.

Farm Union Meets Tuesday

The Charlevoix County Farmers Union will have an annual meeting next Tuesday at the Norwood Local Hall.

The Customer Deserves a Break

"The customer balked" is the way a clipping from a Florida newspaper summed up the past season there.

The article pointed out that the vacationing public is tired of paying two prices, of not getting value for his dollar. And he either is staying away or spending less.

The moral is an easy one for us to draw—let's give our summer visitors full value, fine treatment. Then they'll continue to come.

Someone sure has sold the gals a sorry bill of goods in these new look styles. A pair of blue jeans are a lot more feminine than one of these balloon jib outfits which is a cross between a potato sack and a side-show tent.

At Last, A Good Week

Up to now I've believed that one thing this country could do without is any more of these pestiferous National Weeks. But at last one has come up which is all right. In fact, I'm in favor of abolishing all the rest and observing this one for 52 weeks.

It's called "Be Kind to Taxpayers Week". Started by a small merchant in Oklahoma City, the idea is to quit running to Washington or the state capital for handouts, quit all non-essential spending.

Folks don't realize it but we'd all be better off if we paid our own bills instead of trying to stick the other guy by having Washington collect our taxes. That way both we and the other guy get stuck and the only ones to profit are another million public bureaucrats.

Mayor Proclaims May 29 As Memorial Poppy Day for Charlevoix

Whereas, citizens of the City of Charlevoix served gallantly in the defense of the United States of America in two world wars and many sacrificed their lives in that service, and

Whereas, the memory of those who so died will always be held in highest honor in this city, and will always be a source of patriotic inspiration for us all, and

Whereas, this memory is brightened each year and honor paid to the war dead by the wearing of the Memorial Poppy on the Saturday before Memorial Day, now

Therefore, I, Ray S. Hamilton, Mayor of the City of Charlevoix, do hereby proclaim Saturday, the twenty-ninth of May, to be Poppy Day in the City of Charlevoix and urge all citizens to observe the day by wearing the Memorial Poppy.

RAY S. HAMILTON, Mayor

Banquet Friday Starts Ellsworth Graduation Program

Ellsworth — Graduation activities for the senior class of Banks Township public school will start with the Junior-Senior banquet Friday night at Boyne City.

Baccalaureate services will be held Sunday night at the Christian Reformed church, with Rev. Wayne Lemmen, pastor of Atwood Reformed church, preaching the sermon.

Class night will be held Wednesday night of next week and commencement exercises on Thursday night, both at Community hall. John Vandenberg will give the valedictory address and the salutatory will be presented by Bernard Ruis and Ruth Ann Supernaw.

Powells Drive Their Taxi to Florida

If anyone's wondering why the maroon Charlevoix Taxi and Chuck Powell aren't around, it is because he and Mrs. Powell have driven to Miami, Fla.

Mrs. Martha Dubber, formerly of Bogota, Colombia, wanted to go there to see her daughter. Rather than go by train, she engaged the Powells to drive her down. They left last Thursday morning. She will remain at Miami.

What's Cookin' . . .

To the Town's Taste

In nearly everyone's home there is at least one old blue and white dish, perhaps an old bowl or platter from grandmother's collection. This pattern so well known to all, is the old "blue willow ware" one, a Chinese scene—a mandarin's house, Chinese characters, a bridge, an island, two love birds.

Thinking you might like the story to tell as you sit around the table or washing that particular dish, I am passing it on to you:

"Kwen-Lin, winsome daughter of a wealthy mandarin, loved Chang, her father's servant. When this attachment was discovered the stern parent forbade the marriage and imprisoned the maiden in the little house shown at the left on the plate. From her window Kwen-Lin looked out upon the lake and the willows. She wrote despairing poems telling how she longed to be free to see the peach trees bloom once again. Chang, her lover, smuggled comfort to her in messages enclosed in the shells of cocoanuts which were sent to her as a delicacy. One day, Kwen-Lin committed to the lake a shell with a tiny sail, a sail of ivory upon which was written—"Do not wise farmers gather the fruit that they fear may be stolen?" Chang wandering disconsolated along the shore, saw the shell dancing gaily on the water. He reached in, picked it up and read the message. The meaning was plain. If Chang wanted his bride he must take her and this he did. Using a disguise he entered the pavilion where the fair one was kept, and gathering jewels and other consolations, the two fled hastily across the bridge. They had no sooner started than the old mandarin was after them with a whip in his hand. If you will look closely at your dish you will see Kwen-Lin with a distaff, Chiang with the jewel box and the mandarin with the whip in his hand.

The lovers were young and nimble and were soon out of reach of the old mandarin and aboard the boat which is pictured in the lake in middle distance. They found refuge in the pagoda-like house on the further shore and there they remained in peace and happiness until, one day, the old mandarin who had long since been searching for the lovers discovered their retreat.

The plate further illustrates what happened for you will observe, just above the willows, two doves in flight. They represent the spirits of the two lovers, continuing in another form, the endearments which human jealousy had interrupted.

The other afternoon Margery Livingston and I had a delightful afternoon in my kitchen poring over the many-many recipes that I have collected in our wanderings and used over and over. As you may have guessed recipe collecting is one of my hobbies.

It's getting picnic time again and the recipes I am going to give you are from some of the wonderful cooks I have known. They are grand for picnic occasions.

Caremel Ice Cream

1½ cups brown sugar
1½ cups water
1 tablespoon flour
⅛ teaspoon salt
1 egg
4½ cups evaporated milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Melt 1 cup of the sugar in a skillet until syrupy and golden brown in color. Add the water slowly while stirring and cook until the caramel dissolves. Mix the flour, the other ½ cup sugar and salt in the top of a double boiler and add the hot caramel syrup gradually, stirring constantly. Cook over boiling water 15 minutes, stirring occasionally. Then pour this mixture over the eggs, well beaten, stirring vigorously. Cook over boiling water 2 minutes longer. Cool. Add the milk, vanilla, and if desired ½ cup nut meats and freeze in a freezer. This makes 2 quarts. (I use Carnation milk, and if you have never used condensed milk for ice cream you will be pleasantly surprised for it makes a velvety texture).

This recipe is by far my favorite for a meat dish on a picnic:

Pressed Meat Loaf

1 pound pork
1 pound veal
Salt, pepper
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce.

Cook together until well done, having 2 cups stock remain. Dilute stock with water to make the required amount if necessary. Let cool.

Grind or pick apart the meat with a fork. Then add 1 cup of ground dry bread crumbs. Wet with the 2 cups of stock. Also add a small can of pimentos which have been chopped fine. Place meat in a mold and let set for 24 hours before using.

Molasses Orange Squares

¼ cup shortening
1 tablespoon grated orange peel
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
½ cup sugar
½ cup molasses
2 well beaten eggs
1¾ cups flour
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ cup milk

Thoroughly cream shortening, orange peel, vanilla and sugar, add molasses and beat well. Add eggs, beat thoroughly. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk. Beat smooth. Pour into greased 8x12 inch cake pan. Sprinkle with orange sugar—(¼ cup sugar and 1 tablespoon grated orange peel). Bake in a moderate oven 350 degrees for 45 minutes.

Pineapple Cookies

½ cup shortening
1 cup brown sugar
1 egg
2 cups sifted all purpose flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon soda
½ cup drained pineapple
½ cup chopped nut meats.

Rub shortening and sugar together until soft and creamy. Beat in egg. Sift dry ingredients into creamed mixture. Add pineapple and nut meats. Stir and beat to make a fairly stiff batter. Drop by teaspoonfuls unto lightly greased baking sheet. Bake in a moderate oven for 10 minutes or until done. Remove from sheet and cool on rack. Make about 5 dozen cookies.

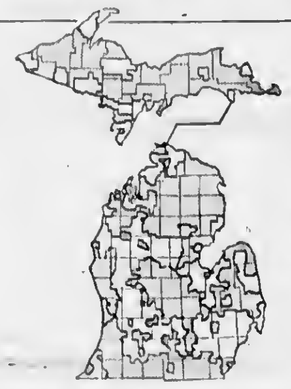
Rural Tele-news



FITS TOGETHER: Did you know that, in addition to Michigan Bell, there are 160 "Independent" telephone companies in Michigan? Their territory is shown in grey on the adjoining map. Thousands of rural folks are served by these companies whose lines connect with Michigan Bell (area in white) for long distance service. Both the "Independents" and Michigan Bell have as their goal more and better rural telephone service.

LINE TIED UP: When a telephone on a party line is left off the hook—or even tilted off, like this one—the line is tied up for everyone. You can't receive calls and no one else on the line can make or receive them! Please hang up carefully—for your neighbors' sake . . . and yours.

SIZE MEANS SERVICE: Michigan Bell's telephone plant is big—but it must grow bigger to supply everyone with the kind of telephone service he wants. Expansion increases the value of your telephone because it provides more telephones that you can call . . . lets you do more time- and money-saving telephone errands.

Proclamation

May 11, 1948

WHEREAS: The sale of Buddy Poppies by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States is authorized by an act of Congress, and endorsed by the President;

AND WHEREAS: the funds collected are used exclusively to give immediate aid to our deserving war veterans, and to the orphans and widows of our deceased veterans;

AND WHEREAS: I firmly believe that in no more fitting manner could we pay tribute to those valiant men who died that our nation might live;

I, Ray S. Hamilton, Mayor of the City of Charlevoix, do hereby authorize Charlevoix Post No. 1153 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, aided by its Ladies Auxiliaries, to offer for a patriotic contributon on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 27th, 28th and 29th, the Buddy Poppies made by our disabled veterans.

I earnestly urge that each and every one of our citizens take advantage of the opportunity to contribute generously to the V. F. W. Buddy Poppy Sale, and by so doing, "to honor the dead by helping the living".

(Signed) RAY S. HAMILTON,
Mayor of the City of Charlevoix

News of folks, your neighbors and mine . . . but did you know that—

Was Gertrude Dick ever the surprised woman last Friday when she discovered that she was the "Lucky Lady" and was given the door prize by Miss Floy Edson on the opening day of her Book Shop on Mason Street. "It's the first time in my life I ever got anything of this kind," she said beamingly as she was given a box of stationery . . . Mr. and Mrs. Elwood VanAntwerp and son of Suttons Bay were Sunday guests of Dr. and Mrs. Earl Faber.

"I had the best time," was the comment this week by many who attended the J-Hop Saturday night at th high school gymnasium. The Junior class can rightfully take a big bow for their successful party . . . Mrs. Barney Englehart is now resting easy following a major operation last Friday at the Charlevoix hospital. It makes three times in two years that Mrs. Englehart has occupied the same room and the same bed. She feels that she practically owns the bed by this time.

After feeling so good all winter, and thoroughly enjoying herself at a party tha other night, Nettia Huggard had tha misfortune to fall and break a shoulder bone. Our sympathy, Mrs. Huggard . . . Bob Wexstaff and Leo Berg were graduated from the Dale Carnegia coursa at Traversa City Monday, which class has been taught by Bill Wood. Speaking of Rav. Wood, whila in New York last year he had to giva a two minuta speech befora Dale Carnegie on "Worry." He used as his topic, "I Learned to Stop Worrying by Watching My Wife Wash Dishes." The speech clicked and is in Dale Carnegie's new book "Stop Worrying and Start Living," which is just off the press this month.

Two car loads of Charlevoix folks drove to Traverse City Sunday afternoon to attend the Blessing of the Blossoms ceremony held on Old Mission peninsula. That stretch of land is truly beautiful right now and it was an impressive service held in one of the big orchards in full bloom. Surely the motto of our State, "If you seek a beautiful peninsula, look about you," is never more truthful than at this time of year. Northern Michigan looks like a garden right now.

Weren't you mighty proud of our Charlevoix band last week as it played host to eight other bands in this section? Those who attended the massed concert in the evening felt mora than repaid many times. It was an inspiration to see 300 boys and girls playing under the dirction of Kenneth Bovee of Oxford . . . Thero is a "must" articla in this month's Kiwanis magazine on "Music Makes Better Neighbors." It tells how music makes for a fine communily spirit, is a healthful outlet for youthful expression, and the part it plays in cutting down juvenile delinquency.

The teachers of tha Charlevoix schools had their last big social roundup of the year Tuesday evening with a cooperative dinner at tha club house at Camp Charlevoix . . . Mrs. Minnie Wood arrived home last week alter undergoing surgery at tha Charlevoix hospital. It seemed mighty good to realiza that it was homa again and tha operation was over . . .

It will soon be time for final exams at school. Over at Suttons Bay one of the girls went to the J-Hop and came down with a serious case of measles the next morning, exposing the Senior class. The seniors will be due to come down with the measley things just at the time of their trip. Hope nothing like that happened in Charlevoix Saturday night.

BABY TALK

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Oldham of Petoskey announce the birth of a son, Harry Lester, Jr., at the Little Traverse Hospital on May 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Papineau of Dearborn are the parents nf a son born on May 13.

Births registered at the Charlevoix Hospital recently include:

A daughter, Floy Edna, born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Walden of East Jordan on May 12.

A daughter, Claudia Lorene, born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. King of Ironton on May 13.

Cottens Attend Daughter's Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Cotten, who wintered in Arizona and California, reached Flint in time last week to attend an open house for their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Charlton.

It was held at the home of Mrs. Carl Brown, Mrs. Charlton's sister. Before her marriage to Mr. Charlton of Birmingham, Ala. Thanksgiving Day she was Miss Amy Lapham. The event, attended by 60 guests, was given by Mrs. Brown because the Charltons were moving to Birmingham.

Mr. Charlton has been a student at General Motors Tech in Flint. Mrs. Charlton was graduated from Charlevoix high school in 1945, and afterwards was a Bell Telephone supervisor at Royal Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. Cotten are expected at their home, 1024 May street, this week.

Children's Day Program Is Sunday

The children of the Congregational Sunday School will hold their annual Children's Day program, Sunday, May 23 at 11 o'clock in the auditorium.

Besides the promotion exercises different members of the class will depict living scenes from the Lord's Prayer. The background for the tableau will be a copy of Plockhurst's "Good Shepherd," a painting which Mrs. Clair Webster and Mrs. Angus Fochtman are giving to the Primary Sunday School in memory of their mother, Mrs. E. E. Cross, a faithful worker in the Sunday School for more than 15 years.

Charlevoix Chapter In Meguzee Work

The annual convention of the Northern Michigan Meguzee Association is being held at Harbor Springs on Wednesday and Thursday.

Officers of the Charlevoix chapter of the Eastern Star have been asked to participate in the program and present the Meguzee officers at the meeting.

Charlevoix officers who will take part are Mrs. Laverne Heise, Mrs. Ronald Abfalter, Mrs. Floyd Ikens, Mrs. S. O. Sorenson, Mrs. Lawrence Korth, Mrs James Hiller, Mrs. Harold Bedford, Mrs. Harry Ladd, Mrs. Harry Walstad, Mrs. S. E. Coleman, Mrs. Wayne Belding and Mrs. Charles Bellinger. Mrs. Clair S. Webster is Meguzee pianist and Mrs. Ikens has been asked to participate in the initatory work at the evening meeting on Wednesday.

Community Chest for County Proposed

First steps toward the formation of a County Community Chest were taken Friday night when nine representatives met at the Parkside here.

Called by Gordon Frreedman, a member of the State committee, the delegates talked over the need, and decided to work first on informing the public of the situation and then work towards a county set-up.

The objects would be the same as with the city Community Chest: have one drive, assure fairer division between various causes of the funds raised, and where advisable, keep more of the money at home for local needs.

The nine represented the rural area and all three cities in the county.

Attend Dental Meating

Drs. Gerald Gibbons and Fred W. Young Monday attended the Resort District Dental Society meeting at Petoskey.

Clara Cummings Will Recveive Cap

Clara Louise Cummings, daughter of Mrs. Glenn Cummings, will graduate from the Highland Park General Hospital at the 26th Commencement of the School of Nursing, May 26.

Miss Cummings, whn graduated from the Charlevoix high school in 1944, has completed three years as a cadet nurse at the Highland Park hospital and will take her state board examination in June.

Ironton Club Will Present Musical

The 8th annual music festival of the Ironton Concerners Club will be next Wednesday at 8 p.m.

The free will offering will be for the Hospital Fund. A lunch will be served afterward.

Musical talent will be from Charlevoix, Boyne City and East Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rose and Elmer Barber spent the week-end at their hunting camp near Ralph in the Upper Peninsula.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gaba and son, Francis, returned to Farmington Monday after spending the week-end with Mrs. Gaba's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Partridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlin Cunningham had as their guests for several days this week the former's sister-in-law, Mrs D. L. DeFrain and daughter, Donna, of East Tawas and Forester.

Rites Held Here For Mrs. Higbie

Funeral services for Mrs. Elfie Higbie, 86, who died at the home of her niece, Mrs. H. L. Francisco, on May 4, were held at the See Funeral Home on May 6 with Rev. A. B. Claypoole officiating. Graveside services and burial were held at Manton.

Born in Eaton County, the former Elfie Mascho had lived in southern Michigan before coming to Manton where she made her home for 50 years before coming to Charlevoix. She was prominent in Eastern Star circles and had been a life member of the Manton chapter. During World I she was chairman of the Red Cross at Manton. She had been an invalid for the last seven years.

Kiwanians See Florida Pictures

Pictures and a description of St. Petersburg, Fla., were given by Fred Bancroft Monday at the Kiwanis meeting at Shady Corner.

He said St. Pete is the city of rheumatism, religioo and romance and told stories to illustrate each.

Gordon Freedman nutlined the plans for a County Community Chest.

Work Being Pushed On US-31 Underpass

Work on the underpass will be speeded up by the arrival of additional scrapers and tractors, says Clayton Montroy, foreman in charge for Claude M. Loomis of Grand Rapids, the contractor. There are four parts to the underpass job.

One is building a temporary detour for traffic, which is now being done. Next will be putting in a 1700 foot siding grade for the Pere Marquette, over which its trains can run while the underpass is being built. Third is excavating for the underpass itself. Fourth is the actual construction of the road and rail crossing. A final job, of course, will be moving the railroad back and putting in the rest of the highway.

Sam Hamilton Wins High Scout Honor

Nick and Sam Hamilton spent the week-end at Camp Grelick, where they attended the Order of the Arrow of the Boy Scouts.

Sam was a candidate for the Order and wos initiated. Nick has belonged to the Order for three years. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hamilton.

The Order of the Arrow is a National Honorary Camping Society that has branches in most Boy Scout camps. Scouts must be First Class in rank and have at least 7 days camping experience.

The Indian Drum lodge of the Scenic Trails Council has about 80 active members. It is one of the highest camping honors possible for a Scout to be elected to membership.

• Mrs. Robert Kloor and young son, returned to Detroit Sunday after spending two weeks with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Steve Shockey of the Shetterly building.

Kroger

$80 WORTH OF MERCHANDISE = ONE NET PROFIT

How to Make a Dollar

Did you know that Kroger has to sell $80 worth of merchandise in order to make a net income of $1? That's the way our low-profit margin figures out—we use $79 out of the $80 to buy our merchandise, get it into your hands, and meet general business expenses. That's why Kroger prices are always close to cost.

IT HAPPENED ON ....
BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

With visitors arriving for pereh fishing and graduates being feted, he Island has had a busy week.

If it had been ordered, the veather could not have been nicer. Warm, spring days prevailed until Saturday and then he rain came, which gladdened ne hearts of the farmers.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nackerman are the new owners of the ost Office building. This real tate transaction was closed uesday. Mr. Nackerman has en the village postmaster for e past nine years. The former owners of the building were Mrs. Steve Dubell, Charlevoix, and her brother, Carlton Boyle, Los Angeles.

Art Taft and crew are building an attractive log cabin near Lake Genesareth for Ralph Rutt of Hammond, Ind.

Buster Elms has returned to the Island and has reopened the Shillelagh for the tourist season.

Joan Spalding arrived Thursday to recuperate from her recent operation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spalding.

Mrs. Francis Gillespie, who went to Charlevoix for the First Communion of her granddaughter returned Friday via McPhillip's station wagon.

The Tramp came to the Island Thursday to begin hauling lumber.

Roger Carlisle, Indianapolis, is back on the Island for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Corneth and daughter, Judy of Roscommon, recently visited the Island on business and pleasure. Mr. Corneth is supervisor of communications for the Conservation Department.

Conservation pilot Beachman and Gordon Warren, radio engineer of Roscmmon, visited the Island to install the conservation radio.

Game area manager L. A. Davenport, Lansing, and Ott Failing, Gaylord, visited the Island to check on Sharptail Grouse, deer food, and other problems.

Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Martzawka and children, Ann, Charlotte and Paul, Roscommon, came to the Island for a few days of perch fishing. They were guests at the King Strang Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cuddingtnn, Grand Rapids, were the weekend guests of Mr. nnd Mrs. Lloyd McDonough.

The monthly meeting of the Third Order of St. Francis was held Sunday afternoon at Holy Cross church.

Mr. and Mrs. Vesti McDonough are back home after spending the winter months in the village. The Vesti's home, which is located on Sand Bay, has an unusual source of water supply.

About forty years ago, a well digging crew seeking water to serve the McDonoughs, struck water beneath a bed of rock. When the rock was penetrated, the water spouted in geyser fashion from the vein. With so much natural pressure, it was unneessary to install a pump. A pipe was sunk and brought up in the home, and ever since ,there has been a steady stream of ice cold spring water supplying the McDonough family.

Antrim Is TB Free

Tuberculin testing of cattle in three Michigan Counties — Antrim, Branch and Jackson, has recently been completed so that these counties have again been designated as modified tuberculosis-free accredited areas.

Alumnus Is Guest Speaker At Island

On Thursday Father Victor Gallagher was guest speaker at a formal banquet, given to honor the Seniors of '48 of Saint James high school.

Father Gallagher is at Saint Francis Xavier Parish in Grand Rapids. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Gallagher of Beaver Island, and an alumnus of Saint James high school with the class of '36.

"You cannot dare not to be different," was the theme of his talk addressed to the seniors and all present. Father Gallagher stressed the fact that if these graduates cannot in the future be singled out because they act differently from those around them due to their type of training, then they will be traitors to the ideals set before them and the singular benefits bestowed upon them.

Other guests included: Norbert Gallagher of Muskegon, the members of the local school board and their wives, and the parents of the graduates.

The upper classes presented a program consisting of the usual toasts and class day numbers. Charlotte McDonough, Junior class president acted as toastmistress and Madonna McDonough, senior class president, gave the farewell.

The banquet was followed by the prom. The stage was arranged to illustrate the senior class motto. Streamers and balloons of blue and gold draped the full length of the hall.

Church District Turns Down Merger

The Cheboygan Association of the Congregational church voted against the merger of their church and the Evangelicial-Reformed church hy a 28-18 vote at the regular conference held at Roscommon on Thursday.

Among the new officers were Mrs. Jeff Novotny who was named to the Social Action committee and Mrs. Earl A. Young who was named to the publicity committee.

Those who attended from Charlevoix were Rev. Jackson Turner, Mrs. Allen Campbell, Capt. Hubert Paddock, Mrs. W. H. Miller and Mrs. Charles Bleha.

NOTICE

St. James Township will have its Clean-Up Day

Tuesday, May 25

Starting at 8 a. m., two men with a truck will cover all the township roads, picking up rubbish put by the roadside in strong boxes, barrels or other containers.

Township Clerk.

Charlevoix On Display At Grand Rapids

One of Charlevoix's window displays consisting of enlarged and colored pictures of city scenes is on display at the Grand Rapids Auto Club.

It was sent there by the Board of Commerce and will be exhibited for two weeks.

Work on the new public toilets at the Board of Commerce building has been held up because pipe and fixtures ordered in the winter have not yet arrived.

Farmers' Grass Day Is Set for June 25

How to make best use of the high quality legumes and grasses will de demonstrated to the farmers of this section June 25 at the Alfred Campan farm, five miles southwest of Traverse City on Secor Road.

The all day program, sponsored by the MSC Extension Service, will demonstrate the latest seeding, harvesting, hay handling and utilization methods.

Art Dry Cleaners are now using Perm-Aseptic, germ and mildew resisting process advertised nationally in LIFE.

NEW KIND OF HEARING AID

Transmits
2 TO 6 TIMES MORE SOUND INTENSITY

Look again at the picture! Here is a hearing aid complete in one unit so small it fits the tiny watch pocket of a man's trousers! A new Beltone record!

Made possible by a new kind of "silver circuit," combining 45 parts and connections into one moistureproof, trouble-free unit.

Yet, the receiver transmits 2 to 6 times more sound intensity than any of 12 other hearing aids tested. Twice as much as even the former Beltone model! This is far more sound intensity than you probably need—or even can stand!

But note this: it means almost unbelievable clarity with the power turned way down. This means glorious hearing comfort. And cuts operation cost to a new low—less than a penny an hour.

Council Hears How Sturgeon Bay Handles Garbage Disposal Problem With Land Fill

The story of what another city does to dispose of garbage and rubbish was told to the City Council by a report from Robert Coleman, district sanitarian.

The city is Sturgeon Bay, faced with a similar climate. Coleman went there in April, saw first hand how the system operates, brought back that information and pictures, which he placed before the Council.

Sturgeon Bay uses the sanitary land fill system, by which garbage and rubbish is packed into a previously dug trench and covered with a tight layer of dirt. Rat and disease danger, litter and odor are thus eliminated.

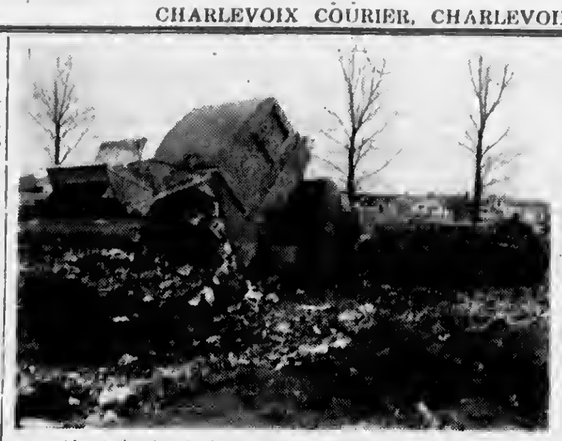
Before 1944 Sturgeon Bay had open dump grounds. The citizens did not like them. The Council was asked to do something. An attempt was made to get a private contractor to do the job but none would attempt it and meet the sanitary requirements.

Finally the city started the present municipal system, buying a caterpillar tractor with a combination bulldozer and clam bucket, and truck equipped with a special body similar to that now used by Edward Harwood.

Four men operate the system, three on the truck and one on the tractor. They give weekly collection service in the city of 6700, with three times weekly in the business section. The annual operating budget is $14,250, which does not include a sinking fund.

Sturgeon Bay meets the winter freeze by digging enough trench in the fall to hold the winter collection. Ashes and some dirt suffice to give this a thin covering until spring when the necessary two feet of dirt are piled up and packed. In this way rats are kept down.

The city has found it can realize a small but unexpected profit from the operation. The land is levelled and left in smooth condition, and the city can sell it for more than it cost originally.



Above is the garbage hauling truck and the caterpillar tractor used by Sturgeon Bay Wis., for its municipal collection system.

Go ahead spend some of it. But, if you spend all of it for little things you won't have money for bigger things you'll want later. Smart youngsters know that banking part of every dollar is the sure way to get that bike, radio set, record-player, or other object of their desire. Open an account here and try it.

Let 'Em Live, Says State Law

There is a Michigan Law that protects native plants.

This is the season when we start out on a day's trip to the wide open spaces, spy clumps of interesting vegetation or blooms and are tempted to stop and dig or pick, and transport them to our homes.

With this thought in mind, it is a wise thing to review our Michigan law relative to such procedure, which directs that:

"No person shall cut, remove, or transport within this state, for any purpose, Christmas trees, evergreen boughs or other wild trees, shrubs, or vines, or offer for sale the following named native plants: trailing arbutus, bird's foot violet, climbing bittersweet, club mosses, flowering dogwood, all Michigan holly, North American lotus, pipsissewa, and all native orchids, trilliums, and gentians, without the written consent of the owner of the land on which the same is grown whether publicly or privately owned."

This written consent of the owner must be produced upon request by any officer of the law or by an officer of the Departments of Conservation or Agriculture. The officer is empowered to inspect greens in transportation and unless proper credentials are produced, the material will be confiscated and a penalty imposed.

So, as a wise precaution, leave the wild flowers where they are and just bring home the memory.

Take Your Choice, Neighbor!

The missus—who writes our Woman's Column in the Clarion under the name of "Nancy Gale"—gets letters about recipes, advice on etiquette, home management, etc.

One letter she got last week was about a recipe she published for Welsh Rarebit—made with tart cheese, Worcestershire, and a cup of sparkling tangy beer. "Turned out great," says her correspondent. "But you didn't mention what beverage to serve with it. Should I serve beer? Cider? Iced tea?"

The missus' answer was simply: "Any beverage your guests pref You don't have to serve cider—a more than you have to serve h ... but it's often courteous to guests have a choice."

From where I sit, that sim answer applies to more items t Welsh Rarebit. In a world wh everyone has different tastes ideas—we should recognize t differences—and never deny right of choice to anyone!

...OF THE PEOPLE ...BY THE PEOPLE ...FOR THE PEOPLE

FROM THE PATTERN OF DEMOCRACY

The strength of democracy lies in the voluntary group action it sets in motion to solve social and community problems. Let a need arise and democratic principles voluntarily applied are sure to find a superior answer. This is again emphasized by an all 'round cooperative action which solved a real challenge to the people of Michigan:

THE COST OF HOSPITAL AND SURGICAL CARE

Hospital costs are usually unexpected. In many instances the average man's budget does not provide for this additional emergency expense and meeting these bills is often beyond his ability to pay. It means, at the least, a serious drain on the family resources and perhaps even creates a burden of debt from which the family may never recover. To correct this condition here in Michigan—Michigan's hospitals and Michigan's medical profession set in motion the principles of voluntary democratic action—they organized Blue Cross.

BLUE CROSS— A NON-PROFIT PUBLIC SERVICE

Blue Cross is a non-profit plan of cooperation between doctors of medicine, hospitals, and the public to make good hospital and medical-surgical care available to everyone without financial strain upon anyone. A small monthly sum paid by members of the plan assures them of the care they need when they need it without worry about the expense.

This action on the part of Michigan hospitals and Michigan's medical profession was met with equal cooperation by the public. Today over 1,200,000 people of Michigan have solved the problem of paying for hospital and surgical care by adopting Blue Cross. It is efficient it is fully protective and economical. It answers the need fulfills every protective purpose.

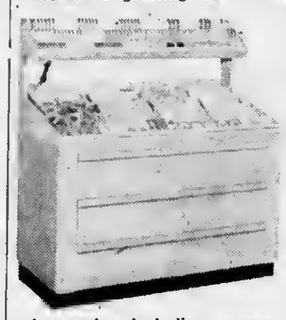
Expansion of Freedman Company Is Held Back By Lack of Housing for Key Men

but they cannot be brought here unless they can find a place to live. And housing on a year around basis is something which Charlevoix does not have now.

"Is this something for the future, or do you mean you could hire more men now," I asked him.

"I'm talking about right now. I've got two key men I'd like to bring here. They'll come the day I can find a house for them and their families. Getting them here would mean hiring more local men as fast as they can be trained. Before long those two new men would mean we would have 20 more employees here. That in itself would be equivalent to another new small factory. But we can't hire them until I can find houses."

Meanwhile the factory continues to produce its regular lines. There are now nine models of greeting card display racks, including a new trial design for the largest producer of cards.



The new typewriter and office desks are proving popular as are the vacuum cleaner display stands. Production on the Listening Posts produced for Sears is about finished.

The Freedman plant has had an unusual production record since it started here. The size of its operations have not commonly been grasped because for more than a year it was housed in several buildings while its new plant was under construction.

Now employing 30 full time men, its total payroll since June, 1946 has been $138,815.81. Besides this, $43,584.02 was paid out for labor on the new building, a total of $182,399.83.

W.C.T.U. Inducts New Members at Annual Breakfast

The annual W. C. T. U. May breakfast honoring new members was held at the Methodist church Friday morning with Rev. and Mrs. Gaylord Howell and son, Bobby, acting as hosts to the group.

Spring flowers and red, white and blue tapers decorated the table.

Rev. R. B. Warner spoke on the topic "Eyes that see not" and Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Wood sang a duet "He Comes to Me".

Mrs. May Smith pinned a white ribbon and white narcissus on each new member while Mrs. Gladys Funk told how to become a member of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. The requirements are: to pay annual dues and to keep the pledge, not to drink any alcoholic drinks; to wear the white ribbon as a symbol of purity and loyalty to humanity and God.

At the business meeting leaflets were purchased for school students; the summer bake sale planned and three members appointed to attend the civic-ministerial meeting at the city hall on May 18.

The committee in charge of the breakfast was Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Funk, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Lena Swanson, Mrs. Thomas Milner, Mrs. Gertrude Dick and Mrs. Floyd Bartholomew.

Bureau Favors Control On Crops

Controlled production for farm products was favored by the Ironton Farm Bureau following a discussion at its May 12 meeting at the Albert Carlson home.

Mr. Carlson led the discussion on the topic of controlled or uncontrolled production. The 19 members and one guest favored the former.

Chairman Arlo Wickersham spoke on sales tax exemptions on some articles bought by farmers.

The next meeting will be June 9 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Neilson.

Rambler, Out of Fuel, Is Towed In

The Rambler, carrying a boat load of lumber from Beaver Island, ran out of fuel oil about a mile from the Charlevoix breakwater Monday evening.

Coast Guards, as well as townspeople, noted the boat in distress. The Coast Guard brought the boat into port.

City Petition for Phone Service Now At Lansing

Charlevoix's petition, approved by the City Council at its last meeting, for inclusion in the Michigan Bell's extended area service is now before the Michigan Public Service Commission.

The Council reversed its earlier objection to the proposal for free service between Charlevoix County cities and Petoskey when it was learned the other places all were included.

The Commission meets June 3. At that time it can approve or reject the request. If rejected, Charlevoix cannot call Boyne or East Jordan or Petoskey at no added cost. If the Commission approves, it will ask the Bell company to accept the change.

The Council asked that Walloon Lake be put on the free-call list for Charlevoix.

The Tow Line

News of folks, your neighbors and mine . . . but did you know that—

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Emrey and two sons of Glendale, Calif. former Charlevoix residents, spent the week-end here visiting relatives and friends . . . Aren't pre-mosquito and pre-fly days wonderful? . . . Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Olmstead of Glendale, Calif., arrived Tuesday to spend a week with his mother, Mrs. Frances Olmstead.

Winter storm doors and windows are coming down from the cottages about town and folks are beginning to arrive. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. King are the only folks, as yet, at the Chicago Club, but "we always come the earliest and stay the latest", said Mr. King. Some of the private homes are opening. Out at Boulder Park the Shryock sisters from St. Louis are here, as are the Zimmermans from Chicago, the Williams and Daisy Harsha. Mr. Harsha is still in Detroit, having undergone an operation for cataracts. . . . On the Belvedere the following folks are here: Mrs. Elizabeth S. Tate from Cincinnati, Mrs. L. S. Bisbee from Jackson, the Walter Wares from Oak Park, Clarence S. Rowe of Lansing, James f. Dissette and daughter, Eunice of Indianapolis, Mrs. Don Osborn of Kalamazoo, Mrs. Helen Green of Detroit. L. I. Replogle of Oak Park is expected the last of the week.

It was an inspiring sight Sunday morning at the Congregational church to see the class of youngsters in their gray caps and gowns going through their "graduation exercises." Instead of diplomas, they were given something better, a Bible. One of the youngsters in the class was DeeAnn Geneit. The day brought memories to her Daddy, for it was just 25 years ago that he, too, was in the graduating class and received his Bible . . .

The Seniors are pretty much in the "pimply goose" stage at present with the thought of their Senior trip ahead, a boat trip to Niagara Falls and back. In the meantime there are a few things like exams, Baccalaureate, and graduation to think about . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Levinson and young daughter went to Bellaire Sunday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Don Sitch. Mr. Sitch was a former army friend, has purchased the golf course at Bellaire and will be running it. Mrs. F. S. Myers returned Sunday from Lansing and Detroit after spending the past three weeks with her daughters . . . It's a girl, and its mother and daddy are the Ed Radles of White Fish Bay, Wis. She was born May 16 and has been named Susan Kathryn Radle. Needless to say grandmamma and grandpappa Miller are beaming! . . .

What a time to break an arm! That is Pete Scott's predicament at present. And a building is in the making out on the highway. Am sure if Pete can't be hammering away, he will make an excellent straw boss . . . Many folks in Charlevoix knew Proc Wright, the tennis pro at the Belvedere, for he has been coming here for the past ten years. Just a few days ago Ed Edwards talked with him long distance and he told Ed he had undergone a serious operation. Then suddenly word came that Proc had passed on . . . Robert Daugherty has sold his 120 acre farm, one mile south of

City Tax Rate To Be Increased To 20½ Mills

Faced with the choice between deficit financing and a higher municipal tax rate, the City Council Monday night informally approved a total municipal levy of 20½ mills for the coming year.

The move was made reluctantly, and assent was finally given only after several emphasized the point this was a temporary move for one or at the most for two years.

The present rate is 15 mills. Next year it will be 12½ mills for the genral fund, 2 mills for street, and 6 mills for interest and sinking fund, a total of 20½.

The aldermen pointed out how several factors have combined to put the city in a tough spot all at once. Charlevoix is putting in a $148,000 power plant but could bond only for $107,000. The rest has to be dug up from current revenues.

In the past, instead of building up a fund for such purposes, the utility revenue went to support other city work, such as streets. Now all the revenue must stay in the electric fund—and taxes must pay for streets, cemetery and other work.

"We'll be over the hump in two years, and then we can put the rate back," was the consensus expressed.

The Council will meet again Thursday night to take final action on the tax rate and to approve the budget for 1948-49. Among the items on this $85,000 listing of income and outgo, will be $25,000 for streets, $6300 for the cemetery and $4700 for advertising the community.

One possible way to keep the rate the same was positively turned down. That was a general increase of valuation. If that were done, Charlevoix, which now pays one-third of county operating costs, would be paying nearly one-half.

City Will Have Three Guards At Beaches This Year

Although only $365.32 has been turned over to Life Guard Fund so far, the steering committee Tuesday night decided to go ahead with the program as originally planned.

Three beach guards will be hired for the nine weeks of the season, one each for the Lake Michigan, the depot and the Ferry avenue beaches. One probably will be a woman.

The committee also voted not to use any house-to-house canvass but to depend on other methods of money raising to obtain the needed $900. Of this, $810 will be needed for wages. The balance will be used for first aid kits, elevated seats and other needed equipment.

Powells Back from Trip to Florida

Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Powell returned to Charlevoix Tuesday night after their trip to Miami.

They and their Charlevoix Taxi took Mrs. Martha Dubber there. Chuck reports that everything went smoothly with no trouble on the way. On the trip north they came by Columbia, S. C., where they picked up his sister, Mrs. Ruby Powell Jacobs, who is here for a visit.

Student Pastor To Serve Church This Summer

Mr. Maasen, a student minlater from the Western Theological Seminary at Holland, will fill the pulpit at the Barnard Reformed church this summer. He arrived Saturday for the summer months.

Mr Maason, who will be a senior at the Seminary this fall, is a native of Iowa. His wife, who is a music director at a Holland church will join him here late in June.

The church has been without a full time minister since last winter when Rev. Ellsworth Dykstra accepted a pasturate in Iowa.

Misgraded Potatoes Bring $55 Fines

Mislabeling a load of Michigan potatoes cost Leo Burnett of Bay Shore $55 last Tuesday.

Hauling a load from here, he was stopped at Clare by Department of Agriculture men, who found that potatoes marked No. 1 were not up to grade. The potatoes were returned to Charlevoix for reconditioning and Burnett to plead guilty before Justice Horace Fowler and pay the fine.

Such action, explained Jake Klooster of the Bureau of Standards, is part of the general campaign to sell the public on the dependable quality of Michigan potatoes.

Kids Stage Noisy Coon Hunt In Town, Coon Escapes

Charlevoix kids had a lull fledged coon hunt Saturday—right in town.

That evening a bunch of them on Park Avenua spied a whopping old coon up a beech tree. The rallying cry sounded, bows and arrows appeared, and few of the more daring coon slayers shinnied up the tree. So did the coon, right into tha top.

The coon was in less danger than the audience until an air rifle appearad. At that point Carl Kohler intervened—and the hunt was off. Sometime during the night the coon left for quieter quarters.

House of Jewels Plans Open House

The House of Jewels will open a branch this summer at Mackinac Island, to be known by the same name.

The House of Jewels here is having an open house next Monday through Saturday with a free gift offer during the week.

Auxiliary Members Will Sell Memorial Poppies Here Three Days This Week

In Flanders fields the poppies grow,
Between tha crosses, row on row—"

And this week-end crepe paper replicas of those first poppies will he sold by the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliaries to aid not only the families ot those lying under the white crosses in Flanders field but the men of two world wars who are still in many hospitals throughout the country.

Disabled veterans of both wars worked together in veterans hospitals and convalescent workshops during the winter and spring making the memorial poppies which the Auxiliaries of two great veterans organizations will distribute in Charlevoix on May 27-28-29, to be worn in honor of the war dead.

Poppy Day contributions will go to the rehabiliation and child welfare funds of the organizations to be used for the benefit of disabled war veterans and needy children of veterans.

City to Observe Memorial Day This Monday

Charlevoix will pay tribute to its war dead on Monday when the Leslie T. Shapton Post No. 226, the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 1153, their Auxiliaries and all other veterans together with the townspeople gather at the Brookside cemetery for Memorial Day program.

Norman D. Ance will give the Memorial Day address. He has chosen as his topic, "Commenoration."

The program will be preceded by the regular Memorial Day parade which will form at Park ave. at 9:30 a. m. and start the march on Bridge st. to the cemetery at 10:00 a. m.

Floyd Black will be marshall of the parade which will includee the colors and color guards; the firing squad; the veterans organizations and all other veterans; the Charlevoix high school band; the auxillaries of the veterans groups; the Boy Scouts and the Girl Scouts; other patriotic organizations; the school children in huses.

The parade will halt briefly at Memorial Park where the Auxiliaries will east a wreath of flowers on the waters of Round Lake in memory of the sailor dead. A prayer will be offered by Rev. A. B. Claypoole and taps will be sounded.

The parade will then continue to Brookside cemetery where the following program will be held:

Star Spangled Banner by the Charlevoix high school band under the direction of C. A. Odmark; Invocation, Rev. Gaylord Howell; Gettysburg Address, Margaret Roussin; Memorial address, "Commemoration," Norman D. Ance; Floral tribute; Salute; Taps; America, high school band; Benediction, Rev. W. D. Wood.

In case of inclement weather the program will be held in the high school gymnasium. Earlier in the week veterans organizations will place flags on the graves of all war veterans.

All places of business will be closed Monday.

Members of the American Legion, V. F. W., their Auxiliaries and other veterans will attend the 10 o'clock Mass at St. Mary's Catholic church Sunday in observance of Memorial Day. The group will meet at the Legion Hall at 9:45 and march to the church in a body.

Many Visit New Self Serve Laundry

Many Charlevoix citizens, and a number from Lansing including the president of the Chamber of Commerce there, visited the new Self-Serve Laundry Center Saturday and Sunday during the formal opening.

They inspected the 15 new washers, the two extractors and the four heated driers, admired the big change which has been made in the building, and complimented Mr. and Mrs. Fred England on the new business.

SPEB Will Meet, Sing June 3

June 3 at 8 p. m. will be the next session of the Charlevoix SPEBSQSA at the Nettleton basement.

Open to singers, listeners and those who want to take part in the Labor Day Jamboree and Afterglow, the Chapter will make plans for the summer song events next week.

Public Meeting June 16 to Decide on Farmers Voting on Soil Conservation Disnrict

Decision on whether Charlevoix County shall have a Soil Conservation District will be made June 16 at 8:30 p. m. at an open meeting in the Boyne City Library.

The date was set last Thursday when the Conservation District steering committee met with Russ Hill, secretary of the State Soil Conservation Service, and Guy Springer, Northern Michigan Supervisor.

The committee turned over to them petitions for the formation of a district which bore 291 signatures. On the basis of these, the men voted to call the open meeting at which time it will be decided whether or not to hold a election on the question.

At this election, every land occupier can vote on the question of a Conservation District.

The steering committee is composed of George Klooster, Leonard Babel, Clayton Healey, Peter Winnick, Harold Thomas, Claude Pearsall and Harry Bearringer.

Powell to Talk at Ellsworth Monday

Farmers in this area will have an opportunity to hear Stanley M. Powell next Monday when he speaks at the Ellsworth Community Hall at 8 p. m.

Powell is the legislative counsel for the Michigan Farm Bureau. He will discuss the farmers' interests in the state legislature.

Cherry Queen Girl To Be Picked at Palace Wednesday

Five Charlevoix girls will compete Wednesday for the honor of representing Charlevoix at the Traverse City Cherry Queen contest.

They are Donna Rose, Jean Englehart, Bonnie Barber, Dona Sternberg and Shirley Sauri.

Nominations were made last week by ballots dropped in the boxes at the two drug stores. The contest will be next Wednesday evening at the Palace Theatre between the shows. At that time the girls in turn will come on the stage. There will be three judges, one each from Ironton, East Jordan and Boyne City.

The winner will compete at Traverse City for the honor of being the 1048 Cherry Queen.

Barnard Bureau Favors No Controls

Barnard Farm Bureau Group met last Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Boss.

Nine members and several visitors were present. The topic of discussion was on controlled production. The group decided in the affirmative.

The meeting next month will be with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Potter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Skippergosh are the parents of a son, Lawrence Francis, born at the Charlevoix Hospital on May 21.

16 Tracksters to Go to State Meet Saturday After Winning Regional Title

The sixteen winners in Saturday's track meet at Cadillac will make up the team which Coach Coleman will take to East Lansing Saturday to represent Charlevoix in the State track and field meet at Michigan State campus.

The Charlevoix thinclads under Coach S. E. Coleman Saturday captured their ninth Class C Regional track and field championship at Cadillac, running up 59 points. Reed City was second with 51.

Bob Carey threw the shot 52 ft. 8 in. to break the Class C Regional record and to take a first place for the Rayders. Dale Radle, Harbor's crack miler, broke the track record by running the four laps in 4:42.6.

Charlevoix's points were scored by the following:

In the shot put, Bill Carey placed second to Bob; Dave Hardy came in third.

100 yard dash: Bob Carey, 5th; 120 yard high hurdles, Bill Carey, 2nd; Don Burke, 3rd and Dave Smith, 5th.

JCC Will Install New Officers

The first annual banquet of the Junior Chamber of Commerce will he Friday at 7 p. m. at the Bert Huston home on Michigan avenue.

Dr. John R. Broadfoot of Alpena, new state vice-president, will be the principal speaker. The new officers of the local chapter will be formally installed.

Invited to the affair are all JCC members and their wives, directors of the Boards of Commerce of Charlevoix, Boyne City and East Jordan.

City to Advertise Beaver Island

This summer something new, a big shamrock, will be added to the Round Lake waterfront.

The Board of Commerce directors, at the last session, approved the plan proposed by S. E. Coleman. It is to build and erect a big shamrock on the roof of the city dock office. On the four leaves would be the worda, "Visit America's Emerald Isle." The sign would be neon lighted and would face US-31.

The directors approved the sign as a means to help encourage travel to Beaver Island.

Schroeder's Install New Candy Case

Designed to keep candies in factory condition no matter what the temperature hits, a new candy case has been installed by Schroeder & Hovey.

Called a refrigerated, air conditioned case, it has a cooling and circulating unit in the baso which cools and blows air over the candy on display. At the same time it keeps the candy in storage spaces at the bottom at the same temperature, about 60 degrees.

Why Can't We Have Protection?

Right now the Charlevoix area is sort of a neglected step child in the conservation picture. We need more enforcement —and aren't getting it when it is needed.

This spring there has been an unusual amount of trout spearing, especially by teen-age boys. Ed Starback over at Boyne City has his hands full with that end of the county. Erwin Belfy is busy on the patrol boat. The officer at Ellsworth is supposed to cover western Charlevoix County, but has been occupied with Antrim. So our fish hogs have gone merrily on their way—and the sportsman, who after all is a big slice of our bread and butter, soon will be staying away or going to better fishing grounds.

We have an active conservation club here. Certainly some of its members have the judgment, the knowledge and the experience needed to do conservation work. Why doesn't the Department deputize one or two of them who could serve when occasion arises and flagrant violations cry aloud for prompt action?

It's time Charlevoix got a break in this regard.

The Courier Will Take the Calls

This is just a reminder about Alcoholics Anonymous.

We have a small group of this organization in Charlevoix. Like the AA members everywhere, they are ready to help a fellow sufferer at any time. But they must have some way for folks to get in touch with them.

So The Courier has volunteered. If you want to write, just mark the envelope either Alcoholics Anonymous, or Box 50, care of The Courier. Or call the office and we'll relay the message.

WANTED—

More Information About the New School

(Editor's Note: Below is a letter sent to The Courier which asks several pertinent questions. As it points out, these and many others should be t horoughly discussed and understood before we eltizens can decide correctly what is best for our community as a whole.—(L.T.)

Dear Sir:

Last week the voters of the Charlevoix School District turned down the proposition to build a new high school unit. It is my opinion that in a progressive town such as this city they would not have done so had they been well informed as to the facts.

Here are some questions which I believe should be answered publicly:

Is it a fact that the new building would not only have special rooms, but would release five other rooms for classroom purposes?

Is it a fact that a large percentage of our rural students need and want a special agricultural teacher and program to give them technical training which they can apply on their own farms?

Is it a fact that in a few years the overcrowding will force the partitioning of the gym into classrooms, thus curtailing the athletic activities?

Is it a fact that Freedman Artcraft and Foster Boat both bewail the lack of skilled woodworkers in this area, a trade for which the training could be started in the new shops?

With a majority of students going no further than high school, it is vitally important that these youngsters have the best possible training. Surely when the parents and grandparents of our students realize that they are being handicapped by present conditions, they will favor the proposed new school.

But above all, let us have more information about the need for it and the solution proposed by the Board.

Yours very truly,
Mrs. R. S. McClintock.

What's Cookin' . . .

To the Town's Taste

I was talking with a well-known woman in town the other day about recipes and she laughed and said, "I came from a regular "Life with Father" type of home, but we girls learned when young that when mother thought she had things under control, she would trot out a new dish. And how we would eat with great gusto!"

And here is your chance to "eat with gusto" some of the good things that come from the kitchen of one of our best cooks and housekeepers, Ethelyn Edwards:

Date and Nut Bread

1 cup dates, cut.
¾ cup hot water
½ teaspoon soda
2/3 cup sugar
2 tablespoons butter or oleo
1 egg
1½ cups bread flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup walnut meats

Add soda, oleo and water to dates and let cool. Add sugar and beaten egg and rest of the ingredients. Pour in greased loaf pan and baked at 325 for about one hour. Black walnuts are especially delicious in this, if flavor is liked.

Cocoanut Dainties

Whites of 2 eggs
1 cup powdered sugar
1 cup cocoanut
3 cups corn flakes

Beat whites, add sugar, then cocoanut and lastly corn flakes. This will be thick, but will spread out. Drop by spoonfuls on greased tin and brown lightly in moderate oven. Take from pan at once.

Icebox Cookies

½ cup granulated sugar
½ cup brown sugar (or make it 1 cup of brown sugar)
½ cup oleo
1 egg, beaten
½ teaspoon soda in one tablespoon boiling water
1¾ cups flour
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 taspoon vanilla
½ teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup nuts chopped

Mix and chill well. Slice and put on greased pan and bake.

Up-Side Down Pineapple Cake

Melt three tablespoons butter in skillet. Add 1 cup brown sugar Press into pan slices of pineapple. Use maraschino cherries in space if wanted. Over this spread sponge cake dough as follows:

Yolks of three eggs, beaten
1 cup granulated sugar
1 cup of flour sifted with 1 teaspoon baking powder
5 tablespoons pineapple juice

Fold in beaten whites. Bake in moderate oven for 35-40 minutes. Turn out after letting cake stand a minute or two. Serve with whipped cream.

Salmon Loaf

2 can salmon, flaked
4 eggs, beaten
2 cups milk, scalded
2 cups finely ground cracker crumbs
2 tablespoons oleo
½ teaspoon salt.

Add beaten eggs last. Bake in well greased loaf pan set in pan of water for 1 hour at 325 degrees.

Serve with the following sauce: 2 tablespoons oleo, 2 tablespoons flour, 2 cups of milk and juice from salmon. Add mushrooms if desired, or use canned mushroom soup.

Boiled Salad Dressing

1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1 heaping teaspoon flour

Put together dry ingredients add ¾ cup of vinegar (dilute if very strong). Boil until clear and thickened. Beat in two eggs and thin with sweet or sour cream. Excellent on potato salad.

Fruit Salad Dressing

2 eggs, beaten
¼ cup syrup from fruit
¼ cup sugar
1 tablespoon flour
¼ cup lemon juice
¼ teaspoon salt

Cook until thickened. Cool and add 1 cup of cream, whipped.

Scouts Show How They Can Find Lost Man In Emergency Hunt Staged In Woods Near Here

Actual practice in finding a person lost in the woods was given the Charlevoix Boy Scouts Tuesday night.

At 6:40 patrol leaders were called, asked to have their patrols meet immediately at the City Hall. By 7:05 every available Scout was there.

The boys were told a stranger had disappeared in the woods north of the Bell's Bay road that day and an accident was feared. The boys were taken out in Ecklund's truck, spaced along the road, told to keep a continuous line and work north through the woods to the lake.

Meanwhile Arnold Potts of 212 Nichols street, who had volunteered for the job, had gone into the woods and pretended to have suffered a heart attack. He was found by the Scouts, taken to the shore road. There a beach fire was built, and eats served. Cokes were contributed by the Coca Cola Co. of Petoskey, the wieners by the Peet Packing Co. of Bay City and buns by the Muller Baking Co. of Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Gunsolus Rites Are at East Jordan

Funeral services for Mrs. Irene Gunsolus, 80, who died Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Bird, were held at the Watson Funeral Home in East Jordan at 4 p. m. Thursday. Burial was in the Sunset Hill cemetery.

Born near Conklin in Ottawa county on Aug. 6, 1867, Irene McNitt moved to Ravenna with her parents, John and Susan McNitt, in 1883. On Feb. 22, 1889 she was married to Robert A. Gunsolus at Muskegon. They lived at Bangor for two years before coming to a farm near East Jordan where they resided until Mr. Gunsolus' death in 1930. Since then she has lived with her children. She had been with Mrs. Bird for several months.

She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Frank Bird of this city; Mrs. Ray W. Hott and Mrs. Clarence Cary of Detroit and Mrs. G. W. McCraddy of Anderson, Calif.; two sons, Arvie C. of East Jordan, and D. John of Howard City; a sister, Mrs. Susan Price of Ravenna; twelve grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Ironton News

Mrs. Ross Atexander

The Ladies Aid met last week with Mrs. Winnie Brown. They will meet next week Thursday with Mary Bennett.

Mrs. Edna McAllister entertained a group of friends in honor of her daughter, Janis' eleventh birthday Monday afternoon.

We extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Robert King on their new daughter, who is now just two weeks old.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Bennett and son, Don recently returned from a visit of several weeks through the West. While in Phoenix, Ore., they called on Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Riggin, who made their home on the Loeb Farm while Bob was chauffeur for Mrs. A. H. Loeb. They also called in San Diego, Calif. and enjoyed the drive through the Redwoods on to Portland, Ore., where they visited "Mary's" father and Pete did some fishing in the Columbia River—but still thinks that Michigan is the best all round state, with Ironton at the top.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Bennett and Mrs. Gertrude Caldwell drove to Muskegon on Saturday; Mrs. Caldwell will remain for several weeks but Pete and Mary returned Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brown entertained a group of friends Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Thomson and daughter, Patty and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wheeler of Burlingham spent the past week end at their cottage on Breezy Point Farm.

There is still good perch fishing at the ferry and surrounding docks with plenty of boats for those who care to go farther.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Bean are biulding a new home next to Charlie Snyder's and they have the little old house nearly torn down. The new one is being built of stone and cement blocks.

School closes Friday with a picnic, and the children have prepared a program to entertain the guests. Mrs. Goldie Sommerville will return again next year.

William VanderWall is spending several days on business in Traverse City this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Aerne ond son, Andre, are flying to Switzerland this week, where they will visit friends and relatives. They will also visit England, Ireland, Holland, France Belgium and ttaly. Andre has several concert engagements while there. Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Aerne's mother is planning to be in her cottage this summer.

Grand Rapids C of C Cruise Here June 17

Members of the Grand Rapids Chamber of Commerce cruise will visit Charlevoix June 17.

The ship will dock at 7:30 when officers of the Charlevoix Board will be guests for breakfast. Afterward the cruise members will try fishing and golf here. Those doing so will rejoin the ship at Traverse City.

New Building Boom Here With 10 Homes Started

Charlevoix is having a building boom in small homes in spite of the high cost of building materials and labor.

Many of the new homes for which building permits have been issued since March 1 are being constructed by veterans. Six of the new buildings are located on the north side.

Franklin Ochs has broken ground for a new home on the corner of Meech and Dixon at an address to be known as 704 Dixon.

John Swanson has started work on his lot on Meech street, just south of Division.

Richard Bergman has received a permit to build on the corner of Petoskey and Meech.

Byron Black also has received a permit for a house on Meech st.

Ivan Phillips will build on Prospect ave, and Drew Young has started a house at the corner of Ainslee and Nichols streets.

On the south side Glenn Rose is building on State street, between Antrim and Hurlbut.

Russell Lewis has started work on a house on a lot to be called 911 State.

Shelby Goss is building nearby on a lot between 905-913 State.

Lawrence Boss has a permit for a house on West Garfield.

Two other buildings under construction are a restaurant located on South Bridge Street near State street on the trunk line being built for Pete Scott and s small store building to be built by Hans Burns near his home at 900 May street.

Party Given Stephen On Seventh Birthday

Stephen Wells celebrated his seventh birthday anniversary Saturday at a party given by his mother, Mrs. Wesley Wells. Guests gathered at 3 o'clock for games followed by refreshments served at a table decorated with favors and a lighted birthday cake.

Those present were Scott and Sam Supernaw, Joe Beaudoin, John Luft, Vickie Miller, Vickie and Jimmy Racignol, Sandra Von Dohlen, Clarice and Sandra Gregory, Bobby Marshall and Jimmy Verwys.

Mrs. Houck Gives Party for Daughter

Mrs. Eunice Houck entertained with a party at her home Tuesday honoring the twelfth anniversary of her daughter, Darlene. Sixteen friends met at her home after school for games and refreshments served at a table decorated in a yellow and white motif and centered with a large birthday cake.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

It's Leap Year, Girls!

First girl in our town to "get her man" on Leap Year was the Cuppers' daughter, Jane, who wed Bill Webster's boy last Saturday.

When I asked Bill Jr. if it was true that Janey really did the proposing, Bill said: No, but she made it plain she'd make an ideal wife. Instead of looking for diversion or excitement every evening, she was content to chat beside the fire.

"I could plainly see," says Bill, "that we'd really have a happy home life—which is just exactly what I want from marriage."

I know it's usual for older folks to shake their heads over the younger generation. (It's gone on for hundreds of years, now.)

But from where I sit, young people of marrying age today are every bit as commendable as their elders were—in their temperance (a glass of beer for instance), tolerance, and common sense. So to Jane and Bill—the best of luck!

IT HAPPENED ON . . . .
BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

The secretary of the Association of Commerce, Archie LaFreniere, Jr., reports a number of inquiries have been received in regards to accommodations on the Island. This influx of mail is the direct result of the attractive folders being distributed by the Association.

Fishermen are continuing to arrive to cast their lines in the harbor for perch and the perch are biting.

One party from Greenville, Dr. Sorenson and friends, have made two week-end trips by plane to fish and intend returning next week-end.

Rev. William Malawitz, Flint, Rev. Edward Donahue, Secretary to the Bishop of Lansing, and Jacob Kolossa, manager of Lansing airport recently flew to the Island for a few days of fishing.

Judge and Mrs. E. R. Boyles, Lansing, are on the Island to spend a week at their cottage on Sandy Bay.

The "Beautiful Beaver Island's Lawns" contest is showing results. Landscaping is going on in a number of yards.

Three additional contest prizes can be added to the list already published. Gus Mielke will donate two loads of slab wood. Rolland McCann, five pounds dressed fished. Buster Elms has donated two prizes to be awarded the school children in the poster contest.

Mary Ellen McDonough, student nurse of Bay City is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McDonough.

Harold Slider and Archie Reeder, Holland, were recent visitors to the Island.

Pete Marks and Paul Holmes, Niles, came to the Island for the perch season.

The beach lot purchased by the village for the play ground has been leveled off by Ed Boyle's Ford tractor. The equipment purchased by the Beaver Island Club in Chicago will soon be up much to the joy of the children.

A galaxy of wild flowers blossomed forth during the week. Out by church, Indian Paint Brushes dot the fields. In the area near Gull Harbor, a dainty wild flower called Tea Rose is in full bloom. Violets and trillium are in the more wooded sections.

The Altar Boys' outing to Mt. Pisgah which was held Thursday, was cut short by an unexpected spring shower. The picnic ended at the Parish Hall where all were treated to double dips. The older altar boys presented each of the beginners with gifts.

The high school students enjoyed a trip to Garden Island Sunday in McCann's fish tug. A picnic lunch was taken along. Sister Rose and Sister Thea went with the young folks and Bob McCann piloted the boat.

Gladys Carpenter, Grand Rapids, spent the past week as the guest of Mrs. Nonie Gallagher.

While playing in her home, Joan Catherine LaFreniere plunged her left arm through the pane in the front door, necessitating seven stitches to close up the cut from the broken glass.

It was the Tramp and not the Rambler as the Coast Guard reported at Charlevoix which ran out of fuel oil last week and had to be towed into Charlevoix.

Two weeks ago one name was left out of the list of those in the First Communion Class at Holy Cross church. It was Jerry LaFreniere.

Sodality to Have Crowning, Receive Nine New Members

St. James—May 30 will mark the high point in Sodality activities for the year.

The members of Holy Cross Parish will participate in a ceremony to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary. The service will consist of a processional, reception of new members into the Sodality, the installation of the new officers, the traditional May Crowning, and Benediction.

Participating in the crowning will be all the Island children of school age. Leading the procession as Crossbearers will be Larry Cull with Joseph McDonough and Bob McCann as acolytes. Next will be the children of the first seven grades dressed in white. After them the girls of the five upper grades, clad in pastel formals; then the boys will fall in line. Bringing up the rear will be Madonna McDonough, the Sodality Prefect, accompanied by her court, the Senior girls in cap and gown.

Being received into the Sodality are: Marguerite Connaghan, Sally Ann Cull, Janet Gallagher, Eileen Gatliff, Glen McDonough, Josie Ann Lewis, Verl McCann, Margaret Ellen McDonough and Rosemary Nackerman. The new officers to be installed are: Mary Malloy as Prefect, Joy McDonough as secretary, and Walter McCauley as treasurer.

Special prayers will be offered for Billy Gallagher, one of the Sodalists who died during the past year.

Betty Jane Arsenault, Louis McKenzie Wed

Miss Betty Jane Arsenault, daughter of Rocky Malone of Highland Park, became the bride of Louis D. McKenzie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Colin McKenzie, at St. Benedict's church, Highland Park at 9 a. m. Saturday. The Nuptial High Mass was read in the presence of 50 guests. The altar was decorated with pink and white gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Colonial gown of white marquisette and lace. Her fingertip veil fell from a pearl tiara and she carried a bouquet of white roses, lillies of the valley and stock and a white prayer book. Her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Pauline Rogers, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and Leila DeFord was bridesmaid.

Richard F. Hallett of Detroit assisted the bridegroom as best man and Walter Arsenault, brother of the bride was usher.

A wedding breakfast was held for 15 guests. A reception for more than 300 was held at 8 p.m. at the bride's home at 31 West Buena Vista.

Those from Charlevoix who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie, Mrs. George Plumm and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Whitley.

Henry Wagner Passes at Norwood

Funeral services for Henry Wagner, 82, resident of this vicinity for 60 years, were held at the Norwood Methodist church 10 a. m. Thursday with burial in the Norwood cemetery.

Mr. Wagner was born near Hudson, Mich., in Sept. 1865, and came here to work in the lumber camps 60 years ago. Later he lived in Charlevoix for 15 years and was a salesman for the Ferry Seed Co. He has lived at Norwood for 30 years.

Besides his wife, the former Emma Moore, whom he married at Norwood in May, 1893, he is survived by a son, Floyd, and a daughter, Mrs. George Light, Sr., both of Norwood, and several grandchildren.

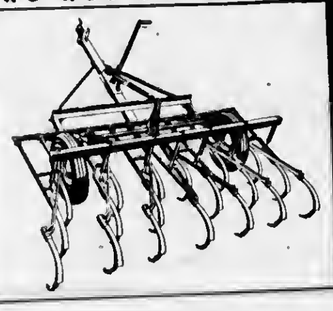
Cultitiller
THE ALL SEASON FARM TOOL



PLOWS · HARROWS · CULTIVATES · CONTROLS WEEDS

Here is the implement that you can use for every tilling job on the farm. Leading agricultural authorities say it is superior to a plow on any ground; it leaves the top soil on top which prevents erosion. Later it can be used to pulverize the soil for perfect seed bed preparation. In the summer it does a perfect job of killing quack grass by keeping the roots on top for the sun to dry out and kill. In the fall you can work over stubble fields and get better moisture absorption.

Available in six or nine foot widths to fit all tractors. Rubber tires for greater mobility. Reversible shovels. Cultivating depth up to ten inches. Choice of manual, mechanical or hydraulic lift.

On reading and filing the bill of complaint in said cause and the affidavit of Zorlina Reefer attached thereto, from which it satisfactorily appears to the court that the defendants above named, or their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, are proper and necessary parties defendant in the above entitled cause, and,

It further appearing that after diligent search and inquiry it cannot be ascertained, and it is not known whether or not said defendants are living or dead, or where any of them may reside if living, and if dead, whether they have personal representatives or heirs living or where they or some of them may reside, and further that the present whereabouts of said defendants are unknown, and that the names of the persons who are included therein without being named, but who are embraced therein under the title of unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, cannot be ascertained after diligent search and inquiry,

On motion of Halstead & Clark, attorneys for plaintiff, it is ordered that said defendants and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, cause their appearance to be entered in this cause within three months from the date of this order, and in default thereof that said bill of complaint be taken as confessed by the said defendants, their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns.

CHARLES L. BROWN, Circuit Judge.

Countersigned:
FENTON R. BULOW,
Clerk of Circuit Court.

Take notice, that this suit, in which the foregoing order was duly made, involves and is brought to quiet title to the following described piece or parcel of land situated and being in the Township of Bay and Evangeline, County of Charlevoix, State of Michigan, described as follows, to-wit:

A part of Sections 11 and 12, Township 33 North, Range 6 West, described as follows: Commencing at the meander stake on the section line between Sections 11 and 12 in Township 33 North, Range 6 West, on the South shore of Walloon Lake; thence North 48°15' East along the shore of said lake 141½ feet; thence South 42°56' East 150 feet; thence South 48°15' West 166½ feet; thence North 42°56' West 150 feet to the shore of Walloon Lake; thence Northeasterly along the shore of said lake 25 feet to the point of commencing.

The Importance of "Stepping Down"

Here is the story of a new principle of design that has rocked the industry and given Hudson unique beauty not possible in any other type of car.

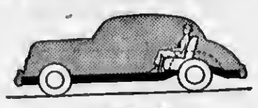
THE recessed floor in the new Hudson—now widely known as the "step-down" feature—is the talk of the automobile world. And rightly so! This interesting development is the key to a new kind of motor-car beauty never before obtainable.

People everywhere are attracted by Hudson's low, streamlined silhouette and free-flowing lines.

Only Hudson, because of its exclusive recessed floor that you step down onto, is able to offer streamlined, low-built beauty without asking you to give up interior head room.

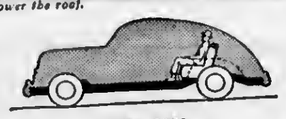
Let's take a frank look at the motor-car designer's problem. Since streamlining an automobile reduces available head room for rear-seat passengers, to achieve a low silhouette and maintain adequate head room, both floor and seats must be lowered to compensate for the lowered roof. The recessed floor is a necessity.

But it is difficult to lower floors and seats, because in all cars, except Hudson, they are built on top of a frame. Only Hudson has a new, all steel Monobilt body-and-frame*, part of which is a rugged base structure that permits lowering floors and seats down within the frame. The sketches below illustrate this design problem and show how Hudson's recessed floor provides a low, streamlined silhouette, yet preserves head room.



OTHER CARS

The car above cannot be streamlined because the need for head room above the rear seat (which is built on top of a frame) makes it impossible to lower the roof.



OTHER CARS

Of course, it is possible to adopt free-flowing lines without receiving the floor, as sketched in the car above, but over-all height must be raised, and this destroys the possibility of a low silhouette, which is the mark of the modern motor car.

NEW HUDSON

Here is the long, low, gracefully streamlined Hudson—only five feet from ground to top. You can see how the streamlined roof comes down sharply over the rear-seat portion of the car, as compared to the other types of roof-lines shown in sketches to the left. But Hudson floors are recessed down within the frame, seats are lowered, so you get more than ample head room.

The "step-down" principle requires years of engineering work, the development of new production techniques and equipment, and millions of dollars of highly specialized new plant investment. Perhaps this explains why Hudson alone offers this vital new design principle today.

You'll probably expect the motor car that is the talk of the nation to offer you even more than beauty and comfort. And it does! Your nearby Hudson dealer will show you The Importance of "Stepping Down"—also its results in riding and driving ease, performance and safety. Hudson Motor Car Company, Detroit 14.

Public Hearing to Air Views on Soil District

Whether Charlevoix County takes the forward step of organizing a soil conservation district will depend on the public response at the meeting set for June 16 at the Public Library in Boyne City.

Representatives of every township in the county will be called on at that time to answer two questions:

1. What particular soil problem does your township face?
2. Are the land occupiers there in favor of forming a district?

The answers to these questions and the attendance at the meeting will decide whether or not an election o n forming a district will be held in Charlevoix County.

State and federal law sets up the procedure to be followed. The first steps have been taken with the circulating of a petition and the calling of the public meeting. The State Soil Conservation Commission will have representatives, usually four, at Boyne City.

They will report back on the need for the proposed program, on the attitude shown by those present, and by the attendance. If any of these three factors are adverse, no election will be called and Charlevoix County will be without the benefits accompanying a unified conservation program.

News of folks, your neighbors and mine . . . but did you know that—

A letter from a former Charlevoix minister, Dr. B. G. Mattson, who has been in Penland, N. C. for the winter months, states that Mrs. Mattson is Chief Assistant at the Penland School, acting as Home Director and supervising scholarship girls. Dr. Mattson has left on an extended trip, first to Louisiana to see Dudley Mattson and family, then on to Pasadena to see his daughter, Becky. From Pasadena he will go to Grant's Pass, Ore., to be with his brother, Frank, then back to Montana to see another brother near Great Falls. He will return in Sept. to North Carolina. This is quite an ambitious plan for a man 82 years of age . . .

Gordon Clement Is Appointed to West Point

Gordon Clement

Gordon L. Clement, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon E. Clement, has received an appointment to the West Point Military Academy from Charles E. Potter, Representative of the 11th Congressional District, and will report there July 1.

A 1945 graduate of the Charlevoix high school, he attended the University of Michigan for one semester before enlisting in the regular army for three years in June, 1946. He was discharged at Fort Knox, Ky., on May 25, to accept his appointment at West Point. He will spend a month with his parents before leaving for the East.

Born in Hastings, Gordon lived in Belding before coming here in 1942. While in high school he played football and was a member of the track team. He was among the first five in his class.

While in the Army he served with headquarters company in the Classification Personnel office and last year attended a personnel management camp at Camp Lee, Va., for two months.

Civic Service Declared Chief Purpose of JCC

Stressing the importance of community service in the JCC program, Dr. John Broadfoot of Alpena, state vice president, installed T. H. Coxe as the new president of the Charlevoix chapter Friday night.

The formal annual dinner was held at the Huston dining room at 307 Michigan avenue. Present were the members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and their wives, directors of the Board of Commerce and Rev. W. D. Wood.

Dr. Earl H. Faber was chairman and introduced Zach Whyte, who furnished the dinner music. Retiring president Junior Supernaw gave a briefly humorous story of the first six months of the chapter and then presented the president pin to the incoming executive.

Dr. Faber in turn gave him the past president's pin.

Mr. Coxe pointed out that the JCC has two chief goals: community development and improvement and training its members for civic leadership and service. He outlined several projects which the club might undertake, asked closer cooperation with the Board of Commerce for the good of Charlevoix, and suggested the formation of a new industry council here.

He also traced the development of consumer cooperatives in Michigan, stated they formed a definite threat to the well-being of the small community especially, and said the only way to combat the danger was by united state-wide action.

Dr. Broadfoot described many of the projects completed during the past year by the Alpena club, told how close cooperation with the Chamber of Commerce has benefitted both bodies.

Barnard 4-H Club Members Receive Awards, Present Skit at Meeting Given by Grangers

Providing the comedy at the Grange 4-H meeting Friday at Barnard was the blackface skit given by the club members. Larry Warner, 5, is the pint-sized comedian and youngest in the act.

In sponsoring the 4-H work, the Barnard Grange has fostered something which can and will make a better community in the years ahead, Club Agent Karl Festerling said last Friday night.

He was speaking at the Grange Hall at the open meeting given by the Grangers for their 4-H Club proteges. After voicing his appreciation to the Grange, he asked for continued support of the young folks in the club projects.

Following his talk he gave out the pins and certificates earned during the winter's work. The leaders were Mrs. Hazel Murray, Mrs. Ethel Bost, Howard Brumm, W. J. McKay, William Parsons, Mrs. Ilah McKay, Mrs. Anna Warner, Mrs. Lela Brumm, Mrs. Verna Johnson and Mrs. Dorothy Stoel.

Mrs. Murray, Grange lecturer, was in charge of the program and called various club members forward to show their clothing work. On display were the barn model and various examples of handicraft. Altogether the club display showed ten blue ribbons, six red, three white and three yellow.

After a brief intermission the club presented a blackface skit, following which a lunch was served in the basement dining room.

Carey Twins Climax Brilliant Four Years When Bob Sets New State Shot Put Record

Climaxing four years of high school athletics in which Charlevoix teams won 16 championships, the Carey twins Saturday set a new state shot put record, earned 17 of Charlevoix's 20 points at the state track meet, and stole the show at East Lansing.

Bob's performance with the 12 pound shot was a feature story Sunday and Monday in virtually all the state papers. He heaved the iron ball 54 feet, 7½ inches for a new all-class, all-state record.

Tom Johnson of Muskegon, a Class A school, had broken the previous mark of 51-8 with a 54 foot, 4 inch toss. Then in the afternoon at the Class C session Bob began putting them out, and on his third put set the record.

As Coach S. E. Coleman remarked: "Bob just saw where the other record was and put the shot beyond it."

That it was no lucky fluke is shown by Bob's record. Tossing four times in the qualifying round and three times in the final, his distances were: 48-2, 51-4, 50-5, 53 even, 52-9, 51-8 and 54-7½.

Bill heaved the ball 48 foot, 9 inches for second place in Class C and fourth best of the entire meet.

Between them they collected 17 points. Bob got 6 for his record throw. Bill earned 4 for third in the high hurdles, 5 for second in the shot, and 2 points for fifth in the broad jump. His distance was 20 feet, 3 inches.

Cliff Lagerman won 2 points for fifth place in the mile and Greg Bryan added 1 for fourth in the 440.

East Grand Rapids won the Class C title and St. Clair Shore nosed out Charlevoix by one point for the runner-up spot.

The Carey Brothers have won 15 letters during their four years, no letters being given for track at which both starred. Teams on which they played won three football, three basketball and four track titles for the district, two basketball and four track championships in the regional.

When fall practice starts, missing from the field besides the Careys will be such athletes as Cliff Lagerman, Dave Smith, Bob Shanahan, Jack Roberts, Bill Peterson, Ed Mann, Jim Harvey, Dave Hardy, Jim Gibbons, Dick Donaldson, Bob Clarke, Ray Williams, Don Burke and Phil Martin.

SPEB Meets Thursday

The regular meeting of the Charlevoix Barber Shoppers will be Thursday at 8:30 at the D. C. Nettleton basement.

• Mr. and Mrs. David Howard, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. David Howard, Jr., and Miss Cora Howard, all of Muskegon spent the week end with Mrs. Howard, Sr'a. brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bergmann.

Farmers Union Favors Controls On Production, Price

Forty-five members of the Farmers Union from all sections of the county attended the County Meeting last Tuesday at the Norwood Local's hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Wickersham and Albert Carlson were visitors. The discussion was on the National Farmers Union proposal of controls for farm production and prices. Mr. Wickersham spoke on the benefits and necessities for the controls. The group voted unanimously in favor of the program. Lunch was served after the business meeting.

The June meeting of the County Union will be at the Wilson Local June 22.

Vacation, School, Summer Work Is Planned by Teachers

With the closing of the Charlevoix public schools for the summer, faculty members are planning vacations, summer school and summer employment.

Supt. and Mrs. Roy G. Bennett will leave this week for a three weeks trip to Phoenix, Ariz.

Mrs. Dorothea Badger has enrolled at Michigan State Teachers College, Ypsilanti, and Mrs. Ali Gustafsen will attend Northern Michigan Teachers College at Marquette.

D. C. Maltby and family will go to Bellaire where they operate a summer hotel. Mrs. Mary Cooper will join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kirchner in Saginaw later this month.

Mrs. Dorothy McRae will spend the summer at her Lake Michigan cabin after a brief visit with friends in Marquette. Miss Helen Rose Cline plans to leave Saturday for a two weeks vacation in Chicago before returning here for the summer.

H. E. Bingham will return to Camp Charlevoix; S. E. Coleman will continue his work as Board of Commerce secretary; Ray Kipke will return to the Belvedere Club as caddy master; Frances Milner will return to her work at the Polly Kay Shop. Miss Florenz Milner will be librarian.

Normen Gallagher, Leonard Burns, Mrs. Mildred Smith, Mrs. Jeanette Abfalter, Mrs. Bessie Coleman, Mrs. Geraldine Spare, Mrs. Elizabeth Trimble, Mrs. Bertha Shetterly, Mrs. Glenn Snider, Mrs. Ethel Courier, Mrs. Dorothy Richards, Max Novak, Robert Richards, C. A. Odmark, Uno Suomela, and Mrs. Helen Richards will all remain here for the summer.

• Mr. and Mrs. V. Y. Tuttle and son, Jack, visited briefly Saturday with friends nd relatives.

Ironton Will Have Clean-Up Day Next Monday

Ironton will have a Clean-Up Day Monday.

The date has been set and plans made for the event by the new Board of Commerce.

A community affair, residents are asked by the Board to gather up the winter accumulation of rubbish and haul it to the dump themselves since the community has no truck. For those having no car, William VanderWall has offered to use his truck. However, folks lacking their own transportation must call or see him ahead of time.

In sponsoring the Clean-Up Day, the Board hopes to make Ironton clean and attractive to visitors.

VFW Nets $221 From Poppy Sale

Howard A. Griffin, commander of the V. F. W. Post, and Mrs. Mildred Coblentz, Buddy Poppy Chairman report that 1200 of the memorial poppies were sold this year.

The three day sale netted $221.43. Nearly 70 percent of this will be retained in Charlevoix for work among local veterans. The rest goes to help disabled veterans in many ways. One cent on each poppy goes to the Home for war orphans at Eaton Rapids.

Girl Scout Leader To Conduct Course

Miss Eleanor Schmitt, regional advisor from Chicago for the Girl Scouts, will conduct a council and leadership training course here June 10 and 11.

Leaders of Charlevoix and Boyne City will attend.

• Mr. and Mrs. James Bolton and family of Flint spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mont Withers.

You Ask, They'll Answer

A group of interested Charlevoix citizens have asked for a new department in The Courier.

They feel that they and certainly many other folks have questions about the proposed new school which they would like answered. These questions and answers, to be called the School Question Box, start this week on page two.

Any resident of the district can send or phone in questions. These will be turned over to the committee which in turn will get accurate and unbiased answers to them from the school Board, school records, the Municipal League or where ever the facts can be found.

Think Straight, Speaker Advises 1948 Graduates

Decide what you truly want to do, size up your abilities and above all think straight was the advice given the 47 Charlevoix high school graduates Tuesday by H. A. Lyon, commencement speaker.

Mr. Lyon, head of the Detroit Agricultural-Industrial Foundation, told the graduates their greatest assets, as they start out on adult life, are the intangible things. But these assets are the only things which can bring each a successful life.

What that success is to be must be decided by the individual.

"Hang on to your self-respect," he urged. "It is the source of the greatest return in satisfaction."

Mr. Lyon outlined one of the great problems facing this country and the world. Wars and most great troubles come, and civilizations decline when natural resources are abused and wasted. Well fed and well housed men avoid war.

In this country today each person has to live and be clothed and housed on what 3½ football fields can produce. In 1970 we shall have only 2½ fields per person. The whole world today is fighting a cold war, not between nations, but with wasted and shrinking natural resources.

Sunday night Rev. Gaylord Howell in the Baccalaureate sermon spoke on "What Are You Worth." After pointing out that chemically the individual is almost valueless, he described the challenge of today for individuals with vision and ideals.

Then he continued to show how in the past the world has moved forward only when leaders have been willing to sacrifice themselves for the good of their fellowmen.

Dad Brady, Father of City Camp, Dies

Hugh L. "Dad" Brady, 88, first caretaker of the Charlevoix Auto Camp, died Monday at the Lalonde Convalescent Home at Ironton.

He had been in ill health for some time. Funeral services were held at the Mathews Funeral Home in Bellaire at 2 p. m. Wednesday with burial in the Bellaire cemetery.

Mr. Brady was born in LaGrange, Ind., on July 12, 1850 and was married to Laura Alice Friend in 1885. Later they moved to Bellaire where he worked as a millwright until 1909 when they moved to Charlevoix.

He was a commercial fisherman from then until he took the job at the Auto Camp about 1927. He built the camp, landscaping the grounds, building outdoor fireplaces and small buildings. He retired in 1937. His wife preceded him in death in 1038.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. W. F. Meyer, and a son, Roy, both of this city; a sister, Mrs. Alma Neal of Columbus, Ohio; 11 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Poems by Courier Writer Published

Two poems by Mrs. Clyde Smith, the Courier's Barnard reporter, are in the 1948 edition of "Important American Poets and Songwriters."

The poems are "Lines to Hitler" and "To Our Pastor", which were selected by the volume's editors from several which Mrs. Smith submitted on request. The latter poem was written a year and a half ago on the 25th anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. Howard Moore.

The Editor Blowe Off

Half a dozen things piled up last week which together heated the editor to the boiling point.

The sixth grade English Class did a fine piece of safety work during the year which they carefully hid under a bushel until three weeks after the final meeting. So it no longer is news this year. A month ago it would have made an excellent feature story with pictures.

The Gideons had a meeting at Charlevoix and ten days after it is over an account comes through the mail.

Mt. Pleasant sends out a news story about James Bennett and carelessly uses his brother Robert's name.

Wrong information is given Frances Martin and then we are blamed for not getting things right.

The way to get news in print is to let us know ahead of time. After a thing happens it loses its news value rapidly.

We try to get things right, but after tracking down scores of supposed newspaper mistakes in the past, I've found that 75 percent of the time wrong information was given in the first place. (That does NOT include the time I got the wrong date on the city election).

We try to get all the news, and to get is accurately. So please tell us early. And tell us straight.

That editorial three weeks ago on why The Courier doesn't carry stories about bingo parties sure touched off the powder. A couple of our newspaper colleagues have swiped it

Hang Together or Hang Separately

The health and welfare organizations of this country soon will have to take heed to old Ben Franklin's words—or start going out of business.

The big cities are beginning to learn what we out here could have told them—that too many drives and too much asking for charity will dry up the well springs in the public's purse. The Detroit papers have been carrying articles on this line.

The answer, they point out, is the logical one of a single drive to raise funds for all causes found worthy. Which is simply another way of saying Community Chest.

That way worthy causes will be supported. The money will be put where it will do the most good. One cause will not be over-supported and another denied.

Here in Charlevoix County we won't be turning over 50 percent more money than we need to, but can keep our funds at home to carry on local work. That is, we can do this as soon as we have a county Chest.

It Had Better Be Temporary

Last week the City Council did a difficult thing and raised the city tax rate. The Councilmen were faced with a tough situation, and they chose the course which from a financial standpoint is the soundest and most economical—that of paying the bill right now and getting it over with.

However, taxes have an uncomfortable way of staying up, once they are raised. A year from now it will behoove Charlevoix citizens to ask their Council what has been done to cut operating costs, to make possible economies (even at the loss of some public services) and to demand that the city tax rate be started back downward to its former 15 mills.

The Council was right in calling this an emergency. Only like some of the Rooseveltian emergencies, we need not let it become permanent.

School Question Box

Question:

Will present overcrowded conditions eventually necessitate partitioning the Gym into classrooms and what effect would this have on our Athletic program?

Answer:

In every institution of learning, education has priority over athletics. Boys desiring to participate in athletics must maintain a certain scholarship average. If no other way is provided to relieve present overcrowded classrooms it may be necessary to put classrooms in the Gym, thus curtailing basketball activities and eliminating any physical Ed program.

Question:

Would the new building have special rooms as well as releasing five other rooms for classroom purposes?

Answer:

The new building would release five rooms in the present high building for routine classwork: English, commercial, home economics, science and any other such as history or language. In addition it would release the gym for a needed physical Ed program. The band now has to use the gym, because every available space is used for classrooms. Among other things, the new building would provide the specially designed rooms needed for band, shops, agriculture and science.

Farewell Surprise Given John Publow

A surprise party combined with a modern style hayride were given John Publow Monday night by 16 friends who dropped in for a farewell party.

They arrived in a hay filled wagon drawn by a tractor. After picking up John they rode to the WaySide at Charlevoix. On their return, Mrs. Clarence Murray and Mrs. Publow served refreshments.

Those present were Joan Brumm, Audrey Stevenson, Patricia and Joyce Murray, Betty Warner, Pat Jablinsky, Dick and Jim Jolliffe, Dawson Way, Phil Oswald, Jerry Gibbons, Jim Fiedler, John Publow. Bob Fiedler drove the tractor. Mr. and Mrs. Art Hittenburger were chaperons. The Publows are moving to Lansing.

Cubs Have Weiner Roast

Thirty-two Cub Scouts from Dens 1 and 2 enjoyed a weiner roast at Mt. McSauba on Thursday. They were accompanied by their Den mothers, Mrs. Ralph Hamilton and Mrs. Robert Miles.

In his new book, Dale Carnegie makes use of a speech by Charlevoix's Rev. W. D. Wood. For it and other late books come to the Charlecote, 104 Mason street.

What's Cookin' . . .

To the Town's Taste

The woman of the week for the "What's Cooking Corner" is Margery Coleman and it was many favorites she gave me.

Pork and Noodle Casserole

(A favorite given to me by my aunt, Mrs. Charles Emrey).

1 medium onion
1 green pepper—brown together in 2 tablespoons fat.
Brown 2 pounds ground lean pork shoulder
Add:
3 cups tomatoes
4 cups cooked noodles
½ lb. finely chopped cheese
Salt and pepper
Bake in moderate oven one hour

Chocolate Whipped Cream Cake

1 cup sugar
Melt together:
1 tablespoon butter
2 squares of chocolate and add to sugar
Add:
1 egg, beaten
1½ cups flour
1 teaspoon cream of tartar
1 cup cold water
1 teaspoon soda (in water)
¼ teaspoon salt
Bake in 2 layers in a 375-400 degree oven.

When cake is cool frost with chocolate whipped cream:
1 cup confectioner's sugar.
6 teaspoons cocoa
1 cup whipped cream
Combine and place in refrigerator for at least ½ hour before serving, then whip and serve.

This recipe was passed on from my grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Emrey.

Coffee Swirl

1 cup milk
¼ cup shortening
¼ cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 cake compressed or 1 pkg. granulated yeast
½ cup lukewarm water
1 beaten egg
4 cups flour

Scald milk, add shortening, sugar and salt. Cool to lukewarm. Add yeast, softened in water; add egg. Gradually stir in flour to form soft dough. Beat vigorously, cover and let rise in warm place until double in bulk, about 2 hours. Turn out on lightly floured surface. Knead slightly. Roll dough in a one inch rope, swirl in a greased 9-inch round cake pan. Let rise until double in bulk, about one hour. Bake in moderate oven 35 minutes at 350. Cool and spread with:

Confectioner's Icing: Add sufficient milk or cream to 1 cup confectioner's sugar to make of spreading consistency. Add dash of salt and ½ teaspoon vanilla. Decorate with maraschino cherries and pecans if desired.

Fried Cakes (Donuts)

A favorite handed down from my aunt, Minerva, Mrs. L. C. Carey.

2 eggs
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
2 level tablespoons shortening (cream with augar)
3½ cups flour
1 cup sour milk (buttermilk preferred).

June Kirkwood Honored On Birthday

Dr. and Mrs. Earl H. Faber entertained with a party last Thursday for her sister, June Kirkwood on the latter's eleventh birthday.

Following the picnic supper, the group saw Margaret O'Brien at the Palace Theatre. The guests were Judy and Janna Merica, Angela Schroeder, Suzanne Grate, Kathleen Foster, Barbara Roff, Rogene Brady, Bennie Kipke and Camilla Maltby.

Advice Further Caution on Banzana Hexachloride

Ray Huston, head of the Michigan State College entomology department, advises fruit and vegetable growers to use benzene hexachloride with extra caution because certain processors and buyers have stated they would not purchase any products on which benzene hexachloride has been used. This is because in certain cases and under certain conditions this spray material will impart an objectionable odor and taste to the product. If you are planning to use the "benny hex" this year on any crop, be sure the individual or company you plan to sell to will accept the product if "benny hex" has been used.

Potato Inspection

All farmers who are interested in raising certified potatoes must have their fields inspected this summer. Applications for inspection must be made to the Michigan Crop Improvement Association, East Lansing, Michigan—not later than June 10. Application blanks for this inspection are available at the County Extension Office.

The growing of certified seed and table stock on the same farm has aroused the suspicion of seed buyers. It has also caused trouble to seed growers and the inspection service. Beginning this year certified seed growers will be required to list for inspection the entire acreage or whatever variety or varities they are growing for certification. Storage must be provided for certified seed stock.

$15,000 Lighting Outfit for Airport To Be Installed

Airfield lighting equipment worth $15,000 will be installed at the Charlevoix airport, likely next week.

The equipment is war surplus and is loaned to the city by the state Aeronautics Commission. Installation will be supervised by a men from the Commission.

Last Tuesday a representative was here from Lansing and approved the field. However, he ordered several trees at the east and west ends of the runways taken out as interferring with the field.

Both runways will be lighted.

New Plane Service Connects Charlevoix With Detroit, Lansing, Cadillac and Marquette

Standing beside the Copper Country Airlines' plane on its first flight here are Richard Olivere, president and pilot on the trip; Mayor Ray Hamilton; and Irving I. Stahl, general manager.

Saving hours of time over travel by car, Charlevoix now has fast and regular air service to the two largest cities in the Upper and Lower Peninsulas.

Last Thursday the Copper Country Airlines sent its first regular plane here. But Wednesday there was a special flight for a group of invited guests from the various places served by the lines.

Included were Glen S. Richards, general superintendent of the Department of Public Works at Detroit, Wesley Walker, assistant manager of the Detroit City Airport, Dave Addy, Detroit budget director, Fred L. Waite of the department of Aeronautics; Thomas Brown, president of the Cadillac Chamber of Commerce. From Charlevoix went Mayor Ray Hamilton, City Supt. A. G. Leitch and L. E. Towe. In all, there were 21 in the plane besides Richard Olivere, president, and Irving I. Stahl, general manager of the company. Olivere piloted the plane.

Promptly at 11:40 the plane dropped in, picked up the Charlevoix delegation and headed out over the lake. The flight to Marquette took 50 minutes instead of the five or six hours by car.

At Marquette a delegation of the Chamber of Commerce met the group, took them to dinner, and then for an hour's trip around the city. At the dinner the Marquette mayor made it plain that city warmly welcomed the new service, both for its convenience and as a closer link with the Lower Peninsula.

There's a lot to see on the trip across. The southeast shore of Beaver Island is a series of scallops from the air. Fox Island has a good but small beach on the west point. The Manistique river is a series of almost unbelieveable goose necks for ten or 15 miles inland. The old lumbering roads make an interesting pattern across the land. Old saw mill sites and lakes dot the scenery.

Chain Letters Hit Charlevoix

Another round of the troublesome and threatening chain letters has hit Charlevoix.

Mrs. Ana Brady had a sample she had received which promised bad luck if four more letters were not sent out.

State Tax Muddle Needs Changes, Powell Asserts

New laws and the tax situation facing Michigan were discussed Monday night by Stanley M. Powell, legislative counsel of the Michigan Farm Bureau, at the Ellsworth Community Hall.

Tracing the state's tax history for 25 years, he showed how legislation promoted by the Farm Bureau had reduced farm taxes although other costs have risen. He warned against taking this trend for granted, citing the present attacks on the 15 mill amendment, especially that backed by the Michigan Education Association. This would permit raising the rate to 50 mills for 20 years by a simple majority of those voting, and would allow the money so raised to be used for any school purpose.

He also said there is a definite movement on to put local road costs on real estate.

Mr. Powell outlined the bad effects of the sales tax diversion amendment, which piles up a deficit for the state. Either it must be repealed or new state revenues found. He urged farmers to support the repeal amendment in November.

Vernon Vance, president of the Antrim Farm Bureau, presided. Wesley Hawley, district worker, introduced the speaker. In his summarizing remarks after the talk he pointed out that the future of organized farming depends on active local units.

IT HAPPENED ON ....
BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

The beautiful manth of May was appropriately braught to a close Sunday afternaon with the annual May procession, entrance into the Sodality of the eight grade students and the crowning of the Blessed Virgin. Haly Cross church was filled ta capacity far the ceremony.

The last day of school was Friday. As school tapered off picnics, exams and preparations for graduation crowded the calender.

Thursday, the grade school picnic was held. The pupils of the upper grades hiked to Mt. Pisgah. The lower grades, together with the pre-school children, who will enter school next fall, hiked to "First Clearance."

The poster contest winners were announced Friday. The judges, Mrs. Arthur Miller, Mrs. Walter Wojan, Fred Spalding had a difficult time chosing the three best posters. Results: 1st prize, Kay McDonough; 2nd and 3rd prize on par, Mary C. Hanley and Glenn McDonough.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, Portland, Ore., were recently on the Island visiting relatives.

A crew of men, under the direction af Art Miller, have the playground equipment partly installed.

A benefit party was held at the Parish Hall Thursday evening to assist the patients at Gaylord Sanitarium to obtain up-to-date radio equipment, Mrs. Grace Cole managed the affair. The proceeds will be given in the name of the community.

The first yacht of the season, "Aloha" from Charlevoix, glided into the harbor Saturday afternoon. The Aloha was the last yacht out of the harbor last fall. Aboard were Skipper Schaub, Gene Rundquist, Jack Allen, Ken Voss.

The week-end brought a number of visitors to the Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles McCann, Charlevoix, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Gallagher.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornell Gatliff, Mary Ruth Gatliff, Dorothy Gatliff, all of Detroit, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gatliff.

Dr. Charles McCann, Bay City arrived Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Gatliff, Detroit spent the week-end visiting relatives. Mrs. Gatliff, a recent bride, was the former Catherene Connaghan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Connaghan.

Lillian Connaghan, Detroit, drove up with the Gatliffs to visit her parents.

Andrew Grossi and party, Chicago Heights, came up to further the work an Grossi's cabin on Little Sand Bay.

Edgar and Anthany O'Donnell, Detroit were guests at the King Strang Hatel.

Rolland McCann, Jr., student at Providence College, Providence, R. I., arrived hame Sunday to spend the summer with his parents.

St. James School Graduates Four

Madonna McDonough, John O'Donnell, Margaret Ricksgers, and Lillian Greene were graduated from St. James high school at Commencement exercises in Holy Cross church on Tuesday.

The high school and eighth grade students in formal attire led the graduates in procession and formed a guard of honor as the seniors took their places.

Rev. Claude Musselt, Ofm. Conv. of St. Anthony Parish, Grand Rapids, gave the address to the graduates.

After the address, the Glee Club sang, the graduates made their public act of dedication, and the diplomas were given out. Donald McDonough and Robert O'Donnell assisted in the ceremonies.

The benediction and three songs by the Glee Club concluded the graduation service.

Rites for Mrs. Kasky Are Held at Island.

The body of Mrs. Mary Kasky of Newberry was brought to the Island Saturday.

Mrs. Kasky, formerly Mrs. Paul LaBlance, was a pioneer of Beaver Island and was 89 years of age. Burial was at Holy Cross cemetery, Father Fabian Keenan officiating.

She is survived by two sons, George LaBlance, Charlevoix, Albert LaBlance, Boyne City, three daughters, Mrs. Rose Dakin, Newberry; Emily and Belle LaBlance, Flint, Mich.

Mancelona Girl and Mark Fiedler Wed

Mildred Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson of Mancelona, became the bride of Mark Fiedler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Fiedler of Charlevoix, Saturday at 8 p. m. in the Church of the Nazarene at Mancelona.

Rev. Edward Bailey read the single ring ceremony. Mrs. Edward T. Smith played the wedding music. Dean Fiedler of Central Lake, brother of the groom, sang "I'll Walk With You" and "O Promise Me" preceding the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" at the close.

The bride wore a gown of heavy satin with a long tram and lace trimmed veil, and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Her sister; Mrs. Eleanor Fleet, was matron of honor. Diane Fleet was flower girl; Jimmy Bailey carried the ring on a pillow, Robert Fiedler was best man and ushers were Jim Fiedler and Ward Johnson.

Guests from away included Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fiedler of Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Fiedler and daughter, Connie of Vicksburg.

Three Mighty Important Ideas

Maybe you read, whera a great encyclapedia has sarted all basic ideas inta a few select graups. Under tha letter "T" they hava:

Tamperance - Truth - Tyranny.

Saunds like a funny cambinstion. And to philosophize a little, natica that Truth is in the center—between Tyranny and Temperance.

Now and then yau hear falks criticize temperate people wha enjoy a moderata glass af beer ... wha talk about "twa boers" getting some ana inta trauble, and claim: "Thera aught to be a law!"

Then Truth steps in between, and points out that two beers never gat anybody into trouble—and that samebody's trying to distort the facts. No, there shauldn't be a law—there should be Truth.

From where I sit, thase ideas are arrangad juat right. Temperance an one side, Tyranny on the other—and Truth in the middle—sealing that Tyranny nevar encraaches upan Temperance.

OIL to match your driving

Did you ever think about the heat indicator—and speedometer as definite guides to the selection of the oil you use? The readings of these two dash instruments give you the answer.

When the engine temperature goes past 200° with the speedometer past 60, you definitely need Northland Motor Oil. For this extra tough oil is tailored to stand up under high sustained speeds.

However, for the average motorist who seldom exceeds 55 m. p. h. ROC oil gives excellent results.

Get the scientifically processed oil which matches your top driving requirements—that's practical oil economy.

39 More Children In School District

The school census for 1948 has been completed, according to Supt. Roy G. Bennett.

The number of school age children from 5 through 20 years has increased from 901 to 940 for this year.

The number of pre-school age children is approximately 320 children. About 70 of that number will be ready for kindergarten this fall.

Entertain Faculty

Mrs. Dorothy McRae and Miss Frances Milner entertained the women of the faculty at a luncheon at the McRae cabin on Lake Michigan on Tuesday.

• Mrs. Maurice Foster and son, Bobby of Chicago, arrived Saturday to make an indefinite stay with her mother, Mrs. Nina Ouderkirk and Mr. Foster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Foster. Mr. Foster, who brought them, returned to Chicago after spending the week-end here.

more. Eleven years old, Chief finally got to the point that he could not eat. Unable to see their pet suffer so, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis had the humane thing done.

Following the memorial service for the sailors on the shore of Round Lake, I noticed a beautiful cruiser in one of the slips. It was named "Io Triumphe". Remembering that the famous college yell of Albion College, I remarked, "Bet folks in that boat come from Albion." A voice behind me remarked, "You're right. It's the Dean cruiser from Albion and we are with them on a week end cruise." . . . Do you remember when Dr. Frank Wilkinson always used to ride the horse in the Memorial Day parade? . . .

Mrs. Cerrie Livingston arrived last week from Loreine, Ohio, where she hes spent the winter months. Janet Livingston also returned home this week-end from Rockford where she has been visiting her brother, David and family. She was brought home by the Clare Ushers who came to spend Memorial Day with Mrs. Ella Usher. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Evert Ash of Bellaire.

The Max Novaks have been busy the past few days moving from the Shetterly apartments to their summer cottage . . . The Edgar Osborns of Flint were here at their cottage on Michigan for the week-end and had several guests. It's a small world. Glancing through the files noticed the Osborns live but three blocks from my brother on the same street in Flint . . . A humorous scene on Main street Memorial Day was Floyd Brown riding around town on a motorized bike.

There is certainly a big hole in the ground in the road beyond the new bridge up on Michigan Ave . . . No one could have asked for more perfect weather than we had on Memorial Day and in the East it was pouring rain . . . Fishermen were out, the shore was lined with men and women with their poles. It was hard to take time out even to eat.

Summer folks were out in shorts. Another man was walking down Bridge street bathing his face in sticky white sun tan lotion and remarking that he was "surely burned." . . . Mrs. Leon Abbey and daughter of Flint were here for the week-end in their apartment above the store . . . Mr. and Mrs. Lee Scroggie of Detroit were Memorial Day visitors . . . Lyle Ance of Detroit was another visitor and also one of the men in the parade in uniform . . . There was plenty of handshaking on Bridge street as well as at Brookside cemetery the past few days . . .

We are sorry to learn of the illness of Mrs. John Ackert . . . Mrs. Ed Chaloupka of Redlands, Calif., has arrived in Charlevoix and is visiting the Sees . . . Holiday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Faulkner were Mrs. George Myler, Mrs. William Bolding and son, William M. Bolding, all of Detroit and Mrs. Mary Finucan Walsh of Lowell . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Geiken of Dayton, Ohio were week-end guests of Carrie Geiken . . . Robert Healy and his fiancee, Miss Isabelle Wageman, both of Grand Rapids, visited over the Memorial week-end with his grandmother, Mrs. Isaac Brown . . . Elmer Barber entered the hospital at Petoskey this week for observation . . . Among the folks seen at Brookside cemetery Memorial Day were Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Coulter and Mrs. Cora Coulter of Birmingham, Mrs. Grace Emrey of Grand Rapids, Mrs. Marie Mayne Stacks, also of Grand Rapids, Galo Hines of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Frances Price who were here with the Walter Alexanders, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Withers who were with the Jim Hillers . . . Mr. and Mrs. Nat Burney of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. John Clarke of Pellston and Mr. and Mrs. Channing Clarke of Lake Orion.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Coxe were L. R. Coxe and friend of Ashtabula, Ohio. The men came up in Mr. Coxe's new plane. Mrs. Coxe and Terry were taken for a ride and soon realized that if one had never seen Charlevoix from the air that they have never seen Charlevoix the Beautiful. Other guests were Mrs. Florence Howard and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Harris of Traverse City . . . Mr. and Mrs. Ned Durance and son, Don of Flint visited the Jone Durances on Memorial Day . . . Congratulations to "Geik" on his beautiful new shop. It's a great addition to our Main Street. In addition to his wonderful candy and gift shop he gave a spot to Craft Corner to sell its wares for the hospital . . . William Marshall of Lansing, who at one time was an employee of The Courier, visited this week-end at the home of his sister, Mrs. Morris Ackert.

Understand there are many women in town just aching for a chance to learn how to sew, make some clothes and give some old numbers, now out of style, that fashionable look. Would that someone would come forth as a teacher and organize a class. I am sure it would be a good sized one . . .

Delora Richardson gave us a friendly tip the other day. She has been making the Orange Chiffon cakes that everyone seems to be going mad over these days. She wrote in to Betty Crocker and got a rule from her and also some variations of the same cake. She finds that she likes one of the variations even better. When you get your rule out, make two changes: omit the orange rind and the orange juice. Instead mash one banana. Add to it one teaspoon vanilla, and add to the ¾ cup of cold water. Then bake the cake the same with all other ingredients, using the banana in place of the orange juice, rind and water mixture.

A letter comes to us from Will E. Hampton in Ann Arbor this week and he stated that it was 58 years ago in May of 1890 that he arrived in Charlevoix to take over the publication of the "Journal" from Charles J. Strang, son of the Mormon King. He says, "Wish you could have seen the town and country as it was then. No railroad, no water works, no electric lights, and mud knee deep on Bridge Street in the spring and fall.

There were wooden sidewalks where there were any and cows running loose on the streets, old street lamps on some corners, no sewers, mail coming by stage from Petoskey. There were plenty of schooners coming in and out, a dozen tugs fighting for tow and netting fish by the tons. It is some satisfaction to me that through the columns of my paper I fought with success for street paving, electric lights and water works and for a ban on the street roving cows. Also it was The Courier that secured the Carnegie Library which I had the honor of formally dedicating. Had a lot of fun in my 30 years there but now most of the old time friends are up in the cemetery. Time sure flies!" Our hats off to Mr. Hampton and for his part he played in helping to make it a more beautiful Charlevoix. It is certainly true that "we never outgrow our past, but grow out of it." It is what the folks before have done that Charlevoix is now at the place it is in the sun."

A note was received by Nelle Hammond from Mrs. Mary Trayte whose address is Ft. Myers, Fla., P. O. Box 1585. She states that she is leaving July 23 for California and is stopping at San Francisco, Hollywood, San Diego and Los Angeles. She is much interested in knowing if there are any folks from Charlevoix who happen to be living in these places so that she can call on them. She would appreciate any information . . .

News of folks, your neighbors and mine . . . but did you know that—

Mrs. Robert E. Ross arrived last week to be at her cottage on the Chicago Club . . . Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lamb returned to their Mecosta home after visiting at the Arthur Wexstaff home for several days. Former residents of Charlevoix, the Lambs enjoyed seeing many of their friends. Mr. Lamb, who is superintendent of schools at Mecosta expects to spend the summer at the University of Michigan . . .

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Schlessinger of Detroit arrived Friday to spend the summer at their Michigan Avenue home . . . Mr. and Mrs. John Rathburn, employees of The Courier office, who were married about ten days ago, were honor guests at a party at the L. E. Towe home with the Courier staff present to make the evening an enjoyable one . . .

New arrivals of the week for summer are the Frederic Fechheimers from Chicago . . . Did you ever see lilacs as beautiful as they are this year? Seems as though the flower is simply bursting out all over to be beautiful . . . Mrs. Ed Edwards, Mrs. Don Swinton and Mrs. L. E. Towe attended the State Federation of Garden Clubs meeting last week at Traverse City. One of the features was a trip to the gardens about Traverse which were in the heighth of their beauty . . .

Mrs. C. M. Ely is another member of the Chicago Club who has arrived for the summer in Charlevoix . . . If you happened to look at the rotogrevure section of the Detroit Free Fress Sunday you saw an excellent picture of Louis Orlowski with a classmate seated before a replica of the campus of the U of D, which was made as a Senior project. Orlowski was to be one of the graduate engineers on Wednesday and his mother, Mrs. Louis Orlowski, Mary Margaret Orlowski and Mrs. E. Josephine Madill were in Detroit for the graduation exercises on Wednesday . . .

The Harley Ochs went to East Lansing for the graduation of Bill Ochs. Bill will spend a short vacation in Charlevoix and will then go to New York City where he has a splendid position with a large accounting company . . . There's going to be another big wedding on Beaver Island on Juoe 26th when Catherine Marie Schmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Schmidt will become the bride of Charles O. School Sponsors Summer Music

A ten-week summer music program, to be conducted at the Charlevoix school by C. A. Odmark, the music instructor, has been announced.

The program will consist of private or small group instruction and regular rehearsals of the beginning and junior bands. This program is being offered by the Board of Education at no cost to the student, either for the instruction or rehearsal schedule.

All interested persons are asked to meet with Mr. Odmerk at the school gymnasium at 0:30 Tuesday morning, June 15. Schedules will then be arranged, with an effort made to provide the lessons at times when the students will bo ahle to take them.

New students will be accepted but the instruments will have to be provided by the students as no school instruments are available.

Students not residing in the Charlevoix School District will be charged a fee for the summer participation.

Alumni Invited Back to 60th School Reunion

The 1048 banquet of the Charlevoix high school Alumni Association scheduled for 7:30 p. m, Saturday, July 3, is to be held at the Belvedere Hotel.

Bulletins are going out to almost a thousand CHS greduates to announce plans for the banquet and class reunions, which will be in observance of the 80th anniversary of Charlevoix's first graduating class of 1888. Program details ere not completed, but two features will be piano music by Zack Whyte and vocal numbers by the girls' trio, Shirley Seuri, Dorothy Young and Jackie Louiselle.

David Hamilton is general chairman of the event, Frances Martin is Alumni president. Reservations for the banquet must bo mede by June 28, with Anna Hignan, secretary.

Vote on Soils Program to Be Decided June 16

The soil belongs to all and is of equal interest to town and country, County Agent Ed Rebman told the Kiwanis Club Monday night in speaking on the proposed Soil Conservation District.

He first had showed a series of slides, almost all taken in Charlevoix County, of soil loss and the results achieved by good conservation practices.

Throughout his talk he stressed the point that the soils program is a practical one. Its goal is to put each acre to the best practical use. It is to be started no faster than the farmers can handle it. It takes into consideration markets, prices, finances, equipment.

The method of forming o soil district is laid down by federal and state law he explained. First land occupiers must sign e petition. Next the state committee orders a public hearing to judge the interest in the proposition. If this is sufficient, then an election is held which makes the final decision.

The public meeting will be June 10 at Boyne City in the Public Library ot 8:30 p. m. If the response here is fevorable, then an election will be held July 0, et which time three directors also will be chosen.

The carrying out of actual soil building rests with the individual farmer. Nothing is forced on him or asked of him. He must sign an applicetion for help. That done, technicel and experienced advisers are sent by the state commission who study his farm and its resources, then draft a prectical plan he can follow. The carrying it out rests entirely with the farmer.

What the state, through the county district, furnishes is simply the best technical skill it can obtain.

Fred Willis introduced the speaker.

The state law provides that nominating petitions for directors shall bc filled out beforo the public meeting, these names to be submitted to the land occupiera if and when an election is held. So far 13 men have been named. They are:

Lee Sneathen, Jr., Peter Winnick and Carlton Smith, Charlevoix; Cerl Gutsch, Jr., Albert Carlson, Joe Leu, George Kiooster, Leonard Babel, Clayton Healey and Harold Thomas, East Jordan; Joe Topolinski, Norval Korthase, Harry Bearringer of Boyna City.

Hospital Service Program Explained

Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Young plan to leove Friday for Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., where their daughter, Louise will be graduated Monday. She is one of the honor students.

Joe Shores, 91 on Saturday, Tells of Early Days Here, Wading River, Log Rafts

Stories of the days when logs and lumber and bark were the chief business at Charlevoix are remembered—and told—by Joe Shores, who will be 91 yeers old Saturday.

Still spry enough to make and take eare of the garden at the home on north Michigan avenue, he enjoys sitting in the cool front room in the big wooden armchair and visiting. His daughter, Grace, who runs the home for them since Mrs. Shores died five years ago, says that during the summer he averages two or three callers a day who just drop in to talk over old times or to hear about them.

Waded Pine River

Charlevoix, when Mr. Shores first saw it had one store, Lester's across from the present post office. There was only the beach trail between here and Norwood. The Indian path was back in the woods where it was less windy. And the Shores family crossed Pine river by taking off their shoes and wading near the mouth.

All that was back in September, 1868. Mr. Shores was born in Plattsburg, N. Y., in 1847. In 1885 the family sailed from Ogdensburg, N. Y., in April and on May 11 errived at Norwood. Tho following year his brother, Nick, who had enlisted in the Army when he was only 17, ceme home and that fall the family moved to Charlevoix.

Indian Carried Mail

"If you want to hear more about those days, you want to talk to Mrs. Mason. She's the sister of Harry Nichols, who used to own the mill here. She can tell you all about them."

"No there wasn't any road at first. The first mail through here was carried by o one-armed Indian from Traverse City. It took him a week to go from Traverse City to Mackinaw City. He used to stop at our place this side of Norwood. He talked French. That was all right with my folks. They could talk it.

"Lots of folks started arriving in, '08 and '70 from York State. O. D. Wood built a dock at Norwood and the boats stopped there for eordwood.

Syrup—$1 a Gallon

"The farmers used to make sugar. My, O my, they got a good price for it. $1 a gallon for syrup and 5 cents a pound for tha sugar. They'd sell the stuff to the boats. That was about the only market and all the cash money they could get.

"That old Indian trail the mail carrier used still goes through here. I can show it to you over here at Lowenstein's and Bloch's It goes by Rassieur's and out past Mt. McSauba."

Storms Wrecked Raft

For 34 yeors Mr. Shores worked for the Charlevoix Lumber Co, mostly in the woods and on the lake, on both pine and hardwood. Unlike Muskegon end other river towns, the mills here got their logs towed in rafts on the lake or hauled on sleighs in the winter. Little if eny were floated down the streams.

They had dinner at Grand Rapids, saw the bakery end returned by way of Ludington and Monistee.

Farmers Favor 15 Mill Rule, No Road Tax On Land; Do Not Know Own Legislators

Charlevoix County farmers want the Legislature to leavo the 15 mill amendment alone end the United States to protect egricultural prices.

This sentiment and other similar ones are clearly shown in the results of e personal canvass on rural attitude conducted this spring by men from the Farm Bureau.

A uniform questionaire was submitted to 84 farmers in all sections of the county. Some were members, some were exmembers and some never had been. Each man's answers were recorded and he was asked to sign the form.

The surprising thing about the answers was the almost complete agreement of the 64 on the questions asked.

On one point the farmers fell down end that badly. They did not know who their elected legislative officials were. Asked if they knew of these men, the results were:

	Yes	No
Representotive	13	51
State Senator	18	48
Congressman	37	28
Senators	52	12

(The men ere Rep. Louis Anderson of Northport; Sen. Otto Bishop of Alpena; Con. Charles E. Potter of Cheboygan; Sen. Arthur Vanderberg and Sen. Homer Ferguson.)

The questions and answers were:

Do you want the 15 mill tax limitetion repealed? Yes, 1; no, 63.

Do you want tho state to take one mill of the property tex levy from the County? Yes, ; No. 81. 3 no answer.

Do you want the State to force the township to contribute to the Quartet Entertains SPEB Chapters At Unique Session

Something new in Barbershop Quartet meetings was put on Thursday night by the Charlevoix Chapter of SPEBSQSA.

Organized by Dal Henry, the local chapter was host to delegations from Boyne City and Petoskey, and to the Kalenda Brothers, who for more than an hour seng their revival songs for the 45 Barbershoppers gathered.

Between songs tho brothers told how they ceme to know that particular song, how they got started in religious singing and stories from their own history. Members of a family of ten boys, their father was a minister and used to line them up for song services. Success at amateur night showed them they would succeed at religious song work. Here et Charlevoix they were at the Assembly of God.

During the evening various impromptu quartets from all three chapters were organized by Henry. Loton Willson of Boyne directed the whole group in chorus singing, which was recorded on the Charlevoix wire mechine and then played back for tho group. Refreshments were served late in the evening.

The meeting was held at 103 Clinton street.

The Boyne Chapter invited the other two groups to meet with it July 2.

City Will Ban Lighted Signs in Home Areas

First reading of a new ordinance to regulate advertising signs in Charlevoix was given Monday night by the Council.

Final action will be taken next Monday at a special session. The new ordinance carries the regulations drafted last year regarding business signs: they shall not extend over the street, shall be ten feet abova it and shall follow certain specifications aa to size.

The big change is in controls on signs in residential districts. The only ones permitted are small ones lighted indirectly. Neon types are entirely out. None shall be larger than 8 square feet.

Hotel signs in residential areas are limited to 15 square feet and must be attached to the building itself or be immediately in front of it.

Permits for such signs are required and can be obtained from the City Clerk. These are given for one year only and must bo renewed annually. Penalties are provided for violations. The ordinance will take effect July 10.

The Council also approved an average 7 percent increase in city employee's wages. This will amount to some $6000 annually, boosting the average weekly payroll from $1430 to $1540.

Girl Scout Camp Opens Monday

Monday hegins the week of Day Camp at the Church of God Camp Grounds. All Brownies and Girl Scouts are to be at the City Hall by 9:30 whero transportation will be furnished. Each girl is to bring a nose-bag lunch.

The Home Owner Gets One Break

The City Council Monday night took a step in the right direction when it approved a first draft of an ordinance controlling advertising signs in residential areas.

It is a break for the man who makes up the largest group of citizens we have—the home owner—and the one whose interests usually are overlooked.

The sign ordinance protects the householder from having flickering neons and glaring miniature billboards disturbing his nights and cheapening his neighborhood.

Charlevoix primarily is a city of homes. That is its charm, its attraction and much of its income. The surest way to ruit the of its income. The surest way to ruin the a home town.

The sign ordinance is a good first step. The second necessary one will be a strict enforcement of it. And a third one, equally important, will be to bar all retail businesses now operating illegally in our residential districts.

Such seemingly harmless businesses have got started. They are definitely a bad thing for the community. The time for the Council to put its collective foot down is now—before any more home owners are driven out by rampant commercialism in what are supposed to be kept as purely residential districts.

Let's Not Get Hooked

A bunch of Petoskey merchants last month were taken for a financial ride by one of these fly-by-night, here-today-and-gone-fast promotion outfits which put over a so-called advertising booklet for one of the veteran organizations.

The merchants paid two or three times what the stuff was worth, the organization got but little of the money, and everyone except the richly profiting promoters wound up with a bad taste over the whole deal.

Let's profit by the lesson, for sooner or later one of the smooth talking boys will hit Charlevoix. Before signing or paying anything, call the Board of Commerce or the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Either group will be glad to investigate.

If it is a reputable outfit like C. E. Marentette's Trav-O-Gulde, it will welcome investigation. If it isn't, and you still want to get rid of your money, give it to the Community Chest where it will do more good.

School Question Box

Question:
What is the difference between the assessed valuation and the market value of property?

Answer:
To assess property is to value, or, rate property for the purpose of being taxed. In other words the amount of taxes one pays is based on the assessed valuation. This is done by an assessor who is appointed to assess property for taxation. Market value is the current market price placed on a piece of property by the owner. Otherwise known as the selling price. Owners do not pay taxes on the market value of their property.

Question:
Should we encourage new industries to come into Charlevoix if our present school facilities are inadequate?

Answer:
New industries coming to Charlevoix mean families moving to town, some of them having children of school age. We certainly do not have a very strong selling point if our present school facilities are inadequate.

Question:
Is it wise to initiate a building program at the present time when materials are so expensive?

Answer:
It probably is not wise to launch a building program at the present time if it is unnecessary to do so. However, the need for enlarging our present facilities has never been greater. Compared to 10 or 20 years ago present prices for materials seem to have gotten out of control. On the other hand, income has also soared beyond that of a decade ago. It is easier to pay for something when one has the money than to wait for prices to tumble because earning power always comes down accordingly. In other words if we wait for a depression to come along when we can purchase materials cheaply, how are we going to buy them when our income has stopped?

Guernsey Cow Produces 74.5 Pounds of Fat

Versal Crawford of East Jordan owned the Guernsey cow that produced 74.5 pounds of butterfat during May according to Lee Cook, tester for the Charlevoix-Antrim Dairy Herd Improvement Association. Archie Murphy of East Jordan owned the herd of 12 Guernseys that averaged 46.9 pounds of butterfat for the month.

A total of 23 herds were tested during the month. The average production for all the cows was 828 pounds of milk and 34.53 pounds of fat. Thirty-seven cows produced more than 50 pounds of fat. The returns per one dollar of feed was $2.68. The feed cost per pound of butterfat was $0.38 and per cwt. of milk was $1.61.

Artificiel Breeding Hits high Month

A total of 91 services were made by Curtis Nicloy, inseminator of the Boyne City Artificial Breeders Association, during the month of May. Fifty-two were first services, 28 were second, 9 were third, and 2 were fourth services. The percent of cows settled has been very satisfactory.

Five new members and 24 more cows were signed up during the month.

Get all your troubles out
And hang 'em floppin' in the breeze.
First slosh 'em and rub real well
In the suds of common sense,
Then rinse 'em in good humor

Sunday was a "red letter" day for the Editor's family for we went visiting to a beautiful farm home on Leelenau peninsula, near Suttons Bay.

Mary Rufli, our hostess, is a wonderful cook and before we left I just had to beg two or three recipes of her for Cook's Corner.

Peppermint Refrigeretor Ice Creem

14 marshmallows
1 cup milk, scalded
2/3 cup crushed peppermint stick candy
Few grains salt
1 cup whipped cream
½ teaspoon vanilla

Dissolve marshmallows in hot milk, stir well. When cold, stir in remaining ingredients. Pour into refrigerator tray. When partially frozen, about one hour, beat mixture thoroughly and return to freezing until firm. (Ground peanut brittle candy, or ground chocolate chips may be substituted for peppermint. Add pecans, if desired, to the whipped cream.)

Mrs. Rufli's mother's tried and true rule for one or those easy-to-stir-up cakes when you see unexpected company driving down the lane:

Break 2 eggs in a cup
Fill up cup with sweet cream
Add:
1¼ cups flour
1 cup sugar
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla

Bake in a loaf pan at 350. Serve with whipped cream.

Mrs. Rufli served string beans at dinner for the vegetable. To 2 pints of string beans she added a can of condensed mushroom soup, heated thoroughly and seasoned with salt and pepper.

Pecen Bars

¼ cup shortening
1 cup brown sugar
1 egg
1 cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ cup chopped nuts.

Melt shortening. Add sugar and beat in egg. Fold in flour sifted with baking powder and salt. Add vanilla and nuts. Bake in well greased 8x8 pan 20-25 minutes at 375 degrees. When cool cut in bars.

A Million Dollar Idea

A fellow is never too old to learn and personnally I have always hated to serve an angel food cake, especially if it is covered with seven minute icing. But, Mrs. Rufli did it with perfect ease. Beside her cake stood a glass of warm water. Each time before she cut the cake she put the knife into the glass of water. Result: The knife came out clean and the icing was on the cake instead of the knife.

NORWOOD

By Mrs. Milton Richardson

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Goodrich of Richmond, Vt., are visiting her sisters and families, Mr. and Mrs. William Alward and Mrs. Alice Mayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Holecheck and Irene of Whitehall spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Hattie Holecheck and their son and daughter, Don and Dorleen.

Mr. and Mrs. Denzil Wilson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wilson of East Jordan spent Sunday afternoon at the Milton Richardson home.

Charles Aberlee of Grand Rapids was a guest of Margaret Empey Saturday and Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Empey.

Miss Beatrice Baumback spent a few days visiting relatives and friends in Detroit last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Baumback returned to Whitehall Monday after spending a week at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. William Alward entertained the following Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Goodrich, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Totten, Mrs. Alice Mayne, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mayne and children of Charlevoix, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Baumback and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lord.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Richardson and family were Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. John DeYoung in Atwood.

Citizen Protests Parking Meters

Protesting both the parking meters and the way the law is enforced, Jess George Monday night asked the City Council what is done with the money collected.

It goes to the police fund, he was told. He stated that such funds are supposed to provide additional parking space and charged that the city was doing nothing to provide such space.

He asked why the meters were put out May 1 this year instead of June as last year. City Supt. A. G. Leitch said that business places along the street had asked for them to break up the all-day down town parking by some city residents.

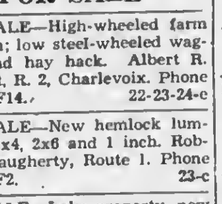
Kroger

Your Friend and Fellow Citizen



Who is he? He is your Kroger store manager, of course. His whole success depends upon what you think of the values he offers, what you think of the service he gives. He lives in your town — his store-payroll is spent in your town — and the store itself adds to the real estate values of your community. He is a "friend and fellow citizen"—365 days a year.

20-Minute Beating of 5-Year-Old Brings Jail Term

Beating a 5-year-old boy for 20 minutes, then taping his hands and mouth and leaving him drew a 15-day sentence for Robert Bergmann in Justice Horace Fowler's court Saturday.

He also paid a $50 fine, $10 costs and a $6 doctor's bill.

The boy was David Schuchard, son of Mrs. Lillian Schuchard or Sullivan, employed at the hospital as a nurse's aide.

According to Chief Clarence Heise, Mrs. Schuchard said her son had been taking change from her purse. She had told him she would have Mr. Bergmann punish him when he did it next.

Friday she discovered six cents missing. That evening she asked Mr. Bergmann to punish the boy. Testimony in Justice Fowler's court was that he did this for 20 minutes using two hardwood sticks, one of which was an edging.

Meanwhile the mother, "not feeling well", stayed downstairs. At the end of the 20 minute chastisement the boy came down to kiss his mother good night. He was then taken back upstairs where he had a piece of adhesive tape put across his mouth and his hands taped together. A pair of wet panties were pulled over his head.

Bergmann and Mrs. Schuchard then went for a ride. Meanwhile Marilyn Doyle came over to stay with the Schuchard children as sitter. Hearing a noise upstairs she investigated and found the boy. She at once called her mother, Mrs. Eva Doyle.

She called Officer Joe Smith who summoned Chief Heise and Dr. Robert McClintock to care for the child.

Saturday afternoon Mr. Bergmann was formally charged with assault and battery and found guilty in justice court. According to Justice Fowler, inasmuch as the mother was not actually present when the beating was administered or the tape applied, she could not be brought into court.

The children still are in her custody.

For A Richer Charlevoix County

Let's Have Less of This

EVERY LAND occupier of three acres or more of land in Charlevoix County is urged to attend the public hearing on the proposed Soil Conservation District in this county. According to law farmers must testify as to the need for soil conservation before the issue of establishing a district can be brought to a vote. This hearing has been set for Monday evening, June 16 at 8:30 p. m., in the Boyne City Library. A large attendance is necessary before a referendum can be ordered.

A Soil Conservation District is an organization of land owners and operators working together under its own direction to combat soil erosion, to increase soil fertility, and to encourage the best use of land. It is a means by which farmers can formulate their own soil conservation program, obtain technical help, and sponsor educational programs to acquaint all farmers with soil management problems and methods to correct them. It will make possible the cooperation between organized farmers and Civic, Industrial, County, State and Federal Agencies for the purpose of checking soil wastage.

A Soil Conservation District is one of the most democratic action programs. The control of the district affairs is entirely in the hands of land occupiers within the district. Preparing and carrying out a soil conservation and land use program rests entirely with these land occupiers through their board of directors. These directors are elected by the local people.

Experience has demonstrated that many things can be accomplished better by working together than through individual effort. This is especially true when people can formulate and run their own organization. Soil conservation districts may now be established by local people so, through organized effort, they can cope with soil and moisture conservation problems. Benefits received may vary because, like any other cooperative enterprise, the individual receives benefit in proportion to his cooperation. However, he may receive the benefit of organized effort to combat a community problem. Some of the benefits may be listed as follows: (1) aid in developing a complete soil and water conservation plan for his farm, (2) assistance of men experienced in erosion control, drainage, water control, and increasing soil fertility, (3) assistance in the form of materials, equipment, and service: i. e., trees, tree planters, drainage equipment, marsh plows, terracers, etc., if made available through the district program, (4) community betterment, through widespread soil conservation education programs with both youth and adult.

There is no direct cost for planning and technical assistance. The cooperating organizations and agencies furnish this service to the district. The public supports these agencies through taxation. The farmer pays for the lime, fertilizer, seed, and other materials and for the use of the equipment in applying the conservation materials. The directors of the district cannot levy taxes or issue bonds.

A farmer, by making application to the directors, may obtain assistance in developing a tree planting, and other practices best suited to the land. He may also arrange for the use of equipment, material, labor which the directors may have at their disposal. This program is entirely voluntary. The district develops a soil conservation program and invites all people to take part. Local people, if interested in assistance, must make a written application to the directors before they can receive help from their own district.

The relationship between the AAA and the soil conservation district is cooperation. The AAA makes payments to farmers for carrying on certain soil conservation practices. A conservation district makes no payments but provides technical help on why, how and where to do soil conservation. In many areas, district directors and AAA plan together the practices for which the AAA will make payments.

For your health and for the health and well being of your children and your children's children you are urged to attend this hearing. Come and express your views on the problem of soil conservation on your own particular farm. By working together a better and easier job of controlling soil loss can be accomplished.

And More of This

Non-Partisan News Letter

By Gens Alleman
Lansing Observer for Michigan Press Association

Wanted: 167,000 signatures to petitions for a November ballot on Governor Sigler's program for state government reorganization.

That's the latest news at Lansing.

It comes from the newly formed Citizen's Committee for Better Government, headed by Laurent K. Varnum of Grand Rapids, president. Varnum is a past president of the State Bar of Michigan.

Petitions would place before the Michigan voters a new amendment to the state constitution. This amendment would require merger of the state's 100-plus state agencies and departments into not more than 20 state departments. The governor would have the right to appoint all department heads. They would serve at his pleasure.

What are these state units? Here are a few examples: Conservation, labor, agriculture, aeronautics, banking, highway, health, economic development, public instruction, insurance, apple, cherry, corporations and securities, crippled children, historical, Mackinac Island, tourist council, public service, safety, racing, teachers' tenure, unemployment compensation, waterways, workmen's compensation, tuberculosis, liquor control, stream control, municipal finance, two state fairs, labor mediation, libraries, plus a long list of examining and licensing boards.

The Citizens' Committee proposes to center its reform efforts on this one amendment.

Assuming that 167,000 persons can be induced to sign the petitions—(and some citizens have been known to sign petitions without knowing what they proposed)—then Michigan voters would be asked to judge the following constitutional changes at the November election:

(1) Should a convention be called to revise the state constitution?

(2) Should the sales tax diversion amendment be repealed?

(3) Should present constitutional limitations be removed from salaries of state officials and state legislators?

(4) Should Michigan's 100-plus state agencies be merged into not more than 20 state departments whereby the governor would appoint all department heads?

The legislators' decision indicate that the debate will be vigorous. More centralized power in the hands of the governor will be contested within his party. Not even the governor's so-called "cabinet" is unanimous in its support. The fight will be lively.

Mrs. James Pappin Dies In Detroit

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. James Pappin, 83, who died in Detroit on Wednesday.

Mrs. Pappin, a former resident, lived at 204 Nichols St., for many years. She is survived by two sons and three daughters.

Graduates Get Sheepskins, College Students Return to Charlevoix Homes This Month

Early June marks the return of college students to their respective homes for the summer months. June also means graduation and several Charlevoix students will receive their sheepskins at graduations within the next few weeks.

Three Charlevoix men, all veterans, are graduating from Michigan State: Harold Chew, Bill Ochs and Howard North will all receive their degree this week. Louis Orlowski received his degree from the U. of D. Wednesday.

Other Michigan State students who are returning here for the summer are Helen Jean Hammond, Marion Craig, Virginia Ranger, Joan Nelson, Elaine Brow, Ardeth and Vonda Howe, Sally Miller, Jack Abfalter, Doug Byers, Maxine Lewis, Wayne Saunders, Bud Webster, Eleanor Brow and Bud Kohler. The two latter are doing post-graduate work there.

Charles Smith will soon be returning from his studies at Olivet and his brother, Bob, will be home from Central Michigan College at Mt. Pleasant. Other Central Michigan students home are George Sneathen, Jim and Arlyle Roberts, Hubert Oloch, Pat Foster, Lois Courier and Bob Hamilton.

Linda Bowman will soon complete her second year at Albion; Jim Foster and Versal Shearer, University of Michigan students, will be home later in the month.

Alma college students, Don Carey, Nancy Totten, Nancy Heering and Jane Kohler, have all returned here. Dick Hardy, Oliver Johnson, and Herb Wickersham are all home from the Soo branch of the Michigan College of Mines.

Don Boss of Hope College, Ken Hardy of Western State at Kalamazoo, Helen Hamlin of Anderson College, Ind., Elaine Edwards of Pratt Institute, New York, Louise Young of Wheaton College, Ill., Ruth and Joyce Butler of Bay City Business College will all join the ranks of vacationing students.

Four More Get Court Sentences

Four more youths, charged with statuatory rape involving two 14-year-old girls, were ordered to pay $50 fines, $100 court costs and were placed on probation for 18 months in Circuit Court here Friday by Judge Charles L. Brown.

They were Warren Bennett, Gale Murray, Lyle Kowalske and Percy Kowalske. All but the latter had their driver's licenses revoked. This brings to 20 the number involved in the case.

Clayton Arnold, 19, of Traverse City was sentenced to nine to twelve months in Southern Michigan prison on an indecent exposure charge.

Girl Scout News

Brownie troop 5 closed their activities for the year with a train trip to Petoskey last week. The 18 Brownies accompanied by their leaders, Mrs. Robert Kelley and Mrs. Edward Swanson and a mother, Mrs. Guy Scott. The group boarded the train here, enjoyed refreshments and a romp in the park at Petoskey and returned. The conductor and brakeman showed them through the train and invited them back for another trip some time.

The Girl Scouts of troop 1 entertained with a tea for their mothers at the Congregational church dining room on Thursday afternoon. The tea table was tastefully decorated with spring flowers. The cookies served were made by the girls.

The camping trip at Wilderness park was discussed at the meeting and all arrangements completed. The 26 girls of the troop, their leaders, Mrs. J. K. Reed, Mrs. Lester Smith and Mrs. James Krulik, and Mrs. Gregory Shadko, who will be camp nurse, will leave next Sunday for a week at Wilderness Park near Mackinaw City.

Wag's Will Move To New Quarters Next Week

Wag's restaurant, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Keith Wagner, will move this week to their new location at 117 Antrim from the site of their present place at 115 Antrim.

While the change is being made the restaurant will be closed Saturday, Sunday and Monday and will open Tuesday in the new building next door.

The new place, which will seat 40, will be done in tan, gold and brown. The walls will be of cedar and harmonizing wall paper. The counter will carry out the brown and cream combination as will the eight tables and matching chairs.

The new kitchen will have a large new restaurant gas stove, steam tables, french fryer, large refrigerators and other equipment.

Joe Shores Nears His 91st Birthday

Kewadin or Beaver or High Island was fine in good weather. But when a storm came up it was tough work. And sometimes the raft was broken up. That meant taking a small crew and a tug, and spending days along the shore salvaging logs. Each company had its own mark stamped in the end.

"Man! I remember one time we were coming through the channel with a tow of logs and a big steamer came along. She wouldn't wait but tried to smash right through the boom. Man! did she get stuck. The logs broke her wheel. They had to shut down the mill and get another tug and work the logs out one at a time from around her."

1,100 Cords of Bark

The big boats were hazards on the lakes, too, where once in a while they would drive into a log tow.

For years his work consisted mostly of building camps and supervising the bark crews in the summer. Hemlock bark, cut into four foot lengths and corded, was in big demand by the tanneries. One summer, especially recalled, his outfit got out 1,100 cords of bark.

"Had 35 or 40 men peeling bark that year. Old Cap Peters took it all over to Wisconsin".

After leaving the Charlevoix Lumber Co., Mr. Shores worked for four years on the Two Heart River in the Upper Peninsula, then came back and lumbered in Marion Township for another four or five.

He's sorry the timber is gone.

"We could have had it yet," he says. "They got so piggish they had to cut it off and sell it at half or a quarter price. They should have taken it slower."

News of folks, your neighbors and mine . . . but did you know that—

'Tis June and a history making month with the Republican National Convention in Philadelphis June 21 . . . And in Charlevoix the Michigan Press Association meeting will be held at the Belvedere on June 25th, 26th and 27th . . . Gary Coates left Monday morning for Buckley to spend the summer with his grandmother, Mrs. Hazel Heath and to be the handy man around the farm . . .

Pvt. Weslay White spent several days on furlough last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob White. Saturday he returned to his base at Tucson, Ariz., going by plane from Pellston. It was glorious being home again and while he was here his brother, Paul of Flint, also came home. That, on top of seeing the folks and all the kids in the home town, was enough to make a fellow return with a heap of memories.

It's "bachelor quarters" at the Welt Bergeon house this week. Sally Bergeon left Monday for a week's visit with her parents, the H. G. Clarkes at Howe, Ind.

We are hoping that next week we can say to the visiting editors at the Belvedere, "Isn't is warm for June?" Pray for good weather, for we want those editors to see Charlevoix at its best and perfect weather will help to do the trick . . .

It's family reunion time. There was a big one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lewis Sunday. Those who sat down to the picnic dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Brock, Marshall Brock, Jr., and James Brock of Farwell; Edward Doyle of Clare; Miss Joan Brock of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Coblentz, Mr. and Mrs. Clerence Coblentz, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ingalls, Mrs. Lola Lewis and children, Maxine, Lorna, Beth and James, Mrs. Ola Kihbe, Mrs. Florence King, Russell Lewis and Miss Lois Lane of Boyne City . . . The Knight sisters arrived last week and have opened their home on Clinton Street . . .

Billy Murray was the guest of honor Saturday at a birthday party. The 26 boys and girls of his class in the Baptist Sunday School with their teacher, Mrs. Mey Smith were invited. The group played ball at the South side diamond after which ice cream and cake were served at the Murray home on Lincoln Street . . . Mrs. A. H. Whiting has arrived at her cottage at the Chicago Club . . . Barbara Kyssis has returned to Grand Rapids after spending two weeks at her cottage on Nettleton St.

Mrs. Alonzo Murray and son returned Friday from Toledo, having been called there by the death of Mrs. Murray's father, Adam Neeper. Also, the Murrays visited an aunt in Lima. The two women had not seen each other for 33 years . . . Mr. and Mrs. Charles Litkowski of Dayton, Ohio, will arrive in Charlevoix next Tuesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Art Heilig . . .

If you had been out to the Airport the other day to take your first trip to the Copper Country and watch the passengers get off, you might suddenly have thought, "What is the matter with me? I'm seeing double." You were seeing double. From the plane descended Dr. Gerald Gibbons and his twin brother, Dr. Charles Gibbons of Detroit. Both twins are dentists . . .

Mr. and Mrs. William Novak and children have returned from Traverse City for the summer. Without a doubt Bill will be at the hammer and saw and the new house that he started last summer on the north side . . . Guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Gaylord D. Howell last week were Mrs. Robert Bessert of Menomines Falls, Wis., Morris Howell of Hillsboro, Ind., Georga Crane, Jr., of Chicago. Crane and Howell are students at DePauw University at Greencastle, Ind.

The Frank Browns are at their cottage on Lake Charlevoix, having arrived from Florida . . . It was an excited bunch of gals who boarded the school bus Monday morning at the City Hall to start their week of Day Camp at the Church of God camp grounds . . . Wasn't it a thrill to see the beadtiful sail boat in full sail Sunday afternoon on the lake. Yes, summer is a comin' . . .

The Julius Gilberts are here from Dearborn at their summer cottage on Park avenue . . . There is another pleasant faced individual these days at Fairbanks Bakery, Elsie Murray of Mance-

Boy Scouts Eat Buffalo Meat, Win High Rating at Big Camp

Three Boy Scout patrols and six Senior Scouts, accompanied by their leader, Stanley Hascher and his assistant, Alvin Ranger, spent the week-end at Camp Greilick where they attended the Buffalo Rendezvous and Barbecue held there for Scouts from 18 northern Michigan counties.

Nearly 900 boys and men interested in scouting gathered at the camp Friday for choosing and setting up a camp site, wood-chopping and fire-building contests on Saturday; an old time parade with cowboys and Indians, covered wagons, frontiersmen and other costumes in keeping with the event; Dedication of the flag-pole; the buffalo barbecue. On Saturday evening's program was presented by the Order of the Arrow, music was by an old-time band, Indien dances and an Eagle Scout award. The closing ceremony was by torch light.

Following the Catholic and Protestant church services on Sunday morning camp sites were inspected and the Charlevoix group received an "Excellent" for camp site, one of the few awarded.

The boys and their equipment were transported by trucks from Freedman Arteraft and Ecklund Dairy.

County C of C Organized, New Officers Named

Five members of the Charlevoix Board of Commerce and Don Feagan of Ironton's Chamber of Commerce attended the county meeting Wednesday at Boyne City.

The county group was organized formally then, taking the name of the Charlevoix County Chambers of Commerce. Don Watkins of Boyne was named president and George Secord of East Jordan Secretary-treasurer.

Those going from here were S. E. Coleman, Robert Fochtman, John Knight, Charles Bleha and L. E. Towe.

New Archery Club Organized Here

Jack Hale of Boyne City, and a well known archery man of the North, was in Charlevoix last Thursday and sponsored the organization of a club in this city, which will be known as the Charlevoix Archers.

The following officers were elected: president, Art Wexstaff; vice-president, Orv Richardson; secretary, Charles Wexstaff; treasurer, Beatrice Richardson.

The club has eight charter members and several others have signified their intention of coming into the club.

Targets have been set up on the high school sports field. The club hopes to have a roving range before long.

Rev. Howell Renamed To Charlevoix Post

Rev. G. D. Howell has been reappointed as pastor of the Charlevoix Methodist church for the fourth year.

Last week Rev. Howell attended the Michigan Annual Conference of Methodist Churches at Muskegon where he received the reappointment.

Also Rev. Howell was elected Chairman of the Board of Education of the Grand Traverse District, dealing with the religious education of this section.

• Mrs. William Stern of New York City will arrive in the near future to occupy the Fitch residence at 404 Michigan ave., for the summer.

Gifts to Life Guard Fund Continue

Funds continue to come in for the Life Guard Fund.

During the week $23.64 was collected in the canisters about town. The V. F. W. turned over $8.24.

The total now is $490.23.

Rod, Gun Club Will Plan Sports Day

The Rod & Gun Club will meet Thursday night at the IOOF Hall.

A business meeting, plans for the coming Sportsman's Day in August will be made.

Professional Group At East Jordan Starts Summer Theatre to Serve Charlevoix County

Charlevoix County will have a summer theatre this year at East Jordan.

If plans work out, it will become permanent and develop into a dramatic school on the order of some of the famous Eastern vacation playhouses.

"Center Stage, '48" has been adopted as the name for the summer theatre. The plays will be given at the East Jordan school auditorium.

Leaders and guiding spirits of the project are two young women, Marilyn Lief and Bernice Loren, who are the rare thing, successful co-directors. Their company of 18 is composed entirely of professional talent which has passed the Broadway test.

No strangers to this sort of work, the leaders last year were co-directors of the Drama Playhouse at Montreal.

Unlike some previous theatrical enterprises of unpleasant memory, the Lief-Loren company is registered with the American National Theatre Academy, which requires its group members to give proof of reliability and quality.

The directors plan a ten-week season, from July 1 to Sept. 6. Plays will be given Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights at 8:30 and a Saturday matinee at 2:30. First production will be "John Loves Mary," which had a two year Broadway run. The scenery, costumes and stage light switchboard for the season are being shipped out from New York.

12 Girls Will Compete For Venetian Queen

Queen of the Venetian Night Parade on July 25 will be picked by a group of Michigan editors at the MPA Convention here June 26.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce early this spring volunteered to arrange for choosing the Queen and her court. As worked out by the executive committee of the JCC, the following plan will be used.

Between now and the newspaper convention, the JCC will nominate 12 Charlevoix girls as Queen candidates. These girls will be guests at the beach luncheon Saturday noon, June 26, at the Belvedere beach.

There they will mingle with the press group and meet the judges individually. A contestants' parade may be staged. After the luncheon the judges will meet, make their decision and turn it over to T. H. Coxe in a sealed envelope. They will select the queen and three members of her court.

Shortly before Venetian Night, July 25, the JCC will stage a big Queen's Ball and Coronation. All 12 of the contestants will be present. At that time the envelope will be opened, the decision announced and the queen formally crowned.

The JCC also plans to invite East Jordan, Boyne City and Petoskey to send their respective Cherry Queens here for Venetian Night to take part as members of the Queen's Court.

Shirley Sauri Goes To Cherry Queen Contest June 25

Shirley Sauri will be going to Traverse City June 25 to represent Charlevoix in the competition for National Cherry Queen.

Members of the Court of the National Cherry Queen will be selected at the Queen's Ball, which will follow immediately after the selection of the Queen at the Michigan Theatre.

The judges will make their Queen selection from among the candidates who appear before them on the Michigan theatre stage. Then the entire party of candidates will accompany the Queen to the Traverse City Golf and Country Club where they will be honor guests at the Queen's Ball and where the six members of the royal court will be selected by the same judges who named the Queen.

The ball will be a formal affair.

Patrol Boat to Get New Power Outfit

The Conservation Department's Patrol Boat No. 1 stationed here at Charlevoix, will be getting a new electric system sometime this month.

A 110 volt generator and equipment will be installed in place of the present 32 volt. Radio needs make the change necessary. The work will be done at Two Rivers, Wis.

Dr. Mann to Give Talk at Alumni Banquet July 3

Dr. Louis L. Mann of Chicago, prominent Charlevoix summer resident, will be speaker at the Charlevoix High School Alumni Association banquet Saturday, July 3, at 7:30 p. m. at the Belvedere Hotel.

Dr. Mann, rabbi of Chicago Sinai Congregation, is well known in Charlevoix and as a religious leader. His talk will be a highlight of the varied banquet program.

Other program features are to be piano music by Zack Whyte, and vocals by the Charlevoix girls' trio, Shirley Sauri, Dorothy Young and Jackie Louiselle.

The banquet, second biennial gathering of the Alumni Association, will honor the 80th anniversary of Charlevoix High School's first graduating class. Graduates and former students, present and former teachers, and members of the Board of Education have been invited to attend.

Any CHS alumnus or teacher who has not received a reservation card and would like to attend the banquet, is asked to notify Anne Higman, association secretary. Reservations must be in by June 26.

Cable Ship Starts Work of Connecting Lighthouses with Telephone Lines

First of a new series of submarine telephone cables connecting the lighthouses in northern Lake Michigan was laid Monday by the Coast Guard cable ship Ynacraw of Boston.

Sunday she lay at the buoy depot here while her crew had shore leave. Then Monday she laid 28,500 feet of submarine cable to White Shoals Light along the Grays Reef passage.

Lay 40 Miles of Cable

After next stop was at Frankfort where she put in a power cable to the breakwater. In July she will be back here to complete the laying of telephone cables between the light houses. A 100,000 foot section will connect Beaver Island and Skilligalee; 26,400 feet will be laid between Skilligalee and Grays Reef connecting with the cable put down Monday. Then 60,000 feet will be laid btetween Beaver Island and Lansing Shoals.

Lieut. Comm. W. H. Moulton, her captain, explained why telephone cable is being put in.

"Radio is fine but always in an emergency it seems that 14 other folks are using the same frequency and you cannot chase them off the air. With a phone and your own cable, you have sure connections and you can get your message through right now."

Takes Three Trips

Laying a submarine cable requires three trips over the route, he explains. The first is to plant a row of bouy markers

Council Passes Sign Ordinance

Charlevoix's new ordinance regulating advertising signs will go into effect July 4.

It was adopted Monday night at the special session of the City Council, a session which lasted from 6:15 to 11:40 p. m. The ordinance covers all advertising signs, sign posts, and billboards in the city.

Each such sign requires a permit from the city, issued by the city superintendent. The application for permits must state the location, size, type and lighting. Each permit costs $1, and expires on Dec. 31.

Only kinds of signs which do not require an annual renewal are those less than eight feet square on one side, and advertising rooms, or the sale of goods or services.

Failure to renew the permit before Jan. 1, will double the cost but the sign still requires the permit and it must comply with the ordinance.

Signs in business and commercial districts must be one foot back from the curb line, cannot exceed 36 square feet, and must be ten feet above the sidewalk. Flush signs are exempt from these provisions, as are small directory signs.

Signs in residential areas cannot exceed eight square feet, except for hotels with 50 or more rooms which can go up to 30 feet. Bill boards are tuboo in residential areas, as are all signs except those having indirect lighting and hotel signs. Out are the flashing neons.

Those putting up signs must carry liability insurance.

The ordinance authorizes the city superintendent to declare any unsafe sign a public nuisance.

Signs which do not confirm to the new law must be taken down or changed so they do before July 10.

Fines and jail sentences are provided for violation of the provisions.

Greyhound Takes Over North Star

Greyhound buses will connect Charlevoix with Petoskey, the Soo, Grand Rapids and Chicago from now on.

Starting Wednesday, the Great Lakes Greyhound took over the north and south line through here formerly operated by the North Star Line. It also inaugurated two buses daily each way. The new schedule is:

Northbound
Charlevoix	3:30 p.m.	8:30 p.m.
Petoskey	4:00 p.m.	0:00 p.m.
Sault Ste. Marie		12:50 a.m.
Southbound
Charlevoix	8:35 a.m.	4:35 p.m.
Ludington	12:55 a.m.	8:55 p.m.
Chicago	8:45 p.m.	5:15 a.m.

Coming Events

Pomona Grange Meets June 24 At Peninsula

The regular June meeting of Charlevoix County Pomona Grange will be held at the Peninsula Hall on June 24 starting promptly at 9 p. m.

A short business meeting will be held. The remainder of the evening will be taken up by initiation in the 5th degree. The Grass Lake Grange degree team will be present. All candidates in the county are to be present. This is a step toward getting the 6th degree at State Grange in October at Traverse City.

Sexton Wants List of Civil War Graves

Leslie Everts, sexton of Brookside cemetery, would like to have a complete list of names of Civil War veterans who are buried here.

Many of these graves were not decorated with flags on Memorial Day, says Mr. Everts, because some of the plots are not marked with stones indicating that the deceased served in the Civil War, and some have no stones at all.

If a list of names can be compiled, the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars will furnish flags for these graves as they do the graves of veterans of other wars.

Anyone who has information about a Civil War grave which was not decorated is asked to notify Mr. Everts.

Ironton Bureau Meets At Neilson's

Ironton Farm Bureau met at the home of Olo Neilson June 9 with 10 members present.

Following the business meeting Discussion Leader Albert Carlson read a letter asking this group to help raise funds for food and clothing for hungry and homeless children of Europe.

Discussion topic was "Are Co-Ops Serving Their Purpose." The group agreed that they were.

The next meeting will be at the home of Karl Svoboda July 14.

Girl Scouts Start Annual Summer Day Camp At Church Grounds South of Charlevoix

The Girl Scout Day Camp, with more than 80 Brownie and Intermediate Girl Scouts, are enjoying a full week of activities at the camp located on the Church of God camp grounds. Included in the extensive program are arts and crafts and bird study.

The camp opened Monday and girls will have five full days of camping under capable and interested leaders and assistants.

The climax of the day camp will come on Friday when the parents are invited to the camp to see what the group has accomplished during the week. The event will open at 0:30 and will include a display of arts and crafts, a camp fire and skits by the various groups.

Mrs. John Nordrum, chairman of the Day Camp committee, stated Wednesday that all parents owe it to the children and the leaders who have worked so hard on the project to attend the last meeting and see for themselves the work accomplished in the week. Camp will close at 8:30 p. m.

Mrs. Nordrum and Mrs. Robert Richards, president of the Scout Committee, are directing the camp.

Editors to Be City's Guests June 25, 26, 27

Next week some 275 members of the Michigan Press Association will be coming to Charlevoix for the annual outing of the editorial group.

Headquarters will be at the Belvedere Hotel. The convention starts Friday and ends officially Saturday night, with an extra feature on Sunday.

First planned event will be the 1 p. m. luncheon Friday. The afternoon will be for golf, swimming, fishing, tennis or whatever the visitors want to do.

Garden Tour Planned

At the Friday night dinner Dr. George A. Buttrick will speak, Mayor Ray Hamilton will welcome the convention and the Charlevoicers will provide the music.

That afternoon a tea will be served the ladies of the convention at the Loeb home, and a garden tour made afterward.

Saturday morning, besides the optional golf, swimming, fishing, tennis or loafing, there will be a special event for the youngsters. Chief Lewis Reimann will be host to them at Camp Charlevoix for two hours.

If the talent can be lined up, a water ski exhibition will be staged at 12:30 and a buffet luncheon on the beach served at 1 p. m.

Will Stage Floor Show

In the afternoon there will be a two hour cruise on Lake Charlevoix for all who wish to go boat riding.

A floor show will be given at the Belvedere Casino that evening. At this time prizes will will be awarded. Don Eck, secretary of the National Editorial Association, will be master of ceremonies.

For those who can remain another day, possibly the most interesting event will be Sunday. The group will go to Beaver Island on the Sundew. There a memorial plaque, the gift of the press group, will be dedicated by the State Historical Society at the old Mormon Printing office. Following this the editors will be the guests of the Island Association of Commerce at a trout dinner. Afterwards, the group will be taken on a sightseeing trip to many of the Island's points of interest before returning on the Coast Guard ship.

Sista Officers Here

Present at the dedication ceremony will be the president and secretary of the State Historical Society, as well as officers of the press group. The bronze plaque will be mounted on a granite boulder in front of the printing office, home of the first daily north of Grand Rapids and the oldest standing newspaper office in Northern Michigan.

WCTU Will Send Two Girls to Camp

"Safeguard Womanhood" was the topic for the last meeting of the W. C. T. U. which closed its year's activities with an evening meeting at the home of Mrs. Guy Smith on Friday evening. Several members presented readings and talks on the subject.

Two girls, June Feidler and Marguerite Colburn have been selected to attend Tryone Camp near Fenton beginning June 10 and sponsord by the W. C. T. U.

A bake sale on July 9 will complete the Union's activities until September.

Water Main Under River Installed

The 8-inch water main to the North Side once more is in service.

Broken last winter during the bridge foundation work, the Lamb-Leudtke Co., crew finished installing a new section last week.

Monday the main was flushed out thoroughly, and the State Sanitary Engineer supervised the chlorination of the water. Even after he approved the safety, the City Supt. A. G. Leitch had the crew continue to flush the line.

The power cable to replace the one cut during the railroad bridge work last fall is promised for delivery June 27.

Cable Ship Visits Charlevoix; Will Lay Wire Between Northern Lighthouses In June, July

carryng yellow flags, one every two miles. These make it possible to follow a straight line even in rough weather or in bad currents.

On the next trip the cable is laid. And on the third one the buoys are picked up.

Controry to what seems logical, the cable is not run out from the stern, but over the bow. At the stern there is too much danger of getting it tangled in the two screws. At the bow there is more room for the heavy machinery and the big cable bins below decks.

Carriad 160 Tons

Telephone cable is about an inch through and weighs 2 pounds to the foot. When she left Boston her home port, the Ymacraw (it's pronounced Yama-craw) was carrying 160 tons or 160,000 feet. It is coiled in layers around a couple of huge steel cones under the foredeck.

Two things have to be watched in coble laying. First is not to pay it out so fast it forms a loop, kinks and develops a leak. The other is putting so much strain on it that it breaks, which it does at a 20,000 pound pull.

Cabla is Testad

A machine controls this tension and a man is constantly at its controls watching a long brass needle which showa the strain. Down below a telephone man is checking all the time so that if there is a defect in the cable it will be spotted at once.

The Ymacraw is responsible for all government cable between Maine and Corpus Christi, Texas. This is her, and his, first visit to the Great Lakes, Commander Moulton saya.

One thing surprised him on the trip. A veteran of 31 years at sea, of war service all the way from Iceland Convoys to Guadalcanal, he says the most amazing thing to him were the locks on the St. Lawrence.

Praises City Parks

"Panama is nothing compared to them," he says, "The Welland canal has it all over Panama for engineering. Those seven locks each lift 43 feet. And that's besides all those at the LaChine Rapids."

He had two comments to make about Charlevoix. It looked like a wonderful place to spend a vacation. And the city showed unusual judgment in having a park along Round Lake instead of the average unsightly back alley look.

• Mr. and Mrs. John Kling and daughter, Mrs. John Geer, spent several days last week in Royal Oak where they attended the graduation of their grandson, John E. Kling, from high school. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kling whom they visited while there.

Clare LaLonde to Wed Robert Hamilton

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heise have announced the engagement of their niece Miss Clare LaLonde of Petoskey to Robert Hamilton, son of Mr. on d Mrs. Ray Homilton.

The bride-elect is the doughter of the lote Mr. and Mrs. Lowrence LaLonde of East Jordan. She is now employed at the Burns Clinic at the Little Traverse Hospital.

Mr. Hamilton, who is an overseas veteron, is now ottending Central State College at Mt. Pleasant.

The wedding will be an event of late summer.

Girl Scout News

Brownie troop 7 went on a train trip to Petoskey on Wednesday. Twenty-one, including the leaders, Mrs. C. M. Bice, Mrs. George Smith and Georgie Smith and Garlyn Bice, the guests, made the trip.

They'll Be Our Guests

Next week-end Charlevoix will be host to the members of the Michigan Press Association and the League of Home Dailies, two groups of editors with papers all over Michigan.

Most of these folks come from inland towns. To them the sight of a sailboat tacking around on blue Lake Charlevoix is a far bigger thrill than it is to most of us.

Few things we folks here can do would give these guests of ours more pleasure than a boat ride. So if you have a sailboat or a power craft, and will spare a couple hours of time, take a bunch of them out for a trip.

Just call The Courier and leave word when you can go and how many you can take. You'll find them fine folks to meet, and they'll go home knowing Charlevoix for the fine and friendly place it really is.

Things Are Looking Up

It's not alone the weather—although that has been fine—but several things are happening all at once which augur a better future for Charlevoix County.

There's the Soil Conservation program, easily the most valuable single move we citizens of the county are making this year, or likely will for several years.

Then, the new united Chamber of Commerce is doing more than just eating and looking happy. It is working out county-wide plans of action which will benefit the whole area, such as this 55-miles of smelt dip next spring. It also is doing more to get rid of the foolish and wasteful internal jealousy which has been a handicap for years.

Charlevoix County has been wonderfully favored by the Highway Department which is building new roads to replace the bad gaps in our main road system.

Greg Smith led the movement last winter by getting the Outdoor Writers to meet at Boyne City. Now with the Michigan Press Association meeting here in a couple of weeks and the Amateur Golf Tournament coming back in July, perhaps our county will be getting more of these desirable conventions.

Boyne City and Charlevoix both have new industries and Beaver Island is launching the most aggressive promotion campaign since King Strang's.

East Jordan has a new summer theatre.

So the next time some one starts hanging the black crepe, remember that there are a few bright spots in the local scene.

Do Profits Rook You?

By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

Looking Ahead

PROFIT is a word that folks must utter today in whispers. In fact, it is a nasty word, the way most people use it. And this is a pity. Actually, the word has in it a great measure of progress and once meant the results of that which was "proficient," or usefully productive. But folks today have twisted their ideas on profit around so that the word indicates to them the ability of business to take advantage of somebody, especially the worker.

Our economic processes are interesting and exciting when you understand them. Without properly understanding the ways of money, trade, and commerce, an unthinking person can become a dupe for every ISM that Dr. Utopia has to offer. It is amazing to me that I find young people and a few old ones, too, so taken in by glamorous ideas that have no basis in fact. Some of these folks dream that profit is loot. They look at profit as lacking in morals and as the worst kind of sin.

Way To Progress THE THING that is directly responsible for human progress and human welfare is work. Work is human energy. Without work, and without the pay that people get for their human energy, progress would be at a standstill. But there is something else. The tools, the factories, the land, the buildings—all the things men use in drawing upon their human energy—these things are simply human energy stored up for use.

Payrolls and profits: these two items are vital to the well-run business enterprise. Nearly everybody understands already how important payrolls are to the welfare of our economic community. But not nearly so many people understand that profits also are necessary. In fact, it would be impossible to have good wages without correspondingly high profits. Then, a worker whose company makes a profit is well-blessed indeed.

How To Prosper WHY is that so? Only a business that makes healthy profits can offer steady, good-paying jobs to the community. Only a company that makes sufficient profit can buy modern tools and replace worn-out ones. What worker does not like to operate good machinery? Only a business that makes good profits can afford to plan and to expand its facilities. In other words, all workers who think right about it would want an employer to make good profits.

Many workers think that wages are paid out of profits. This is not so. Money for the work comes right out of sales and goes directly to payrolls, just as money for profit comes out of sales and goes for the use of tools. When profit is high, the chances are that wages also will be good. This is nearly always true unless taxes come in and take too large a chunk, or unless the company is so much in debt that profits cannot be used for new tools.

If I were an employee of a company or working in an industry, I would be very much concerned that my employer makes a profit. I would do all I could do to make a profit for him. Knowing that my chances of having a good job and of growing with the company would depend upon the success of the whole enterprise, I would work hard to keep my employer "out of the red." Then I would know that my efforts really are building a greater America.

What's Cookin' . . .

To the Town's Taste

Mrs. Mildred Ochs has established quite a reputation for herself in making a Lemon Refrigerator Cake. So it was to her house we went and not only were we given the cake rule but Mrs. Ochs was generous and gave us some other of her favorites. And here they are:

Lemon Regrigerator Cake

1¼ cups sugar
½ cup water
7 eggs
1 cup cake flour
1 teaspoon cream of tartar
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon of lemon extract

Boil sugar and water until it spins a thread. Pour slowly over well beaten yolks of seven eggs; place egg bowl in pan of cold water, beating constantly with egg beater or electric mixer. Fold in sifted flour. Then fold in stiffly beaten egg whites to which cream of tartar and salt have been added. Add flavoring. Bake in angel food pan 1 hour at 325 degrees.

Filling

2 cups rich milk
2 tablespoons butter
2 teaspoons cornstarch
1 cup sugar
6 eggs separated
Juice of 2 lemons

Place cornstarch, sugar, yolks of eggs slightly beaten, milk and butter in a double boiler, let cook slowly until thick and smooth, stirring constantly; add the lemon juice and while still warm, fold in the stiffly beaten whites of eggs. Cut the cake in straight slices from top of cake down. Line a large pan with heavy waxed paper. Lay slices of cake for bottom layer. Then a layer of the filling, so on until all is used, having filling on top. Place in refrigerator 24 hours before serving. Slice and serve with whipped cream. Serves 20.

Asparagus Loaf

2 cups white cracker crumbs
1 cup hot milk
2 eggs, beaten
4 tablespoons butter
1 quart cooked asparagus cut in small pieces
1 teaspoon grated onion
½ teaspoon celery salt.
1 teaspoon salt

Mix, place in oiled bread tin and bake until set. Slice and serve with cream sauce.

Ground Scalloped Potatoes

Grind through coarse grinder one onion and potatoes enough to fill casserole. Season with salt and pepper and dot with butter. Pour over enough milk to cover and bake very slowly for 2½ hours.

Strawberry Refrigerator Pie

Pie Shell:
3 cups rice crispies
1/3 cup melted butter
¼ cup sugar

Roll rice crispies into fine crumbs. Combine with sugar and butter and mix thoroughly. Press mixture evenly and firmly around sides and bottom of pie pan. Chill before adding filling.

Filling:
1 quart berries
1 cup sugar
¼ cup cold water
1½ tablespoons cornstarch
1 tablespoon plain gelatin
⅛ teaspoon salt

Clean berries; slice or chop coarsely. Cook one cup berries with water and strain. Mix sugar, salt and cornstarch, add juice from cooked berries and cook, stirring constantly until thick and clear. Add gelatin which has been softened in the ¼ cup cold water. Cool and combine with berries. Turn into pie shell. Chill until firm enough to cut and serve with whipped cream.

Indians Saw State's First Flag Day

Just for the record, Michigan's first flag day was celebrated 287 years ago last Monday.

It was up at the Soo on June 14, 1671, and it was the white and gold flag of France. Louis XIV had told the Sieur de St. Lusson to grab the strategic St. Mary's Straits to head off the English from Hudson Bay. So St. Lusson hurried there, invited 14 Indian tribes and staged a ceremony complete with gun salutes, prayers, erection of a flag and a speech congratulating the Indians on being under the protection of the French monarch.

The 14 tribes were greatly impressed. But not so much that they failed to rip off a lead coat-of-arms and melt it into bullets.

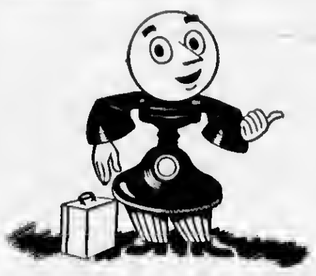
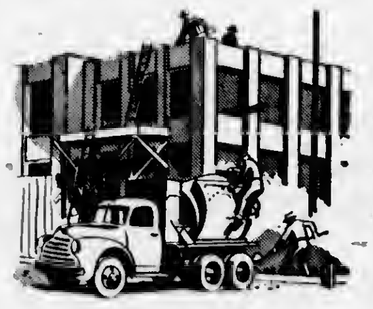
Rural Tele-news



HITCH HIKE: Telephone conversations "hitch" rides on an electric power line near Crystal Falls in the Upper Peninsula, by arrangement with the power company serving the area. This new system supplies telephone service for farms that have electric power but are far from telephone lines. Most farm families, however, will still be served by regular telephone lines.

POLE PASTURE: Bell Telephone Laboratories have "planted" hundreds of telephone poles in an experimental field for exposure tests of 10 to 50 years. Soaked in various preservatives, the poles are tested for reactions to earth dampness, hot sun, frost and damage by fungi and insects. Findings help preserve the life of the more than 15 million poles now in service in the U. S. A.



WORKING DOLLARS: Americans in all walks of life, who invest their savings in telephone securities, make it possible for us to give you more and better telephone service. Their money is used to expand the telephone system . . . increasing the value of your telephone by providing more telephones that you can call.

Pick extra mileage right out of the air!

EVER wonder how important it is for an engine to be able to breathe easily? Then just consider . . .

1. An efficient engine wants to "inhale" about 1,450 cubic feet of air with every gallon of gas. That's volume!

2. An eight-cylinder engine "inhales" as many as 240 times (or more) per second. That's frequency!

Now you know why "free-breathing" engine design is so important.

In the great new Packard Eights, "free-breathing" design involves new streamlined valve design . . . improved carburetion . . . higher compression ratios.

And what does all this mean to the motorist? It means "safety-sprint" acceleration. Extra smoothness. And above all—a gain of up to 10% in fuel economy!

Come in—learn how Packard's "free-breathing" engine design lets you burn more sky . . . less gasoline!

Tow Line . . .

Iona, who will assist Mrs. Fairbanks in waiting on trade . . .

Maxine Lewis is back at her old job as soda fountain gal at the Central Drug, having spent the past year at M. S. C. . . . Doesn't it seem wonderful to see all the shops opened on Main Street . . . It's just like Christmas time at the Post Office again, standing in line to get the morning mail, another sign that the summer folks have arrived . . .

And now a country editor, so to speak, is going to be honored by a commemorative stamp, the late William Allen White . . . Stood talking with Hans Burns on Main Street and down the street came Mable Goddard, walking at a regular 69-mile clip. What's the big hurry, we asked, and laughingly she said as she looked at Hans, "Well, I'm trying to get to that meter before he meets her."

Too bad the summer folks didn't arrive in time to see Mt. McGravel down to street level, well, almost. They will never realize seeing Mt. McGraval II, what those bridge men were doing all winter long when the weather was hovering around zero, or lower . . .

Sure could tell what season this is just by looking at the express truck these days: trunks, bikes, baby cabs, and boxes . . . More new arrivals in Charlevoix this week are Miss Catherine Severens of Kalamazoo, Joseph Halsted of Evanston, Mrs. Samuel Freedman of Cincinnati, Trina Nelson of East Lansing, Bill Graves from Florida, Mrs. Charles Geilfus of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. Tekip of Chicago . . .

Now is the time to eradicate that pest and bane of all hay fever sufferers, ragweed. It is now in its early stage of growth and is easily pulled. With Charlevoix having the lowest pollen count in the north last year, let's keep it that way and make Charlevoix a haven for those who have this malady . . .

Worried about the family budget? Feel a little uncomfortable about being so well-fed when a lot of the world is hungry? Then take it out on the garden. And then take it all into the kitchen and either use it or preserve it for winer eating . . . Charlevoix has many beautiful vegetable gardens in the making . . . Merle and Mary Healey of Grand Rapids are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Stella Brown for a week . . . Many Charlevoix folks are moving from their homes to their cottages and making way for the summer folks to come to take them over . . .

Have you seen the last copy of Collier's. There is an article in it about "They Cut Down the Old Pine Tree," which is a design for touring and it dwells upon the northern part of our State. Has an interesting map of this section as well . . .

Della M. Compton has gone to Bay View for the summer where she manages the hotel . . . The D. C. Maltby family has gone to Bellaire where Mr. Maltby will manage the hotel there as he has done for many years . . . The Greenbaum family is expected in Charlevoix. About two weeks ago they were up here and found it cold that week-end. Now Mrs. Greenebaum has written and asked that Charlevoix turn on some heat for next week . . .

While we have been putting a crick in our necks trying to do the peeping Tom act and watch for the coming of the new Ford in Northern Auto across the street from the Courier office, yet, just 50 miles away up on Mackinac Island folks are not interested in any car, at least on the Island.

Can't you just imagine how peeved that movie company was that made the picture "This Time for Keeps" when they found that upon arrival on the Island they had to hire teams of horses to draw their trucks around . . . If you don't think there is a building boom on Mcech Street, just get in your car and go out and see those five new homes in the offing . . .

Had my first taste of buffola meat the other night at the Buffalo Rendezvous at Camp Grelick and found that it could be just as tough as beef. Anyway it had a wonderful barbecue sauce of apricots, oranges and a little lamon thrown in for good measure . . .

Ken Smith of Ann Arbor, who is at Camp Charlevoix for the summer, had a mighty narrow escape Monday when he was near Houghton Lake. He was bringing up some horses to camp, when he met a car with three young lads in it. The fellows had been up north fishing and were returning to their home in Lansing. Near Houghton Lake there are some cement, life-sized Indians in a yard. The fellows were looking at them and forgot the road. The cars collided and the Lansing car was badly damaged. In about two hours a nearby garage fixed up Ken's truck so that he could continue to Charlevoix . . .

There are some mighty happy people in Charlevoix including friends, family and neighbors for Mrs. Richard J. Farmer is home again after having a major operation in Ann Arbor three weeks ago. Mrs. Farmer is now on the mend and home never looked better.

Editor Suggests Tourist Group Give Real Service

A few weeks ago The Boyne Citizen carried an editorial under the above heading which combines just criticism with excellent suggestions.

Said the Citizen:

The Western Michigan Tourist and Resort Association's current "This is Tourist Money" campaign may appear on the surface to be a foreeful a nd fresh treatment for stimulating tourist business. However, upon closer scrutiny it appears to be merely a revamped version of the idea upon which Hugh Gray organized and established the W.M.T. & R. A.

Tourist business operators and communities which derive a major portion of their income from the tourist business are well aware of the value of "tourist money." What the individual operator would like to know, and what the individual community would like to know is: "How is the money we spend with the W.M.T.& R.A. going to be used to help our community or our particular businces?"

The association's officials answer this query with a recital of a list of services which the association offers. These include such items as the services of a public relations man to assist in drawing up publicity campaigns, publication of "Carefree Days," a tourist guide, and a reference service.

All these services are available if the community requests them —and pays for the service by buying a membership.

The association has, in past year's sold Michigan to the nation as a summer resort state. Today, however, conditions have changed. Instead of selling "Tourist Money" the association should be streamlining their publicity service to make Michigan a winter resort and to give every community an assist in promoting the community's own special events without submission of a special request.

Resort communities and tourist business operators want to know speeifically how and where their advertising dollar is being spend. They need a streamlined publicity service that will keep the midwest informed as to what's going on in Michigan both in winter and summer.

During the past six months there has been no tangible evidence that this is being donc. Many communities in this area have staged newsworthy events, but not a single release of any significance has been issued to newspapers. The association should become aware of the fact that any effort they make to help any community also helps western Michigan as a whole.

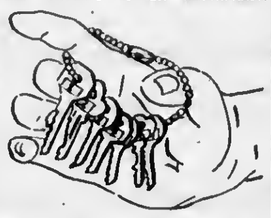
Seven Keys to Safety

Every one of these keys should jingle on your mental key-ring every single second you're behind the wheel of an automobile.



They're the keys to your safety . . . that of your family . . . your friends and every person with whom you come in contact while driving. Check them over — then keep them in mind:

1. Learn to judge conditions which may affect your driving — traffic, visibility, road surface, mechanical condition of cars — the physical condition of drivers.
2. Remember—it isn't how fast you go — it'a how fast you can atop. Stopping—braking distance —your reaction distance.
3. Keep one car length behind the other fellow for every ten miles on your apeedometer. Double it for wet days. Double that for snow or ice.
4. Suspect every single pedestrian of wanting to commit sulcide.
5. Slow down at yellow lights. Slow down at no lights. Slow down at green lights. Every intersection is a crash point.

Has Spear On Stream; Fine Is Suspended

Ellsworth—Julius O'Brien, local conservation officer, assisted by Edward Hartwell, fire offieer of Charlevoix district, last week Tuesday arrested LeRoy Vaninnan of Central Lake on a charge of having a spear on a closed stream, the Guyer ereek near Eastport.

Taken before Justice Robert Clark of Central Lake, he was fined $10 and costs of $6.85. The fine was suspended.

Don Burke Goes To Water School

Don Burke is one of five Charlevoix county eitizens who will attend the Red Cross National Aquatic School at Ludington June 20 to 30.

The others are George Ferris, John Tompkins and Mrs. Loulsa Hand of Boyne City and Richard Adair of East Jordan.

The school gives ten days of intensive training in First Aid, water safety and aeeident prevention.

New Michigan Cleaner Laundry Equipment Is Installed, Works Almost Automatically

Automatic machines that wash and finish elothes are now operating at the new Michigan Cleaners laundry.

The same system that is used on electrical business machines is used to control the big eylinder washer. And automatic timing leaves a silk shirt under the ironer for the right time.

When a bag of laundry is brought in, standard laundry proeedure is followed—the clothes are marked with the customers letters, then sorted into the various elassifications. These are white and colored, silk and cotton, rugs and socks. For each there is a different formula in the washer.

There the elothes are washed, rinsed, bleached, blued, and starched in a continuous operation. Then they go to the extractor which whirls the water out so they are ready for ironing. Towels and such will be tumbled until they are dry and ready to fold.

The pressing machines are heated by steam and cannot scorch. Two take eare of most elothes, but men's shirts require five. These in succession are the eollar and euff, yoke, bosom and baek and the folder.

Lastly the customer's bundle is reassembled by a check list made at the start, the clothes wrapped and the finished bundle put on the shelf ready to be delivered.

This week Mrs. C. Wagner of the Prosperity Co., of Syracuse, N. Y., makers of the equipment, has been here testing and demonstrating the machines.

Salvation Army Seeks Funds Here

The Salvation Army's annual appeal for funds will be held in Charlevoix June 21-30.

Howard Griffen will be chairman and Robert Livingston treasurer. Mrs. Griffin is head of the women's division.

Workers, according to Mrs. Griffin will be: Mrs. Dan Geneit, Mrs. Harry Walstad, Mrs. Edward Swanson, Mrs. Lawrence Swanson, Mrs. Florence King, Mrs. Elmer Barber, Mrs. John Nordrum, Mrs. Lota Coulter, Mrs. James Marsh.

Because the application was not reeeived in time, the Salvation Army request was not included in the Community Chest. Another year it will be turned over to County Health and Welfare Fund for approval or rejection.

Demand Grows for Lots at Cemetery

Any person who has a whole or part lot in Brookside cemetery which they would like to sell is asked to list it with Leslie Everts, Sexton.

Three new blocks have been opened up in the southwest corner of the eemetery, and another seetion to the east of the channel is available for future needs. However, scattered throughout the main part of the eemetery are many part lots which will not be used by members of the families who own them.

Frequently a half-lot, space for two burials or even a single burial, is needed and these part lots could be utilized in this way.

Kroger

A Friend in Need

Marooned by flood waters in Cynthiana, Ky., a Kroger driver put himself and his truck at the service of the community. He spent two days moving personal property and furniture of flood victims to safety, thus preventing thousands of dollars of loss. This service was unusual only because the opportunity was unusual. Kroger people are always ready to serve... in times of crisis or calm.

June is the great Pasture month

But Grain, Supplements and Minerals Are Needed

Livestock and poultry raisers always look forward to the month of June because it is the great pasture month of the year. Of course it is good business to utilize pastures to the best advantage but too many people practice false economy by expecting rapid growth and high production on grass alone. Grain and supplement requirements for fast economical gains are less on grass than in the dry lot but the amount that is needed is very necessary and always pays big dividends.

Every year there are thousands of livestock and poultry raisers who lose part or all of their flocks and herds from breeding difficulties, bad management, disease or nutritional deficiencies. The biggest curse in the feed business is the unscrupulous feed salesman who takes advantage of such situations and immediately places the trouble on a competitive feed when there is no evidence to substantiate such an accusation. Every crossroad should be posted with a substantial reward for this type of racketeer.

It isn't our intention to pick sides in the recent packing house strike but the market and feed losses that it caused the livestock raisers, who were the innocent parties in this controversy, is inexcusable. Meat producers do not have control of their income and carry on year after year under many unfavorable conditions and have never taken advantage or been unfair to other people in trying to reach their objectives. People who dedicate their lives to the raising of food so that the nation can be well fed should not be penalized for the benefit of any group or business. Without their efforts there would be neither packing houses nor workers.

IT HAPPENED ON . . . . BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

The playground equipment has been completed. It is enjoyed by both young and old.

Mrs. Frank McCourt, Chicago, has returned to the Island to spend another summer in her cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, Chicago, arrived Monday to open their summer home.

Patricia O'Donnell was in Charlevoix for a few days during the past week.

Much work is being done on the airport to provide lights for night landing.

While aiding in voluntary work at the airport, Buster Elms injured his foot while chopping brush.

Fr. Fabian Keenan spent a few days in Grand Rapids visiting relatives and friends.

Charlotte and Kenneth McDonough were in Charlevoix recently having dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Carpenter and son, Maynord, Grand Rapids, are spending the week end at the home of Nora Gallagher.

Lillian, Jack, and Gene Connaghan are home visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Connaghan. Gene is recently returned from Germany where he served in the Army.

Grace Gatliff made her first trip to the mainland Saturday.

Eileen Gatliff is in Charlevoix where she is working for Mrs. Willis Cross.

Wolfe Will Add New Lines at Stand

Sandwiches and ice cream will be on sole this summer at George Wolfe's Frozen Custard stand on Belvedere avenue.

To handle the additional foods, he is making considerable changes. The refrigeration equipment all is going downstairs. A 60-gallon hardening cabinet for the ice cream is installed. And he will have a kitchen for preparing the hamburger, hot dogs, Kosher corned beef and other types of sandwiches.

Having taken a course in refrigeration this winter, he is doing that work himself.

Who is this Man?

Now and then, in the pages of tha Clarion, I run a biographical quiz, under the heading of "Who Is This Man?" For instanca . . .

"He was ona of the earliast lovers in American history . . .

"And yet he was too shy to court a woman outright . . .

"Ha came to the New World on the Mayflower . . .

"A cooper to repair the beer barrels accompanying the Pilgrims . . .

"Who is this man?"

I thought that everyhody was stumped. But not Ma Hoskins, who returned the clipping to me with "John Alden" on it. She recognized all the cluas—including that reference to "beer" and "cooper."

For Ma—who's read her hiatory, knows that beer as the beverage of moderation, is as old in this land of ours as the never-ending American scarch for tolerance which brought the Pilgrims over to this country in the first place.

Tourists Drive 1,500,000,000 Miles In Michigan In Year; One-fourth Comes from Other States

Highways are the key to the development of Michigan's tourist industry according to "Highway Needs in Michigan."

The report, published by the Michigan Good Roads Federation Highway Study Committee, enumerates Michigan's natural and man-made recreational sources—3,000 miles of shoreline, 11,000 inland lakes, 36,000 miles of rivers and streams, five national forests, 3½ million acres of state forests, parks, public fishing and hunting sites, and winter sports areas.

The following data on recreational travel were revealed in the traffic analyses:

One out of every ten miles driven in Michigan is recreational travel—well over a billion and a half vehicle miles in 1947;

Three-fourths of this recreational mileage is driven by Michigan residents, one-fourth by people from outside the state;

Half of the out-of-state cars on Michigan roads are driven by recreation seekers.

One-fourth of the total travel for the year is rolled up in the vacation months of July and August.

Charlevoix Has Lowest Pollen Count In Area

Charlevoix is the best haven for hay fever sufferers of any mainland town in northwestern Michigan, according to the records of the Department of Health for 1947.

During the ragweed and pollen season, the Department has pollen counters at various strategic places. They report on the number of grains to the cubic yard of air.

During a period of 44 days, July 30 to Aug. 12, pollen was reported at Charlevoix. But on only 21 of these days was there any count. Only twice did the count go over 100, which is regarded as the point necessary for even a slight sneeze by the most susceptible victim. Only three times was it above 29. During the entire 44 days, the total count was 662, or an average of 15 grains a day.

At this same time, daily counts at Lansing in the middle of the ragweed belt were hitting above 1,000 frequently.

Nearest competitor to Charlevoix in low count was Petoskey, which had a total count of the 44 days of 1222 grains, or 30 per day, just double Charlevoix's count.

Gaylord totalled 1603, or 36 per day.

No count was made at Beaver Island. In fact, the St. James folks say there couldn't be any. They just don't allow any pollen grains to sully their air over there.

Coyotes Increasing On Beaver Island

Beaver Island has fewer fox, more coyntes and a whale of a big rabbit population this summer according to Clayton Smith who returned June 7 from five days there with Art Stoel.

While there the brothers-in-law set out a string of traps, catching two fox and one coyote, and seeing two others. They believe the coyotes, which look sleek and well nourished, have been killing off the fox.

They also made a one-day trip to Garden Island. The bass and carp were spawning and could be seen in big schools, Smith said. The northern island also deserved its name for it was almost covered with flowers, many varieties being new to him.

"You're welcome, son . . . but go easy on the gas"

Cooperation and just a little thoughtful planning will ease us all over the present gas "shortage". We don't expect rationing will return with all of its annoyances and limitations, but this could happen if the available supply is reduced too greatly. So we strongly suggest limited vacation trips this year and only necessary driving around home. Use your car of course, but be conservative. This is a good time to have the engine tuned so that you will get maximum mileage—and always use Power Flight gasoline and lubricants, which give uniform, dependable performance with economy.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

How to Live Longer

Someone asked Pappy Miller last week how he stayed so spry at ninety. Pappy told him:

"Well, sir—when I work, I work hard. When I set, I set loose. When I think, I go to sleep."

According to Doc Hollister, that formula isn't far amiss. "Hard work," says Doc, "never wore out anyone before his time, providing he knew how and when to relax."

Doc himself works overtime, with his daytime patients at the office, and his evening calls. And when he gets home he takes it easy with a mellow glass of beer and chats with the missus until it's time to go to bed.

From where I sit, relaxing is a fine art—especially in these tense, fast-moving times. And there's nothing like a temperate glass of beer—enjoyed with pleasant company—to restore that easy frame of mind that one needs after a hard day's work.

Couple Are Married At City Parsonage

In a quiet ceremony solemnized at the Church of God at 2:30 Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Maude Kenney, East Jordan and George J. Bulow of Livingston, Mont., exchanged their marriage vows. Rev. W. D. Wood read the service in the presence of a few relatives and friends.

The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Benson of East Jordan.

A reception was held at the bride's home in East Jordan on Saturday evening. The couple left on a wedding trip in southern Michigan and after spending some time in East Jordan, plan to leave for the West to make their home.

Mr. Bulow is the brother of F. R. Bulow of this city.

Agnes Thorp Bride of Arthur Christ of Detroit

Miss Agnes M. Thorp, daughter of Mrs. William Thorp became the bride of Arthur Chirst, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Christ of Detroit at a ceremony performed at the home of the bride's mother at 7:30 Monday evening.

Rev. W. D. Wood read the service in the presence of 75 guests before a background of summer flowers. Preceding the ceremony Arthur Taylor played several piano selections and the traditional wedding marches.

The bride chose a white satin gown with long sleeves, a sweetheart neckline and full skirt for her wedding. Her fingertip veil fell from a beaded crown and she carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Thelma Thorp, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, wore a light blue gown, a headdress of white roses and carried a bouquet of red roses. Another sister, Wilma Thorp and Freda Taylor, as bridesmaids wore blue and pink gowns, respectively. They carried pink and white carnations.

William Christ of Detroit assisted his brother as best man.

Mrs. Thorp selected a dark blue dress and light blue accents for her daughter'a wedding. Her accessories were black. Mrs. Christ wore a pink and blue figure dress with black accessories.

A reception followed the ceremony. The refreshment table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with the traditional miniature bridal couple and was decorated with flowers.

After a brief wedding trip the couple will return here for the summer months. For traveling the bride wore a black bolero suit, white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Among those from out of town who attended the wedding were Mrs. Christ and sons, William and Michael.

Mrs. Rathburn Honored At Bridge Shower

Mrs. Harold Totten and Mrs. Hugh Mayne were hostesses to a group of friends Friday evening at the Totten farm home honoring Mrs. John Rathburn, a recent bride.

Bridge was the order of the evening with prizes being awarded Mrs. Freda Stewart, Mrs. Ruth Heilig and Mrs. Alice Bellinger. Mrs. Rathburn was given a table lamp by the group.

The dining room table was beautiful in its appointments with the centerpiece a double wedding cake decorated with spring flowers and tall tapers.

East Jordan Couple Are Married Here

Louis Kamradt, Jr., and Miss Betty Rose Hill, both of East Jordan, were quietly married at the Baptist parsonage Friday evening by Rev. Ansley B. Claypoole.

The bride is a former resident of San Diego, Calif. The young couple will live at East Jordan, where he is employed. The groom is a veteran of five years service.

Here is the implement that you can use for every tilling job on the farm. Leading agricultural authorities say it is superior to a plow on any ground; it leaves the top soil on top which prevents erosion. Later it can be used to pulverize the soil for perfect seed bed preparation. In the summer it does a perfect job of killing quack grass by keeping the roots on top for the sun to dry out and kill. In the fall you can work over stubble fields and get better moisture absorption.

Available in six or nine foot widths to fit all tractors. Rubber tires for greater mobility. Reversible shovels. Cultivating depth up to ten inches. Choice af manual, mechanical or hydraulic lift.

Girl Scouts Record Doings on Five Day Camp Trip at Torch Lake In Journal of Troop

Two weeks ago Girl Scout Troop II had a five day camping trip. The journal, kept by Karen Smith recorded what went on. It follows:

Charlevoix Girl Scout Troop II left at 9:30 Friday morning June 4 for their camp site at Blue Heaven cabins on Torch Lake.

Upon arrival JoAnn Liston, Darlene Mason, Connie and Cora Paul, Marlene Lanthorn and Mrs. Robert Laurent, camp nurse chose the cabin, Big Dipper.

Cynthia Smith, Sue Beaudoin, Patsy Ratigan, Elaine Poole, Carol Paul and leader, Mrs. Florine Krahnke, chose the cabin, Thunder.

Karen Smith, Ruth McCracken, Darlene Houck, Gail Krahnke, Kay Ikens and leader, Miss Edith Olach, selected cabin, Sunrise.

After exploring the grounds we went on a nature hike to Lake Michigan. The Big Dipper group put on an amateur show in the evening.

Saturday we laid trails in the woods and had a cook-out. At night we had our bonfire and sang songs. We learned to build two different kinds of fires.

Sunday we had a progressive dinner after our Sunday School service. From 3:00 to 5:30 p. m., we entertained our parents as it was visitors' day. At night the Thunder cabin had a dancing party and we made bread twist.

Monday found us awaiting the arrival of Mrs. Ralph Hamilton who came to teach us craft work. We worked on beading and tiling. Sue Beaudoin presented her with a Girl Scout pin from Troop II. She was a guest for dinner at the Sunrise cabin. At night the Sunrise cabin gave a PJ party.

Tuesday, our last day at camp, we took our lunch and went on another nature hike. We learned to tell six different kinds of trees We also listened for birds.

Next to our cabins we had a bird's nest and while we were there three birds hatched. Mrs. Hamilton came out and took movies of our hike. At 4 o'clock we broke camp. We were sorry to leave, we had such a wonderful time.

Plan Boat Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wojciechowski, former owners of the Harbor View, Tuesday shipped their furniture to Bay City for storage. They have bought a 33 foot auxiliary sailer. In it they and their two children plan to go to New Orleans and Miami by way of the Mississippi.

Laundry Center To Aid Churches

Something new in the way of church fund raising is being done by the Self-Serve Laundry Center.

One day will be set aside for each church in Charlevoix. At that time members of the particular congregation who bring their laundry to the Center will be given receipted bills. These will be turned over to the church and the amount paid for their laundry on that day will be turned over to the church.

The first group to accept the offer and set its day is the Methodist. It will have next Monday.

City Is Host to Grand Rapids C of C.

Charlevoix was to be host to the Grand Rapids Chamber of Commerce annual cruise Thursday morning when the North American was due in.

Scheduled to dock at 7 a. m., city and Board of Commerce officials have been invited to be guests aboard at breakfast.

One group of 50 is to play the final round of the cruise golf tournament on the Belvedere course. Another group will take a float fishing trip down the Jordan river. These will go by special bus to Traverse City and rejoin the ship there.

Editors Will Pick City's Venetian Night Queen

Farmers to Vote on Soil District at July 9 Election

Charlevoix County farmers will decide whether or not they want a Soil Conservation District at a referendum set for July 9.

This was decided last Wednesday night at the public hearing in the public library at Boyne City.

Two questions will be submitted to the farm voters:

1. Do you want a Soil Conservation district formed in Charlevoix County?

2. Who do you want on its executive board?

Polls Open 4½ Hours

Polling places will be in all the regular township voting halls except on Beaver Island where Peaine and St. James plan to use just one board and one place.

They will be open from 12 to 2 p. m., and from 7:00 to 9:30 p. m. These hours were selected at the Boyne City meeting as those which would be most convenient for the greatest number of farmers.

The date for the referendum was picked so as to conflict but little with haying.

Land Occupiers Can Vote

Almost all adults living on farms can vote. Two requirements are set by the state law. The person must be able to show some legal claim to farm land. No one occupying less than three acres is eligible.

Many women are entitled to cast ballots July 9. If a farm is held jointly, both husband and wife can vote. If they are tenants, and both are named in the lease or contract, both can vote. If a farm is being bought under contract, and both husband and wife are named in the document, both can vote.

Barred from voting are hired hands and those not yet 21. However, in the case of father and son, or father and daughter combinations operating a farm, both can vote if the latter is 21.

Must Be Good Vote

A favorable vote on July 9 is not enough, it was explained at Boyne City. The proposition might carry but if the total vote is not large enough to be genuinely representative of Charlevoix agriculture, the State Soil Conservation Commission could and likely would refuse to approve the creation of a new district.

The County, it was explained after the meeting, has more than 1000 eligible to vote. If only 150 voted, no matter if it was 00 per cent favorable, the State Commission would feel that the county did not seriously want a soil district.

13 Candidates Nominated

At the July 9 election, besides the main question, the names of candidates for three County Directors will he submitted. The two propositions are submitted at the same time to save the cost of another election.

So far 13 men have been nominated by petitions. It was decided at Boyne City that nominations would be accepted up to June 26.

Figy Attends Meating

Attending the Boyne City meeting and acting as chairman was the State Director of Agriculture himself, Charles Figy. With him were Gus Thorpe, assistant conservator of the State Soil Conservation Service; E. A. Wenner, extension supervisor of the northern district; Herrick Waterman, member of the State Soil Conservation Committee; Russ Hill, secretary of that body; and Roy Springer, its district supervisor.

Leading men in state agriculture were at the Soil Conservation meeting at Boyne City last Wednesday. Shown above at the speakers table are: Gus Thorp, State Soil Conservation Service; E. A. Wenner, MSC Extension Service; Herrick Waterman, farmer-director of the State Soil Conservation Commission; Charles Figy, state Director of Agriculture; Russ Hill, secretary of the state commission; and Ed Rebman, Charlevoix County Agent.

Seven from Here Join Air Force; Leave for Texas

Seven young Charlevoix men enlisted in the United States Army Air Force Wednesday at Traverse City and went to San Antonio, Texas.

There they will enter the indoctrination center for their 13 weeks of basic training. Following that they will be assigned to the technical schools for which they are qualified and apply.

The seven are: Bill Peterson, son of Mrs. Mildred Peterson; Richard Donaldson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Donaldson; Clifford Lagerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Lagerman; Bernard Zeitler, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Zeitler; Donald Zeitler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zeitler; Glenn Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cook; William Hardy, son of Mrs. Hilma Hull.

Extended Area Phone Service Granted City

Charlevoix, but not Walloon Lake will have the extended area service from Michigan Bell.

Tuesday afternoon the chairman of the State Utilities Commission signed an order including the city, along with East Jordan, Boyne City and Petoskey, in the service. Walloon, according to Bell company attorneys, was not "contiguous" and so was ruled ont.

The new service probably will not be available, according to Sam McCool, Bell public relations director, until late this year.

Coming Events

June 24—Knight Owls vs. Boyne City in first softball game of season.

June 25—Special meeting of O. E. S., 8 p. m., for Friendship Night.

July 9—Bake sale of WCTU.

July 9—W. C. T. U. bake sale at Brown Building.

Lake Shore Drive Is Fixed Up Fine

Once more the road out to Inwood Creek is in good condition.

The County Road Commission has graveled the sandy stretches and graded the whole route around the South Point to end of the gravel at Inwood.

New Ad Man Joins Staff of Courier

Jack Worth is the new man on The Courier staff.

A senior in the Journalism department at MSC, he will be here this summer handling advertising.

Mrs. Worth, also a senior, is here with him. They are living in their house trailer at the city camp.

Still At Hospital

Mrs. Lillian Schuchard, or Sullivan, who sanctioned the brutal 20-minute beating of her five year old son two weeks ago, still is employed at the hospital, according to the superintendent there.

JCC Nominates Ten Girls to Compete for Title

Queen for Venetian Night. Who will she be?

That question will be settled by the editors of the Michigan Press Association Saturday noon at the Belvedere beach party when the girls will be guests.

The following girls have been chosen by the JCC to compete for the title: Donna Rose, Ina Stutt, Elaine Edwards, Jean Hammond, Ione Mosier, Sally Swinton, Ione Mosier, Dona Sternberg, Beryl Frank, Janet Bulow.

Four other girls were also nominated but they will be unable to enter the competition. They were Libby Lee, Virginia Ranger, Marilyn Jordan, Audrey Byers.

The candidates will be driven through town at noon Saturday arriving at the Belvedere at 12:30 where the judging will take place. Two maids of honor will also be selected by the editors.

On the evening of July 24 there will be a formal Coronation Ball at which time it will be disclosed who has been chosen to wear the crown. The other girls will make up the Queen's Court.

Alumni Want Old Pictures, Souvenirs For Banquet Party

Class pictures, commencement programs, pictures of Charlevoix high school athletic teams, or copies of old school newspapers are wanted for display at the Charlevoix high school Alumni Association banquet July 3 at the Belvedere Hotel.

Any person who has such souvenirs of high school days and is willing to loan them is asked to call Frances Martin, Alumni president. All items will be carefully labeled and returned to their owners.

Deadline for banquet reservations has been extended to Friday, July 2. Association officers announce that any alumni attending the event may bring husband, wife, or friends as guests.

Reservations for the banquet may be made with Anne Higman, Alumni secretary.

Life Guard Fund Passes $500 Mark

More money has been contributed to the Life Guard Fund to hire guards at the beaches this summer.

During the week the American Legion and Auxiliary turned over $10, the VFW, $8.24 and the Church of God, $10.

This brings the total to $524.47.

Girl Scouts Have Busy Week at Day Camp

The Girl Scout organization has completed another successful day camp.

The Church of God grounds was the site for the camp which was attended by 72 campers, 61 of whom attended four or more days. The girls were divided into five units, according to age group. Twenty-one volunteer workers carried on the intensive program under the direction of Mrs. John Nordrum and Mrs. Robert Richards.

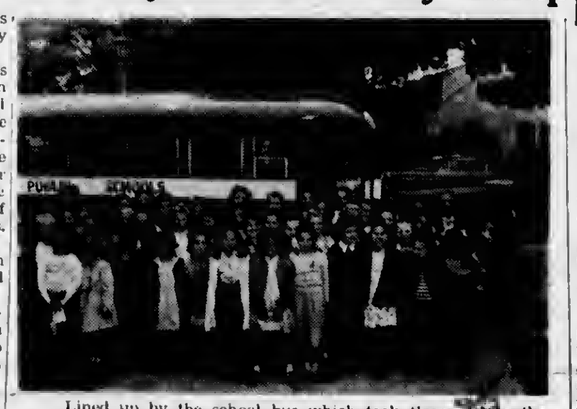
The days' activities started with the trip to camp in the school bus.

The group was then divided according to ages. A leader and an assistant leader were assigned to each and a name and a camp site were selected.

Throughout the five days each group learned fire building, had cook-outs, handicraft, group singing, painting and cartooning, hikes, story-telling. On the last day each group entertained with a skit, a play and one group presented a circus.

Those responsible for the success of the camp were: full-time leaders, Mrs. Robert Kelley, Mrs. George Roff, Mrs. Mildred Smith, Mrs. Pat Curtis, Mrs. Joe Williams, Mrs. Lloyd Arnold and Mrs. Sims Baker, who attended every day; part-time leaders, Mrs. Florine Krahnke, Ina Stutt, Mrs. Robert Miles, Mrs. Dan Geneit, Mrs. Sue Meyers and Mrs. Edward Swanson; story-tellers, Mrs. Mabel Goddard, Mrs. Fred Tyler, Nancy Heering and Jane Kohler; singing, Mrs. Florine Stelter and Mrs. Dean Davenport; handicraft, Mrs. Ralph Hamilton; camp nurse, Mrs. Davenport, Mrs. Larry Grate and Mrs. Robert Wexstaff; cartoonist, Mr. Elliott; Senior Girl Scouts, Lois Alford, Donna Everts, Sara Coleman and Colleen Reed.

The Girl Scouts of Charlevoix are assisted by the Community Chest.



Lined up by the school bus which took them out to the Girl Scout day camp are 51 of the girls who took part in that project. The picture was taken Friday just as the bus was loading.

Boat Trips on Both Lakes, Dinners, Plaque Dedication to Feature Summer Outing

Plenty of fun, a variety of activities, boat trips on Lake Charlevoix and Michigan are planned for the Michigan newspaper folks who will be here Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Orlginally 200 were expected at the annual summer outing of the Michigan Press Association and the League of Home Dailies. Latest check indicates there will be close to 300, a record number.

"Have a Good Time"

Available to them will be golfing, tennis, shuffleboard and swimming at the Belvedere, fishing, tea and a tour of homes and gardens for the ladies, two trips for youngsters.

Prizes will be awarded winners in all events. Most of these will be provided by supply firms but Charlevoix is offering seven big trout or whitefish from the Board of Commerce. In addition, souvenir gifts from Geik'a and LaBlanca'a will be given the convention guests.

Buttrick, Detzer Here

Headquarters will be at the Belvedere Hotel, with the Beach, Charlevoix, Hallett, Bancroft and Silver Birch housing the overflow.

At Friday night's dinner Dr. George A. Buttrick of New York City and Sequanotà will be the speaker. Toastmaster will be Karl Detzer, Leland publisher, author and staff writer for the Readers Digest. Mayor Ray Hamilton will welcome the city's guests and the Charlevoices will sing.

Two additions have been made to the program as originally planned. Capt. Charles Allers of the Conservation patrol boat arranged with John Cross to put out a dozen boxes of nets.

Youngsters to See Fishing

Saturday morning at 8:15 Mr. Cross' fish tug will take convention youngsters out to lift one or two boxes of the nets and see how commercial fishing is done.

Then at 9:30 the fish tug will return, pick up any other children who want to go and take them all to Camp Charlevoix where Chief Reimann has arranged a two bour entertainment for them.

Editors to Pick Queen

Saturday at 12:30 there will be a beach buffet luncheon served on the Belvedere beach. At this time five judges, picked from the visiting editors, will select the girl who will be Venetian Night Queen.

In the afternoon the Patrol boat will take out a group of adults to lift more of the Cross nets on a demonstration of its regular work. The others will be taken on a pleasuro boat cruise.

Floor Show to Be Staged

Zach Whyte will play during the dinner Saturday night. Later in the Belvedere casino a floor show will be staged. On the program will be a comedy act by a Leelanau girl, songs by the Boyne Aires, and an act from Center Stage, the new summer theatre group. Prizes also will be awarded then.

Sunday the Coast Guard's Sundew will take the editorial group to Beaver Island. There officers of the State Historical Society will dedicate a bronze memorial plaque at the old Mormon Printing Office. The editors will be guests of the Island business men at a fish dinner at the King Strang hotel after which the party will be taken on a tour of the Island before returning to Charlevoix.

Prickly Wild Life Invades Charlevoix

Porcupines are getting common in Charlevoix.

First Karl Kohler rescued one from some would-be porky slayers. Angus Leitch reports frequent calls to the City Hall. Bill Wallace had Allie Moore get one out of the garage. They frequently are seen in some shade trees.

So far, the best course found is to leave 'em strictly alone. Unless you want to collect some quills for doing birch bark work.

Knight Owls Will Play First Softball Game Thursday

Charlevoix will have organized softball again this summer. The Knight Owls once more have formed a team and are scheduling games.

Included on the squad will be Chuck Gallagher, Bruce Henley, the Carey brothers, Ted Ager, Bill Lusk, Junior Supernaw, Bernie Zeitler, Ken and Tom Cox.

If a county league cannot be organized an effort will be made to schedule games with the strongest teams in northwestern Michigan, and with various down state teams.

The opening game is set for this Thursday night when Boyne City sends its team here. There will be a preliminary between two local teams also.

Much of the work of getting the field ready for the season has been done by Henry Ager and Junior Supernaw.

Sister Athanasius Leaves St. Mary

Sister Athanasius, who has been principal at St. Mary's school for the last six years, was honored at a farewell party Thursday evening given by the choir members, parents of the children she had taught and other friends.

Sister Athanasius, who will not return next year, was presented with a gift from the group.

She would like to thank all her many friends in Charlevoix for the remembrance and the other kindnesses shown her and the other Sisters.

On Monday Sister Athanasius, Sister Leone and Sister Rose Ann left for Grand Rapids to spend the summer at the Mother house, Marywood.

Advertising Firm To Handle Vis-A-Pac

Brown and Bigelow of St. Paul, the largest advertising firm in the world, has contracted with Reed Enterprises of Charlevoix for the exclusive sale of its new "Vis-A-Pac."

Word was received Monday by Jack Reed following several weeks of negotiation.

Brown and Bigelow expects sales to run five million items a year. "Vis-A-Pac" is one of several items Reed is working on.

Good Luck to Our Neighbor

Boyne City has done Charlevoix County a real service in obtaining the new Boyne Mountain Ski Resort.

This area needs a major winter sports area. It takes capital, experience and the right terrain to have one. The Boyne set-up appears to combine all three.

The three Detroit men—Everett Kircher, John C. Norton and James N. Christiansen—supply the first two. Kircher is an auto dealer, Norton is an engineer and Christiansen is a scout executive and will manage the completed resort.

The 160 acre site is just south of route 75 between Boyne Falls and Boyne City. The hill offers the greatest vertical drop of any ski resort in the state. When done, mile runs are possible. Best of all the slope lies to the northeast, and is in the heavy snow belt, both of which mean dependable skiing and a long season.

So, to our sister community—good luck and success in the new development.

A Good Time To Retire

Since 1934 This district has been sending Sen. Otto W. Bishop to Lansing.

This would be a good year to change that habit and elect some one else. It is highly doubtful if the district could do any worse and there is a good chance we could do much better, both for ourselves and the law-making body of the state.

Fourteen years is a good length of time on the public payroll. This would be a fine time for the Senator to retire to look after his business interests. By so doing, he would give this northern district far better service than he does at Lansing.

Nothing for Someting

One the most bald-faced steals of the citizen's money by the state in a long dog's age is this new Watercraft Tax.

In some 20 years of watching the state government, I can recall no more unadulterated example of a governing body swapping nothing for hard cash. The only similar case I can think of offhand was the pre-war one of Hitler's collecting a few billion marks as advance payment on the People's Car which he never produced.

This Watercraft Tax supposedly will go to improve rivers, lakes and harbors on Michigan waterways. Which, as any boat owner knows, will be nine-tenths public payroll and a small amount of improving.

The state has no business getting into this field. If it is navigable water, in the usual sense, it is the Federal government's province. If it is docks or similar local improvements, let either the municipality or private interests do their own. Michigan's government has more on its hands now than it can well handle.

The tax not only is plain robbery; I suspect it might be held illegal. I sincerely hope some boat owner has enough backbone to refuse to pay it and to carry the fight into the courts.

Walstads Announce Coming Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walstad, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lois to Forrest Hoover, son of Mrs. Leta Hoover of Phoenix, Ariz.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the Charlevoix high school and was formerly with the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. She is now employed at the Security Building in Phoenix. Mr. Hoover is a veteran of World War II and is now with the Phoenix Transportation Co.

The wedding will take place this summer.

What's Cookin' . . .

To the Town's Taste

Mom's Bread Pudding

3 slices of last week's bread, cubed
4 prunes that Junior wouldn't eat
2 T left-over apple sauce
3 eggs (the oldest) these lightly beat
The last of the raisins in the two-pound bag
3 cups milk that's ready to sour
½ cup crystalized strawberry jam

Bake in a moderate oven one hour.

Our woman of the week is Marian Broussard, whose recipe file was filled with interesting looking dishes that are favorites in her family. The following rules were found for your pleasure:

Baked Cream Fish Fillets

2 pounds fish fillets
¼ teaspoon salt
Few grains pepper
¼ teaspoon paprika
Juice of one lemon
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
1 tablespoon dry mustard
1 cup top milk
¼ cup buttered bread crumbs
1 tablespoon minced parsley

Cut fillets into serving pieces. Place in greased baking dish and sprinkle with salt, pepper, lemon juice and paprika. Make a white sauce of butter, flour seasonings, milk and pour over fillets. Sprinkle with crumbs and parsley and bake 35 minutes in 350 oven. Serves 6.

Lemon Chiffon Pudding

(Use exact measurements)

5 tablespoons cake flour
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 cup sugar
¼ cup lemon juice
Rind of ½ lemon, grated
3 eggs separated
1 cup milk

Mix flour and sugar. Cut in shortening. Add lemon rind and juice. Add well beaten egg yolks and 1 cup milk. Fold in beaten egg whites. Pour in greased pyrex loaf pan. Set in pan of hot water to bake for one hour at 350 degrees. The mixtures separate while baking and forms cake on top and the lemon pudding below.

Blackberry Cobbler

Batter:

¼ cup shortening
1 egg
1 cup milk
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla or lemon
2 cups flour
½ teaspoon salt

Cream shortening and sugar and add beaten eggs and flavoring. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk.

Cobbler:

Use a long shallow pan and line bottom of pan with 1 quart of berries with juice. Sweeten to taste. Sprinkle with cinnamon and salt. Spoon batter, leaving space between spoonfuls until pan is filled. Stir lightly to mix berries with batter. Sprinkle graunlated sugar over top.

Bake in moderate oven 375 degrees.

Grape Nuts Puff Pudding

½ cup margarine
4 egg yolks, beaten
¾ cup grape-nuts
4 egg whites, beaten stiff
2 cups sugar
¼ cup flour
2 cups milk
2 lemons, rind and juice

Cream butter and sugar. Add beaten yolks. Beat well. Add flour, lemon, grapenuts and milk. Fold in beaten whites last. Bake 50 minutes in oven at 350 degrees in a pan of hot water.

Jean Merie Adems Is Engeged

Mr. and Mrs. Prescott Adams, former residents of Charlevoix, now of San Marcos, Texas, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jean Marie to Celey J. O'Banion, son of Mrs. Annie O'Banion of San Marcos.

The bride-elect is a graduate of San Marcos high school. Mr. O'Banion, also a graduate of San Marcos, served with the Merchant Marine five years.

Allend Medical Convention

The 97th annual Americal Medical Association Convention opened in Chicago Monday for a five day session. Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Sallonstall left Saturday for Chicago to allend the meeting.

Dr. Robert McClintock may fly to the Illinois city later in the week to attend some of the meetings.

Delivers New Boat

Ray Hamilton delivered a new Richardson Utility runabout at Cheboygan Sunday morning. He left here at 5:30 and four hours later docked at Cheboygan.

Shirley Seuri Gives Shower for Bride-Elect

Jacqueline Louiselle, bride-elect of Eldean Chew, was honored at a kitchen shower given by Shirley Sauri Thursday evening.

As the guests entered they were presented with nosegays by their hostess. Later they enjoyed games, with Dorothy Young and Mrs. Irving Manville winning the prizes. Refreshments were served at a table decorated with flowers and pink tapers. Miss Louiselle received many gifts.

Other guests were Janet Bulow, Dolores Winnick, Arletta Prevost, Patsy Davis, Marvel Hair, Anna Mae Maxwell and Sue Miles.

Deenne Bertlett Celebrates Birthdey

Twenty-six little friends gathered at the home of Deanne Bartlett on Saturday to help her celebrate her sixth birthday anniversary. Games and refreshments which included a lighted birthday cake were features of the party given by her mother, Mrs. Gordon Bartlett.

Charlevoix Chief Smiles as City Mayor Takes Delivery of Keys to New Pontiac Police Car

The City of Charlevoix last Friday took delivery of the new Pontiac police car. Smilingly handing over the keys to Mayor Ray Hamilton is Walt Moore who sold the car to the City. Looking on is Police Chief Clarence Heise, happy at last to have a new machine.

26 Girl Scouts Learn Cooking, Outdoor Living In Busy Week Spent at Wilderness Park

Twenty-six Girl Scouts and their leaders arrived home Saturday from Wilderness Park where they camped for the past week.

Those in the troop were: Dorothy Allers, Barbara Bice, Donna Ball, Deborah Bergeon, Marilyn Bulow, Darleen Coatta, Jaclyn Cooper, Carol Cross, Joyce Dutcher, Betty Gill, Nancy Ikens, Amy Kipke, Janet Krulik, Eleanor Ann Lagerman, Patricia Mort, Doris Nielsen, Elaine Peters, Joanne Pischner, Barbara Ross Leola Scott, Leona Scott, Carolyn Smith, Virginia Smith, Jean Swanson, Aletha Troost, Maudelaine Verwys.

The camp director was Mrs. Hazel Reed, assisted by Mrs. Lester Smith, Mrs. Jim Krulik, Ruth Richards, and Mrs. Gregory Shadko, the nurse.

The week was a busy one with the Scouts quickly learning cooking, cleaning, being good housekeepers and fire building, for which they receive merits. Outdoor cooking was highlighted by beanhole bean cooking.

Nature study and following marked trails created much interest. The Scouts also returned with several beautiful specimens of handiwork in arts and crafts, smoke prints, bead work, shell work and felts.

Evenings meant camp fires and stunts and skits by girls from the cabins.

There were special treats, a trip to Mackinaw City and the old Fort. In addition, Mrs. Pischner donated 10 pounds of sugar for fudge making; Mr. and Mrs. John Cross were generous with the truck, fish, watermelon, bananas and hot homemade soup for the first night at camp; Mrs. Angus Leitch, member of the council brought five gallons of ice cream and cookies one day; Mrs. Shadko gave the girls cokes.

Mrs. Robert Miles, Virginia Hamlin and Mrs. Ralph Hamilton were visitors and assisted in arts and crafts; Mrs. Leroy Allers, General Camp Chairman; Mrs. Robert Richards, President of the Council and Mrs. Leitch, were visitors and inspected work and merits of the girls.

Mrs. Kaunitz Passes, Services Are Friday

Mrs. Estelle M. Kaunitz, 63, wife of Fred Kaunitz, died at the Charlevoix Hospital on Tuesday after a long illness.

The body was at the See Funeral Home until Wednesday when it was taken to the Hyatt Funeral Home, Bay City, where funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Friday. Rev. Ross Reader will officiate and burial will be in the Oak Ridge cemetery.

Mrs. Kaunitz, the former Estelle Meryl McCullough, was born in Philadelphia, Pa., on April 6, 1885 and came to Bay City in 1890. Following her marriage to Mr. Kaunitz on Nov. 21, 1905 they made their home there until coming to Charlevoix six years ago.

Besides her husband she is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Richard Fuller of Bloomfield, Ind. six sons, Robert W., Glenn A., Fred E. Jr., and Clyde F. of Bay City, Lester R. of Holland and Edwin G., of Cygnet, Ohio; two sisters, Mrs. Emil Wemlng and Mrs. Harold Adams of Bay City; two brothers, Floyd McCullough of Royal Oak and Ed Watson of Bay City and 15 grandchildren.

Mrs. Rose Herrick Dies Suddenly

Mrs. Rose E. Herrick, 58, widow of Russell Herrick, died unexpectedly Sunday at the Charlevoix Hospital after a brief illness. Funeral services were held at the See Funeral Home at 2 p. m. Wednesday with Rev. W. D. Wood officiating. Burial was in the Brookside cemetery.

Rose E. Krulik was born in Charlevoix on April 20, 1890. On Oct. 10, 1912, she was married to Mr. Herrick. They resided here until 1922 when they left to make their home in Chicago. Later they lived in New Brunswick, N. J. and Detroit, returning here in Oct., 1946.

Mr. Herrick died unexpectedly in Feb., 1948.

She is survived by one brother, James Krulik of Charlevoix; four sisters, Mrs. Cyrus Allis and Mrs. Otto Hines of Detroit; Mrs. Howard Evans of Milltown, N. J., and Mrs. Lyle Kowadske, Sr., of Boyne City; a niece, Mrs. William Clouse of Indianapolis, Ind., who she raised.

Edna Dubey, Clinton Howe Are Marriad Saturday

Saturday Edna Dubey and Clinton Howe were married by Rev. W. D. Wood at the home of his mother, Mrs. May Howe.

They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Wells. Only the immediate family were present.

A quick-attaching cultivator ...without levers!

Dearborn FARM EQUIPMENT

Here's a cultivator that can be attached to a Ford Tractor in not much over one minute.

And, with Hydraulic Touch Control to lift it and the Ford Tractor's short-turning, you can turn quickly on the row ends. You're well along with the job before the other fellow is started.

Let us show you how to knock out weeds . . . without knocking yourself out, too. Cultivator is strongly made and comes with rigid or spring shanks. See it!

Mrs. H. Hair

Clarence Bachelor, Sr., is busy getting the cottages at the point ready. They do not expect Clarence, Jr., up this season. Their first guests June 20, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Uertsfield frum Toledo, Ohio, were on their honeymoon.

Mrs. Emily Whitney has returned from Lakeland, Fla., and is making an indefinite stay with her daughter, Mrs. W. D. Hair.

Mrs. Effie Criner and her nephew, Roy Copping have not suffered from the Oregon flood. Mrs. Criner was the former Effie Gray and both were natives of this district.

Karl Festerling drove to Gaylord with a load of 4-H Club leaders to attend the recreation meeting. Those from this district who went were Mrs. D. D. Hair and Mary Lou Price.

Are You For or Against?

The Bible says: "He who is not for me, is against me". The co-operative program was built by farmers; it is owned by farmers; it is for farmers. Co-operation is the economic religion of farmers. However, for co-operatives to operate successfully in securing farmers their own supplies of feed, seed, fertilizer, petroleum products, etc. they must be supported or they will fail to develope all of the savings and security for farmers that is possible.

Co-Operation . . .

Co-operation can't be 70% right and 30% wrong. It is a principle, and sometimes the working personnel, such as the manager and his accosiates, fail to deliver the power inherent in co-operation. They are the ones who fail and not the co-operative idea. You control the employees of co-operatives. Only if YOU live, breathe, and practice co-operation, can you have the co-operative philosophy thrive in the institution you own.

Farm Bureau Feeds . . .

Farm Bureau feeds are weapons for profit to co-operatively-minded farmers. MERMASH rations have given unexcelled results in growing brnilers—in getting pullets into the laying houses in condition to lay profitably—in egg production running well over 200 eggs per hen in hundreds of well bred, well managed flocks. MILKMAKERS have made more highly profitable production records than any other diary feed in Michigan, and have maintained all of the health that any feed can possibly maintain. Farm Bureau PORKMAKER grows more and better pigs. It puts on cheaper weight and maintains health.

NEW KIND OF HEARING AID

Transmits

2 TO 6 TIMES MORE SOUND INTENSITY

Look again at the picture! Here is a hearing aid complete in one unit so small it fits the tiny watch pocket of a man's trousers! A new Beltone record!

Made possible by a new kind of "silver circuit," combining 45 parts and connections into one moistureproof, trouble-free unit.

Yet, the receiver transmits 2 to 6 times more sound intensity than any of 12 other hearing aids tested. Twice as much as even the former Beltone model! This is far more sound intensity than you probably need—or even can stand!

But note this: it means almost unbelievable clarity with the power turned way down. This means glorious hearing comfort. And cute operation cost to a new low—less than a penny an hour.

NOTICE

The following Ordinance No. 237 was adopted by the Common Council of the City of Charlevoix on June 14, 1948.
HUGH MAYNE, City Clerk.

ORDINANCE NO. 237

AN ORDINANCE TO REGULATE THE ERECTION AND MAINTENANCE OF SIGNS, BILL BOARDS, AND OTHER ADVERTISING DEVICES; REQUIRING PERMITS AND THE PAYMENT OF FEES FOR THE SAME; PROVIDING FOR THE INSPECTION AND MAINTENANCE THEREOF; THE REMOVAL OF UNSAFE AND UNCONFORMING ADVERTISING DEVICES; REPEALING PARTS OF ORDINANCE NO. 203 AND ALL ORDINANCES OR PARTS OF ORDINANCES INCONSISTENT HEREWITH; AND FIXING A PENALTY FOR THE VIOLATION THEREOF.

WHEREAS, the Common Council deems it necessary for the protection of the public health, safety, comfort and general welfare to regulate the erection and maintenance of signs, bill boards, and other advertising devices within the City of Charlevoix;
THE CITY OF CHARLEVOIX ORDAINS:

Section 1. No person, firm, corporation or association shall erect, cause or permit to be erected, or maintain any sign, sign post, billboard, or other advertising device within the City of Charlevoix except in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance. Signs erected by public officials for public purposes need not comply with the provisions of this ordinance.

Permits

Section 2. No signs, sign posts, billboard or other advertising device shall be erected, maintained, or altered without a permit having first been obtained therefor from the City Superintendent.

Section 3. Application for a permit for the erection, alteration or maintenance of a sign, sign post, billboard or other advertising device shall be made to the City Superintendent of the City of Charlevoix in such form as he shall prescribe and attaching thereto specifications setting forth the proposed location, structure, dimensions and electric wiring, if any, for said sign and a fee of $1.00 per sign shall be paid to the City Treasurer, which fee shall be retained whether such permit is granted or not.

Section 4. Permits for all signs, except signs of not over eight square feet area on one side pertaining to the rental of the rooms, sale of goods or services rendered on the premises, shall terminate on the 31st day of December of the year for which they are issued and shall be renewed annually prior to the 1st day of January. Such permit shall be conditioned upon the full compliance with all of the requirements of this ordinance. When due to neglect or ignorance, a sign is erected prior to obtaining a permit therefor, or in the event the permit is not renewed prior to the date specified herein, the fee specified to be paid shall be doubled but the payment of such fee shall not relieve any applicant for a permit from fully complying with all of the other provisions, conditions and requirements of this ordinance nor from the penalties prescribed herein. If work authorized to be done under a sign permit is not begun within sixty days from the date of issuance, such permit is then null and void and the fee paid therefor hy the applicant is forfeited. The issuance of any permit for the erection of a sign shall not be construed as a waiver by the City, nor operate as an estoppel against the City of Charlevoix from enforcing full compliance with all the terms, conditions and requirements of this ordinance.

Location

Section 5. No sign, sign post, billboard or other advertising device shall be erected or maintained within any district zoned as Commercial District I, Commercial District II, Industrial District I, Industrial District II, Marine District I, Agricultural District, or Scenic Reserve District, and the property on either side of and extending to a depth of 200 feet from, U. S. Highway 31 between the North bank of Pine River and a point 150 feet North of the North line of River Street, by the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Charlevoix, being Ordinance 203, which projects within one foot of the paved portion of any street or alley or has an area greater than 36 square feet, or does not have every portion of said sign that extends over a public sidewalk, at least ten feet above the publis sidewalk level, exeept that flush signs, not extending more than six inches from the wall of any building, may have a display area of not greater than seventy-two square feet and may be of any height. No upright support for any sign within these districts shall be closer to a public sidewalk or street than eighteen inches.
PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that identification and directory signs of not greater than two (2) square feet display area, not extending more than eighteen inches from any building, and every part of which is at least eight feet above the public sidewalk level, shall he permitted.

Section 6. No sign post, or other advertising device shall be erected or maintained within any district zoned as Residential District I, Residential District II, or Residential District III, hy the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Charlevoix, being Ordinance No. 203, which has a greater display area than 6 square feet, or is located within a distance of three feet from any public street or sidewalk or between a sidewalk and a street. Provided, that signs for hotels having more than 50 rooms may have a greater display surface if the total display area does not exceed 30 square feet. No billboards shall be allowed in said districts.

Illumination

Section .7 Illumination. No illuminated signs shall be allowed in the districts set forth in Section 6 of this ordinance except that signs illuminated by indirect lighting shall be allowed in Residential District II and Residential District III and that part of Residential District I abutting on, and extending to a depth of 100 feet South from the South side of Belvedere Avenue between Alice Street and the Belvedere Club grounds. Provided, that hotels of over 50 rooms, in any district, may have an illuminated sign. No illuminated sign in any district shall be placed or illuminated in such a way so as to constitute a traffic hazard. All electric work on signs shall comply with standards that shall from time to time be established by the Common Council.

Insured Sign Hangers

Section 8. Insured Sign Hangers: Every person, firm or corporation before engaging or continuing in the business of erecting, repairing or dismantling overhanging signs or poster boards in the City of Charlevoix shall furnish to the City of Charlevoix a public liability insurance policy to be approved by the City Attorney, in the amount of $5,000.00 for injury to one person, $10,000.00 for injuries to more than one person, and in the sum of $1,000.00 for property damage to indemnify and save said sign hanger and the City of Charlevoix harmless from all suits and actions for damages of every nature and description brought or claimed against said sign hanger and/or the City, for or on account of any injuries or damages to persons or property received or sustained by any person or persons through any act or ommision or through the negligence of the said sign hanger, its servants, agents and employees, in the erection, repairing or dismantling of any sign or poster board. Said policy or liability insurance shall contain a provision that the same may not be cancelled without ten (10) days notice of such intended cancellation being given in writing to the City Clerk.

Non-Conforming Signs

Section 9. Unsafe or Unconforming Signs: When any sign or advertising device is found by the City Superintendent to be in such condition as to make it immediately dangerous, he is hereby authorized to declare the same a public nuisance, and he is hereby authorized and empowered to abate such nuisance by taking such action as in his judgment shall be necessary to protect the public or property, including the authority to take down and remove such sign without notice to the owner thereof.

Section 10. Non-Conforming Signs: All signs at present erected and maintained in the City of Charlevoix must be made to conform to the provisions of this ordinance or shall be removed before July 10, 1948.

Penalties

Section 11. Any person, firm or corporation who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any court of competent jurisdiction, shall he punished by a fine of not less than five dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the Charlevoix County Jail for a period not exceeding ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the Court. Each infraction and each day of violation of this ordinance shall be deemed a separate and distinct offense.

Severing Clause

Section 12. Sections of this ordinance shall be deemed to be severable and should any section or provision of this ordinance be declared by the courts to be unconstitutional or invalid, the same shall not affect the validity of the other provisions of this ordinance.

Ordinances Repealed and Amended Hereby

Section 13. Sub-paragraph number 12 of Section 501 of Article V and sub-paragraphs number 5 and 6 of section 901 of Article IX of Ordinance No. 203, being the "Zoning Ordinance", are hereby repealed.

Section 13(a). All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions hereof are hereby repealed.

Short Title

Section 14. This ordinance shall be known as the "Sign Ordinance of the City of Charlevoix", and is referred to herein as "This Ordinance".

Effective Date

Section 15. This ordinance shall take effect twenty days from and after the date of its adoption.

Speech Experts Study Talk of Beaver Island

Dr. Raven I. McDavid, Jr., of the University of Michigan and Prof. William Mackey of Laval University, Quebec, Canada, spent several days here investigating the speech of Beaver Island as part of the survey of the speech of the Great Lakes basin, which is being sponsored by the University of Michigan and directed by Albert H. Marckwardt, Prof. of English at the university.

This survey uses the everyday drama vocabulary and pronounciation of the people of various locations as a means of discovering contributions made by various groups who have settled the old Northwest Territory. It includes six states, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio.

In each of these states twenty-five communities are being investigated with representatives of the older and middle aged generations being interviewed in each.

Beaver Island was chosen because it is the largest of the Island communities off the Michigan coast settled early and the type of population hasn't changed much for the past ninety years. In Island communities of this kind one can expect pronounciations and words to survive long after they have been lost on the mainland. For instance the older Beaver Islanders call a dragon fly a "Mosquito Hawk." Although elsewhere in Michigan it is known as "darning needle," "Sook, sook, sook," as a call to calves is likewise typical of the speech of Beaver Island. The researchers also found that the pronounciation of the older generation of Islanders had an interesting Keltin base. For example, the sh as for s in sparkling; t as for d in island, and many other features which made their stay on Beaver Island interesting and profitable.

There may be a lot of things in this world more important than fishing, but right now we can't think of any.—Sanilac Jeffersonian, Croswell.

Argonne Has New Band, New Chef

A new dance band will be starting Saturday at the Argonne, and that place's dining room will be reopened with a new chef preparing the food.

Three Cats and a Kitten from Bloomington, Ill., is the band. Its members are Tommie Raines, vibraharp, (pictured above), Max Raines, piano; Maurice Austin, guitar; Ray Boyer, bass and vocalist. The band has been playing at the University of Indiana until coming north.

Mrs. Raines, while at Chicago's Sherman Hotel, preformed with Hal McIntyre's and Cab Calloway's bands. During the war she was sent overseas with a USO unit. There she met and married her husband, who was a Navy officer.

Dancing starts at 9 p. m.

The new chef at the Argonne is Charles Miller, with years of service as chef and chief stewart aboard Atlantic liners. An accident forced him to stay ashore this year and he came to the Argonne. The dining room will be open from 4 to 9 p. m.

W. R. May's Father Dies Here Friday

Henry C. May, 87, father of W. Raymond May, died Friday at the Charlevoix Hospital after an extended illness.

The body was returned to Salyersville, Ky., where funeral services were held early this week.

Born in Kentucky on June 23, 1860, Mr. May always made his home there until coming to Charlevoix eight months ago to live with his son.

Besides his son, W. Raymond, he is survived by one other son and four daughters; several grand children and great grandchildren.

WHY "Stepping Down" IS SO IMPORTANT TO YOU

Hudson amazes motor-car world by using vital "step-down" zone—not available in any other car—to bring you riding qualities and safety beyond anything known before!

Word's going 'round—and fast, too—that Hudson gives you a "sweet," smooth, safe ride that is a new high in motor-car performance!

Perhaps you've heard pleased and proud Hudson owners talking about this exciting new experience, but here's something you may have missed hearing:

The key to this amazing new ride lies in that area just under the floor of the average car, which in the New Hudson becomes the "step-down" zone—as illustrated in the sketches at the right.

This "step-down" zone is all-important, because experience has shown that the lower to the ground a car can be built, the better it will handle, the more stability it will have, the safer it will be, and thus the more enjoyable and comfortable will be your ride.

Hudson, and Hudson alone, has accomplished a near miracle of low-built streamlining and smooth, safe, comfortable riding with a new type of base frame which surrounds the passenger compartment, and thus permits the floor to be lowered down within it. Recessing the floor creates the "step-down" zone and a center of gravity that is the lowest in any American stock car—yet road clearance is ample!

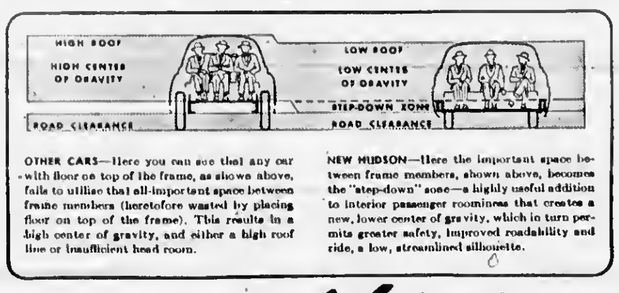
That's why Hudson has a hug-the-road way of going, even in cross-winds, and on every conceivable kind of highway. When you see how this car takes even the sharpest curves, it will spoil you for any other type of automobile! You sense this delightful conformity to the road the minute you begin your ride; and this stability, plus the protection of riding encircled by a sturdy box-section steel frame, gives you a grand feeling of safe well-being.

Sitting in this car is as downright satisfying as stretching out in your favorite easy chair. You ride on seats that are lowered and cradled ahead of the rear wheels and, even with its low silhouette, this breathtakingly beautiful motor car gives you more head room than any other mass-produced car built today!

Hudson's use of the vital "step-down" zone in its exclusive, all steel Monobilt body-and-frame* is a development that required years of engineering work, the perfection of new production techniques, and millions of dollars in highly specialized new plant investment. Perhaps this explains why Hudson alone offers this new design principle today.

The nearest Hudson dealer has a booklet—yours for the asking—which explains how "stepping down" brings you advantages beyond anything known before! Hudson Motor Car Co., Detroit 14.

*Trade-mark and patents pending.



OTHER CARS—Here you can see that any car with floor on top of the frame, as shown above, fails to utilize that all-important space between frame members (heretofore wasted by placing floor on top of the frame). This results in a high center of gravity, and either a high roof line or insufficient head room.

NEW HUDSON—Here the important space between frame members, shown above, becomes the "step-down" zone—a highly useful addition to interior passenger roominess that creates a new, lower center of gravity, which in turn permits greater safety, improved roadability and ride, a low, streamlined silhouette.

This time it's Hudson

Russell E. Lewis, Boyne City Girl Wed

In a ceremony solemnized at the First Methodist church, Petoskey, at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon Miss Lois Elva Lane became the bride of Russell E. Lewis, son of Mrs. Lola Lewis of Charlevoix.

Rev. Ross W. Stoakes read the double ring service in the presence of 70 guests. Preceding the ceremony Ross W. Stoakes, Jr., played a program of wedding music and the traditional wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her brother, Kenneth Lane of Boyne City, the bride selected a white sharkskin suit trimmed in gold and white accessories for her wedding. Her headdress was of white carnations and she carried a bouquet of white snapdragons, yellow roses and lilies of the valley.

Norma Lane was her sister's only attendant. She wore a white butchen linen dress. Her headdress and bouquet were identical to those worn by the bride.

Eugene Bergmann was best man and Jack Abfalter and Versal Shearer seated the guests.

Mrs. Lewis, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a navy crepe dress, white accessories and a corsage of pink sweetpeas. Mrs. Lane, sister-in-law of the bride, wore a gray suit, matching accessories and a corsage of pink sweetpeas.

Following the ceremony a reception for 60 guests was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lane in Boyne City.

The couple will make their home at 418 Waukazoo ave., Petoskey after a week's wedding trip. For traveling the bride chose a gray suit and white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of the Boyne City high school. The bridegroom graduated from the local high school. Since his return from 18 months army service he has been employed by the Western Electric Co.

Baumbach and Pebbles Wedding Solemnized

The marriage of Beatrice Baumbach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Baumbach of Norwood township and Herbert Peebles, son of Mrs. Gene Best of Ellsworth, was solemnized at 2 p. m. Friday at the Methodist church in Norwood.

Rev. Howard Moore pronounced the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Mark Feidler played and Mrs. Carol Feilder sang.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dusky rose crepe dress, a white hat and a corsage of lilies of the valley, centered with roses. Her sister, Grace Baumbach, who was bridesmaid was attired in aqua blue crepe dress and a corsage of roses.

Harrison Warner assisted as best man and the guests were seated by Charles Coleman, brother-in-law of the bride and Harold Edison, cousin of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Baumbach chose a navy blue crepe dress and a corsage of pink carnations, while Mrs. Best wore a black crepe dress and a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception was then held at the Norwood town hall, where refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

After a trip to Niagara Falls, they will locate in Ellsworth, where Mr. Peebles conducts an electrical appliance store.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Lyle Smith and three children, Mrs. Kenneth Bradley and three children of Midland; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coleman and son, all sisters of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Emery Wilson of Ellsworth, brother-in-law and sister of the groom.

Discharged from WAC

Ellsworth—Sgt. Annalane L. Groenink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Groenink of Bentley Hill, has been discharged from the WACS after serving four and a half years. Part of her overseas service was in Japan.

Levering Girl Weds Charles Dhaseleer

Darlene Dimmick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hair, of Levering, became the bride of Charles Dhaseleer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dhaseleer of Charlevoix at a Nuptial Mass at Holy Cross church, Cross Village, at 10 a. m. Saturday.

Rev. Fr. Bertram Mitchell, O. F. M., read the service in the presence of more than 75 guests.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a white satin gown and a long train. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley.

Elizabeth Dhaseleer of Charlevoix, sister of the bridegroom and Mary Elizabeth Dimmick of Levering, sister of the bride, were maid of honor and bridesmaid. They wore identical gowns of pink lace over satin and carried bouquets of California painted daisies.

Henry Ricksgers of Alden was best man and Hubert Olach of Charlevoix was groomsman.

Mrs. Hair chose a lavender suit dress. Mrs. Dhaseleer wore a powder blue dress and both had corsages of pink and white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner for 38 was held at the Wayside Inn, Carp Lake.

The couple left on a wedding trip to northern Michigan and will make their home in Marion township upon their return.

The bride formerly attended the Charlevoix schools and graduated from Levering high school. More recently she graduated from the Mercy Central school of Nursing, Grand Rapids. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Charlevoix high school.

Wishing Well Features Shower for Miss Prevost

A wishing well in a setting of flowers and greens was a feature of the bridal shower given Friday afternoon for Arletta Prevost, bride-elect of Richard Foster.

The party was given by Mrs. Bradford Foster at the home of Miss Prevost's mother, Mrs. Arnold Copeland. A wish for the bride-elect was on each gift as it was pulled from the well.

A social hour and refreshments were enjoyed by the following guests: Mrs. Lloyd Thompson of Flint, Mrs. John Weldon, Mrs. Vern Norton, Mrs. Walter Yemmans, Mrs. Fred Baneroft, Mrs. George Cook, Mrs. May Bugbee, Mrs. Lula Cornell, Mrs. Ronald Swanson, Mrs. Al Smith, Mrs. Jeff Novotny, Miss Frances Durance, Patsy Davis and Janice Howe.

They returned home about a week earlier than they had anticipated for the government cancelled all trains going into the flood section near Portland, Ore., where part of the convention was to be held. However, they had an enjoyable time. They were with Dr. and Mrs. Mark Gifford for some time in Los Angeles and were also in San Diego where they got to see Minnie Patton. The convention folks ran into another flood on the way and at Colorado Springs a brakeman threw a switch too soon and derailed the last coach on the train. The McMillans were in the next coach. Nothing really serious happened though to dampen their spirits and it was great sport seeing all the interesting things they did . . . Seems good to see lights in the Joseph Block home on Michigan Avenue again. It's such a homey looking place . . .

I have always been teased about being part Pennsylvania Dutch because it seems these folks are always getting the cart before the horse, so to speak. But, I had to break down and admit that there was some grounds when a friend on vacation recently told of a sign on a farmhouse in Lancaster County which read: "Bell don't button Bump".

Mrs. Lola Hahn and her two daughters of Muskegon who have been spending the past two weeks with her mother, Mrs. Manle Fessenden, returned home this week. Lola sang a solo Sunday morning at the Congregational church . . . Another beautiful singer was heard at the Baptist church when Mrs. Curtis Trayer, daughter of the Henry Wycoff's from Eaton Rapids, also sang

News of folks, your neighbors and mine . . . but did you know that—

Vacation time is surely in the oir . . . I will never look down at the C. G. Buoy station where the Sundew ties up without having o thought of real admiration for the Skipper and the crew on that boat. Can you imagine a bunch of folks, port of them women, taking over their boot as they did Sunday morning, for the Beover Island trip and being such o bunch of real gentlemen and perfect hosts as they were. Our hats off to the Sundew crew and its skipper! . . . Dr. and Mrs. Fred Young were in Detroit for the week-end and on their return they were accomponied by Martha Young, who will spend the next six weeks or so in Charlevoix . . .

Harry Gebeau, Max Novak and Joe Foster are the three men about town sporting new Fords . . . Went to the train Sunday night to put some important letters in the mail and incidentally to watch the train come in. When it had arrived who should be dashing around the station with suitcase in hand but Dick Soltonstoll who had spent the week end here and was on his way back to Detroit . . .

Charlevoix's fame as a wonderful resort spot in America is spreading. This week the Board of Commerce received a note from Gunter Molx of Fichtenstresse, Remcheid, Germeny, British Zone, requesting vacation literature.

Canada is one of the most popular countries with stamp collectors because her stamps are interesting, picturesque and excellently printed. Those interested in such stamps can take off their philatelic hats and make a bow to Canada who celebrated her birthday on July 1, Dominion Day. And their new stamp depicting the Mountie who always gets his man, is a ten cent stamp that would be interesting to add to one's collection . . . Bill Ochs left Saturday for New York City where he will start working for Haskins and Sells Accounting Firm. When we said, "Lucky guy, getting to go to New York," Bill answered, "Lucky guy, who wants to have to leave Charlevoix in the summer to go to a hot city like New York?" Well, maybe Bill had something there after all.

Even the birds know when its time to arrive in Charlevoix. The martin house near the Board of Commerce building is now occupied . . . The lighthouse in the little pond near the building has also been done over and all dressed up for the visitors . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burns and family of River Ronge arrived Saturday to spend the summer at their attractive log cabin on Oyster Bay. Bob will not have to be working quite so hard on the cabin this summer although he declares there is plenty to do yet before it is completed. The Burns have house guests, Mr. and Mrs. David Gee and family of Wyandotte . . .

Dr. Joseph Craig, the resident doctor for the summer at Camp Charlevoix has the camp truly at heart. Craig was once one of the boys at camp, later he became a Counselior and now a doctor from Ohio State . . . "Think thrice about the Fourth", is the slogan of the week coming from the Michigan Department of Health.

During the coming week-end folks are urged to think especially about the dangers of heavy traffic, of drowning and of falls. Most holiday accidents are preventable, carelessness is their cause. Just be a little wary to keep your week-end merry . . .

Sure felt mighty proud of everyone of the Charlevoix folks who helped in any way to make the editors stay in our town so welcome, and needless to say, the editors got a wonderful impression of its folks and the town . . .

Road Board Outlines Plans for Summer

Final reports on the cost of highway snow work last winter were made to the Board of Supervisors who started their June session Monday.

During the winter 181.95 miles of road were plowed for the townships at a totol cost of $24,971.74. Of this sum, $21,509.01 was for snow removal while snow fences cost $3,462.70, making a cost per mile of $137.25.

In 1945-46 the average cost was $122.55. The next year it was $173.29, making o three-year average of $144.36.

The Road Commisaion reported that it is planning projects this summer in Boyne Valley, South Arm, Evongeline, Eveline townships. The Boyne Valley bridge has been completed. Work is underway now on the Boyne Falls East Road, the Peninsula Road and Marion Center Road.

Receipts during the first four months came to $71,020.34, and disbursements were $78,932.54. There was a balance of $45,194.94 on hand April 30.

This policy of submitting regular financial reports, the Road Commission says, is being followed so that the Supervisors and the public will understand better what is being done with state, county and township highway moneys.

State Gives Lake Clean Health Bill

The Charlevoix end of Lake Charlevoix has been given a wholly clean bill of health by the State Stream Control Commission.

After last week's report was issued which listed places unsafe for water sports, the Courier wrote for a detailed report on Charlevoix. Milton P. Adams, commission secretary, replied:

"Charlevoix City is not included in the list released Tuesday . . . Conditions are entirely satisfactory at your end of Lake Charlevoix and on Lake Michigan beach at the end of the channel."

Withers Alone Files For School Trustee

Only one nominating petition for the position of school district trustee was filed with Sally Bergeon, Board of Education secretary.

The deadline was June 22. The petition was for Harold Withers, incumber member whose term expires.

The annual election will be July 12. The polls will be open from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. at the school. The annual meeting will be at 8 p. m. then.

Army Gifts Being Taken at Bank

Those who wish to contribute to the Salvation Army are asked to leave their gifts at the Charlevoix County State Bank.

No personal solicitation will be made, according to Mrs. Howard Griffen.

One of These Girls Is Chosen to Be Queen of Venetian Night

Which one is known only to five publishers who were here Saturday and acted as judges.

Saturday noon the ten girls in cars and with a police escort drove through town and to the Belvedere. There the girls were presented one at a time to the press convention. Afterward they met the judges in the lobby, talked with them and posed for pictures.

The judges then retired for 15 minutes. Their decision, selecting the Queen and her two maids of honor, was turned over in a sealed envelope which will be opened at the Coronation Ball at the high school July 24.

Shown above on the Belvedere steps are, front to back: Solly Swinton, Jean Hammond, Beryl Frank, Nancy Kipke, Janet Bulow, Elaine Edwards, Gladys Ann Coney, Donna Rose, Ina Stutt and Ione Mosier.

The judges were George Dolliver, Battle Creek Enquirer-News; Jack Bedient, Albion Recorder; Mrs. Mildred Lignian, Olivet Optic; Meredith Clark, Vicksburg Commercial; George VanKoevering, Zeeland Record.

Library Goes On New Schedule July 6

The Charlevoix public library summer schedule will become effective July 6, Miss Florenz Milner, librarian, has announced.

The hours will be from 10:00 a. m. to 12 noon and from 2:00 to 5:30 p. m., during the week. On Saturday evening the library will be open from 7:00 to 8:30 p. m.

Few Sneezes Here, State Report Says

Come on to Charlevoix if you have the summer sneezes!

For this area was the only place on the west coast of Michigan during the bad 1947 ragweed season which had a pollen count of less then 1000 according to Michigan Department of Health.

In a report just released, only five areas with this low record for the whole summer are given: St. Ignace, Sault Ste. Marie, Choboygan, Charlevoix and Rogers City. Petoskey and Traverse City were in the 1500 class.

Down below the figures really were high. Hillsdale showed 32,383, South Havan, 26,866, Lansing, 20,932, Grand Rapids, 20,198, Coldwater, 22,070.

Clarence V. Miles Dies at Home Here, Rites Are Saturday

Clarence V. Miles, 72, painter and decorator, died unexpectedly at his home late Thursday evening.

Funeral services were conducted at the See Funeral Home at 2 p. m. Saturday by Mrs. Jane Durance, Christian Science reader. Burial was in the Brookside cemetery.

Born in Walnut City, Iowa, on July 11, 1875, Mr. Miles was married to Edna Appleby in Kansas City, Mo., on Jan. 31, 1898. Two years later they came to southern Michigan and in 1912 moved to East Jordon. Later they come to Charlevoix where they resided until the early 1020s when they moved to Muskegon. They returned here about 1932.

He was a member of the Christian Science church and the I. O. O. F.

Besides his wife he is survived by five sons, Walker, Robert, Lylo and Keith of Charlevoix, and Clair of Traverse City; three daughters, Mrs. H. B. Hinchmon of Detroit; Mrs. Stanley Cutler of Muskegon; and Mrs. John Workman of Cadillac; a brother, Charles of Richmond, Ind.; two sisters, Mrs. Jennie McShane of Camden, Ohio, and Mrs. Sadie Jordan of Sibley, Mo.; sixteen grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Charlevoix's History as Summer Haven Goes Back to 1883 When Belvedere Started

Charlevoix is about to officially begin its 71st year as a summer resort.

People arriving daily by train, plane, boat and auto from points all over the country for a brief week-end or the summer season offer a sharp contrast to those early days when one came by boat or stage coach and remained for three months.

The history of Charlevoix as a summer resort might well be told in the history of its summer hotels and resort colonies. Records show the first resort was officially established in 1878.

Was Carriage Town

Looking back nearly three-quarters of a century one finds those were the days when carriages drawn by well-groomed horses driven by liveried coachmen and footmen carried the ladies through unpaved streets to and from their social engagements. One can hardly imagine the picture those colorful gowns, picturesque hats and open parasols made as the carriages passed down Belvedere, Dixon, and Chicago avenues where the earlier colonies were located.

Children in Lord Fountleroy suits, starched dresses and high button shoes accompanied by their governesses seem like a page out of a story book compared to the youngsters of today in their shorts, slacks and T-shirts going to join their various "gangs".

Belvedere Was First

Dining rooms and hotel lobbies lighted by the fluttering glow of candles or oil lamps; ballrooms where couples danced the cotillion or the waltz; halls where whole families enjoyed a Sunday evening musicale; bowling on the green, croquet and rocking chairs on long verandas are scenes from that early picture missing in today's resort hotel.

Stores Will Close During Rites for Dr. F. F. McMillan

All Charlevoix business places will close Thursday from 1 to 3 p.m. during the funeral for Dr. F. F. McMillan.

Dr. F. F. McMillan, beloved physician, counselor and friend not only to Charlevoix but to hundreds in Northern Michigan, died Tuesday morning at the Charlevoix Hospital he had helped to direct.

Funeral services will be held at the See Funeral Home at 2 p. m. Thursday. Rev. Gaylord Howell will officiate. Burial will be in Brookside Cemetery. The pallbearers will be members of the Northern Michigan Medical Society.

The last illness was a short one. On June 23 he entered the hospital, only a few days after he and Mrs. McMillan returned from the West Coast where he had attended the Convention of Kiwanis International at San Francisco. To his friends, he seemed in fine health and spirits and recounted the many experiences they had had on the trip.

A resident of Charlevoix for 30 years, during that time he played a prominent part in community affairs.

At the time of his death he was chief of staff and president of the Board of Directors of the Charlevoix Hospital. He had been president of the Northern Michigan Medical Society, was a member of the Michigan Medical Society, and had served as County Coroner for more than 20 years.

He was a past president of Charlevoix Kiwanis, vice president of the Charlevoix State Savings Bank, past chairman of the County Republican Committee.

Besides these professional and business activities Dr. McMillan served as trustee of the Methodist Church, was a member of the Knights Templar, and Worthy Patron of the Charlevoix Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

Born in Bronson, Branch County, Dec. 4, 1881, he received his early education at the Kendallville, Ind., schools. He then entered the University of Michigan from which he held both his A. B. and medical degrees. He received the latter in 1906, and practiced medicine at Indian River from 1906 to 1918. While there he served one year as county school commissioner. In 1918 he moved to Charlevoix.

Surviving are Mrs. McMillan, the former Hazel Dagwell; two daughters, Mrs. Harry Stewart and Mrs. Joseph Arvillo of Charlevoix; seven grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. E. E. Cluff of Cheboygan and Miss Mary McMillan of Bloomingdale; and one brother, Harold of Ann Arbor.

An only son, Albert, was killed in a plane crash in Florida in August, 1942, while serving in the Army Air Force.

Dr. McMillan had made a study of Lincoln, was considered an authority on his life and frequently was called upon to speak on the Emancipator throughout the state.

Three Will Seek Post of Sheriff

Two prospective candidates for the office of sheriff for Charlevoix County have filed their petitions with County Clerk F. R. Bulow.

Glenn E. Rose, former deputy sheriff and city policeman, became the first candidate to file when he entered his petition early Wednesday morning.

Orville L. Davis, insulation dealer of East Jordon, filed his petition at the court house at closing time the same day.

Sheriff Floyd Ikens, who has served since 1932, has not filed his petition but has stated he will seek reelection.

• A group of women from St. Mary parish, headed by Mrs. George Haggard, Altar Rosary Society president, attended a deanery meeting of the National Council of Catholic Women at Mancelona on Tuesday evening.

Michigan Conservation Clubs to Meet Here in 1949; 1000 Expected

Next June Charlevoix County will entertain the annual convention of the Michigan United Conservation Clubs, with headquarters here in Charlevoix.

Saturday the 1948 meeting at Sault Ste. Marie turned down the bid of Grand Rapids and voted to come to Charlevoix in 1949. The convention this year attracted 800 delegates from the 200 affiliated conservation clubs in Michigan. Next year the attendance is expected to pass 1000.

Success in obtaining the convention resulted from county teamwork. S. E. Coleman represented the Rod and Gun Club here. William Underhill is the president and delegate from the Boyne Sportsman's Club from Boyne City.

Coleman presented the case for Charlevoix before the convention committee. So did the 70-man Grand Rapids delegation which had been so active the Traverse City group ceded in favor of the larger place.

The committee voted two to one in favor of Grand Rapids. However, when the matter was brought before the general assembly, Underhill, who is an official of the MUCC and had agreed to do this for Coleman, presented the case for Charlevoix.

He pointed out that in another five years, no small community will be able to entertain the growing MUCC meetings and that now is the time to go to the less populous places. He said that the entire area was back of Charlevoix in its bid for the meeting and would work with it in putting over the 1949 meeting. When the vote was taken, the convention voted two to one for Charlevoix.

Dr. Mann Will Address Alumni

Dr. Louis L. Mann, of Chicago, prominent religious leader, educator, sociologist and author, will speak at the second biennial banquet of the Charlevoix high school Alumni Association at the Belvedere Hotel, Saturday, at 7:30 p. m.

Reservations for the banquet may be made until Friday with either Frances Martin or Anne Higman.

Rabbi of Chicago Sinai Congregation, Dr. Mann was formerly lecturer on comparative ethics at Yale University and is now professor of Oriental languages at the University of Chicago. He is chairman of the Chicago Marriage Committee, president of the Phi Beta Kappa Association of the Chicago area, arbitrator of the United States Labor Board wage and hour division for the textile industry, as well as committee member for the Eugenics Commission of the United States, American Birth Control League, National Crime Prevention Institute, and others.

As an author, Dr. Mann has written the book, "In Quest of the Bluebird," is contributing editor of the department of ethics of the Universal Jewish Encyclopedia. He has been a summer resident of Charlevoix for some time.

The banquet will honor the 60th anniversary of Charlevoix high school's first graduating class. Program features include piano music by Zack Whyte, vocals by Shirley Sauri and talks by other speakers.

Life Is Too Cheap Today, Dr. Buttrick Tells Press Group

Life is becoming too cheap, Dr. George A. Buttrick told Michigan editors Friday night at the Belvedere.

A single bomb will wipe out 100,000. Bacterial warfare can exterminate whole states or nations. Under such conditions, one life by itself has small value.

It is a vicious circle. Man feels inferior. So he develops new weapons with which to fight and so assert himself, thus trying to prove he is not inferior. The machine age has increased this feeling of inferiority, by making man a part of a soulless machine.

Mankind today, Dr. Buttrick said, needs to develop the ability to be decently kind one to another. No man increases his own worth by lessening that of his brother. Only by bettering all can each in turn become better off.

East Jordan, Boyne Plan July 4 Doings

Charlevoix is not planning a July 4th celebration but both East Jordan and Boyne City will stage homecomings for their respective cities.

Plans have been completed for three day celebrations which will include midways, races, ball games and fireworks.

Lusk, Burke Will Be Life Guards At Two City Beaches

Charlevoix will have two life guards on duty this summer, Anne Higman, chairman of the Life Guard Fund says.

Because the fund is some $350 short of the $900 needed to hire one guard for each of the city's three beaches, it was decided to hire two, putting them at the Lake Michigan and the Ferry avenue parks.

There they will be on duty from noon until 6 p. m. The two guards will be Don Burke and Bill Lusk. They will start this Saturday or Sunday.

Parents who wish swimming instruction for their children should see the guards. Mornings they will conduct private swimming classes.

Club May Set Up Stand for Blind

Three members of Kiwanis Club were named Monday night to investigate the possibility of setting up a vender's stand here for a blind person.

C. M. Bice spoke at the regular meeting, telling the history of various properties in town and outlining the process of making abstracts.

Alcoholics Anonymous Will Meet Monday

Alcoholics Anonymous now has enough members here to start holding regular meetings.

The first will be Monday at 8 p. m. in the City Hall basement. It will be a closed meeting limited to members of AA.

Charlevoix Welcomes

All Skeet Shooters!

There is a skeet range at the northeast edge of Charlevoix on the old golf course grounds. It is owned and operated by the Rod & Gun Club whose members will welcome any skeet shooter.

Shower for Bride-to-Be Is Treasure Hunt

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Clinton G. Cooper and daughter, Mrs. Lyle Tooley of Boyne City, entertained with a bathroom shower honoring Anne Campbell.

The party was in the form of a treasure hunt with the gifts being hidden throughout the house. After Miss Campbell had opened the many gifts, refreshments were served by the hostesses. Arrangements of summer flowers decorated the rooms.

Guests were Mrs. Harley Ochs, Mrs. F. J. Fessenden, Mrs. Harvey Campbell, Mrs. Clarence Wood, Mrs. Forrest Wood, Mrs. Ray Faulkner, Mrs. Mable Goddard, Mrs. E. B. Bowman, Mrs. Leo Carey, Mrs. Charles Carey, Mrs. S. E. Coleman, Mrs. Henry Partridge, Kay Fitch, Mrs. H. A. Craig, Mrs. W. A. Cline, Helen Rose Cline, Frances Milner, Mrs. Earl A. Clines Give Party for Anne Campbell

Anne Campbell, whose marriage to Donald W. Herrick will take place Friday at the Congregational church, was honored at a party given Thursday evening by Mrs. W. A. Cline and Miss Helen Rose Cline.

Guests gathered for a social hour and refreshments served at a table centered with floral arrangements. Flowers were used about the room. The group presented the bride-elect with a gift.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Cline, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle C. Tooley, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Beaudoin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carey, P. D. Campbell, Mrs. Harvey Campbell, Mrs. Clinton G. Cooper, Mrs. T. E. Kirchner of Saginaw. Miss Gloria Murley of Evanston.

Louiselle - Chew Nuptials Celebrated

In a candlelight service solomnized at the Church of God at 8 p. m. Friday Jacqueline Louiselle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Niley Louiselle became the bride of Eldean A. Chew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adison Chew.

Rev. Gale Hetrick of Boyne City read the double ring service before a background of red and white peonies and palms in the presence of 100 guests.

Preceding the service Helen Hamlin sang "Because" and "O Promise Me", accompanied by Mrs. Robert Shaw who also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princes gown of white satin with long sleeves and a train with lace inserts. Her fingertip veil fell from an orange blossom tiara and she carried a white Bible topped with pink earnations.

Joy Van Zant, as maid of honor, wore a blue taffeta and net gown and a corsage of pink roses.

Herbert H. Hamlin was best man. Anne Mae Maxwell and Nancy Kipke, wearing yellow gowns, seated the guests.

Mrs. Louiselle chose a powder blue gabardine suit and white accessories. Both bridegroom's mother wore a suit dress of gray romaine and tan and white accessories. Both had corsages of pink carnations.

A reception was held at the City Club room immediately after the ceremony. The refreshment table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake. Lighted tapers decorated the table.

The couple will make their home in Charlevoix following a wedding trip to the Upper Peninsula and Canada. For traveling the bride wore a white dress, white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Both are graduates of the Charlevoix high school.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Louiselle and Theodore Louiselle of Petoskey.

Jack Geiken Is Here for Summer

Jack Geiken is now in Charlevoix to spend the summer with his aunt, Mrs. Caroline Geiken.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Geiken of Dayton, he was graduated from Middleburg College June 14. He flew to Pellston from New York.

Leona McDonald Is Bride of Edwin Zeitler

Leona McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McDonald, became the bride of Edwin P. Zeitler, son of Frank Zeitler at a ceremony performed before the Blessed Virgin Altar at St. Mary church at 9 a. m. Saturday.

Rev. Fr. Leo Zeilinski read the service in the presence of 50 guests.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown, ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil was held by a roll of net and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Her maid of honor, Bonnie Baker, wore a taffeta gown, a headdress of white flowers and she carried a Colonial bouquet of red roses.

Jack Grupa assisted the bridegroom as best man.

Mrs. McDonald, mother of the bride, wore a gray print dress with navy and white accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

Following the ceremony a buffet dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents. A wedding cake was a feature of the dinner.

The couple left on a wedding trip to the Upper Peninsula. The bride wore a gray dressmaker suit, blue and white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The couple will make their home here.

The bride is a graduate of the Charlevoix high school and the Community Hospital School of Nursing, Battle Creek.

The bridegroom attended the local high school and served for three and a half years in the Navy during the war.

polly kay SAYS . . .

Welcome to all our old friends and to those who are visiting us for the first time! Please let us say "hello" personally and bring the children and (or) the grandchildren. They can play in the playhouse and browse in the toy shop.

The girls will love our new dolls—the yawning baby and her wide-awake twin sister. Both girls and boys will like our collection of Indian Dolls—the Big Chief, his squaw and papoose.

And we have all kinds of Charlevoix clothes for the children—for beach, for gang, for camp, for parties.

Dresses this year are at their very loveliest, we think, and whether for wee girls, their mothers or their charming grandmothers—we have them. And don't forget to see our Junior department with lots of smooth numbers for the Jr. Miss.

Good news! Botany Sweaters just in from Scotland and the first on the market since Pearl Harbor! Pullovers are $12.95 and cardigans, $15.00. Cashmeres, too, in a variety of colors, bear the "Made in Scotland" label. Then there are Shetlands in all colors, and jacket sweaters for cool days. The jacket sweaters go to size 44 and are a Charlevoix MUST).

Our play clothes are for Northern Michigan, whether you play actively or watch from the sidelines.

And to all summer visitors in Charlevoix's neighboring resort communities we extend a special welcome. If you have never been in our shop—please pay us a visit. If you are an old friend—come again.

President's Visit Causes Three-Man Charlevoix Reunion

President Truman's visit to Los Angeles provided a reunion of three former Charlevoix residents.

They were Johnny and Mason Rose and Homer Struthers.

The Rose boys are sons of Mrs. Catherine D. Rose of Beverly Hills, and the late Mason H. Rose III, son of Captain and Mrs. S. M. Rose of Charlevoix.

Johnny Rose, Los Angeles Examiner reporter and one of the founders of the Press Club, discovered Struthers, former Charlevoix high school football star and now a Los Angeles Police Department motorcycle officer, escorting the President along the line of march. Rose also brought his brother, Mason, a prominent psychologist, and Struthers together for a brief chat.

Curtain to Rise Thursday Night on First Stage Play of New Theatre Group at East Jordan

Broadway comes to Northern Michigan as the curtain rises Thursday night when Center Stage '48, East Jordan, opens a ten week season of legitimate stage plays with "John Loves Mary".

All the past week, last minute hurried preparations of arranging the set, properties, special lighting equipment and the many things that go into staging a production of the Broadway theatre have been in progress. Set designer Jean Thomas and lighting specialist Cyvia Gilbert have spent long hours working with Directors Lief and Loren, with Stage Manager Robert Chapman and other technicians to achieve the proper "mood" on stage for the opening comedy.

Anne Putman Dean who plays the role of "Mary" and David Young who is "John" in the production have had a busy week. Like all members of the New York group they assume responsibility of household chores in addition to long hours spent in rehearsals. The 18 members of the Center Stage group share an old house in East Jordan.

Any individual in the company may find themselves not only rehearsing for the current weeks play, but also for the next weeks performance—and in between rehearsals and performances planning the menu, scouting around for stage properties, building the set or serving on KP duty.

Already the cast to appear in next weeks production "Arsenic and Old Lace" have been in rehearsal, the set design is on the drawing board and after the last performance of the first play this Saturday night, preparations will be in full swing again for another production.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Pampered Farmers

If the folks in our town were less tolerant, they'd be really burned up over that nationally circulated article on "pampered farmers," describing them as living off the fat of the land.

From where I sit the farmer is anything but "pampered." If he's better off today than twenty years ago it's because he's worked hard to improve the quality and quantity of his production.

Take Bert Childers, for example. Bert is up at four in the morning, to get the milking finished—and ploughing or harvesting, depending on the season, until sundown. In the evening he finally relaxes with the missus over a moderate glass of beer.

And the farmer today's not only temperate in his habits, like Bert's evening glass of beer . . . but tolerant in his opinions. So he'll probably say of that article, "somebody got the facts wrong," and just let it go at that.

Our Thanks to Charlevoix

Last Week some 250 of our Michigan newspaper folks met here at Charlevoix.

Our community did itself proud during the four duy session and won a lot of new friends and admirers. For the convention's success wus due to the cooperation and help given by a couple score of good Charlevoix citizens who contributed in many ways.

The meeting undoubtedly was a fine thing, both for our guests and for our town. They had a fine time and in what they didn't hesitute to call a beuutiful section of Michigan. We have a lot of new friends.

As the host publishers, Mrs. Towe, Dudley und I want to express our sincere thanks to all who helped. The entire affair made us proud, both of our editorial crowd and of our home community.

Welcome to Charlevoix

This issue of The Courier is dedicated particularly to our summer folks who come North to enjoy our weather, our lakes and our clear air along with us 12 month residents.

We're glad to see you, both the folks who have been coming year after year and who are as much a part of the community as we are; und you folks who are here for the first time.

To the former, there's nothing we need to say ubout Charlevoix. You know and appreciate it already.

To the latter, we want to extend a welcome to our three lakes und a sincere wish that you'll enjoy every minute of your stay here. You'll find us a friendly town. We like to have a good time, and to see other folks have one too, as long as it doesn't annoy others.

If you need help or information, don't hesitate to ask for it. We have the Board of Commerce and the Junior Chamber of Commerce ready to ussist. Members of our Rod & Gun Club will advise on fishing, and maintain our skeet range for your shooting. And The Courier is ready at all times to help get in touch with any of these folks.

Marion Craig Goes To Red Cross School

Marion Craig, a member of the Green Splash Honor Society at Michigan State, has been selected to attend the National Red Cross Aquatic School being held at Ludington for the 10 days starting June 20.

The college was given the privilege of sending two swimming students to the school and Miss Craig was selected.

The school, under tho auspices of the American Red Cross, gives an intensive course in swimming diving, rescue work, boating and other aquatic activities.

Miss Craig is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Craig and on July 1 will start her second year as life guard on the Belvedere beach.

Don Burke, who will serve as life guard on one of the city beaches this summer, is also attending the school.

Camp Charlevoix Enrolls 120 Boys, Largest In Its 22 Years; Staff of Trained Leaders Here

The 22nd season at Camp Charlevoix, owned and directed by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Reimann of Ann Arbor, began Wednesday with a full quota of 120 campers, the largest number of boys at camp in its history.

Campers come from nine states, including New York, Florida, Minnesota, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Ken Smith, of Grosse Pointe Woods, associate director of the camp, will begin his 11th season. Mrs. Smith will assist in the office. Harry Bingham, will again be business manager also for his 11th year.

The athletic department this year will be under the direction of Jim Brieske, U. of M. football star. Jim will play in the coming All Star game and with the New York Giants next year. Also in the athletic department will be Bill Kassler, senior at Albion College; Phil Stedding, who is returning for his fourth year as a counselor; Webb Wilson, premedic student at the U. of M.; and Chuck McKean, also a premedical student at the U. of M. who was a camper at Charlevoix for 4 years.

Don Bacon, head of the senior section again this year, will also be in charge of waterfront activities. In the swimming department will be John Cook, of De Pauw University, who will also instruct in fishing. Canoeing and trips will be under the supervision of Ben St. Laurent, who has been attending the Maine Guide School. Charles Southwick, at camp for his second year, junior at Wooster College, Ohio, will also instruct canoeing. The sailing program this year will be directed by George Campbell, engineering student at the U. of M.

Herb Brinkman, law student at the U. of Cincinnati, will head this year's tennis program. Other tennis counselors will be Charles Bacon, senior medical student at the U. of Chicago; Lee Stewart, U. of M. engineering student, who will also be camp bugler; and Fred Wagner, pre-medical student at Highland Park Junior College, who will head the intermediate section.

In the handicraft department will be John Ellsworth, of Duke University, will head the juniors; Bud Gallup, sophomore in mechanical arts at Michigan State Normal; and Jim Hales, art student at Pasadena City College, Calif.

Joseph Craig, M. D., pediatrician and graduate in Medicine at Ohio State U., will be the camp doctor. Assisting him will be Nurse Marie Peterson of St. Charles, Ill.

Jack Hawley is back as the camp cowboy. Jim Land, who led the Camp Charlevoix champion riflery team for two years, is back in that department. Fred Kassner returns for his second year in archery. The archery team last year was undefeated in any of its matches. The dramatic program this season will be in charge of Harrison Sudborough, assistant director of the Cheyenne Childrens Theatre, Wyoming. Bud Grimes, varsity wrestler at the U. of M., will be instructor in wrestling and boxing.

Gil Voss, hotel administration student at Michigan State, will be in charge of the kitchen and dining room. Mr. and Mrs. Russel Howard of Ann Arbor will be the camp cooks, and dining room boys are James Aleris of Grosse Pointe, Carl George of Ann Arbor, Charles Cross and Richard DeGalan of Detroit and Dick Shewall of Largo, Fla.

Rex Davis, Birds Attend Convention

Rex Davis, Charlevoix County Register of Deeds, Frank Bird, who formerly held that office and Mrs. Bird attended the annual convention of the Register of Deeds Association at Alpena June 16-19.

Lighting Equipment Is Installed at Airport Tuesday

Charlevoix is the first community in the state to have its municipal airport lighted under the new equipment loan program of the State Aeronautical Commission.

The work here was completed last week, according to Supt. A. G. Leitch. The $15,000 worth of war surplus equipment is loaned to Charlevoix by the state committee on condition that the city operate and maintain it.

Installation was done by men from the state office. Both the north and south, and the east and west runways now have border lights and guard lights installed. Supt. Leitch expects to keep the field lighted at night, both as a service to fliers and as an advertisement for the city.

There is a surplus of power from the municipal plant during the short summer night and it can just as well be used there as let it go to waste, he says.

Orlowski Gets Architect Degree

The degree of Bachelor of Architectural Engineering was conferred upon Louis S. Orlowski at the sixty-fifth annual Commencement Exercises of the University of Detroit on June 9.

A son of Mrs. Margaret C. Orlowski, he attended St. Ambrose College, previously. While at U. of D, Mr. Orlowski, was a member of the Architectural Society, the St. Francis Club and the student branch of the American Institute of Architects.

67 Sign Up for 4-H Camp Which Opens on Tuesday

The third annual Charlevoix County 4-H Camp opens next Tuesday at the Church of God Camp Grounds south of here.

It will close July 9.

This year's camp promises to be larger than last. Then only 46 attended. This year, according to Club Agent Karl Festerling, 67 already have signed up and more were expected to do so Wednesday, the last day.

The program will consist of regular classes dealing with the 4-H work, plus plenty of recreation. There will be swimming every day at the Ferry avenue dock.

For parents and friends there will be a special candle lighting service Thursday night.

Other features will include a picnic, treasure hunt and movies until bedtime.

Contests to be held Thursday include judging of canned goods, clothing, food, garden produce and dairy animals.

K. C. Festerling and Miss Emma Fero will have charge of classes and recreation. Ed Rebman, County Agent, will be camp superintendent. The 4-H campers will return home after lunch July 9.

Heise Attends Meeting of Chiefs

Chief of Police Clarence Heise and Mrs. Heise left Sunday for the Soo where they will attend the annual Chief of Police convention being held in that city June 28-29-30.

Enroute there they spent Sunday night at their hunting camp near Trout Lake. They will return home Thursday.

16 Friends Entertained At Sequanota Cottage

Mrs. Harley Ochs and Mrs. Evelyn Hayward were hostesses to 16 friends at a dessert bridge luncheon Tuesday afternoon at Mrs. Hayward's attractive cottage at Sequanota.

Four tables were at play with prizes for the afternoon going to Mrs. Rollie Lewis and Mrs. Charles Hamlin. Out of town guests were Helen Scibel of Kalamazoo and Mrs. Harry L. Landis of Detroit.

Have you noticed the picture in the Post Office of another dream in the making, that of the band shell for Charlevoix. It's Bill Supernaw's dream of a much needed civic improvement for the town . . .

The L. B. Messingers from Chicago are here for the summer at their cottage near Ironton . . . Mrs. Ella Schrader injured several ribs and her shoulder when she fell from the porch of her home one day last week . . . Stop, have you read every ad in this week's paper. It's your merchant's show window to the public . . .

When you walk into the Dal Henry Barber Shop for the remainder of the summer you will find an attractive looking blond girl there. She is Dolores Boyd of the Macfadden-Deauville Hotel from Miami Beach. She arrived in town Monday and will be the manicurist at the shop this season . . . Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright and daughters of Manistee spent last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brown . . . Mabel Bingham celebrated her fifth birthday last week and five of her playmates helped her make the occasion a festive one . . .

A new guest house is being built at the G. B. VanDuesen cottage on Pine Point, also a new dock is being constructed . . . Harvey O'Brien is building a new cottage at the Point . . . The Harry Bingham family moved last week to their cottage, having rented their Mason Street home to the Herbert Pevos family of Detroit . . . What an attractive new cottage the Keith Holly family of Detroit have built for themselves on the Point . . .

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Meyer expect to move to their cottage at the Point the last of this week. The Adolph Barons of Detroit will be in the Mecch Street home. They were expected last week but Mrs. Baron was called to New York by a death call . . . The Oldham cottage is open again . . . Another attractive cottage just finished is the Miller cottage . . . The Jerry Richardsons are here from LaCross, Wis. . . .

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Blanchard of Chicago are expected guests for the Fourth at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Democroukas . . . Mrs. W. E. Hitchcock of Muncie, Ind., arrived in Charlevoix Saturday to spend the summer at her cottage on Meech Street. She has a house guest, Mrs. Christine Valentine, also of Muncie . . . Walked down Main Street and as I passed Sally Bergeon talking to a sweet, young thing I heard her say, "Now about my Latin lesson!" Ah, another gal doing some make-up work. She will have a good teacher anyway . . . Have a good time on the Fourth but make it a safe Fourth!

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Loop and daughters of Grand Rapids are here at their cottage on Oyster Bay. On their arrival they were greeted by the folks at Chagranade Shores and given a welcome dinner at the Myron Culver picnic grounds . . . The Ralph Hess family of Nashville are now at their cottage . . . The memorial red maples in the park have attracted a great deal of attention during the past week . . .

We were sorry to learn of the illness of Eleanor Freedman. What a sick gal she has been! . . . Peggy Martin of East Lansing is at the Robert A. Paul cottage and has as her houseguest DeeDee Bresnan from Branksome Hall, Toronto . . . George Hovey says it is funny now, but last Friday night when he was in a boat fishing with three others and it capsized, nothing was funny then and he is only too glad that he is alive to tell the story . . .

Birthday congratulations to Mrs. Elizabeth Moon. Monday was a busy day for her as she received friends who called in during the day and wished her a happy day . . .

Henry Partridge underwent major surgery last week at Dearborn, Mich. . . . Our deepest sympathy goes to the McMillan family. Dr. McMillan's death is a serious loss to this community . . . Robert Bridge spent last weekend on the Trident, as a guest of P. H. Danley. The big sailboat, bound for Chicago, really got into bad weather with storm and fog. It was quite an experience.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Livingston were at Grand Hotel at Mackinac Island last week, attending the State Bankers Convention . . . Guests last week at the home of Mrs. Clinton Cooper were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Niver of Escanaba. Mary Gillespie of Escanaba has been in Charlevoix visiting her sister-in-law, Mabel Gillespie.

Army Drive Nets $18

The Salvation Army drive in the Phelps Community netted $18. Mrs. Charles Mascho was chairman and Mrs. Joseph Sidorowicz her assistant.

Keith Bruhl Sent To West Coast

Keith Bruhl, who has been stationed here with the Coast Guard as radio maintenance man for several years, has been instructed to report at Alameda, Calif., on July 1 for new orders. He left last Thursday for the West Coast.

He was accompanied by his wife and daughter, Leandra. They plan to visit relatives in Illinois and several western states enroute.

• Funeral services for David Gaunt, 91, pioneer resident of East Jordan, were held at the Watson Funeral Home, East Jordan on Thursday. He had died at his home Monday evening.

Post Office Goes On Summer Schedule

With the changing of train tunes, the Post Office also is going on its summer schedule of deliveries.

City carriers will leave on their routes about 8:45 a. m. Kenneth Prevost hos been added for the summer and will serve the business and Belvedere districts. Walker Miles on the North Side. Pat Moran in the Valley and Dan Genelt on the South Hill are the other carriers. Perry Smith will deliver parcel post.

Afternoon deliveries will be made about 3:40, after the arrival of the 3 p. m. train. Two complete deliveries will be made every day except Saturdays and Sundays.

Southbound mail closes at 8:30 a. m. and northbound at 1:30 p. m. The resort special again carries mail with a deadline of 7:30 p. m.

Rural carriers will continue on the present schedule, leaving at 0:45 except Mondays when they start a few minutes later.

• Albert Beattie was very pleasantly surprised Sunday when his grandson, Lyle Beattie of Traverse City and Carl Beattie of Boyne Falls, and their families called on him.

Summer Schedule Of Masses to Start

The summer schedule for Massess at St. Mary church will become effective July 4.

Masses wilt be at 0:00, 8:00, 9:30 and 11:00 a. m., the pastor, Rev. Leo Zeilinski, has announced.

The sunmer assistant will be a priest from the Jesuit summer home near Omena.

Land of the Free!

As we celebrate our national freedom let's remember the system of free enterprise under which this country has grown great. In countries which have turned away from free enterprise loss of personal freedom has also followed. Freedom of thought—freedom of speech—freedom of enterprise—all are among the freedoms that make up the "land of the free".

IT HAPPENED ON ....
BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

Beaver Island hummed with activities this past week end with a wedding, the Michigan Press Convention and the meeting of the R. E. A.

The wedding of Catherine Marie Schmidt and Charles Welke took place Saturday morning at Holy Cross church. Bertha McDonough and Alfred Ricksgers were the attendants.

Catherine and Charles spent a few days on the Island before departing for their future home in Pontiac.

Out-of-town guests who attended were Mr. and Mrs. William Welke, Sr., Mrs. Hanna Buss, Mrs. Christie Gallagher, Mr. and Mrs. William Parker, James Parker, Mr. and Mrs. William Welke, Jr., Ladonis Welke, Bob Casey, and Henry Ricksgers.

Beaver Island should be better known throughout Michigan with 65 editors, their wives and children returning home and relating their trip to the Island and the hospitality shown them last Sunday by the Beaver Island Association of Commerce.

One of the finest assets to the Island is the lighting unit which has recently been installed at the airport.

Archie LaFreniere, Sr. is spending a few days in Ann Arbor.

A new addition has been added to the Brother Doman Lodge of the Christian Brothers to house the attendants.

Marjorie Martin is in Boyne City spending her vacation with relatives.

Charlotte McDonough has accompanied Mrs. Potter to Kansas City, Kansas.

Mrs. Dale Prokop and children are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Pischner.

For two weeks Charles Whalen and James Buehner have been vacationing with Fr. Keenan.

Thelma and Darlene Schmidt spent a few days in Charlevoix during the past week.

The Grassi cabin on Little Sand Bay is being completed by several of the Grassi boys. The Grassi brothers are in the construction business and hail from Chicago Heights.

William Wallace and son, Louis were in port over the week-end with their yacht, the Wilmet.

Mrs. Hugh Gallagher, Chicago is back on the Island.

Norm Wickard and party flew in from Garnd Rapids for the week end.

Mrs. Marion Rice, Charlevoix County nurse, conducted a special vision testing program for the Island children this past week. The equipment for this service was made possible by the Petoskey Lions Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Gallagher, Charlevoix are spending a few days on the Island.

Hugh Ray, Chicago has arrived on the Island to open his summer cottage at Nomad.

NORWOOD

By Mrs. Milton Richardson

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagner are entertaining her mother, Mrs. K. Kapral, her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. Kapral and three children and Mrs. M. Chees, all of Detroit.

Charles Eberly of Grand Rapids returned home Sunday after spending the week at the Percy Empy home.

Miss Imogene Stafford is visiting relatives in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Racignol of Petoskey spent Saturday night and Sunday at the Milton Richardson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Kramer of Charlevoix, were Sunday evening callers at her mother's, Mrs. Hattie Holecheck.

Arvin Dawson of Central Lake is visiting Erwin Holecheck.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Baumbach of Whitehall are spending a few days at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Plenny Gennett were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Parsons of Ellsworth called on her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Alward Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stafford were Sunday afternoon visitors of Mrs. Edith Pearl in Charlevoix.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Holecheck and daughter, Irene, returned to Whitehall Monday after spending the week end here. Their daughter, Darlene returned with them.

Walter Hull visited several days last week with his sister, Mrs. Hattie Holecheck and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Richardson were Gaylord visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. H. Heir

Carl Cole is cutting hay at the Henry Hair farm.

Visitors at the home of M. K. Chew Sunday were his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Boss and family, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Anderson and son, Robert, William Marvel.

Callers at Henry Hairs were Mr. and Mrs. John Funk and Mr. and Mrs. Amos Wills of Bay Shore.

M. K. Chew attended the wedding Friday of his nephew, Eldean Chew and Jacqueline Louiselle.

Mr. and Mrs. Dane Miller and daughter, Ruth Ann spent the night Sunday at the home of her parents, W. D. Hair.

Veteran Students Attend Grass Day At Traverse Farm

Veterans from the Charlevoix Veteran's Institute who are taking the On the Farm training went to the Grand Traverse Grass Day Friday with agricultural instructors Floyd Ayers, Ellsworth Besemer and Institute Director, C. M. Novak.

The Grass Day was held on the farm of Alfred Campeau where preparations were begun as early as August of last year to establish certain demonstrations.

A crowd of 2000 witnessed the demonstrations and looked over the approximately $100,000 worth of hay harvesting machinery on display.

Effective demonstrations showing the plowing in of small gulleys and the prevention of further gullying by the establishment of a heavy sod through nitrogen fertilization were shown. One demonstration showed fall seeding as compared to spring seeding with the fall seeding badly winter killed.

The effects of heavy fertilization of alfalfa-brome after the first cutting was shown, where the fertilized area gave 15,400 pounds of green hay per acre and the check which received no fertilizer produced only 12,000 pounds of green hay, the fertilized area received 500 pounds of 0-20-20 per acre.

MICHIGAN Believes in Knowing the Latest in Health Developments

The more progressive a people, the more enlightened they wish to become on matters of health. That is the reason why Michigan doctors of medicine have pioneered in the educational use of radio to convey to the Michigan public the latest information on medical facts and discoveries. The "Tell me, Doctor . . ." 5-minute daily discourse carried by most of Michigan's local radio stations is your medical doctor's way of keeping Michigan people up to date on all the many developments in the medical world. Make it a point to listen to this instructive health program, daily.

Elk Rapids Locks Are Not Approved

Outlook for a pleasure craft waterway connecting Lake Michigan with the Intermediate Chain at Elk Rapids looks dim indeed.

The Corps of Engineers has just issued notice of a hearing at which citizens may protest the adverse report issued by the Division Engineer. Statements, either oral or written will be received by the Board of Engineers at Washington up to July 24.

The adverse report on the suggested system of locks and deeper channels says that the cost of such improvements would be far greater than any possible benefits.

STATE OF MICHIGAN
BEFORE FLOYD A. SUPP, CIRCUIT COURT COMMISSIONER OF CHARLEVOIX COUNTY

Walter A. Dann and Emma Dann, Plaintiffs vs.
S. Albert Young and Irene Young, Defendants.

At a session held by me, The Circuit Court Commissioner of Charlevoix County, State of Michigan, at my office in the City of Charlevoix, in said County and State, this 19th day of June, A. D. 1948.

Present: Floyd A. Supp, Circuit Court Commissioner.

Walter A. Dann and Emma Dann having filed their complaint before me to recover the possession from S. Albert Young and Irene N. Young, of certain premises in the City of Charlevoix, County of Charlevoix and State of Michigan, described as follows, to-wit:

The East 50 feet of the South one Hundred Eighty (180) feet of lands and premises in the City of Charlevoix, Charlevoix County, Michigan, described as: "Commencing at the center line of Belvedera Avenue at a point 155.5 feet West of the West line of the grounds of the Charlevoix Summer Home Association on Section 26, Town 34 North, Range 8 West; thence running North to the shore of Round Lake; thence Westerly along the shore of Round Lake to a point 205.5 feet West of the West line of the Charlevoix Summer Home Association, the same being the Northeast corner of a parcel of land now, or formerly, owned and occupied by William H. Aldrich; thence South along the East line of said parcel, now or formerly owned by William H. Aldrich to the center line of Belvedere Avenue; thence to starting point." Subject however, to existing highways.

It further appearing from the return of summons issued for appearance of S. Albert Young that the same cannot be served upon him, and also from the return of the alias summons taken out for the appearance of S. Albert Young that the same cannot be served upon him, and it further appearing from the affidavit of Guy C. Conkle, Jr., Attorney for Plaintiffs, on file, that the Defendant, S. Albert Young is a resident of the State of Michigan, but is absent from the State of Michigan.

Now Therefore, It is Ordered that said S. Albert Young cause his appearance to be entered in these proceedings on or before the 20th day of July, A. D., 1948, and that the hearing on said cause will be held at my office at 204 Michigan Ave., in the City of Charlevoix, Charlevoix County, Michigan, on the 20th day of July, A. D., 1948, at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, Eastern Standard Time, and that upon the failure of said Defendant to enter his appearance as above ordered the said complaint may be taken as confessed against him.

It is Further Ordered that within twelve days from the date hereof, Plaintiff cause a copy of this order to be published in the Charlevoix Courier, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County, said publication to be continued therein once in each week for three weeks in succession.

NOTICE OF REFERENDUM ON CREATION OF CHARLEVOIX SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT and
ELECTION OF DIRECTORS FOR SAID PROPOSED DISTRICT

TO ALL OCCUPIERS OF THREE OR MORE ACRES OF LAND LYING WITHIN CHARLEVOIX COUNTY EXCEPT IN INCORPORATED CITIES AND VILLAGES:

Notice is hereby given that on the ninth day of July, 1948, between the hours of 12:00 to 2:00 p. m., and 7:00 to 9:30 p. m., Eastern Standard Time, a referendum will be held on the creation of the proposed Charlevoix Soil Conservation District.

As provided in Act 297 of P. A. 1937, amended by Act 280, P. A. 1945, an election of three directors for said proposed district will be held at the same time. If results of the referendum are not approved by the State Soil Conservation Committee, the directors' election shall be null and void.

For the purpose of said referendum and directors' election, voting places will be established in the regular township polling places except on Beaver Island, where eligible voters may vote at the usual polling place in St. James.

Any person, firm or corporation who shall hold title to, or shall be in possession of, any lands three acres or more in extent lying within the said Charlevoix County are eligible to vote.

Any land occupier of three or more acres of land who will be absent from the area on that date may secure a voter's registration and qualification card and an absentee voter's ballot by making application to Mr. Claude Pearsall, R. R. 1, Boyne City, Michigan, who has been appointed polling superintendent. Such application should state name and location of land occupied.

BY ORDER OF THE STATE SOIL CONSERVATION COMMITTEE.

Charlevoix's History as Summer Haven Dates Back to Pre-Railroad Days of Buggies, Lamps

The earliest summer resort was the Belvedere which dates back to 1878 when six cottages made up the colony. A few years later more property was purchased and an association formed which eventually was enlarged to the present resort. About 1887 the first hotel was built and gradually enlarged to its present size.

On July 1 the Belvedere hotel will open for the season under the management of Scott Wilson who is beginning his third season there. Besides the hotel as part of the Belvedere association are the bathing beach, the casino, the tennis courts, the golf course with its club house and more than 90 cottages.

Chicago Club 68 Years Old

The Chicago Club is second oldest resort colony and was started about 88 years ago on about the same order as the Belvedere Club when a group of Chicago families purchased the property on the north side of the Lake Charlevoix-Round Lake channel. On the north side of that property was built the Chicago Club, a hotel and cottages for the club members. John P. Wilson, who arrived last week from Chicago, is the oldest member of this colony which besides the club house, has its own bathing beach and 26 cottages.

The North Side golf course, 9 holes of which are now operated by the city, was formerly a part of the Chicago Club.

The hotel, managed this year by Thomas N. Flaherty, formerly of Yeamans Hall, Charleston, S. C., and the Au Sable Club, N. Y., will open July 1.

Railroad Comes In 1892

In 1892 the Chicago and West Michigan Railroad came to Charlevoix and with it an influx of new visitors to enjoy the beauties of the city on three lakes. With this invasion came the need for more hotels and Mrs. John S. Baker, the "grande dame' of the hotel business at the turn of the century, constructed the Beach Hotel in 1898 on the bluff overlooking Lake Michigan at the west end of Dixon avenue.

Mrs. Joseph Joseph of Cincinnati, who has been a guest at the hotel nearly every year since 1898, will return this summer and while here will celebrate her 96th birthday anniversary. Mrs. Joseph is prominent among esummer residents and was instrumental in the organization of the Charlevoix Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kramer will start their third year at the Beach as owner-managers.

Old Inn Is Gone

Missing from this scene of the early resort days is The Charlevoix Inn, constructed by the Pere Marquette railroad in 1897. The block-long hotel with its casino, bath house and swimming pool and annex were razed in 1941 and with it went another era and many memories of the early days of Charlevoix as a summer resort.

Other smaller hotels, whose construction played an important part in the city's resort history, are the Lakeview Hotel, now owned and managed by Mr. and Mrs. James Flynn; the Hallett, built and operated for many years by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hallett, is now owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bolan; the John Hallett House also located on Belvedere avenue now operated by John Hallett the Pine River Hotel, the former Fountain City House, another old-timer which will be operated this summer by Mrs. Charles Leavitt with the dining room under the personal supervision of Marx and Lefkowitz of the Wilshire Kosher Catering Co.; Gray Gables Inn 308 Belvedere, under management of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dundas, the Tower Hotel and Annex operated by Mrs. Eva Smith; the Crestview, operated by Mrs. Charles Anderson and the Bartlett managed by Mrs. Arthur Mitchell have all opened earlier or will open July 1 for the season.

Many Cottage Owners

One must also include cottage owners in this brief history of Charlevoix as a summer resort. Many first came for a brief visit and later reutrned to make this their permanent summer home. Among these are the Charles Godchaux, the Charles Rices, the Alvin Goldmans, the S. J. T. Strauses, the Sydney Lowensteins, Mrs. C. L. Coleman, Miss Emma Butzel, the Newburgs, the Hamilton Moses, the S. T. Gilbert family and the Greensfelders who can all be listed among the first families here and who have all been coming here for about 40 years. Three and four generations of these families are still visiting or occupying the summer homes which line Park, Michigan and Dixon avenues.

Barnard Plans Fourth Celebration

Barnard Grangers are planning a big Fourth of July Celebration on Monday.

It will start with a picnic dinner at noon at the Grange Hall. Afterward there will be games and contests with prizes, a baseball game and a refreshment stand. These will be at the old school grounds.

The event is open to the public.

Press Group Hold Summer Outing Here, Praise City

Charlevoix entertained 280 members of the Michigan press last week with four days of north country hospitality.

With headquarters at the Belvedere, the editors and their families golfed, boated, went slght seeing and enjoyed Charlevoix hospitality for four days.

First event was an impromptu barbershop session for the early arrivals Thursday night when D. C. Nettleton, Charles Hamlin, Jerry Scudder, Dallas Henry, Tip Riley and Henry Ingalls supplied two hours of music.

Friday afternoon the ladies of the convention visited the home of Mrs. Albert Loeb, where tea was served and the house and garden inspected, and toured the Chicago Club and Dr. Louis Rassieur home grounds. Acting as hostesses on this Charlevoix tour were Mrs. Ray Faulkner, Mrs. Scott Wilson, Mrs. Tom Coxe, Mrs. Floyd Brown, Mrs. E. J. Edwards, Mrs. Clarence Wood, Mrs. John Schroeder, Mrs. Robert Bridge and Mrs. Florine Stelter.

That evening the Charlevoices sang at the banquet and Dr. George A. Buttrick spoke on "Personal Worth". Mayor Ray Hamilton welcomed the editors to Charlevoix. Karl Detzer, the toastmaster, who has seen much of the world, declared that the Beaver Islands are one of the most romantic spots in the Middle West.

Saturday morning's program was planned especially for the youngsters. At 8:15 John Cross took ten of them out to lift a couple boxes of nets. On his return he picked up 20 more and took them all to Camp Charlevoix where Chief Reimann's staff put on an entertainment for them. Cars driven by JCC members brought them back at noon.

At luncheon that day officers of the JCC—T. H. Coxe, Joe Abhey and Dr. Earl Faber—presented ten Charlevoix girls who were competing for the honor of being Venetian Night Queen.

In the afternoon the Patrol Boat and two of the Cross tugs took out half the party into Lake Michigan to lift more fish nets. For most of the group it was the first time they ever had seen commercial fishing done.

The other half were taken for cruises on pleasure craft. Donating the use of their boats and time were Kay Fitch, Gordon Freedman, Julius Gilbert, Harry Foster, Ted Foster of Charlevoix; Fred England of Ironton; John Porter and Hollis Drew of East Jordan; I. E. Quimby and H. W. Walstrom of Grand Rapids.

At dinner that evening Zach Whyte played. Candy favors were contributed by Geik's. At the floor show in the evening the Boyne Aires of Boyne City sang and S. E. Coleman on behalf of the Board of Commerce presented seven large trout and whitefish to various editors. Cans of LaBlance's smoked fish were given each person as a souvenir.

Sunday saw the trip over to Beaver Island aboard the Coast Guard's Sundew. Originally planned for about 30, 65 signed up for the trip and on Sunday morning 124 were on hand.

Aboard the ship Capt. Russell Bergh and his crew made the guests welcome everywhere, served coffee and answered uncounted questions. Arriving at St. James at 11 a. m. and escorted into the harbor by the picket boat from the station there, the party landed and walked to the old Mormon Printing Office where a memorial plaque was dedicated.

Introduced to the editors were Fred Spalding, president of the Association of Commerce of the Island; Mike Cull, owner of the old historic landmark; Dr. Russel Palmer, township treasurer; sel Palmer, township treasurer; treasurer; and Archie LaFreniere, chairman of the committee which planned the event.

Leslie Merritt of Howell, president of the Michigan Press Association, presented the bronze plaque to Mr. Spalding. It will be attached to a granite boulder placed by Gus Mielke.

Giving brief talks on Island history were Dr. Lewis Beeson, secretary of the Michigan Historical Commission; Chester Ellison, president of the Commission; and Gene Alleman, secretary of the press group.

A trout dinner was served 65 of the editors at the King Strang hotel, the overflow eating at the Shillelagh. An auto tour of the Island followed.

280 Editors Enjoy Outing at Charlevoix; Dedicate Memorial Plaque at Beaver Island

Displaying the printing office memorial plaque at St. James Sunday are Archie LaFreniere and Frank Nackerman in front; Gene Alleman, Dr. Russell Palmer, Fred Spalding and Leslie Merritt.

25 Girls Arrive at Ta-Wa-Ma-Na for Opening Season of New Camp at Pine Point Lodge

Camp Ta-Wa-Ma-Na, the new camp for girls on Pine Point, opened Wednesday when a chartered bus from Detroit arrived with 25 campers and members of the staff.

The 25 are from Detroit and Grand Rapids.

After getting acquainted with their new surroundings, the regular camp routine was started Thursday.

Heading the staff are Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gunnerson, director and camp mother. During the school year, he is head of the Physical Education department at Detroit's Western High.

Assistant director is O. A. Felden, industrial arts teacher at the Jackson Intermediate School in Detroit. Mrs. Felden is here with him.

Jack Bartlett of Kenyon College is waterfront director. Mary Lou Asplin of the University of Michigan will teach riflery and canoeing. Sally Reid from Michigan State will direct field sports and Anne Rogers of the U of M will instruct in dramatics.

Florence Eddinger, from Carnegie Tech, will teach crafts.

On the camp staff also are Grace Bushert, the cook. Winters she is at the University of Southern California and summers she comes to Northern Michigan.

The camp nurse will be Miss Miller from the Henry Ford Hospital. Lee Gunnerson and Sheldon Smith are politely called the kitchen engineers.

Olds Lodge has been redecorated inside. The kitchen is remodeled, with a new walk-in refrigerator, new dish washer and other equipment. An office has been constructed off the hall and a library set up in one of the first floor rooms.

The girls' rooms are equipped with new knotty pine wardrobes and vanities.

At the waterfront there is a new dock, new canoes, two sailboats. A new nature house is almost done and a tennis court built.

Across the peninsula, work has been resumed on the companion boys' camp which will be opened next year. Two cabins have been completed and a well drilled.

• Company at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Kohler are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kohler and children, Barbara and Chris, who arrived Monday from Boston for ten days.

11 County Children Go to Cripple Clinic

Eleven children from Charlevoix county attended the Crippled Children's Clinic held at South Boardman last week.

Dr. H. F. Badgley of the University Hospital, Ann Arbor and Dr. J. T. Jerome of Traverse City were in charge of the clinic which was sponsored by the Michigan Crippled Children's Commission.

Six other children from the county had made trips to Traverse City when special appointments had been made for them.

The children were taken to the clinic by Mrs. Dean Davenport, school nurse, and Ralph Price.

Later a similar clinic will be held at Cheboygan.

Episcopal Rector Goes to Kentucky

Rev. Arthur G-T Corteau, who has been rector of Christ Episcopal church for the last seven years, has been assigned as canon of Christ church Cathedral, Louisville, Ky.

No effective date for Rev. Corteau's transfer has been announced. Beginning July 18, until Sept. 1 the Rev. John Coolidge of Fort Lauderdale, will be here.

The Tow Line

News of folks, your neighbors and mine . . . but did you know that—

Dick Farmer was seriously injured last week when his tractor rolled over on him. He was treated at the hospital for a fractored skull and broken nose. Twenty stitches were taken on his forehead. This makes the third tractor accident around Charlevoix in two weeks. . . .

James H. Kirby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ty Kirby of Detroit, is spending the summer with his grandmother, Mrs. James Meggison and caddying at the Belvedere Golf Club.

Even having to use crutches does not prevent Buck Seymour from getting down and about town. . . . . Dr. Louis Mann quite endeared himself to his audience at the Alumni banquet when he called them "Summer neighbors." But it es who are to be congratulated on having such a summer neighbor in our midst.

Those giaot past cards are in the mails again. It wouldn't ba quite so bad if folks would remember to put on enough postage, say the postmen. . . . . It looks like a Cadillac display was on in Charlevoix.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hall of Ithaca spent the weekend with the Joe Williamses. For faur years Mr. Hall worked at The Courier affice and was here while the aew building was goiag up. . . . . Mrs. Clara Reed of Battle Creek is visitiag her mother, Mrs. Dora Hamilton, and her soa and daughter who are spending the summer here with their grandmother.

Dr. and Mrs. Earl Faber, their son and June Kirkwood spent the holiday weekend in Holland with relatives. They truly felt like celebrating for he had just received word from the State Dental Board that he had passed his state exam aad could entar private practice in Michigan. June plans to spend several weeks in Holland.

The Ernest Loebs of Chicago have arrivod for July and August. . . . . Tha Clarence Mills ara at thair attractive summar home beyond Ironton, coming from Cincinnati. . . . Mrs. Halman Schur and Mrs. Louis EtsHoken of Chicago arrived last Thursday at the Nattleton avanue home.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bennett and son Ned, Mr. and Mrs. Victor C. Breece and daughter Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. Will E. Daggett and Sheridan Corey of Grosse Pointe Woods spent the weekend at the Breece cottage on Clinton street. The Breece family plans to stay for a while. Other members of the party came to be here for the Alumni Baaquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Radle of Whitefish Bay were here for the holiday at the homes of Mrs. Esther Radle aad Mr. aad Mrs. Earl Miller. They brought their six weeks old daughter, Susan. Young Thomas Radle has been here for the past month with his grandparents, the Millers. . . . . Somehow our block on Clinton street seems strangely different with Dr. McMillan absent. A wonderful man has gone from us.

At last I have met Trina Nelson. Can't tell how many folks have asked me if I had met her yet. She is one of the town's most wonderful cooks so I felt that now I had become acquainted with one of our famous women. . . . "Seems mighty natural to see Don Horrick around town again." said an old timor the other day.

That's an interesting looking screen door on the Butters Sunset cottage. Always try not to break the tenth commandment every time I pass by it. . . . . Gene Bridge is skipper on his commading officer's yacht over in Italy. . . . . Met Mrs. A. R. Heflin of Chicago the other day just before she left for Beaver Island and their summer home. "I just get jealous when I get to the Beavers and I don't want to leave it all summer. The place has a fascination," she said

Her frieods are wishing hard these days for the speedy recovery of Ione Craig who has been a pretty sick woman during the past week following an operation at the Little Traverse Hos-

Leo Berg Installs Outfit to Chop Hay, Uses Fan Blast to Cure It in Haymow

Saving more of the food value, more palatable for stock, and faster handling are some of tha advantages claimed for the new system of putting up hay now beiag used by Leo Berg.

He believes he is the first in the county to install this chopped hay method.

Twa of the steps in the process are shown above. After the hay is cut and raked in narrow windraws, Mr. Berg hooks the hay chopper to the tractor. Behind the chopper is a wagon with a solid bax, capable of holding about two tons of hay.

The chapper rakes up the windrows by means of a revolving drum with spring tooth, like a conventional hayloader's. This hay then is carried back to the chopper, driven by a gasoline motor and working like an ensilage cutter. The hay, chopped in two and three inch lengths, is conveyed back into tha box.

At the barn the hay is blown intn the mow by another machine driven by a belt from the tractor. By means of long sectional pipe, the chopped hay is placed wherever it is wanted in the mow.

In the hay mow itself something new has been added. At the right in the lower picture is a solid box built against tho alde of the barn. This houses a 15-horse motor and an air fan. This laa discharges an air blast through the square wooden tunnels seen all over the barn floor.

At their lower edges there is an inch space next to the floor. The air paurs out there and as the chopped hay is piled in, the air blast will dry it.

The tall square stack in the middle of the floor is the hay chute. The picture was taken after the first load had been blown in so as to show the air duct system.

Mr. Berg points out that no fussing with slings or unloading apparatus is necessary and that the hay can be handled before the valuablo leaves drop off. It also is much easier as there is none of the heavy lifting of matted hay, either on the load or in the mow.

Dr. Mann Tells Alumni What Education Is

"What, then, is Education?" was the title of the address which Dr. Louis L. Maan, of Chicago, gave befnre 150 guests at the second biennial banquet of the Charlevoix High School Alumni Association Saturday evening at the Belvedere Hotel.

Dr. Maun's talk highlighted a prograaa which featured piano music by Zack Whyte, vocals by Shirley Sauri who was accompanied by Sue Miles, and brief talks by Frances Martin, Alumni president, Mayor Ray S. Hamilton and Superintendent of Schools Roy G. Bennett. Toastmaster was Robert C. Burns of River Rouge.

Developing and making dynamic what is already in the child he described as the true function of teaching. "A real teacher," he explaiaed, "never gives to a child, but draws out what is there."

"Education is like vaccination," said Dr. Mann. "Sametimes it takes, sometimes it doesn't." The truly educated person, he concluded, has perspective to see things in their entirety, evaluation to see them in their proper proportion to other things, and appreciation of their real values.

51 Students Enroll In Music Classes

The summer music program which is being sponsored by the Charlevoix Board of Education has gotten under way, C. A. Odmark, director, has announced.

Fifty-one students are taking private lessons, 45 members of the Junior band and 15 members of the Beginners band are reporting regularly for rehearsals on Tuesday and Friday. Classes are given on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Any summer visitors who are interested in the program are invited to consult Mr. Odmark.

Charlevoix Woman Is Head of Deanery

Mrs. Arthur Heilig was elected president of the Gaylord Deanery of National Council of Catholic Women at a meeting held at Mancelonia last week.

Charlevoix will be host to the group in the fall.

Those who attended the meeting from here were Mrs. George Haggard, Mrs. Louis Orlowski, Mary Margaret Orlowski, Mrs. George LaBlanc, Jr., Mrs. Frank Olesky, Mrs. Al Scheid, Mrs. Heilig, Mrs. Charles Litkowski of Dayton, who is visiting here, and Rev. Leo Zeilinski.

Beaver Celebrates Fourth With One Big $90 Bang!

Beaver Islenders wora given a thrill and a scara Sunday avening.

All wora gathared at tho playgrounds to viaw the display of fira works made possible by the Association of Commerce and the township of St. James.

Grown-ups as wall as children wero crowdad around to see tha baautiful display of brilliant colors shoot out over tha harbor. But something went amiss. A spark dropped on the box containing tha fireworks and in lass than a flash, more than $90 worth of fira works were exploding in avery direction, sanding children and their parants running to safety.

It was a panic stricken crowd until it was all ovor and found that no ona was hurt.

School Band to Play At Cherry Festival

The Charlevoix high school band will travel to Traverse City Friday to take part in the National Cherry Festival celebration.

The group, directed by C. A. Odmark, will leave by bus at 11:30 a. m., and march in the parade beginning at 2:00 p. m. The local group has also been invited to play a concert at 7:00 p. m. in Clinch Park in Traverso City and to take part in the Mummers Parade in the evening. Returning home after the Mummers parade the band will probably arrive home about midnight.

Marine Club Plans Cruises This Summer

New officers were elected and the job of lining up boats for the Venetian Night parade started at the meeting of the Marine Club last Wednesday.

Robert Wexstaff is the new commodore, succeeding Franklin Ochs. Ronald Ahfalter is the new vice-commodore, James Bellinger the rear commodore. William Bellinger and Joseph Howard were reelected as secretary and treasurer.

The group favored the idea of summer cruises and Wexstaff named P. D. Campbell fleet captain to plan and direct them.

Coming Events

July 9—W. C. T. U. bake sale at Brown Motors.

July 29-30—Methodist food sale and bazaar at Milton Block's Store.

Toledo Couple Opens Hillcrest Hotel

To be known as the Hillcrest Hotel, the former R. E. Olds summer home has been apened as a hotel and dinlng room by its new owaers.

In charge nf the hotel aad dining room is Mrs. Helen Clegg. Her husbaad, Frank Clegg, does the baking. For 14 years he operated the bakery at Lanison's, one of Toledo's two leading stores.

Besides the dining raom, the hotel will sell baked goods.

Dr. Royal G. Hall to Preach Sunday

Dr. Royal G. Hall of Albion College will preach at the regular morning worship service at the Methodist Church next Sunday at 11 a.m.

Professor of European History at Albion, a graduate of two universities and Auburn Theological Seminary, Dr. Hall has spent the greater part of five years in travel in Europe, Siam, Hawaii and China.

An able speaker, he is the lecturer on "Religion and Life" at Bay View.

Another recent graduate, Don Bambach, has enlisted in the Air Corps and left Wednesday morning for San Antonio, Tex., to start his basic training. He is the son of Mrs. Winifred Bambach and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cunningham.

Summer Resorts Being Built on Beaver Island

Two sizable new developments have been started at Beaver Island, both designed to increase the accommodations for the summer and fall vacationist.

Louis Hadad, Chicago, and Don Greene are planning a lodge with cabins and cottages at Beaver Head. The former is at the Island now supervising the start of construction on the central lodge, where lunches and refreshments will be served. Surrounding the lodge will be cabins and cottages available to renters.

Manuel F. Cone of East Jordan has been engaged to do the building of the completely modern cabins.

Another group of cabins will be built at the north end of Sand Bay. Partners in this are Dr. John Montgomery and his mother, Mrs. Henry Watchpocket. He is with the Saginaw Osteopathic Hospital. Two cabins and a 20 by 40 warehouse are planned for this summer, and next summer more cabins will be put up.

Thieves Are Busy, Lock Your Auto, Chief Heise Warns

Better keep all cars locked, warned Police Chief Clarence Heise.

Car thieves and pilferers are working this section now.

Machines are being taken most frequently at Petoskey, but two weeks ago Dick Potter's car here was stolen and driven to Elk Rapids. Friday night someone looted all the unlocked machines parked at tho Argonne, taking coats, jackets, cameras and other articles. None has been recovered.

So the Chief advises taking the trouble to lock up or at the very least take the car keys alaag.

Marine Band Begins Summer Concerts; Players Welcome

The Charlevoix Marine Band last night began its summer series of concerts in the city park. These concerts will be presented every Wednesday at eight p. m. under the direction of C. A. Odmark.

The Marine band has departed from its custam of recent years and has invited women to play in the band. The result is a larger band, better balanced and capable of presenting a varied and interesting program each week.

The program for their second concert on July 14 will include:

Guard of Honor ..... March
Nugget Noll ..... Overture
Old Timers Waltz
Hostrausers March
Iron Count ..... Overture
Chimes of Normandy .. Selection
Hamiltonian ..... March
Uncle Reuben's Jubilee, Novelty
Hall of Fame .... Concert March
Freedom and Honor ..... March
National Anthem

Summer visitors who would like to play with the group can see Mr. Odmark at the high school at 8:00 p. m. Monday evening.

Western Union Open Sunday Night Now

The Western Union office will be open two more hours on Sunday during the summer.

Besides the 8 to 10 hours in the morning it will do business from 5 to 7 in the evening.

Life Guards Rescue Man, Girl In First Week At Beaches

Tha two life guards, whose services were made possible by contributions from the residents of Charlevoix, have already displayed tha need of such protection on the beaches.

On July 4 Bill Lusk who had just arrived at the Lake Michigan beach answered a call for help from a man who became tired while swimming and was unable to reach shore. Bill hurriedly tore his clothes off and went to tha rescue.

The next day Don Burke, at tha Farry ave., beach pulled in a 15-year old girl who had gone out too far and was unable to swim back to shore.

The water, colder this year, hampers swimmers and both life guards warn bathers to beware of this condition.

Board Approves Valuation Boost

Charlevoix County citizens will be paying more taxes on their real property this coming year.

For the Equalization Committee of the Board of Supervisors made a general increase all along the line at its June session last week in approving a new schedule of valuations.

In almost all cases, the figures set by the county were the same as those fixed last spring by the various assesors and town supervisors.

Boyne City shows the largest increase, $337,535. Charlevoix is next with $140,300 and East Jordan follows with $128,752.

The amounts for the various units are:

"Arsenic and Old Lace" Is Next Play At Summer Theatre

The story of two nice old ladies who ga about daing good by feeding arsenic to their roomers will be told at East Jordan beginning Thursday night.

Telling the story will be the cast of Center Stage '48, the Broadway dramatic company that is presenting stage successes in this area.

The play will be "Arsenic and Old Lace." It concerns the sisters, who with the best intentions in the world, poison their roomers one after another so they will not become lonely and alone.

Despite the rather fatal plot, the play is a comedy.

Last week Center Stage gave its first play, "John Loves Mary."

• Mrs. Charles Payment and children have returned to Frankfort after spending a month with her mnther, Mrs. Louis Mosier. Mr. Payment came for them.

Member of Belvedere for 50 Years, James I. Dissette Recalls Old Days

Electricity and concrete have replaced kerosene and wooden sidewalks in the 50 years that James I. Dissette of Indianapolis and Charlevoix has been a member of the Belvedere Association.

The life there likewise has changed from a "somewhat simple" one to a typically complex modern one. And, unlike some oldsters, Mr. Dissette on the whole approves of the changes, both physical and social.

Has 89th Birthday

Not only does this summer mark a half century at the club, but the start of his own 90th year. For on June 13 he celebrated his 89th birthday.

He and his daughter, Miss Eunice Dissette of Detroit, came up May 27 to open the cottage. The birthday was duly observed and the next day they left for Indianapolis where his granddaughter, Barbara Ana Lee, was married to Jimmy Ingham June 18. He is the son of Mrs. Joseph H. Gardner. Then he returned June 24 with another daughter, Mrs. James Zinn of Detroit and the Zinn children—Libby, Jimmy and Mary—and they are here for the summer.

Chuckles Over Old Days

No, Mr. Dissette says, his 50 consecutive years do not give him the title to the longest Belvedere membership. That goes to Miss Calla Travis. "She was here when I came, and was teaching the dancing classes then just as she does now."

He chuckles as he sits in his corner chair with the carved arms and recalls how things were back in 1898. The cottages were most-

Farmers to Vote on Soil District in County Friday

Farmers of Charlevoix County will decide on the creation of a Soil Canservation District when they go to the polls—or stay away—this Friday.

A small vote can defeat the proposition as effectively as an adverse one, explains Ed Rebman, County Agent. Unless there is a good proportion of the land occupiers vote, he says, the State Commission will declare that there is not enough interest to warrant the formation of a new soil district in the county.

Polls Open Twice

The polls will be at the regular voting places in each township, except for Beaver Island, where the only voting place will be at St. James. Polls will be open from 12 noon to 2 p.m. and from 7:00 to 0:30 p.m.

Members of the Farmers Committee which has done the preliminary work so far emphasize two points:

The formation of a district in the county will not cost Charlevoix taxpayers an added cent. The money for administration and expert help is paid from state and federal funds to which we already contribute.

Expert Help Available

Having a Soils District simply means any farmer in the county or group of farmers can call on practical expert help in planning the best long range program for his or their particular land. No program or expenses are or can be forced on any individual.

A soil conservation program is no Santa Claus. Nothing is forced on the farmer but neither is anything except technical and practical advice given him free. He pays for use of equipment, material and help. Those who are looking for a free ride, cut prices, and handouts will be disappointed.

Program Is Voluntary

The chief contribution which a soil conservation district makes to a farming commonity is technical help in planning a program, both for individual farms or neighborhoods, which will make the most profitable use of the soil. As Director Figy said:

"Under it you know what is the right thing to do."

Mr., Mrs. Yettaw Mark Their 50th Anniversary July 4

It was 50 years ago on July 4 that Ben Yettaw and Mary Julia Supernaw were married at the little Catholic church at Atwood and then drove to Charlevoix to celebrate the occasion.

Sunday there was another celebration, this time a private one, for it was their golden wedding anntversary. Open house was not declared for Mrs. Yettaw has been ill during the past few months and didn't feel quite equal to it. Yet, the day proved to be a big one.

The couple attended a Mass of Thanksgiving, celebrated at 8 a. m. at St. Mary church. Dinner was served to members of the immediate family and many relatives and friends called during the afternoon and evening to offer good wishes and congratulations. Refreshments consisting of wedding cake and ice cream were served. The couple received many gifts and cards.

The Yettaws have lived in and around Charlevoix all their lives and are well known. To make the day more perfect they had their children with them: Ben Yettaw, Jr., and his family from Petoskey aad Ada Golden and her son, Billie.

• Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Plenny Gennett were their son aod daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Gennett and Miss Elaine Williams of Flint; their daughter, Mrs. Irving Hallett and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hallett and daughter, Linda Jo, of Detroit. The latter also visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Case.

Another Thing We Need to Conserve

To a person who became acquainted with the Far West's interest in and methods with water, Michigan's lack of system is a sad and jarring shock.

Of course, Providence has been kinder to us than to the western lands in the matter of rainfall, and we do not need to view each drop as a piece of liquid gold. But there comes a point where the end can be reached, even of abundant riches.

Our state is beginning to awaken to the fact it is high time something is done to conserve water resources. Industries are draining our huge subsurface pools, left far undergrounnd by the melting of the glaciers in many cases and not to be replenished rapidly. We all know about pollution of our streams and lakes by factories and towns.

Charlevoix can be thankful to the city administration which installed our disposal plant and so gave us a clean bill of health this year when other northern Michigan communities were publicly branded as having water fronts and streams unsafe for use.

Now a new raid is being made on our water by irrigation. On the whole, I'm for anything that will help agriculture. But there comes a time when the public interest must be paramount. Such a case, it seems to me, is when irrigation draws so much water from a stream or lake that its public value and attractiveness are lessened or destroyed.

A farmer should be encouraged to use surplus water, put in impounding dams, install shallow wells. But when it comes to ruining trout streams, lowering bass lakes, or pumping his neighbor's well dry —then it is time to call a halt.

What this state needs, along with a sensible tax system, is a water law to protect the rights of the public at large. And it needs it before too many more years have passed.

Two Good Stories

Two of the best stories I've heard in a blue moon were told last Saturday.

First was by Dr. Mann in his Alumni banquet talk about the time he was addressing a group at a mental hospital, forgot himself and asked the rhetorical question:

"And why are we all here?" And the response from one of the patients:

"Because we're not all there."

The other story was by James I. Dissette of the Belvedere about his sister who was a teacher to the Pueblo Indians back in the 80's and a pioneer in that work. When she came East to take in the 1893 World's Fair she brought him two pottery owls, about life size. The Pueblo maker had decorated them in fine Indian style; then wishing to add a final touch had copied the label from a coffee can.

Miss Dissette stopped at Chicago on the way to Indianapolis and while there one of the pair was stolen. Months later her brother himself visited the Fair. There in a Midway sideshow and ballyhooed as an authentic example of Indian totem art was a pottery owl, mate to the one in his home. Plainly across its breast were the words: "Arbuckle's Coffee."

He says he didn't claim the filched owl; that one advertising bird in his home was enough he felt.

What's Cookin' . . .

To the Town's Taste

Fortified with cook books as gifts, as well as favorite recipes of her Charlevoix friends, Ann Campbell Herrick should have no fears of plunging into the mysteries of the kitchen and learning what life is like "at home on the range" which will be Albion.

Following are a few of the rules that her friends wrote in her new recipe book, some recipes that hold memories when she was a little girl.

There is the Cookie rule that Aunt Linda Campbell has so often:

Molasses Cookies

½ cup sugar
½ cup lard
½ cup molasses
1 egg
¼ cup water
2 cups flour in which put:
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon each of ginger, cloves and cinnamon

Raisins, nutmeats or dates may be added if desired.

Drop by teaspoonfulls flattening them. Bake 15 or 20 minutes in a 375 oven. Makes about 3½ dozen.

Then the book would not have been complete without Sadie Faulkner's rule for

Comforts

2 eggs, beaten
1 cup sugar
1 cup sweet milk
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon nutmeg
3 cups flour sifted with 2 teaspoons baking powder.

Combine ingredients and beat until smooth. Set in cold place ½ hour before frying. Drop by teaspoons into hot fat and fry as doughnuts.

Virginia Conley gave her recipe for

Rice Griddle Cakes

1 cup boiled rice
1 cup milk
1 tablespoon melted shortening
1 egg, beaten
¾ cup flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt

Combine ingredients and bake on slightly greased hot griddle.

Mrs. Leo Carey just "knew Dick would like

Rolled Whirligigs"

Cream together ½ cup brown sugar and ½ cup white sugar
½ cup peanut butter
½ cup shortening
Add 1 egg, unbeaten
1¼ cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon soda and ½ teaspoon salt
½ package (7 ozs.) chocolate bits.

Combine ingredients. Roll dough into oblong shape, ¼ inch thick. Melt chocolate bits over hot, not boiling water. Cool slightly. Spread on rolled dough with spatula. Roll up and slice. Bake in 375 degree oven for 12 minutes.

Orange Cookies

1 cup shortening
½ cup brown sugar
½ cup white sugar
1 egg
2 tablespoons orange juice
1 tablespoon orange rind, grated
2 ¾ cups flour
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon soda
½ cup chopped nut meats.

Cream shortening and add sugars gradually, while beating constantly. Add egg, well beaten, orange juice and orange rind. Sift flour, soda and salt together and add the nut meats. Form into rolls, wrap in waxed paper. Store in refrigerator until ready to use. Slice then, place on greased cookie sheets. Bake at 375 degrees for 12 to 15 minutes. Makes about three dozen small cookies.

Fudge Pie

Sift 1 cup sugar
Beat until soft ½ cup butter. Add sugar gradually
Blend these ingredients until creamy.
Beat in 2 egg yolks
Melt over hot water. Cool slighly and beat in 2 ounces chocolate.
Sift before measuring 1/3 cup bread flour
Beat flour into butter mixture and add one teaspoon vanilla.
Whip until stiff 2 egg whites and ⅛ teaspoon salt.
Fold these into batter. Bake in 8½ inch pie plate in slow oven 325 degrees for about 20 minutes. Serve with ice cream.

That yummy sounding recipe came from the kitchen of Blanche Wood.

Mrs. Bemis Dies At Texarkana

A member of the Belvedere Club and a summer citizen of Charlevoix for a quarter of a century, Mrs. Elizabeth N. Bemis died Thursday at Texarkana, Texas.

Word was received here that day by E. J. Edwards.

Mrs. Bemis had been ill for several years but had spent last summer here as usual at her cottage. Originally from St. Louis, she and the late Mr. Bemis had their home at Prescott, Ark., where he owned the Ozan Lumber Co.

Charlevoix Citizen Edits New Book

"Michigan and the Cleveland Era" is a new book just published by the University of Michigan Press.

Earl D. Babst, long time member of the Chicago Club, good Charlevoix citizen, and a U. of M. alumnus is one of the two editors of the volume. This deals with the Cleveland era, which "marked a turning point in American history." The period of Civil War heroes and Congress dominating the government ended then.

Michigan already was a famed, large and outstanding university, and it supplied more than its proportionate share of leaders for the Cleveland regime. The new book tells the stories of these various men and what they meant to our national history.

Mr. Babst, because he knew all but one of t hese various leaders personally, and because he is one of Michigan's most distinguished alumni himself, was chosen to be the co-editor of the new book. The other is Lewis G. Vander Velde, director of the Michigan Historical Collections.

EATS New Kind of CANDY Loses 65 Lbs. Wears Size 12 Again

Once 180 lbs., Dorothy J. Miller, 2003 W. 70th St., Chicago, lost 5 lbs. weekly for 13 weeks, with the remarkable NEW AYDS Candy Reducing Plan and she now wears size 12 again. AYDS is a doctor's amazing discovery. PROOF POSITIVE! Eminent physicians supervised clinical tests and report quick and safe losses of 11 to 15 pounds, with over 100 users. WHY EXPERIMENT? No exercise. No laxatives. No drugs. Eat plenty. NO DIETING!

You simply take AYDS before meals which automatically curbs the appetite. The result is you eat less and lose weight. Only $2.89 for a full 25-days supply—possibly more than you will need. Your money refunded on the very first box if you fail to lose weight. Come, phone or write.

Why is thrift more important now than ever?

Money deposited now while prices are high will buy considerably more for you in the future if prices drop. In addition, every dollar you bank now is a dollar that won't be spent for today's scarce goods. Therefore, practicing "thrift" also helps fight the high cost of living. You have everything to gain by opening an account and making deposits regularly. Build your reserve fund here.

James I. Dissette Tells of Changes At Belvedere Club

ly flimsy affairs. Folks came and lived the simple life. "Mostly they used the lake for bathing," he explains. "When we built this place in 1901 we put in two tubs and electricity and it was quite a sensation."

President Eight Years

Back then oil lamps were the almost universal rule. There were wooden sidewalks and wooden steps, with their cracks and splinters and heel-catching warped boards. The entrance was between what is now the warden's home and the hotel.

Many of the present features of the Belvedere grounds came during the eight year's Mr. Dissette was president of the Association, 1914 to 1922.

New Entrance Built

Most cottages installed electric lighting, using current from the city plant. The present west and south entrances were put up. Cement sidewalks and steps were built, as were the steps and iron railing at the boat bayou. Internally, a modern auditing system was installed and the bulk of the improvements paid for out of income from the hotel.

The majority of the present cottages have been built or rebuilt in the last 25 years, he says. In fact, he believes that only two places, the Peck and Sehring homes, are still as and where they were 50 years ago. Many have been moved by new owners.

Regrets One Change

One change he sincerely regrets. Originally, the Belvedere had its own water system, pumping the water from artesian wells into the big wooden tank that still stands.

"But the pumps kept breaking down at the end and finally we connected on to the city. It's not as good as that artesian well water."

George W. Ross, 67, Killed In Accident

George W. Ross, 67, former resident who had been living at RR 1, Watervliet, was killed Monday night when struck by a car while crossing US-27 near Watervliet. He had been employed on a farm near-by.

Mr. Ross had lived in Charlevoix and Petoskey until a few years ago when he went to southern Michigan. He was a carpenter. The body was brought here Wednesday from southern Michigan.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. at the See Funeral Home with burial in Brookside cemetery.

He is survived by two sons, George, Jr., of Dearborn and Douglas, formerly of Petoskey, now living in Richmond, Wash., a daughter, Mrs. Eva Poole of Battle Creek and a step-daughter Mrs. Edna Murphy Novotny of Battle Creek.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Sealed proposals addressed to the City Clerk, City Offices, Charlevoix, Michigan, and marked "Proposal for Installation of Electric Cable" will be received by the City of Charlevoix, Michigan, until 8:00 P. M. (Eastern Standard Time) on July 12, 1048, for the installation of an electric cable across the channel between Round Lake and Lake Charlevoix in accordance with plans and specifications on file in the office of the City Superintendent, and on that evening opened and read at a meeting of the City Council.

The City Council reserves the right to accept any bid, to reject any or all bids, or to waive defects in bids in the interest of the City.

By Order of the Common Council.

Every Kroger landlord knows when the first of the month has come—because every Kroger store pays its rent strictly on time. Kroger is also a good customer of local light and power companies. And a new or remodeled Kroger store means work for local carpenters and other skilled workers. A Kroger store is an asset in every community it serves.

Anne Campbell Is Bride of Don Herrick

In an impressive candlelight service at the First Congregational church Friday evening, Julia Anne Campbell, daughter of Peter Donald Campbell, became the bride of Donald William Herrick, of Albion, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Herrick of Chicago. Rev. Jackson E. Turner read the service in the presence of 75 guests before an altar banked with white peonies and ferns and lighted with tapers in candelabra.

Preceding the service Mrs. A. J. Stelter played traditional wedding music and the wedding marches.

The bride, escorted by her father, selected a gown of white taffeta. The full skirt ended in a cathedral length train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held with a pearl tiara and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Charles L. Carey, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Marion Craig was bridesmaid. They wore identical gowns of turquoise taffeta. They carried Colonial bouquets of pink roses.

Mr. Herrick was his son's best man and ushers were Charles L. Carey, Donald Carey and Robert Brown of Chicago, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Herrick was attired in a floor-length gown of turquoise crepe. Her flowers were gardenias.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Houston'a at 307 Michigan ave. A tiered wedding cake graced the refreshment table which was decorated with white peonies, roses and syringa and tapers.

After a honeymoon at the Campbell cottage on Lake Michigan the couple will leave this week-end to make their home in Albion.

The bride attended Michigan State College for three years and will continue her studies at Albion College in the fall. The bridegroom attended Albion College, served in the Army Air Forces for a year and is now an engineer with the Union Steel Products, Albion.

Among those from away who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Herrick and daughter, Roxanne, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown and Louis Black of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. William Lore and Mr. and Mrs. Reed of Central Lake; Mr. and Mrs. H. Klermund and two daughters of Oberlin, Ohio; Arthur Brown and Miss Sue Smith of Bay View; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Corlett, Mr. and Mrs. John Corlett, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson and daughter, Jackie, John Mayne of Cheboygan; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Scott of Indian River; Mrs. John Paul Morrow of Long Point; Miss Doris Long and Miss Mary Ellen Thomson of Dearborn; Mrs. Arba Camcron of Detroit; Miss Anne Jones and George Wigglesworth of Ann Arbor; Mrs. Lyle C. Tooley and Miss Jane Tooley of Boyne City and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Carey of Midland.

Young-Olach Nuptials Celebrated at Church

Dorothy Y. Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Young, became the bride of Hubert E. Olach son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Olach at a Nuptial Mass celebrated by Rev. Gaudance Schroeder, O. F. M., at St. Mary church at 10 a. m. Saturday morning.

Rev. Leo Zeilinski performed the double ring service in the presence of 50 guests. The altar was decorated in pink and white peonies and blue delphinium for the ceremony. Music was by the church choir.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a white dressmaker linen suit. Her picture hat and accessories were white and she carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and white tulle.

Miss Edith Olach, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore an aqua sheer wool suit, black and white accessorlea and a corsage of pink roses.

Clement Olach of Flint was his brother'a best man and David Hamilton seated the guests.

Mrs. Young selected a tan print dress and white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Olach wore a gray print dress and white accessories. Both had corsages of white roses.

Following the service a wedding breakfast for the bridal party and their immediate families was held at Houston's on Michigan Ave. Places were laid at tables decorated in pastel flowers.

At 2 p. m. a reception was held at the St. Mary hall. The refreshment table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal eouple. Pink and white peonies and lighted tapers decorated the table.

After a brief wedding trip the couple will make their home at Baker's apartments for the summer and in the fall will live in Mt. Pleasant where the bridegroom will resume his studies in Central Michigan College.

Among those from away who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Clement Olach of Flint and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Stanhop and family of Detroit.

Arletta Provost Weds Richard M. Foster

In a quiet ceremony Wednesday afternoon, Arletta Provost becsme the bride of Richard M. Foster, U.S.C.G., of Sault Ste. Marie.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Copeland, his parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Foster.

Rev. A. B. Claypoolc read the service in the presence of their attendants Patsy Davis and Everett Thompson of Flint, cousin of the bridegroom.

The bride chose a dusty rose afternoon dress and a corsage of white roses, snapdragons and forget-me-nots. Miss Davis was attired in gray gabardine dress and wore yellow and white carnations.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception for 38 guests was held at the homc of the bridc's parents.

After a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada the couple will make their home at Sault Ste. Marie where the bridegroom is stationed with the Coast Guard. For traveling the bride wore a gray gabardine suit and whlte accessories.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Knickerbocker of Mt. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walker, Miss Gladys Barnes and Percival Foster of Flint and Mrs. Alberta Marshall Donnelly of Grand Rapids.

5,006 dealers have gone to Standard Oil schools to give your car better service

Add more mileage to your gas supply HERE'S HOW TO DO IT:

Keep your speed moderate—high speeds mean fast fuel consumption. Avoid "jack rabbit" starts—come to a gradual stop—don't idle your engine unnecessarily. See your Standard Oil Dealer for other ways to save gas—his training can help you. Standard Oil Company.

Anxious to serve you even better than over before, Standard Oil Dealers eagerly attend our schools for advanced training. 5006 already have completed the course. 250 more atart the course every two weeks at the 80 schools we operate. The course features one central idea, "Personalized Service"—for you the personal service you enjoy, for your car the individual attention it needs.

When your Standard Oil Dealer has mastered this training, and daily puts it into practice, he is awarded our Service Specialist emblem. When you see it hanging proudly inside his station, expect a little extra "pep" in his windshield cleaning, a little extra promptness and courtesy, a little extra attention to clean rest rooms. Expect your car to be handled with additional know-how and skill.

NOTICE OF REFERENDUM ON CREATION OF CHARLEVOIX SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT and ELECTION OF DIRECTORS FOR SAID PROPOSED DISTRICT

TO ALL OCCUPIERS OF THREE OR MORE ACRES OF LAND LYING WITHIN CHARLEVOIX COUNTY EXCEPT IN INCORPORATED CITIES AND VILLAGES:

Notice is hereby given that on the ninth day of July, 1948, between the hours of 12:00 to 2:00 p. m., and 7:00 to 9:30 p. m., Eastern Standard Time, a referendum will be held on the creation of the proposed Charlevoix Soil Conservation District.

As provided in Act 297 of P. A. 1937, amended by Act 280, P. A. 1945, an election of three directors for said proposed district will be held at the same time. If results of the referendum are not approved by the State Soil Conservation Committee, this directors' election shall be null and void.

For the purpose of said referendum and directors' election, voting places will be established in the regular township polling places except on Beaver Island, where eligible voters may vote at the usual polling place in St. James.

Any person, firm or corporation who shall hold title to, or shall be in possession of, any lands three acres or more in extent lying within the said Charlevoix County are eligible to vote.

Any land occupier of three or more acres of land who will be absent from the area on that date may secure a voter's registration and qualification card and an absentee voter's ballot by making application to Mr. Claude Pearsall, R. R. 1, Boyne City, Michigan, who has been appointed polling superintendent. Such application should state name and location of land occupied.

BY ORDER OF THE STATE SOIL CONSERVATION COMMITTEE.

STATE OF MICHIGAN BEFORE FLOYD A. SUPP, CIRCUIT COURT COMMISSIONER OF CHARLEVOIX COUNTY

Walter A. Dana and Emma Dann, Plaintiffs
vs.
S. Albert Young and Irene Young, Defendants.

At a session held by me, The Circuit Court Commissioner of Charlevoix County, State of Michigan, at my office in the City of Charlevoix, in said County and State, this 19th day of June, A. D. 1948.

Present: Floyd A Supp, Circuit Court Commissioner.

Walter A. Dana and Emma Dann having filed their complaint before me to recover the possession from S. Albert Young and Irene N. Young, of certain premises in the City of Charlevoix, County of Charlevoix and State of Michigan, described as follows, to-wit:

The East 50 feet of the South One Hundred Eighty (180) feet of lands and premises in the City of Charlevoix, Charlevoix County, Michigan, described as: "Commencing at the center line of Belvedere Avenue at a point 155.5 feet West of the West line of the grounds of the Charlevoix Summer Home Association on Section 26, Town 34 North, Range 8 West; thence running North to the shore of Round Lake; thence Westerly along the shore of Round Lake to a point 205.5 feet West of the West line of the Charlevoix Summer Home Association, the same being the Northeast corner of a parcel of land now, or formerly, owned and occupied by William H. Aldrich; thence South along the East line of said parcel, now or formerly owned by William H. Aldrich to the center line of Belvedere Avenue, thence to starting point." Subject however, to existing highways.

It further appearing from the return of summons issued for appearance of S. Albert Young that the same cannot be served upon him, and also from the return of the alias summons taken out for the appearance of S. Albert Young that the same cannot be served upon him, and it further appearing from the affidavit of Guy C Conkle, Jr., Attorney for Plaintiffs, on file, that the Defendant, S. Albert Young is a resident of the State of Michigan, but is absent from the State of Michigan.

Now Therefore, it is Ordered that said S. Albert Young cause his appearance to be entered in these proceedings on or before the 20th day of July, A. D., 1948, and that the hearing on said cause will be held at my office at 204 Michigan Ave., in the City of Charlevoix, Charlevoix County, Michigan, on the 20th day of July, A. D., 1948, at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, Eastern standard Time, and that upon the failure of said Defendant to enter his appearance as above ordered the said complaint may be taken as confessed against him.

It is further Ordered that within twelve days from the date hereof, Plaintiff cause a copy of this order to be published in the Charlevoix Courier, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County, said publication to be continued therein once in each week for three weeks in succession.

FLOYD A. SUPP,
Circuit Court Commissioner of County of Charlevoix, State of Michigan.

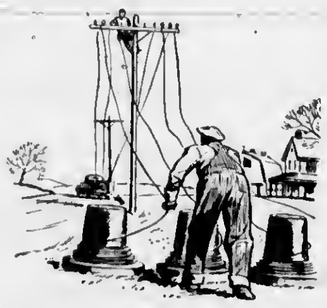
Rural Tele-news

BLUE-RIBBON TELEPHONE—A certain telephone which looks like any other, but nevertheless bears an unseen mark of distinction, was installed a few weeks ago. It brought to 50,000 the number of additional telephones installed in rural areas by Michigan Bell since VJ Day. That's about as many telephones as there are in Lansing. Rural installations since VJ Day have averaged nearly 1,500 a month.

WEB OF WIRE—To bring telephone service to more folks in rural areas, Michigan Bell, since VJ Day, has strung 23,000 miles of wire and placed hundreds of miles of cable and buried wire. Large amounts of central office switching equipment have been required, and in some exchanges, new buildings or building additions.



ON SCHEDULE—Michigan Bell's rural expansion and improvement program is moving along right on schedule. Besides installing 50,000 more telephones in rural areas since VJ Day, we have reduced the number of parties and improved the ringing on many rural lines.

IT HAPPENED ON ....
BEAVER ISLAND
By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

Thursday, 30 Christian Brothers arrived aboard the North Shore for a retreat at the Brother Damien Lodge. The Brothers who comprise this group have come from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Texas, Mexico, Canada and Rome, Italy. They will remain until August 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McDonough were in Grand Rapids for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Carlisle arrived Thursday.

Mrs. David Wilson and children of Ferndale have arrived to spend the summer at their cottage.

The base ball bug of the Tiger variety has bitten a bunch of Island boys. To remedy the infection caused by the bite, Buddy and Bruce McDonough, Donald McDonough, Jack Cull, Donald O'Donnell and Mark Cross took themselves to Detroit to see their favorite team play.

Mrs. Edwin McCann and children have returned after spending the month of June on the mainland.

McDonough's store received an eight foot Tyler double duty electric display case on Thursday's boat. Paul Garthe, Traverse City, came to the Island to install the case.

A dancing room panelled in knotty cedar has been completed as an addition to the Shramrock Tavern. A Tyler electric cooler, 43 case capacity, was installed last week.

Arriving Saturday to spend the 4th of July holidays on the Island were: Bill and Marge Spalding and daughter, Karen, Pontiac. Rose and Russell Greene, Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cuddington, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Rockwell, Grand Rapids; Margaret Lynch, Pontiac.

Arriving Saturday and occupying the McDonough cabins on Sand Bay: Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bartman, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Warner all of Indianapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stilles and party from Grand Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gallagher and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gallagher, Pontiac, are spending a short vacation on the Island.

Mrs. J. C. McDonald and son, Charles, Charlevoix, are visiting Mrs. Elizabeth Gallagher.

July 4 was chosen by the community of St. James to raise the large American flag on the pole that centers the new play ground.

While the flag was being raised by Coast Guardsman Van Erkle, four Coast Guardsmen stood in salute and all present sang the "Star Spangled Banner" This was followed by all singing "My Country 'Tis of Thee".

Following the ceremony foot races took place in front of the Parish Hall. Children were grouped according to age for the races and the following came in first: Joe LaFreniere, Billy Miller, Gary McDonough, Billy Pischner, Michael McCann, Margaret Ann LaFreniere, Donnie Wojan and Russell Palmer. The race for the young ladies was won by Lillian Connaghan. Archie LaFreniere won the men's race. Ice cream was served to all the children. Dr. Russell Palmer was in charge of this affair.

Dinner, Reception Follow Schmidt-Welke Wedding

An event of interest to their friends was the June marriage of Catherine Marie Schmidt and Charles O. Welke of Beaver Island at Holy Cross church with Fr. Fabian Keenan officiating.

The bride, gowned in white satin, finger length veil and a tiara of lillies of the valley and orange blossoms, was given by her father, William F. Schmidt. On entering the sanctuary the bride placed her bouquet of pink roses before the statue of the Blessed Virgin.

Her only attendant was Bertha McDonough, who wore pastel green and carried yellow carnations.

Alfred Ricksgers was best man.

Before the ceremony, booklets with the complete nuptial Mass were passed out by the ushers.

Mrs. Schmidt wore a pink dress and white earnation corsage. Mrs. Welke, Sr., was attired in navy and white print model and also wore white carnations.

Dinner was served to 100 guests at 1 p. m. at the home of the bride's parents and in the evening a reception attended by more than 400 was held at the Parish Hall, with dancing to music by a three-piece orchestra.

120 Boys At Camp Charlevoix Get Acquainted, Start Contest, Stage Man Hunt, Attend Chapel

"Once Again We Come Together" was the camp song that rang through the dining room at Camp Charlevoix last Wednesday evening, after 120 boys from nine states had arrived for the season.

The first evening in camp was a time for the boys to get acquainted. Don Pfarrer, Don Sigismond, Ed Cote, Jimmy Logie, Bob Stockwell, Dick Degener, and Alan Mendelssohn took part in some of the games.

Thursday morning the boys were given physicial exams by the camp doctor, Dr. Joe Craig, and the camp nurse, Miss Marie Peterson. After this the boys were given their swim tests, so that the waterfront department under the direction of Don Bacon could classify them according to their ability. Classes were formed and now are meeting every morning.

Thursday afternoon was given over to every boy getting an introduction to the camp activities. Now every boy is busy morning and afternoon in the activity of his choice.

Saturday afternoon one of the season's most popular events was held. It is a "Man Hunt" in which the counselors hide somewhere on camp property and the boys find them. It was the start of the Green-Grey competition, and as each side found two of the desperadoes, the event gave each side 1 point. Saturday night the first Council Fire was held at which time the new campers were initiated into the Tribe of Charlevoix. Bill Craig, Frank and Duffer Smith were young braves in the ceremony.

The Chief (L. C. Reimann) was the speaker at the first chapel service on Sunday morning. Sunday afternoon was a great time to hold a water carnival. There were several canoe and swimming events, with many campers taking part. Among the boys in the events were: Bob Laugherty Skip Macauley, John Wood, Bart Hickox, Hud Morris, Dan Shields, David Harding, Dick Degener, Bill Craig, Don Pfarrer, Mike Boswell, Tom and Bob James, and Dale Arn.

The camp clock has been set back one hour now so that it gets dark here before it is time to go to bed, making the camp two hours behind Detroit time. This may help parents in their visiting keep them from arriving in camp before we have had reveille.

Harry G. Clarke, 72, former resident and father of Mrs. Walter Bergeon, died Thursday at Sturgis Memorial Hospital, Sturgis.

Funeral services were held at the Moon Funeral Home in Sturgis on Saturday, cremation at Fort Wayne, Ind., and interment at the Brookside cemetery, Charlevoix.

Born in Island Pond, Vt., Mr. Clarke made his home in the East until coming to Chicago in 1915. He was a linen salesman for Carson Pirie Scott and Co. until 1933 when he became associated with his brother, Robert E. Clarke, in the hotel business. He retired in 1940 due to ill health. He later lived in Charlevoix and California, going to southern Michigan early in 1947.

He is survived by his wife, the former Fannie Taylor whom he married at Springfield, Mass., in 1900; one daughter, Mrs. Bergeon; a son, M/Sgt. Gilson E. Clarke of Howe, Ind.; one brother, Robert E.; a sister, Mrs. Helen C. Davis and five grandchildren.

• Guests at the home of John McCann over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Struip, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Stinson and Eugene Stinson all of Muskegon Heights.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Will's Hospitality Isn't "Cracked"!

Ever since January, Will Dadley planned to give his living room that "new look"—planned to carefully refinish the woodwork and replaster the walls.

Every time Will got out the putty to start filling in the cracks, a neighbor stopped by to pass the time of day—and first thing you know, there was a group of us helping Will do the job up right. After Will called a halt to the evening's work, we'd sit around the fire enjoying a friendly argument and a sparkling glass of mellow beer.

So Will's living room doesn't look like it did a year ago—but it's by far the most "livable" living room I know: A place you can always drop in for good talk, good beer, and a warm welcome.

From where I sit, so long as Will puts that atmosphere of hospitality and good fellowship ahead of everything else, we'll all be happy to help Will change the looks of his living room any time he wants.

District ReElects Harold Withers to School Post

The story of a good achool year was told to 29 interested citizens Monday night at the annual meeting of District No. 1.

It covered theaims of the school its varied programs, the staff, the financing and plans for the immediate future.

Harold Withers, whose term as trustee expired, was reelected by 39 votea.

Goals Are Defined

Two goals were given as the aims of the school. In the elementary grades it is to lay a foundation for later learning. In the high achool it is "the developing of a more complete and efficient living" so as to "meet aociol and economical problems."

Six major activities outside the academic one received special mention.

These were the health progrom, music, athletics, rural transportation, new building, and Veterons Institute.

Galdman Fund Helps

The report pointed out that the Lunore Goldman Myer Fund continued its help with clothing and milk, making possible the continuing of the mid-session lunches for the younger children.

Besides catching illnesses before they become serious, the new heolth progrom has provided definite heolth training for the pupils.

The band and orchestre work has been expanded to include a summer class for those who want it. The band won a high rating at the State Festival.

270 In Ahletics

Athletics have become a group as well as a varsity matter. Altogether 270 boys, both grade and high school, took part.

Another bus is on order and when it arrives before fall the school will be well equipped. During the past year, the aver-

War Unlikely, Inflation Can Be Stopped, Ferguson Says

Bobby Beltz was a proud boy out at Camp Charlevoix last Thursday when his grandfather came to visit him for the day and they had dinner at the head table. Bobby's folks are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beltz of Grosse Pointe Farms. His grandfather shown here with him, is Sen. Homer Ferguson of Michigan.

War with Russia is not likely. The mounting inflation can be stopped.

Sen. Homer Ferguson gave these two answers to questions last Thursday when he dropped in at The Courier office.

War is not likely, he said, because Russia does not want it. the only way it could start might be if someone's trigger finger slipped and an unforseen and drastic shooting got started.

Right now, Berlin is the crux of the whole complex situation. It was a mistake from the start. Senator Ferguson seys, evar to allow the four way split of Berlin end Germany. It was eesy, far anyone who had hed eny dealings with the Russians, to know how they would ect. The result has been the creetion of en impossible situation which evidently will only ba settled by someone becking down.

Russia is ploying for prestige. If she can force or squeeze the United States out of Berlin she thereby proves to her own people, to all her eastern European satellites, and to Western Europe that she is top dog.

Nevertheless, the Senator believes the American press is making a mistake in playing up the Russian news so strongly. In the first place, by so doing the press is playing into Russia's hands, making her case seem stronger and possibly more important thon it reolly is.

Secondly, although the international situation is grave it is not as sensational as the day after day news reports would indicate.

Nevertheless, he says, the Russians can be the most aggravating of peoples with whom to deal. As individuals they are scared to make mistakes because one can mean a death sentence. Hence giving an inch in dealings in unthinkoble. They are convinced, or have to pretend to be, that the Stalin system and philosophy are the absolute last word in truth ond right.

Senator Ferguson does not like Russia's system of sending hundreds (our State Depertment does nat know how many) of technicians and business man over here in the guise of diplomatic representatives. He is in favor of edmitting only as many Russiens as thet country admits U. S. citisens and then on exectly the same conditions.

But the State Department, he says, is so concerned over international good will that it is afraid to hurt anyones feelings, even though its weak course means loss both of good will and international respect.

Turning to the situation at home, he says that the present government is not really trying to stop inflation. If prices should go down, a drop in nationol income of ten billions would mean a corresponding drop in federal income of three billions. The spenders at Washington, he asserts, prefer to keep prices and costs high to maintain government spending at the present level, even though it means a lower standard of living for the individual.

For the immediate future he sees small hope of any drop in prices. Steel still is short and Venetian Night promises to be as big and colorful an avent aa last year's.

Saturday night the JCC is planning its Coronation Boll for the Queen and her Court. The place has not yet been decided upon. At that time Sally Miller will hand the crown to the new queen, whose identity will be announced then.

Sunday at 3 p. m. the water carnival will be held in the City Park. The Queen will start it officially. Six events are planned: Heinz special race, greased pole walk, canoe and portage race, blind dinghy race, canoe race and canoe tilting.

At 7 p. m. there will be a parade of cars carrying the Queen and her court. Next the Camp Charlevoix Boys Chorus will give a program of sea chonteys, followed by songs by the SPEB-SQSA Chorus, and music by the Charlevoix Marine Band.

As soon as it is dark the lighted boat parade and fireworks display, the high point of the spectacle, will take place. Already 27 boat owners have said they will enter craft.

Annual Hospital Meeting Is July 22 At City Hall

Thursday, July 22, hos been set as the date of the annual meeting and election of the Charlevoix Hospital.

It will be held at the City Hall at 8 p. m. and is open to the public.

At that time five members will be elected to the board of eight directors.

Three will be elected for a term of three years each to replace E. J. Edwards, J. M. Foster and W. H. Wallace whose terms expire this year.

One will be elected for a term of one year to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Dr. F. F. McMillan, who was president of the board; and one for a two year term to succeed Peter Timmer who has resigned.

The financial report as well as those of the superintendent and the secretary will be given at the meeting.

New Unit Is Now Supplying Current

The new diesel unit ot the power plant is now supplying current to Charlevoix for most of the 24 hours.

For about six hours at night it is more economical to operate the 500 kw generator in place of the new 1000 one.

Demand is runing higher this year than last, peak loods of 1140 having been reached several times so far. Abont 100 kilowatts are being supplied by the hydro plant at Bellaire.

Myers Is Elected Bank Director

Fred Myers was elected a vice president and director of the Charlevoix State Savings Bank.

The board met last Thursday. He succeeds Dr. F. F. McMillan in both positions.

State Title

Tourney Golfers Praise Charlevoix, Belvedere Course

Chuck Kocsis of Detroit's Red Run Golf club set en all-time record here Sunday when he won the Michigan Amateur Golf title for the fifth time.

He did it in the face of stiff opposition, beating out Ben Smith also of Detroit, who set a red hot pacing a newcomer in state tourney play. According to Bob McCall, Belvedere pro, the best golf shown at a Michigan amateur tournament was played here last week.

Of the three lost state tourneys played on the Belvedere course, this had the smallest number of starters, only 169.

Ray Kipke was in general charge of arrangements and Frank Poole acted as starter on Thursday. Friday morning the field was reduced to 64 and the eliminations kept on until Sunday morning's semi-finals saw Smith beat out last year's champion Ed Ervasti, 4 and 3; Kocsis

Just a Few Bouquets

Seems good to see the park benches out again, the shuffleboard courts in use and to hear the band concerts.

I always feel grateful to those in charge of a school or other annual meeting when there are printed or typed reports ready for each person. And the officers merely sketch in the high points instead of droning out yards and yards of figures which soon become meaningless. (Our school heads did a fine job in this respect Monday.)

The JCC's deserve a hand for whipping up a float (or rather floats) at the last minute for the Traverse City Cherry parade. Considering the time handicap, they did a fine job, aided by several folks outside their own group. That Cherry parade is a fine thing for this north country—it gives neighboring towns such as ours chance to do a little gratuitous promotion.

Also deserving of a hand at Traverse were the band members. The town was a bake oven during the parade, and those kids really took a beating on their two long marches wearing those heavy uniforms.

Dean Davenport, who resigned as secretary-treasurer of Kiwanis Monday after six years in that office, merits a lot of thanks from his fellow club members. His resignation recalled a joking remark which Shirley Smith, former secretary of the University of Michigan, made to me when he also gave up his post. Said Shirley:

"I never realized how good I was until now. Here the University's hired three men to do the work I've been doing alone."

So with Dean. The club has two new officers in his place.

The citizens of School District No. 1 paid their directors quite a compliment Monday night. They stayed away from the annual meeting in droves, only 29 attending. That surely expresses satisfaction and confidence in the way school affairs are being run. But as Sally Bergeon remarked afterward:

"We'd all like it better if they'd show more interest and come up here."

Annual Meeting Elects Withers, Hears '48 Report

age transportation cost per pupil was $27.74. The state allows up to $50.

Nearly 75 are enrolled in the veterans programs. These include on-the-job and apprenticeship, and the new on-the-farm group. There is a long waiting list of approved veterans who will be given training as soon as qualified instructors can be obtained.

Meals Cost 26 Cents

During the year 42,900 hot lunches were served at noon, at an average cost of 26 cents. The lunch fund showed a profit for the year on an $11,120 outlay of $04.46.

The section dealing with the library showed the comparative use by students and adults. Grown ups drew 10,771 books against 8,795 by juveniles. There are 3,096 cards in circulation. Only 352 new books were added, and all are in the student classification, the Board taking the position that since the city does not share in the support of the library new outlay must be strictly for school uses.

Financially, the school represented a $121,092.50 business.

Cash on hand increased from $1,968.72 to $13,202.97.

Direct taxes paid by property owners of District I accounted for only $33,779.90 of the total income of $134,355.47. The rest, $98,606.85, came from state and other funds. As pointed out, direct taxation raises only one quarter of the cost of operating the school.

A breakdown of the finances is given in the accompanying table.

How Our School Operates Financially

Below is given the salient points of the financial reports presented Monday night by Mrs. Catherina Bergeon, secretary, and E. D. Hawley, treasurer, at the annual meeting of School District No. 1:

What's Cookin' . . .

To the Town's Taste

When Mrs. E. B. Bowman was a bride a friend gave her one of her favorite recipes that has become a general favorite with the Bowman family down through the years. It is

Chocolate Cake

2 tablespoons butter
1 cup sugar
1 egg
1½ cups flour
1 cup hot water
4 tablespoons cocoa
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon soda
Pinch of salt
1 teaspoon vanilla and dash of almond

Cream butter and sugar. Add beaten egg. Work in flour which has been blended with salt and baking powder.

Mix ½ cup hot water with cocoa and add to above mixture. Beat one miuute.

Cream soda with remainder of hot water. Add to batter and beat one minute. Add vanilla and bake in moderate 350 degree oven until done. Bake in a loaf pan and ice with:

2 cups confectioner's sugar
3 tablespoons cocoa
2 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons hot coffee

Place sugar, cocoa and butter in bowl. Add coffee slowly, beat until smooth and creamy.

Another family favorite is Mrs. Bowman's

Coffee Cake

1 cup flour
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons butter
Pinch of salt

Take out ¼ of t he mixture and set aside.

Add one cup of flour to remainder of mixture and:

2 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup milk
1 egg. Beat together.

Put 1 teaspoon cinnamon in the ¼ mixture left out and sprinkle over batter. Bake slowly in 350 degree oven and eat hot.

Mrs. Bowman has a chocolate pudding rule that is much better than the commercial puddings on market and she says that children love it.

Chocolate Pudding

½ cup sugar
3 tablespoons constarch
½ teaspoon salt
2 squares melted chocolate or 4 tablespoons cocoa
2 cups milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Mix sugar, cornstarch and salt in double boiler. Add 2 cups milk and chocolate. Cook until thickened. Remove from fire and add vanilla. This makes five servings. Top with whipped cream.

"This is Jim's favorite," said Mrs. Bowman when she handed me her rule for

Spanish Rice

4 or 5 slices bacon cut fine
Brown in same, 2 onions minced fine

Add ¾ cup raw rice and brown it. Put in covered casserole or saucepan after you have added 4 cups of hot water. Boil until dry. Add can of tomato juice and continue cooking until thickened. (This is entirely different from the usual Spanish rice rule.)

If you are looking for a way to use apples and something with real oomph that your family will ask for again and again try:

Apple Oatmeal Squares

Sift 1 cup flour with ½ teaspoon soda and ½ teaspoon salt.

Add ½ cup brown sugar. Mix with 1 cup of quick cooking oatmeal. Cut in ½ cup shortening until crumbly. Spread half of this mixture in greased 7x11 pan. Arrange 2½ cups thinly sliced apples over crumb mixture. Dot apples with 2 tablespoons butter and sprinkle with ½ cup granulated sugar. Cover this layer with remainder of crumbs. Bake in moderate oven 350 degrees for 40 to 45 minutes. If eaten plain, serve warm with cheese. Also delicious with whipped cream.

I have abandoned all other recipes for gingerbread when I found this one years ago", said Mrs. Bowman and now this has become one of Linda's favorites.

Light-As-A-Feather Gingerbread

Pour ½ cup boiling water over ½ cup shortening. Add:

½ cup brown sugar
½ cup molasses
1 beaten egg

1½ cups flour, sifted with ½ teaspoon salt and ½ teaspoon baking powder.

½ teaspoon soda
¾ teaspoon ginger
¾ teaspoon cinnamon

Combine all ingredients and beat until smooth. Bake in 8 inch square pan in 350 degree oven. Let cool in pan and serve with whipped cream.

Pomona Grange Will Meet Thursday

The Charlevoix County Pomona Grange will have its July meeting Thursday at 8:30 p. m. at the Deer Lake Grange Hall.

The short program will be in charge of the lecturer. A pot-luck lunch will follow.

Plans for the Grange's exhibit at the county Fair also will be discussed then.

You'll say "Great" twenty times a minute!

YES, every time you breathe (and that's 20 times a minute), you'll thank the good judgment that put you in a Packard!
For only in a Packard can you get a constant flow of crisp, fresh air—even when you're standing still, with windows closed.
At the touch of a button, you can create your own breeze—fresh, crisp, circulating air . . . completely changed once every minute.
On the road, you cruise refreshed with windows up. No more nerve-wracking wind noise. No more wind-blown hair.
And when winter comes, you keep right on making your own weather. Just set the dial for the temperature you want—the rest is automatic.
So why not start getting some real fun out of your breathing? See your Packard dealer—let him give you a demonstration of the industry's most efficient heating and ventilating system.
You'll find it's one of a multitude of good reasons for placing your Packard order now!

Senator Ferguson On Visit Here Says War Unlikely

with a 27 billion amendment program underway, steel costs are certain to go higher. ERP, which lasts until 1952, also is exerting strong pressure on markets and prices.

But despite these things, it still would be possible for the government not to make conditions worse. He cited the request from the military for two billions for permanent buildings. After the Finance committee finished, Congress allowed 151 millions.

"Think what two billions of government demand on soil pipe and beaver board and shingles would have done to the housing market right now," he said.

He cited one recent instance of wrong buying. In one day the government bought eight million bushels of grain. That boosted prices, he pointed out. Instead, the buying should have been done over a month and at low prices, both to save federal money and to help hold inflation in check.

"You know it costs us more today to be governed than to eat," he said. "Our annual food bill is 50 or 51 billions. The federal government costs 42 billions. The states, cities and the rest are about 12 billions."

Price fixing is not the remedy for inflation he says. We tried that during the war and it did little. All it did was create black markets and boost the cost of living.

Two things will end the inflation, the Senator declared. First is for the administration to hold down on federal spending, especially in competion with private buying, to check credit and to use its powers to lower and not increase prices.

The second thing must be done by the people themselves. As a nation we must work, cooperate and produce. If we can produce enough while holding our own buying in check, we can lick the inflation and all our other present internal economic ills.

In the end, Senator Ferguson said, it becomes a question of public morality.

"We're a great nation with the greatest system of government and individual freedom this world has ever known. It is up to us as individuals to save it."

In the Matter of the Estate of MARY C. Helmhart, Deceased.

Clarence L. Guernsey, Executor of said estate, having filed in said Court his final administration account, and his petition praying for the allowance thereof and for the assignment and distribution of the residue of said estate.

It is Ordered, That the 2nd day of August, 1948, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at said Probate Office, be and is hereby appointed for examining and allowing said account and hearing said petition;

It is Further ordered, That public notice thereof be given by publication of a copy of this order, once in each week for three weeks consecutively, previous to said day of hearing, in the Charlevoix Courier, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County.

ROLLIE L. LEWIS,
Judge of Probate.

Queen Contestants, Band Represent City At Traverse

Charlevoix was represented by three entries in the big parade at Traverse City's Cherry Festival last Friday.

The High School band, directed by Clarence Odmark was one of the ten bands taking part.

Three days before the Junior Chamber of Commerce, learning that Charlevoix was to have no other entry, started to prepare a float for the parade.

The JCC used the idea of the big question as to who was to be Venetian Night Queen. On a trailer float supplied by Howard Parsel, there was a queen's chair. In it was a big red question mark and a gold crown. The question mark was made by Claire Webster, the crown by Mrs. Gordon Freedman and Mrs. R. A. McClintock.

Immediately following this float came F. A. McFarland in his gray Lincoln convertible with five of the ten queen contestants, wearing white dresses with red question marks fastened on them.

Only five of the ten girls could get away from their regular work for the day. They were Donna Rose, Sally Swinton, Gladys Ann Coney, Elaine Edwards and Ione Mosier.

President Tom Coxe and Secretary Joe Abbey were in charge of the preparation of the floats.

Plant Starts On 1948 Cherry Pack

Ellsworth—Reid Murdoch will start canning a few early cherries this week. Next week the plant will go on a 24 hour schedule on late cherries.

The job of blacktopping the County Road No. 596 for the four miles between US-31 north of Atwood and Ellsworth was completed last week.

Jo Addis was taken to the Charlevoix hospital last Friday with a broken arm and other injuries received when he fell from a load of hay at his farm.

Now, here is a CULTIVATOR that really knocks out weeds

Dearborn FARM EQUIPMENT

Some folks say a cultivator ought to "let air into the soil," "help retain moisture" etc. We say you cultivate to get rid of weeds. The other things are important, but knocking out weeds is number one. And we'll show you the cultivator that does it.

What's more, this cultivator can be attached to the Ford Tractor in about a minute! Now, that is a big advantage . . . especially when changing from cultivating to mowing and back again. Time surely is money now.

Study the pictures! See how easy cultivating is with Ford Hydraulic Touch Control. Let us demonstrate this cultivator for you . . . Rigid or spring shanks.

Ford TRACTOR

With Ford Triple-Quick Attaching, cultivator goes on in about a minute.

Ford Hydraulic Touch Control makes it easy to lift the cultivator for turning Easily adjustable front axle steered guide persons accurate front steering.

Hydraulic Touch Control sets sweeps to operate for uniform working depth.

Juanita Dickie Is Wed In Church Rites

Miss Juanita Dickie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dickie of this city became the bride of Robert Sheets of Anderson, Ind., at a service performed at St. Mary's church, Anderson at 9 p. m., Saturday. Rev. Thomas Travers read the double ring service.

The bride selected a white wool crepe suit, white accessories and a corsage of pink roses for her wedding.

Miss Rosemary Lonerson of Easton, Pa., as her only attendant, wore an aqua suit, matching accessories a nd a corsage of pink roses.

Carroll Wells, of Indianapolis, brother-in-law of the bridegroom was best man and Jim and Joe Jones of Anderson seated the guests.

Mrs. Dickie chose a white printed crepe dress and a corsage of white roses for her daughter's wedding.

A wedding breakfast for the bridal parties and their immediate families was held.

After a wedding trip to a northern Indiana lake, the couple plan to make their home in the East.

The bride is a graduate of the Charlevoix high school and attended Anderson College, Ind. The bridegroom graduated from Anderson high school and G. M. C. Technical school, Flint.

Among those who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dickie of Charlevoix, Mr. and Mrs. Neil DeYoung of Grand Rapids, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, and Mrs. John Wallnitz and Miss Emily Varwig of St. Louis, Mo., aunts of the bride.

New Bride Is Given Shower, Beach Party

Mrs. Hubert Olach, the former Dorothy Young, was honored guest at a miscellaneous shower and beach party given by Edith Olach and Patsy Hamlin at the Ferry ave., beach Thursday evening.

After a weiner roast, Mrs. Olach opened her many gifts.

Guests were Joan Brumm, Mrs. Earl Kroll, Mrs. George Bergmann, Jeanne Englehart, Delores Winnick, Marjorie Webster, Bonnie Barber and Mrs. Clement Olach of Flint.

Sarasin Birthdays Honored at Party

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sarasin entertained at a family party at their home Saturday evening honoring the birthday anniversaries of their daughter and two sons.

The anniversaries are all within two weeks. Honored guests were Elmer and Irving Manville and Mrs. Don Wales.

Home made ice cream and birthday cake were served by Mrs. Sarasin.

Harry Craigs Announce Daughter's Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Craig announce the engagement of their daughter, Martha, to George Wigglesworth, Jr., son of Mrs. G. Lester Wigglesworth of Naugatuck, Conn.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the Charlevoix high school and the Michigan College of Education, Ypsilanti, where she was a member of the Kappa Mu Delto corority. She has been teaching at Dearborn.

Mr. Wigglesworth has attended the U. S. Naval Academy and will receive his degree from the University of Michigan in August.

The wedding will be an event of late summer.

Clinton Blanchards Announce Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Blanchard announce the marriage of their daughter, Merle S. Blanchard to Raymond T. Payberg of Battle Creek.

The service was read by Rev. Stanley Buck in the chapel of the Methodist church of Battle Creek before a small group of relatives and friends.

For the ceremony the bride wore a dressmaker suit of soft rose wool, with navy accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allen of Battle Creek.

Following the reception which was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen the couple left on a short wedding trip and are now spending two weeks at Otsego Lake.

Two Farmers Hurt In Haying Accidents

Two farm accidents recently have sent an Eveline township farmer and a Hayes township care taker to the Charlevoix Hospital.

Friday afternoon Melvin Jones received severe leg injuries and lacerations when the team of horses he was driving in the hay field hitched to a side delivery hay-rake, became frightened and ran away. They ran into an electric light pole, throwing the driver under the rake. He was taken to the local hospital where he is being treated for a fractured leg, lacerations and bruises.

Saturday evening, Harry Elzinga, 66, caretaker at Birchwood Ranch in Hayes township, fell from a load of hay and suffered a broken back. He was admitted to the hospital for treatment.

A. M. Allards Have 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Allard observed their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary Saturday when visitors from Grand Rapids, Cadillac and Grayling as well as their family gathered at their home for a chicken dinner.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Aherns of Grand Rapids, who are celebrating their tenth anniversary, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bowhuis of Grand Rapids, who were observing their ninth anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Allard were married at Holy Name church in Grand Rapids where they continued to make their home until returning to Charlevoix in 1940.

They have three children, Barbara, Fritz and Leo all at home.

Among those who attended were Mrs. Margaret Allard Bacot of Charlevoix; Mr. and Mrs. William Bowhuis, Mr. and Mrs. Aherns, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bowhuis and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Taber, Theresa Bowhuis, Jack Kloosterman, Regina Bowhuis, all of Grand Rapids; Lewis Skeel, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Herding of Cadillac, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newkirk of Grayling.

169 Amateurs Come Here to Compete for State Title

August York of the Bridgeport Club at Saginaw drove off the first ball in the 1948 Michigan Amateur Golf Tourney at the Belvedere last Thursday at 8 a. m. With him in the first threesome were Pat Lennox of Plum Brook at Detroit and Fred W. Turner of the Brookwood Club at Flint.

won 3-2 from Ronnie Williams, runner-up in 1940.

Smith was playing red hot golf all through the match and was often picked as the likely winner. His qualifying score was 70 and he later shot two 69's on the par 72 course.

In the final match Kocsis and Smith were even at the end of the first nine holes, after Smith had gained a short-lived two lead. Kocsis birdied the tenth to take the lead. On the 13th he sank a beautiful 25 foot putt for a two advantage. But Smith came back, drove the green on the 14th and took the hole. From then on they halved the remaining four, with a count of 70 and 71.

This is the first time the two had played against each other Both were stars on the University of Michigan golf teams and led their squads to intercollegiate championships. They once played together on an alumni team against the varsity.

Nothing was decided about the place for the 1949 tournament, but the players themselves were almost unanimous on two points. They were glad to be back at Charlevoix. They wanted the 1949 tournament here.

Trips Start for Boys at Camp Charlevoix; Fishing Is Proving Most Popular Activity

The third week at Camp Charlevoix finds trips coming into the camp program more and more. Cabin groups are taking overnight hikes, there are horse trips and cook outs arranged.

The Fourth of July was celebrated in camp with a track meet held in which all three sections took part. The Greys won in each section, giving them three points toward their total, and a comfortable lead. Some of the boys who showed to good advantage were Bill Craig, Don Sigismond, John Tapert, Roger Keeney, Norman Cassil, Jimmy Arn, Jimmy Bissell, Ken Barolo, Dale Arn, Don Pfarrer, Alan Mendelssohn, and Hans Hennecke.

Wednesday night, the cabin of the smallest boys in camp under the leadership of John Cook walked down to Strawberry Cove and cooked their meal. These boys were Ken Klein, Clifford Argue, Billy Boswell, Clem Gill, Tony Truog and Austin Pendleton. Arthur Sullivan, who is in this cabin and whose father brought him to camp via plane that day, also was with the group.

Fishing has become the popular sport these days. Jim Jackson holds the record with his 20 inch pike. Several sizeable bass have been caught with two or three perch weighing nearly 1½ pounds. John Cook has a morning class now in casting and fishing.

Friday night, cabin 17, the oldest boys in camp, took a fishing trip to Susan Lake. These boys were Joaquin Reis, Jim Jackson, Bill Craig, Frank Smith, Ken Barolo, David Harding and Bud Morris.

Saturday night the first dramatic effort was held in the club house with the counsellors putting on the show. Some of the men who took part were Jim Brieske, Webb Wilson, John Cook, George Campbell, Ken Smith, Lee Stewart, Chuck Bacon, Jim Land (star of the show), Phil Steding, and the "Chief". The production was under the direction of Bud Sudborough, the dramatic coach.

At Sunday morning chapel, Ken Smith spoke on "Building a Reputation." David Harding read the scripture, and the counsellor choir sang. In the afternoon, a water carnival was held, which also was won by the Gray team, which is now leading in total points 6 to 2. The big event of the afternoon was the greased watermelon rush, in which each section had its own watermelon out in the lake. The object was for each side to try and get it to a canoe which was anchored in the water. Max Zeigler was to one in the Junior Section who put it over. In the evening, there were two Vesper Services held, with Chuck Bacon talking to the older boys.

Because many visitors are expected over this coming week end it should be mentioned that we are one hour behind Eastern Standard time and two hours behind Detroit's Daylight Time.

Value of Farming

Farm land, buildings, machinery, equipment, livestock and crops on hand were worth more than 90 billion dollars to American farmers at the end of 1946, reports the bureau of agricultural economics.

New Draft to Start This October

The new Draft Law provides for induction of men between 19 and 25 into the Armed Services. Its chief provisions are:

The draft will begin in October. Men can enlist voluntarily for 21 months in the Army without waiting for a call. Those 18 years old can enlist voluntarily for a year's training and then go into the reserves. This exempts them from the 19 year old draft. They also are exempt from foreign service during the year, but must stay in the organized reserves for four years, or if unorganized reserves, for six years.

Exempt from the draft in general are married men, veterans with World War II service, active members of the National guard and a few in "necessary" peace time fields.

Marquette Paper Boosts Charlevoix

Charlevoix received quite a boost in the Marquette Mining Journal of June 22.

A staff writer, Manthei Howe, took a vacation trip down in these parts. She comments on Bay View and Petoskey, tells of dining in the Parkside and admiring the view of Round Lake from its windows and of visiting Geik's.

C. R. Geiken used to have a similar store in Marquette and she remarks that the big slab of candy in the window looked surprisingly familiar.

She also commented on the attractive appearance and community value of the lakeside parks to the city.

Body of Pfc. F. Klaus Being Returned Here

The casketed remains of Pfc. Fred P. Klaus, Jr., a World War II deceased member of the Army from Royal Oak being returned from overseas for final burial, will arrive in Charlevoix within the next four weeks accompanied by a uniformed U. S. Army Escort from the Chicago Distribution Center of the American Graves Registration Division.

The body of Pfc. Klaus was interred in the USAF, Mil. Cemetery, Santa Barbara, temporary military cemetery in the Philippines, but has been returned to this country for final interment at the request of his next of kin, Fred P. Klaus, Sr., 28725 Sutherland, Royal Oak, Michigan.

Dark Past Cares

Ancient man's cure for mental ills was magic. Strange rituals were concocted to drive out evil spirits that were causing the derangement. During the Middle Ages this primitive practice persisted. Even as late as the 16th century mentally ill persons were hanged, imprisoned, tortured and persecuted as agents of Satan, chained in kennels like wild beasts, jailed and flogged, or left to wander about naked and starved.

Coast Guard Warns Boatmen to Take Safety Measures

Numerous complaints are being received at the Charlevoix Coast Guard Station of boat owners not operating within the prescribed rules and regulations set forth in the motor boat laws of the United States.

Each motor boat owner might well ask himself: "Is my boat ready to run and be navigated with safety to myself and others?"

Operators may think their boats are safe and the maority are right. However, every season the usual quota of accidents occur, the greater part of which might have been avoided.

The following are a few suggestions for safe motor boating as set forth by Commanding Officer Joseph Etienne:

Are the bilges of my boat clean and are they adequately ventilated? It is a fact that more accidents are caused by gas fumes from the bilges becoming ignited than from any other cause.

Are my gasoline tanks tight and free from corrosion?

Are my gasoline tanks in a compartment separated from the machinery space by a gas-tight bulkhead? Are there drip pans under my fuel tanks? Attention to these items often prevent inflammable gases from entering the engine space where sources of vapor ignition are present.

Is my carbureter fitted with a flame arrester and has it a drip pan? This precaution may prevent a fire in the event of a back fire from the motor. The drip pan will prevent the gasoline from entering the bilges. These devices are required by law.

Is my galley stove properly connected? When butane gases are used for cooking purposes care must be taken against leakage as these gases are heavier than air and will settle in pockets about the decks.

Are my life preservers and buoyant cushions in good repair and sufficient quantity for all hands?

How about my navigation lights? Do they all light and comply with the law?

Is my bell working? How about my whistle or horn?

Is there sufficient fire protection for the size of the boat?

QUALITY!

Lee E. Dickinson Now Living in Thumb

Do any of our older citizens recall a Lee E. Dickinson, now 77, who left here with his parents in 1885 for the West?

Well, he's living down in Cass City in the Thumb now and was written up in the Saginaw News because of an unusual dog he has trained.

For 17 years out West he was a cow hand, married, raised a family. Then he and Mrs. Dickinson, who have celebrated their 50th anniversary, came back to Michigan and are now living at Cass City.

The dog is a seven year old English pointer who not only does all the usual tricks but also is the family errand boy.

IT HAPPENED ON . . . .

BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

Beaver Island had it's first taste of real summer weather this past week. Anxious children who had been waiting patiently for the first good day to take a dip in the big tub, splashed in on the first warm day. Too much enthusiasm resulted in any number of sun burned backs and plenty of moans and groans for the next few days.

Thursday evening in the Parish Hall prizes for the lawn improvement program will be given out. The Association of Commerce will be in charge of the affair.

Mary Ellen McDonough completed her course in nurses training on her birthday, June 24, at Mercy Hospitay, Bay City. For the past two weeks, she has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill McDonough. Sunday, she returned to Bay City to accept a position as nurse's art instructor in the hospital from which she was graduated.

Mrs. C. E. Webster has arrived to spend the sufmer with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller, Sr. The Millers also have had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller, Jr., Detroit.

Mrs. Robert Burham and four children, Owosso, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. James H. Gallagher.

Plans are under way for the August dinner which will take place as usual on the second Sunday of August. The men will manage the dinner this year. Lloyd McDonough, Mike Cull, James W. Gallagher and Frank Nackerman are the commlttee in charge.

Mrs. Charles Pischner and children and Mrs. Mamie Gallagher, Three Rivers, Wis., are spending the summer on the Island. They have rented the Emory'a home, formerly the Harry Priest home.

One does find e difference in the big city ozone and the fragrance of Beaver's water washed air. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heflin, Chicago are enjoying the Island's pure air and the aroma of cedar and flowers that surround their home.

The bronze plaque given by the Michlgan Press Association and the Michigan Historleal Society marking the old Mormon printing office has been placed in front of the building. The Association of Commerce employed Art Miller to do the work.

Mrs. Irene Gallagher end children, Donnie and Gary are visiting Mrs. Elizabeth Boyle.

Mrs. Grace Logan and mother, Mrs. Ellie Bonner, Detroit have arrived to spend the summer at their Island home.

Mrs. Tim Leonard is visiting in Chicago.

Mrs. Gwen Sheridan, Chicago is happy to be back on the Island to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pischner and son, Norman, Two Rivers, Wis., spent several days on the Island visiting relatives and friends. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Pischner.

Judge and Mrs. R. E. Boyle, Lansing have arrived to spend the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. Howard Carroll and two sons were in port during the week with their cruiser "Howdy". The Carrolls are from Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Horrace Armstrong, Winnetka, paid a visit to the Island in their yacht, "Cuttysark."

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Polderdyke and son, Ray returned Saurday to their home in Grand Rapids. They were the guests of Mrs. Nellie Olson, also of Grand Rapids.

Thanks to the Association of Commerce, Beaver Island's roads are now plainly marked.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Gillespie are the proud parents of another son, Richard Lynn, born July 10.

Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wojan celebrated the first birthday of their son, Eddie. Helping Eddie to celebrate were a yard full of little cousins.

Ethel Kralovic, Detroit returned to her home Sunday after spending a week as the guest of Martha and George Miller.

Thirteen Hours Devotion to the Blessed Sacrament was held Sunday at Holy Cross church.

Cause of Home Fires

Dirty and defectivs chimneys and flues are tha greatest single cause of fire in the home.

Belvedere News

Sailing, tennis and social activities are in full swing at the Belvedere Club, with more cottages open this year than there have been this early in the season for some time.

Last Saturday Scott Colburn of Ann Arbor gave instruction in square dancing at the casino. Young and old joined with enthusiasm. Mr. Colburn has been director of the Ford Greenfield Village school's Early American Dance Program for the past year.

Miss Calla Travis and Jessica Vennell, directors of the dancing classes, have arrived and the classes will begin this week. Saturday Bill Gail and his orchestra from Detroit will play his first engagement, and there will be dancing at the casino every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday for the rest of the season.

Captain Arlen is again in charge of sailing instruction, and has organized classes for the boy's and girl's gangs. The first race of the season in the club boats was held Saturday afternoon. It was essentially a practice event. Frank Titus and his family crew crossed the finish line well in the lead.

Belvedere children have joined the regular gangs, the Boys Gang directed hy Bud Kohler and the Girls Gang led by Jean Hammond. This year there is also a gang for youngsters from five to seven which is under tha supervision of Betty Perry. Another innovation this year is the Arts and Craft classes organized by Joan Franz for girls who are just a little too old for the gangs.

Marion Craig is again the lifeguard at the Belvedere Beach. Bunny Roe is giving swimming lessons there this year.

On the tennis courts, Al Reynolds, number one man on the Michigan State team, is the professional, and is being assisted by Jack Geiken who was at the courts with Proc Wright last year. A Junior Tennis Clinic, for young players from 8 to 14 has been organized.

Among the recent arrivals in the cottages are the Harold Simpsons of Cincinnati, the William K. Wallaces of Kalamazoo, and the Joseph L. Sherers of Grosse Pointe.

Two Get Scout Awards

Two Charlevoix boys, Tom Bleha and Victor Gibbons, received their first class Boy Scout awards and rank last week at Camp Greilick. It was the largest Court of Honor ever held there.

HOW to WEATHERPROOF and DECORATE CONCRETE AND OTHER BLOCK CONSTRUCTION

BEST for basements, brick houses, stucco houses, concrete construction, swimming pools

• Has the exterior of your concrete or light aggregate block house become soiled and stained? You can make it look like new, and at the same time give it an effective weatherproofing by painting it with Medusa Portland Cement Paint—a quality paint made specially for such surfaces. It has as a base White Portland Cement, which keys the finish to the surface, making a permanent, cement-like, weatherproof and beautiful finish. It can be applied to exterior or interior cement, stucco or brick surfaces, damp or dry. It's economical, easy to apply, has excellent coverage and is washable. who will be at the Episcopal church this summer as pastor . . .

The Harry Block house on Park Avenue is open again . . . Don't forget to pull up any ragweed that you might see in and around Charlevoix. We had the lowest pollen count of any city in the lower peninsula last year and Charlevoix should be a real mecca for hay fever sufferers. Help the cause along by pulling up any ragweed that you might find . . . There are a number of letters from press folks who attended the convention here a couple of weeks ago at the Belvedere. Some have been put in the window so that you, too, may read of the nice things the editors said about Charlevoix and all you people who helped to make their stay so pleasant. A number of editors plan return engagements for they liked the place so much.

Bridge Street is full of the new look, the old look, second look and why-did-I-ever-look these days . . . Guests for several days at the L. E. Towes and Mrs. Eva Blanchard were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Benninghoff and Mrs. Florence Berdan of Flint. While here the folks were taken to Mackinac Island and also to Traverse City to the Cherry Festival. And wasn't it wonderful to get back home and relax in the front yard after standing in the terrific heat waiting for he parade. Surely felt sorry for those who had to be in the parade on such a hot day . . . A gal who is mighty easy on the eyes is Stella Kovar . . .

Just learned that Mrs. William Stern, who summers in Charlevoix, is an aunt of the famous Bill Stern of sport and radio fame . . .

Lawrence VanDusen the other day had unexpected visitors who swarmed into his house, B-e-e-sll Some bees left, perhaps realizing that the welcome sign was not hanging out . . . Yes, sir, it has arrived and it's not the book-of-the-month either, it is the book-of-the-year, the new telephone directory. Bet the persons happiest over its arrival are the "Hello girls" themselves, for it will not be necessary for them to say, that number has been changed to 962 or 874 when it used to be 436 or 352 . . . It's no longer Blue Monday in this day and age. It's "Lucky Monday" and that's the name of a dish of ice cream, fixed a different way

Fred Malvitz of Inkster spent last week with the W. H. Wallaces . . . Sunday was a big day for Martha Hockin who lives with her daughter, Mrs. Percy Butler on State street. Ninety years of age, she helped her daughter entertain her sister and husband, Mose and Sarah Ringler. Sarah is 87 and Mose 89 years. They had come from Rapid City with a niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Frink.

It's interesting to look in the Guest Book down at the Turkey Wing and see where folks hail from who find themselves in Charlevoix. The register discloses such places as Rochester, Amarillo, Dallas, Louisville, Toronto, Williamsport, Windsor and Pasadena . . . Do you know, said one of the business men, that cabins, cottages and homes in Ellsworth, Boyne and East Jordan are full of folks who should be staying here. I get to chat with folks who come into my shop and they stay in those places rather than pay the prices that Charlevoix is asking. We are building up the other towns, rather than our own, by charging excessive prices . . . That's something to think about!

Currants, sweet cherries and huckleberries are on the market . . . A fellow with a coat of tan that's not going to rub off for a long, long time is Ray Kipke . . . The busy busy woman of the week was none other than Phoebe Ross and her kitchen staff of the Belvedere Country club during the golf tournament. How those folks could eat at the country club when they were through playing . . .

You should see the garden of Mrs. Fred Trimble. It's a beauty . . . .Speaking of flowers, one of the most beautiful bouquets of roses that has ever graced our home came the other day from the garden of the Marsh Meeks. They were so perfect that it seemed that they could not be real until one realized that His secret signature was on every one of those perfect petals . . . Marguerite Powell has been a pretty sick gal for the past three weeks with a jawbone infection . . . Mrs. Fred Tyler is another sick-a-bed lady with a lung infection.

So many new faces on Bridge Street . . . Was feeling sorry for the bakers these hot days when Mrs. Agnes Fairbanks said, "But it is not so hot in our bakery. With the direct breeze through the shop and three big fans going it isn't bad."

Mrs. Lisle Shanahan of Los Angeles has arrived in Charlevoix and is visiting at the Edward Shanahan home. Mrs. Shanahan's sisters are also here vacationing at Torch Lake, dividing their time between the lake and Charlevoix. They are Mrs. George Wantz of River Forest, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Redfield of Oak Park . . . Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McClintock of Sioux City, Iowa, are here visiting their son and family, the Bob McClintocks. They have been here for the past two summers and think Charlevoix is tops.

Comunity Nurse Given Scholarship

Mrs. Dean Davenport, Charlevoix's Community Nurse, has just received word that she has been given a scholarship from Wayne University, upon recommendation of the Public Health Department for her past year's work.

She will leave Sunday for Detroit to attend the two weeks Workshop Course on Public Health nursing in schools. She will live at Grace Hospital Nurses Home.

Farm Bureau Plans Barbecue On Aug. 10

A big chicken barbecue is being planned by the County Farm Bureaus in District 10 for Aug. 10.

It will be held at the 4-H Camp Grounds at Gaylord and will be an all-day affair.

A feature will be a benefit to help raise funds for the proposed Northern Michigan agriculture center and school sponsored by the Northern Michigan Agricultural Planning Commission.

Thousands To See Venetian Night Parade Here

Work to Start Soon on New Poultry Plant

Double the size originally planned, the plant of the new poultry processing cooperative here will be started soon.

Plans have been completed, the organization formed, stock subscribed, equipment lined up. Actual work on the building will start as soon as men and materlal can be had, possibly this week.

Completed By Oct. 15

The plant will be 52 by 80, of cement or cinder block, and will be built south of the old Co-Op warehouse on Stover Road and beside the railway track so that a loading spur can be laid beside the new structure. It will be completed by Oct. 15.

When the idea of a plant first was talked, it was suggested that one with a capacity of 500 turkeys in eight hours would be about right.

After studying all sides of the situation, the directors of the new firm made two changes. They boosted the capacity to 1000 turkeys or 4000 chickens a day.

To Serve Big Area

They decided on the most modern equipment they could get, including a poultry refrigeration installation.

Two factors induced them to make this change. First, the field to be served by the plant was extended until it reached as far as Beulah and Bellaire.

Second, by adding the refrigeration equipment, the other machines can be used for chickens when not processing turkeys. Eventually, the directors believe, the plant here can become a wholesale distributor of quality dressed poultry to much of Northern Michigan.

Willis to Be Meneger

Fred Willis hns been selected as the manager and will be in direct charge of the plant.

The offieal name will be the Charlevoix Poultry Processing Co Operative, Inc. The authorized capital is $50,000.

A contract has been signed with the Land-O-Lakes Co-operative to handle all marketing for the new plant. In return, the business here will use the established Land-O-Lakes brand. Experts with the big marketing combine helped the Charlevoix group draw plans for the plant and make other preparations.

Between now and Oct. 15 the new co-op will select someone from this area to serve as its inspector. He will be required to take the federal exams and qualify as a federal inspector in order that all poultry processed and shipped from here may bear the U. S. mark of approval.

The new plant will not be idle this fall, President Wickersham adds. Already 25,000 turkeys have been pledged by member growers for the 1948 operation.

Train Tomorrow's Leaders, Scout Executive Says

If you do not have community leaders tomorrow it may be because you are doing nothing about it today, Sam Crombie told members of the Kiwanis Club Monday night.

Crombie is the Scout Executive of the Scenic Trails Council and addressed the club here on behalf of youth work. He also presented the charter of Troop 11 to Gordon Freedman, chairman of the Scout Committee here.

Guests of the club were the Scout leaders here: Scoutmaster Joseph Strayer, Assistant Stanley Hascher, Charles Bleha, Uno Suomela, Hayward Leslie, Larry Ecklund, Herbert Campbell, Lee Mason.

Jim Brieske, counselor at Camp Charlevoix and U. of M. kicking star, will be the speaker next week.

The Tow Line

News of folks, yoor neighbors and mine . . . but did you know that—

Several folks owning convertibles were busy Monday morning drying them out after the rainstorm Sunday night. It was a badly needed one for the farmers . . . Have you noticed the geraniums growing along the boulevard on State street. They have been the "bloomingest" things this summer. A great asset to the street. Funny how some one small thing attracts attention of strangers who come to our town. Saturday we had visitors from Jonesville, Mr. and Mrs. William Glasgow and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Merchant. The first thing they said about Charlevoix was, "We have never been in a town where there were so many geraniums. They surely do well up here." Since then I have noticed how many flower boxes in town have been filled with geraniums and they do add a cheerful note to the town . . .

Hollyhocks are in e riot of bloom ehout town . . . Our sympathy to Mrs. Ralph Shetterly. Monday morning word was received of the death of her mother, Mrs. Ette Hess of Midland. Mrs. Hess hed not heen too well of lete but no one dreamed her condition wes that serious . . . Orchid of the week should go to Walt Moore. For meny hours the past week end he worked on the softball field, dragging, rolling and sprinkling it, getting it in readiness for the team. Also another fellow who hes done his bit is "Suple". He can teke a bow, too.

After being in Charlevoix for the past five or six weeks the George Rassieurs have returned to St. Louis . . . If you have been wanting to go to Interlochen, here is your chance to kill two birds with one stone, hear a concert in the famous bowl by the National High School band or orchestra and also see the first annual Michigan Artists exhibit at the Art Center which will last through Aug. 17. The purpose of the exhibit is to stimulate public interest in the work of Michigan artists and to establish a "Traveling Art Collection."

Thet log cabin thet is being built out in Boulder Perk is going to be the new home of Mr. end Mrs. George Wolf. It will heve e huge living room, es well es three bedrooms, rediant heat, 'n everything. Mrs. Wolf is a new bride in Cherlevoix. The couple were merried July 6 et Harbor Springs. Cherlevoix welcomes them into our midst.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Leltch went to Frankfort Sunday to bring back their young granddaughter, Diana Corbisier, who will stay with them for two or three weeks. The young lady was much interested whether or not

Working on the decorations for their entry in the Venetian Night Parade are Bunny Roe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Roe of Lansing, and Sally Bagby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Bagby of River Forest, Ill. The cruiser is the "Roeboat."

Draft Board Will Register 700 Young Men In County

The Chaarlevoix county draft board will reorganize in the near future and will begin operation about Sept. 1, J. M. Foster, Charlevoix member of the board has announced.

Major Bolton of Lansing, head of the Michigan organization, was here recently and has asked the same members to serve again who gave their time during the war. They are Dr. Bernard J. Beuker of East Jordan, chairman; James Dean of Boyne City and Mr. Foster of Charlevoix. Mrs. Anna Eccleston will again serve as clerk.

Of the 700 young men in the county it is estimated 300 will be eligible for the draft. Mr. Foster stated. After the initial registration Mrs. Eccleston will maintain the records and office. With the small number concerned the state organziation does not feel that is necessary or feasible to maintain a full-time clerk or office.

Future details will be published as they are received.

Church to Hold Singsperation Sunday

A Singsperation will be staged Sunday at the Chureh of God between 8 and 9 p. m.

It will be an all-musical program consisting of solos, duets and old hymns. Mrs. Bud Finley, Chicago evangelist, will be at the piano.

$1.00 for the Wey You Acted Saturday Night

You were four teen-egers, two fellows end two gels. It wes Seturdey and moonlight. You ceme dowa to the Michigan Beach to heve e watermelon feed. You gals hed fun on the teeter-totter while the hoys cut up the melon. It wes great sport eating it and then came the testing time. What would you do with the rinds? But, you picked all the rinds up carefully end put them in the garhege can. Surely you eern the dollar!

If you will come to The Courier office and identify yourself tbe dollar is ewaiting you.

Knight Owls Will Play Petoskey Team

Softball fans will be able to witness their summer sport Sunday.

To provide added entertainment for the Venetian Night crowd, John Knight has arranged a game between the Knight Owls and the Petoskey Cement team.

It will start at 4:30 after the water sports and will be played at the city athletic field.

More Lanterns Are Needed for Sunday

More lanterns are needed for Venetian Night.

Commodore Bob Wexstaff of the Marine Club asks that any person having extra lanters, which will not be in use Sunday night, call the Board of Commerce office. The lanterns will be called for and then returned Monday.

Legion to Sponsor Carnival for Week Starting Monday

A full week of carnival here is being sponsored by the Leslie T. Shapton Post, No. 226, of the American Legion.

The Legion is bringing in the John McKee Shows from July 26 through Aug. 1. The carnival will be at the Legion grounds on East Garfield between its hall and the school garage.

Because Sunday is the Venetian Parade, Comm. Homer Brady says the McKee management will try to have in three or four rides that day to provide entertainment for the youngsters. The rides will not operate during the parade.

The McKee Shows he says, are a fine outfit. They provide the rides at the Cherry Festival in Traverse and will be at the Petoskey Sportsman's Show. The Charlevoix contract provides that if any unit is considered unsatisfactory, the Legion can close it without question. There will be no gambling, no roulette, no clip joints, Brady says.

The Shows will bring some 15 rides and 30 shows and concessions here, the number being limited only by the space available.

Farm Bureau Favors High Wages

The comparative value to the country of increased wages or increased production was discussed July 14 at the Ironton Farm Bureau Meeting.

With Albert Carlson as leader, the group compared the two means of increasing the purchasing power and voted two to one that higher wages would be better.

The meeting, at the Karl Svoboda home, was attended by 13 members and three visitors. Onkley Saunders presided. Mrs. Saunders announced that she and Leonard Babel had tickets for the Farm Bureau Barbecue Picnic at Gaylord Aug. 10.

New benefits and new rntes of the Blue Cross Hospital plan were explained.

The next meeting will be at the home of the Leonard Babels Aug. 11.

David Smith Enlists

David Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith of Lansing and a 1948 graduate of the local high school, has enlisted in the Army for three years. He will leave Thursday for Fort Knox, Ky., for basic training and then go to Fort Bragg, N. C., for further training.

Mathews Use Big Lake for Irrigation

A permanent irrigating system for 53 neres that injures neither neighbor nor the public, and is producing crops worth seeing has been installed by the Mathews Brothers at their farm just outside of Charlevoix on M-66.

Source of the water is Lake Charlevoix, and indirectly, of course, Lake Michigan.

At the start of the system, the pump unit is placed about 25 feet back from the lake at the mouth of Ryders Creek. This does not affect the creek in any way, but did save the trouble and expense of having to build some protection against waves as would have been necessary if the pump were placed directly on the lake.

The pump unit itself consist of a 36 horse power gas engine driving a 500 gallon a minute rotary pump. This discharges the water into a six inch pipe line which carries it through the cedar swamp, across the road and up to the hig 53 acre field where the airport used to be.

The discharge point is approximately a half mile from the pump.

The pipe line combines lightness and movability. The sections are 16 feet long, are of light galvanized steel and require only a quarter turn to lock the joints.

These two qualities are essential for a movable type irrigating system such as this. At the field the main supply line comes in from the east. It connects to a north and south line running across the field. In the picture on page one the north end of this transverse line is shown.

Then running east and west again is the sprinkler line of pipe. Every 64 feet is an outlet carrying a spray head about three feet above the ground. Working like the typical rotary lawn sprinkler, these throw the water in a circle.

After a strip 64 feet wide across the field has been irrigated, the water is shut off, the whole east-and-west line is taken apart, moved over four lengths of pipe (or 64 feet) reassembled andthe process repeated. The pump will

Illinois Official Will Crown Queen at Friday Night Ball; 33 Boats to Parade Sunday

Color and bright lights, a queen and her court, two dances, parade and a sports program, thousands of folks to watch the big speetacle.

That in brief will be Charlevoix's fifteenth annual Venetian Night program this year.

The festivities will open with the Coronation Ball Friday night at the Beach Hotel, when the identity of the Queen will be revealed. Lieut. Gov. Hugh Cross of Illinois will crown her, after Sally Miller, who reigned at the 1947 Night, hands him the gold crown. Also announced will be the two girls who will be maids of honor. The remaining seven will be the Queen's Court.

Music for the Coronation Ball will be provided by Maurle Lyon's Interlochen Dance Band. A ten piece orchestra, all members are from the National Music Camp. The coronation will be broadcast over the Paul Bunyon network.

At 3 p. m. Sunday the Venetian Program will start with the Water Carnival, consisting of six contests at Round Lake, with the Queen acting as official starter.

At 4:30 the Knight Owls will play the Petoskey Cement Plant team at the athletic field. The American Legion will have advance units of its carnival at the nearby grounds.

The Queen's parade will be along Bridge street at 7 p. m. Immediately afterward Camp Charlevoix's famous boys' chorus will sing sea chanteys. There will be a specialty act, more music by the SPEBSQSA Chorus and the Charlevoix Marine Band playing from its new platform in the park.

Then at 8:40 the Queen, her Court and Lieutenant Governor Cross will be driven to the Mason street dock where they will board the GeleBe, the L. S. Bisbee's eruiser, which will serve as the Queen's barge.

About 9 p. m. the fireworks will start and shortly after the 33 lighted and decorated boats in two lines will come from Lake Charlevoix to make their two circles around Round Lake.

After the parade one more feature has been added. There will be a street dance on Clinton between Bridge and State. Music will be the Kansas City Ramblers, stars of the National Barn Dance, which will have four couples here to give a floor show.

Two organizations have done the work on Venetian Night. In general charge is the Marine Club, headed by Commodore Bob Wexstaff. The Junior Chamber of Commerce, under President T. H. Coxe, has directed the choosing of the Queen, made all arrangements for the Coronation Ball, the parade, and for the big street dance.

Three Contests to Face Voters at Primaries

Three contests have developed for County voters to decide at the Sept. 14 primary.

Sheriff Floyd W. Ikens, will be opposed by Glenn Rose of Charlevoix and Orval Davis of East Jordan.

Lyle Wangeman of Boyne City, incumbent, will have opposition in James R. Dean, also of Boyne City, for the office of county road commissioner for a term of three years.

For probate judge Edwin K. Reuling of East Jordan will run against Rollie L. Lewis, present office holder.

Two newcomers are running for county coroner to fill the vacancies left by the deaths of Dr. F. F. McMillan of Charlevoix and S. B. Stackus of Boyne City. They are Dr. Robert S. McClintock of Charlevoix and James D. Stackus of Boyne City.

Incumbents who will seek nomination are: clerk, Fenton R. Bulow; prosecutor, C. Meredith Blce; treasurer, Lillis M. Flanders; register of deeds, Rex E. Davis; surveyor, Mary C. Feindt.

No one filed for the office of circuit court commissioner now held by Floyd A. Supp.

There will be competition for the post of State Senator in the Republican primary election this year.

Three men have filed. Sen. Otto W. Bishop of Alpena, the incumbent, is seeking renomination, Opposing him will be Frnnk Andrews of Hillman and Tom Baker of Levering.

Rep. Louis Anderson, incumbent representative for Leelanau and Charlevoix Countles, was the only man to file for the lower house."

Churches to Bring Fine Speakers to Charlevoix Pulpits

Charlevoix citizens can hear some outstanding pulpit speakers this summer.

Two of the churches have arranged for a series of guest speakers.

Rev. Gaylord Howell of the Methodists led off on July 9 with Dr. Royal G. Hall of Albion College. Next Sunday Dr. Earl Cranston, Dartmouth College professor, will fill that pulpit. On Aug. 8- 15 and 22, the Methodist preacher will be Dr. W. A. Rush, assistant to the president of Adrian College.

Two bishops will complete the list. On Aug. 29 Bishop Frederick DeLands Leets will preach. Bishop Raymond J. Wade, well known here from his long connection with Bay View will give the sermon.

At the Congregational church Sunday Dr. Ludwig T. Larsen will be the guest preacher. He is the Dean of Tougaloo College, Tougaloo, Miss.

Dr. Louis L. Mann will preach there Aug. 1. His topic will be "What the Disbliever Believes."

Dr. Harold N. Skidmore, state superintendent of the Congregational - Christian Church, will preach Aug. 15.

At Christ Episcopal church, Rev. John Collidge of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., will be the preacher all this summer.

Hospntal Meeting Will Be Tonight

The annual meeting of the Charlevoix Hospital will be tonight at 8 p. m. in the City Hall.

Five of the nine places on the Board are to be filled. Any citizen of the entire community may attend and vote.

Mrs. Almida Guichard Dies Unexpectedly

Mrs. Almida Guichard, 53, of New Orleans, La., died unexpectedly Monday at the Charlevoix Hospital following a brief illness.

The body was returned Tuesday to New Orleans where funeral services and burial will be held on Saturday.

Mrs. Guichard, the wife of Herman Guichard, was employed by Mrs. Alan Steinert, 419 Michigan ave.

Ta-Wa-Ma-Na Girls Go On First Overnight Camp Trip, Learn to Set Up Tents

Seven senior girls from Camp Ta-Wa-Ma-Na made their first overnight camping trip Tuesday, going to the lake beach north of Mt. McSauba. Caught as they were setting up two of the four tents are: Martha Davidson, Pleasant Ridge; Diana Russell, Pleasant Ridge; Jean McIver, Detroit; Lois Arnold, Detroit. Picking up the front yard is Ellyn McCord of Detroit. Setting up the right hand tent are Nancy MacLachlan and Rosemary Grady, both of Detroit. Behind them giving advice is Sally Reid, camp counselor from MSC.

English Mother, Daughter Here for Summer Visit, Tell of Life In Post War Britain

Of medium height, having black bobbed hair, an English accent and a delightful sense of humor—that's Mrs. Elsie Moffat, who is here with her daughter, Maureen from Manchester, England.

The couple arrived in Charlevoix last week and are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Coxe for an indefinite stay. Mrs. Moffat is an aunt of Mrs. Coxe. They landed in New York on June 7, coming on the Queen Mary.

"My aunt was here 20 years ago," said Jane Coxe. "I hardly knew who I was looking for when I went to the train the other day. I only know I was expecting a much older looking woman as an aunt and not nearly as grown up a daughter," she laughingly said as she glanced at the young woman and the mother who seemed much like a girl herself.

For Maureen this was her first American trip and she declared that New York seemed all hustle and bustle to her. Detroit, where they were for four weeks prior to coming to Charlevoix, was so hot. "We did not get a good night's sleep until we arrived in Charlevoix. Oh, this is such a nice place to spend a vacation."

"This is such beautiful country and the folks make you feel so very welcome," Mrs. Moffat added.

Maureen, who might pass as an American school girl, discloses her nationality when she speaks, for she has a much broader accent than her mother.

"That is because she was an evacuee during the war, her mother said," and when she returned home she spoke with a more pronounced accent.

Standing in the House of Jewels shop, Mrs. Moffat said: "It seems wonderful to think one can go into American shops and not have to have ration coupons. We have to give coupons for all our food and clothing. There is food in England now, yes, but not a great variety. In fact, we haven't seen rice, cereals and some meats since the beginning of the war. Fruits are getting a bit more plentiful. They have been limited to the children."

Concerning her country, Mrs. Moffat said, "England is doing a great export trade at present, sending out her best woolens, fabrics and china. One can go to exhibitions in England and see exhibits of better homes and clothes and what our country is making in the latest fabrics and gadgets. But we do not get them, for they are driving hard on exports to help pay off war indebtedness."

It was from Maureen that we learned about English schools. She entered high school at the age of 11, at which time it is necessary to pass an entrance examination. One goes five years to high school. Those who cannot pass the entrance examinations for high school continue on in the grades until 15 years of age. Then he generally goes to work.

"American boys and girls have much longer summer vacations," she said. High school students in England have a six weeks recess and four weeks in the grade school." Maureen has just completed high school.

"And do you think you would like it here in America," we asked.

"It's fine when she gets a letter," her mother teasingly said. to all which Maureen blushed most becomingly for it might be possible that there's an English lad in her young life.

Belvedere News

By Sally Bagby

This week was highlighted by the return of Calla Travis to her dancing classes and the appearance of Bill Gail's orchasera, which will play for the tri-weekly dances for the rest of the season.

Miss Travis, assisted by Jessica Vennell, will hold the first of the weekly dances for the Belvedere children.

Only one sailing race was held this week, and was won handily by the ware family. Gordon Ware was skipper of the winning boat, assisted by Nancy Bagby and Barbara Cross as crew. The second and third places were captured by Bod and Jack Ware respectively.

Charles Valier of St. Louis and Gordon L. Gilfuss of Cincinnati have opened their cottages for the season. Dee King of St. Louis is visiting Bunny Roe for two weeks, and Don Stephen, also of St. Louis, is a guest of August Schlafly.

Are you all set for the coming week-end, the Coronation Ball, which will start off the activities? And the grand climax will be the Community Square Dance following Venetian Night.

Carl W. Beattie received a high honor at the College of Commerce of Ferris Institute last week, having been named on the Dean's high honor list for the spring term. The list disclosed 19 men and one woman who had received the highest marks. Beattie was listed among those with three "A" grades and one "B" grade. Good going, Carl . . .

Seems good to see the Raleigh Nelsons of Ann Arbor about Charlevoix streets again. They are at their old home at Ironton . . . Mrs. Ella Schrader is still confined to her bed after her bad fall three weeks ago when she broke three ribs and injured her back. She fell from her front porch and landed on some stones in the driveway. It's wonderful that she has her daughter, Mrs. Leland Baker, by her side to see that she is given every care.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Clarke of Muskegon, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jordan and son, Jimmy of Los Angeles spent the week-end with Mrs. Clara Todd and Mrs. Frances Olmstead . . . The Charles Rice family of St. Louis are here at their Michigan Avenue home . . . "You should have seen the strawberries I raised," said Chavle, the well-known personage of the Loeb farms. "You naver saw anything like them. Six or eight of them would have filled a box.

The Milton Mendles of St. Louis are here at their Michigan Avenue cottage . . . Understand the Harold Simpsons down in Cincinnati have a great time when The Courier arrives. There is a scramble to see who is going to get it to read . . . The mysterious sea serpent is the object of much interest over in Petoskey. "It's a myff, it's a myff," but anyway it's fun and many a person has been enrolled in the Sea Serpent Club . . .

Guests of the Robert Burns at Oyster Bay are Mrs. H. J. Schrandt and Mrs. A. Bunte of Flat Rock. Mrs. Schrandt is Mrs. Burn's mother . . . Miss Frances Fitch is spending a few days with Prof. and Mrs. Brooks at Pine Point. Miss Fitch came down from her cabin on Sugar Island. Other visitors this week are President of Central Michigan College with Mrs. Anspach . .

Rose and Ann Schlosser of Milwaukee, Wis., are house guests at the home of Miss Caroline Gelken. Sunday night Miss Gelken accompanied by her brother, drove to Ludington to meet their friends on the early morning boat. "It was real fun," said Miss Gelken . . . Birthday congratulations to little Teri Freedman, who celebrated her second birthday Tuesday afternoon with lots of little friends sharing the occasion with her.

Sharon Roberston and Jill Cooney of Adrian are visiting Sharon's grandmother, Mrs. Edward Heise . . . Dr. William B. Lampe and Mrs. Lampe of St. Louis are at Sequanota.

Judge Robert S. Marx of Cincinnati has arrived for perfect sailing weather on his Panchera . . . It was a regular reunion this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Murray when Mr. and Mrs. Mark Mercier and son, Mark, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mercier and son, Bob, of Lincoln, Neb. arrived. Mrs. Mercier is a daughter of the Murrays. From the East came Mrs. Lena Holland of Philadelphia, Mrs. August Shindel of Toledo, Ohio and Arthur Godwin of Central Lake, brother and sisters of the Murrays. Wednesday the Merciers and Art Godwin made a trip to Beaver Island to see where Mark Mercier was stationed in the Coast Guards in 1942.

Dartmouth Man To Preach Here

Missionary, preacher and teacher, Dr. Earl Cranston will preach at the Methodist Church here Sunday.

Now professor of religion at Dartmouth College, Dr. Cranston served as ambulance driver in Italy during the war, was a Methodist missionary in China for six years, exchange preacher in England and Scotland in 1933 and history professor at Colgate and Redlands universities.

CARD OF THANKS

We are sincerely grateful to friends and neighbors for their many kind acts of sympathy during our sad bereavement. Our appreciation cannot be adequately expressed.

Fred Kaunitz and family.

HEALTH PROGRAM
Report from September 8, 1947 Through June 30, 1948

Community Nurse—One half time at school; one-half time doing community nursing.

The community nursing service is a new program combining the School Nursing Program with the Public Health Department in the community. It has been acknowledged as an unusually good workable program by the State Public Health Consultants. Because of this merger, it has been possible for the school children to receive a number of additional services offered by the County and State Health Department.

The School Health Program

First Aid and Miscellaneous	331 children treated
Skin Diseases—Scabies, Ringworm, etc.	186 children observed
Head Lice, Nits, Follow-up scalp checks	229
Illnesses (Sore throat, headaches, etc.)	125
	851
Contaglous Diseases (reported)	24
Home Calls made	84
Children referred to Central Mich. Children's Clinic	7
Children referred to Ann Arbor	2

Additlonal Actlvities:

a. Athletic physical exams by Dr. Litzenburger (assisted) 30
b. Immunization Program for Diphtheria and Small Pox by Dr. Litzenburger (as't'd) 218
c. Snellen Eye Tests 498
d. Children taken to Dr. Conway for further eye exams 11
Children fitted with glasses 10
e. Tuberculin patch tests given to Juniors, Seniors, Teachers, Cooks, Janitors 131
f. Mobile X-ray Unit—rayed all with positive skin tests 41
g. Taught Mrs. Gustafson's Homemaking classes the course "Child Development and Home Nursing".
h. Organized Panel Discussion on "Baby Sitters" for all girls from the 7th through the 12th grades.
i. Ten children taken to doctor or hospital for special treatment.
j. Conferences with State Consultants for Public Health regarding variqus school children.

Also during the school year, skin and scalp examinations were made periodically. Health and Nutrition classes, through the cooperation of all the teachers, were conducted at various intervals. Because the Community Chest Organization contributed part of the salary of the Community Nurse, St. Mary's School received the services of the Community Nurse and is included in the above statistics.

MARGARET DAVENPORT,
Community Nurse.

Hundreds Helped By Community Nurse's Work

A total of 1134 calls have been made and cases cared for during the past year by the Community Nurse, Mrs. Margaret Davenport.

Breakdown of what has been done is shown in the reports she has submitted to the School Board and the Community Chest, which jointly support her work.

The figures themselves are dull reading compared to the stories behind them.

First aid was given 331 pupils during the school year. These range from a scraped knee suffered by a tear-streaked kindergartener to the fractured wrist resulting from a fall from the playground slides.

Sore throat, headaches and such ills in school occurred and were treated in 125 cases. Skin diseases, such as ringworm, caused 188 cases; head llce cases and follow-up checks totalled 229.

The need for health education and help, Mrs. Davenport says, is shown by the faet that more than half of these last two types came from four families in the ease of skin diseases, and five in the ease of llce.

These cases, plus 84 home calls made, were the routine part of the school program. Besides, she reported 48 cases of contaglous diseases, thus possibly preventing one or more epidemics in school.

She helped Dr. A. F. Litzenberger with his health exam of the football team, helped with the immunization, gave 498 Snellen eye tests, and 131 tubereulin patch tests. As a result, 11 children were fitted with glasses, and 41 were X-rayed for TB by the mobile unit of the TB Association.

As the Communlty Nurse, Mrs. Davenport goes directly to the homes where she is needed. She made 12 maternlty calls and 52 visits for infant or pre-school cases.

Crippled children aecounted for 75 visits. On these she talks the situation over with the mother, shows how to care for and treat the youngster, and plans for further medical attention.

Other cases were 53 for adults, where she gave bed and bedside care demonstrations, cared for dressings and treatments under the doctor's orders.

In addition to all this, Mrs. Davenport planned and helped carry out a varied health education program at school, ranging from talks before classes to panel discussions for baby sitters.

Many eltizens still do not understand the set-up, she says, thinking of her only as a school nurse.

That is only half the job, she emphasizes.

State Police Warn of Too Fast Driving

"Speed kills— take it easy!"

This is the traffic safety theme to be stressed during the month of July by police agencies of Michigan, according to Sergeant Edgar Welsch commanding officer of the Gaylord post of the Michigan State Police. The campaign is part of a year-around traffic education program sponsored by the National Safety Council under the title of "Operation Safety."

Contrary to general belief, Michigan does have a speed law that applies to the open highway, Sergeant Edgar Welsch pointed out.

"Unless a zone is posted with signs, the law does not designate any specific speed limit outside of business and residental districts," the officer said. 'But it does provide that driving too fast for conditions is a violation. By conditions is meant such considerations as the weather, volume and rate of flow of traffic, condition of highway, and whether it is day or night.

Mathews Brothers Install New Irrigation System On Farm, Use Water from Lakes

Source of the Mathewa Brothers irrigation water is the pump and stream above. The pump is a 36 horae power engine, driving a 500-gallon rotary. The stream is Rydera Creek, with the pumping unit back some 25 feet from its mouth in Lake Chorlevoix. Placing it on the creek saved the cost of building a breakwater to protect ogainst waves.

put an inch of water on alx to seven acres a day, Vernon Mathews says.

In the big field they are growing 23 acres of sugar beets and 30 of potatoes. The latter are Chippewas ond Idaho Bakers.

Formerly the brothers had used woter from Stover Creek for irrigating, but this year they decided to put in the present system. Three things induced them to do this: Excessive use of water during the dry spells when it is needed wos ruining the creek. Use of creek water father up by the Belvedere Golf Club made the supply unreliable. A sure and ample supply was needed and the two big nearby lakes provide thia.

Barnyard Chatter

No one will deny that power farming has changed the face of agricultural America. Today we not only produce more bushels or tons to the acre, but we do it at a lower cost in time and labor.

• • • •

Mass production methods of tilling, planting, cultivating, harvesting and handling hove kept pace with mass production in industry. The practice of handling large acreages by means of horse-drawn implements has almost dropped out of our over-all picture.

• • • •

But what about the livestock branch of farming . . . that branch which accounts for nearly half of the total farm income in America? How does the progress in mass production methods here compare with the progress made in crop production practices?

• • • •

When you consider the fact that on the average livestock farm, something like 70 to 80 percent of the time and labor is expanded in and around the barn . . . well, we've really got something to think about.

• • • •

Sure, a lot of progress has been made. In the well-arranged, modernly-equipped dairy barn of today, milk is being produced with a minimum of time, labor and cost. The 70 to 80 percent mentioned above has probably been reduced to 40 or 50 . . . maybe even less than that.

• • • •

Figures compiled by farmers themselves prove that a carefully planned dairy barn, modernly equipped and adequately ventilated is one of soundest investment, these improvements soon pay for themselves, and then go on paying added profits year after year.

If that old barn of yours needs "fixing up," let's talk is over.

Relic of the days when the Indians used Pine Point as a camping ground was dug up Monday by Robert Burns, near his cabin.

While digging a ditch, he turned up an old canoe, hollowed from a single log. It evidently was 16 feet long, about 30 inches wide. The wood was so rotten he could not tell if it were pine or cedar.

Canoe Has Sails, Motor, Rudders, Sleeping Space for Two, Even Own Light System

Something so different it surprised even Harbormaster Joe Howard arrived in Charlevoix Sunday night.

It was a 25 foot canoe. But what a canoe!

It carried sails, had a built-in outboard motor, two rudders, carried enough fuel for a couple hundred miles of cruising, and could sleep two persons.

The owner was Ray Sullivan of Chicago. The craft is the Tomahawk. With Sullivan was his nephew, Edward Kinkema of Grand Haven. The two were heading somewhere up the lake, possibly for the Snows. The craft was nearing the 2500 mile mark of travel.

Sullivan gladly explained about it.

The canoe started out as a standard Old Town, patterned after the old fur trade craft. Sponsons were added, as were heavy cross frames instead of thwarts.

These, which also serve as low bulkheads, divide the canoe into four sections. Fore and aft are two 6½ foot sections which hold fuel tanks, anchors, sails, luggage and motor. Forward is the 7 foot sleeping section with its two mattresses and canvas hood carried on curved bows. Behind it is the 4½ foot cockpit with its twin seats. The canoe has a 53 inch beam.

She carries two masts, the main forward and a mizzen in the cockpit which is taken down easily. Her sail area is 100 square feet.

Because she has no keel, two rudders are necessary. If it becomes necessary to beach the boat, both rudders can be dropped by pulling a pin. Both are attached to chains and can be pulled back in place when the canoe again is afloat.

The canoe weighs about 500 pounds and has carried a load of 1200 pounds with ease. After she was launched, Sullivan and and his wife travelled in her from Chicago to the Louisiana bayous, then down the Gulf to Corpus Christi, from where they shipped it back by rail.

The craft takes surprisingly rough water easily. Her best speed is about 8 miles an hour, but he has pushed her to 12.

The final refinement is a small generator on the big outboard motor. It lights the regulation navigation lights.

Red Cross Worker Visits Camps Here

Canoeing and water front safety were the objects of the visit here last Wednesday by Edmund Hopinimi, field representative of the American Red Cross from St. Louis.

At Camp Charlevoix he inspected the camp and gave both the facilities and the instruction top rating.

At camp Ta-Wa-Ma-Na, he gave a talk on water safety to the girls and then put on a demonstration of canoe handling which included such things as rolling the craft completely over.

The Tow Line

News of folks, your neighbors and mine . . . but did you know that—

The town is truly bursting out at its seams with summer folks and visitors . . .

Mrs. J. Sinal and her children, Sandra and Allen of Detroit arrived Saturday to spend the remainder of the summer here . . . Nice folks, Dr. and Mrs. James Hilligan of Portland who are summering here at their cottage . . . Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller of Dearborn spent the week end with their daughter and husband, the Jack Worths.

Orchids of the week go to the men who have been digging the sewer on Grant Street. They did a noteworthy job, besides being mighty patient with the many children who were constantly hovering about. Sometimes we take the town's maintenance men for granted, never stopping to realize how mighty important they are to the town's welfare . . .

Jack Supernaw and children of Madison, Wis., were here for the week end and among those at the LaLonde-Hamilton wedding . . . Mr. and Mrs. Frank Finley and Mrs. George Maxwell of Chicago are spending their vacation at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Maxwell in Hayes township. Mrs. Finley is pianist at the 74th Street Church of God church in Chicago and played Sunday night at the Charlevoix Singsperation service at the church here . . . Mrs. Edith Jennings of Cleveland, was a guest several days with Mrs. Ruth Miller. The two women were classmates at college and had not seen each other since then.

The O. F. Hillebrands of St. Louis have made their annual trek to Charlevoix to spend their vacation . . . Mrs. Ulla Johnson of Sweden has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Neff and spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. Gus Walgren at the Loeb farm . . . Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kling and son, Bob, have been visiting for a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kling and sister, Mrs. John Geer . . .

The four teen-agers who won the $1.00 last week for the way they acted on Michigan Beach have not been identified as yet. The winner of the $1.00 a week before was Neville Pilling of Chicago, who was here with his boat. He framed his $1.00 for a souvenir of Charlevoix . . .

The picnic supper of the Congregators that was to have been staged Sunday night, Aug. 1, has been postponed because of Venetian Night and will be one week later, Aug. 8 . . .

Summer parties are on in full swing in Charlevoix. Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Julius Gilbert staged a Treasure Hunt. While the hunt was in full swing and time was precious, if the bridge didn't have to open for boats. After it was finished Carolyn and Jack Goldman found they were the winners of the hunt. Declared it was fun!

Saturday night, young Russell Wood ran into a heavy hardwood plank with his bike. His dad was in direct line with the falling plank. Result: a smashed big toe. Bill was the limping parson Sunday morning as he hobbled to deliver his sermon. Was it gentle irony that the text happened to be "I have learned in whatever state I am, therein to be content." Anyway, friend wife, said Bill preached a good sermon and maybe it would be a good idea if he had a smashed toe every Saturday night.

Congressman John Lesinski, wife and children of Dearborn, were Charlevoix visitors for the past two weeks at Cottage 4, Boulder Park. While here they were entertained by Major and Mrs. Sidorowicz and Mr. and Mrs. Nowakowski. The Congressman is a cousin of Mrs. Sidorowicz and Mr. Nowakowski. His visit to Charlevoix was shortened by an urgent call from Washington.

Everyone knows that old quip about the grass being greener on the other side of the fence. Folks down fronton way are of the opinion that Fred England should take heed. Last week Fred, his son-in-law, Andy, and Glen Williams got in the England boat and went to Boyne City to get some really big fish. After all day, they returned with three little fish. When they pulled up at the

New Sign Tells City's Attitude To Boat Owners

Boat owners get an entirely different view of Charlevoix's newest promotional sign than do the autoists and land folks.

The sign is the one atop the harbormaster's office. Landward, it says "Visit Amerlea's Emerald Isle" and has a shamrock. At night the message and the emblem are in two shades of green neon.

Toward Round Lake, however, the sign has three words in Gaelic: "Cead Mile Failte." Expressing Charlevoix's attitude, that means "100,000 Welcomes."

Church to Honor Dr., Mrs. Mann

Their years of interest in Charlevoix and its religious life will be duly recognized Sunday when Dr. and Mrs. Louis L. Mann are made members of the Congregational church.

Dr. Mann will preach at the morning service on "What the Disbeliever Believes" which he says is a sermon in defense of doubt. At the end of the service Rev. Jackson Turner will present separate certificates of church membership to him and to Mrs. Mann.

A noted speaker and national figure in social work, Dr. Mann is rabbi of the Sinai Congregation in Chicago, a contributing editor to the Liberal Judaism Magazine, the American Family Magazine, Dictionary of American Biography and the World Book of Knowledge. A collaborator on the new Thorndike Dictionary, member of the University of Chicago faculty, he also is a trustee of the Andrew Carnegie Peace Foundation.

Sunday's service will start promptly at 11 a. m.

Heinz Pickle Men Meet Tuesday

Plans for the coming season were gone over by 19 representatives of the H. J. Heinz Co., in northwestern Michigan here Tuesday.

The men met at the City Hall with Howard Brumm, district manager presiding. Talks were given by men from the Holland and Pittsburgh offices.

Prices for the coming season were announced. First grade pickles will bring $6 per hundred; second grade, $4; third grade, $1.75 and fourth grade 50 cents. Stations will open July 28.

Of the 19 men there, H. J. Timmer of Ellsworth was the oldest, both in years and service. He has been buying pickles for 35 years and for 30 years managed the Ellsworth and Central Lake plants.

Garden Club to Meet At Ironton Aug. 19

The Charlevoix Garden Club enjoyed a potluck luncheon at one o 'clock last Tuesday with Mrs. Manie Fessenden. Plans for the new year were discussed. They will meet the same way with Mrs. Ross Alexander in Ironton, Aug. 19.

- Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Goss had as their guest from Friday until Wednesday, Miss Helen Garner of Flint.
- Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Anderson of Chicago are spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. John Kling and other relatives.

County to Have Single Health, Welfare Drive

Charlevoix County will have a single fund-raising drive this fall instead of the repeated charity campaigns which have plagued citizens in the past.

Last Wednesday the county's United Health and Welfare Fund directors met at East Jordan and decided on the forward step. The aim of the plan is three-fold:

1. The money needed for the worthy health and welfare charities is raised all at one time.

2. Each cause gets its fair share, as judged by its public value. There is no over-subscribing for one fund and starving another equally worthy.

3. It weeds out the so-called charities which are largely fronts for self-seeking individuals, and puts the money raised to serving the public.

The directors plan to have the county drive in the fall and to tie it in with the various community chest campaigns so that only one single solicitation will be necessary. Pledge cards will be used, enabling a person to pay either in installments or in a lump sum.

Attending the meeting were: Robert Bridge, Charles Wells, Gordon Freedman, E. J. Edwards, of Charlevoix; Mr. and Mrs. John Porter and William Shepard of East Jordan; Mrs. S. A. Tokoly and A. K. Rouse of Boyne City.

Mr. Bridge was named county vice-chairman; Mrs. Tokoly, secretary and Mr. Porter, treasurer.

Church of God Camp Meeting Opens Friday

An annual summer event here, the Church of God Camp meeting will open this Friday at the 8 p. m. service.

It will be held at the camp grounds south of Charlevoix, and will continue until Aug. 8. The speaker will be Rev. W. T. Wallace of Louisville, Ky.

Three services will be held daily at 10:30 a. m., 2:30 and 8 p. m.

On Sunday, Aug. 1 and 8, there will be no service at the church here except for the regular Sunday School.

Work Is Started On New Poultry Processing Plant

Contract has been let and work started on the new Charlevoix Poultry Processing plant.

W. H. Wallace will do the building. He had seven men on the job Monday morning when the first shovel of dirt was turned and had two more there Tuesday. Next week he is seeking four or five block layers.

The first job is clearing and leveling the site south of the old Co-op warehouse on the west side of the tracks at Stover Road. The three foot foundations will be put in this week.

Next week work will start on putting up the 52 by 100 building walls, which will carry the 13½ foot ceiling. The plant will have a flat roof.

Wallace says the roof will be on the building enclosed ready for equipment in six weeks.

Young Teams Get $5.60 for Hospital

Charlevoix Hospital is $5.60 richer because it has a bunch of youthful backers here.

Last Wednesday two teams staged a softball battle on the school field. They charged spectators 5 cents each and collected the $5.60 for the Hospital.

Team leaders were Jimmy Maas, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Maas; and Bobby Klein, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Klein, all of Detroit.

The Kleins won, 16-1. One feature of the game was Frank Johnston's playing on both squads. The Maas crew maintained he was almost a pro, and that they were entitled to his superior ability too.

- Carl F. Kohler has returned home from Lockport, N. Y., where he was called by the death of his brother, August Kohler.

Lieut. Gov. Cross Puts Gold Robe on Queen

After announcing that Helen Jean Hammond, daughter of Mrs. Nelle Hammond, was the Queen of Venetian Night, Lieut. Gov. Hugh Cross of Illinois called her to the center of the group of ten Charlevoix girls at the Beach Hotel Friday night. As caught by the camera, he is just putting the gold Queen's cloak on her shoulders. Left to right are: Nancy Kipke, Donna Rose, JCC President Tom Coxe, Gladys Coney, Dr. Earl Faber, Mr. Cross, Helen Jean Hammond, Ina Stutt; Janet Bulow, Sally Miller, last year's queen, and Elaine Edwards. The two maids of honor were Beryl Frank and Gladys Ann Coney.

Mt. Vernon Crew Starts Placing New Bridge Steel

Steel work on the new bridge will be completed about Dec. 1 says H. J. Armstrong, representative of the Mt. Vernon Bridge Co., who arrived last week to superintend construction.

Eight men started work Monday morning on the first unit, the south approach.

The Mt. Vernon company, which has the steel contract, is bringing in its own equipment. This includes a stiff leg derrick for handling the steel. Hauling, however will be done by local truckers whom the company will hire.

Completion of the steel work does not mean the bridge will be ready for use. After that is done the Lamb-Leudtke crews will have to pour the rest of the concrete, which includes the floors of the two sections and the counter balance. In addition, there will be the finishing and usual clean-up to be done.

The two bascule spans will be put together in place but standing on end. By doing this, Mr. Armstrong explains, the work is done on land instead of over water, it is easier to handle the material, safer and goes much faster.

None Hurt Badly In Three Crashes

Ross Alexander of Ironton and Howard Struthers of Charlevoix escaped serious injury when their cars side-swiped each other a mile south of Ironton on M-66 Saturday night. The drivers were uninjured but both cars were badly damaged.

Mrs. Dorothy Hagerman, 19, was admitted to the Charlevoix Hospital early Monday morning for treatment of cuts and bruises when the car she was driving left the highway on M-66 and went into Barber's Creek. She was enroute to work at the Sugar Bowl when the accident occurred about 5:30 a. m. The wet macadam and bumpy road were believed to have been the cause of the accident.

Four young fronton folks narrowly escaped serious injuries Sunday morning when their car rolled over east of the Loeb farms.

They were Anna Brock, Jeanne Russell, Ed Nachazel and Ray Williams. They were returning from a dance at Traverse City in Nachazel's car. Williams was driving. He says he dozed off at the wheel. The car was completely wrecked, but all four escaped with only cuts, bruises and shock.

Softball Game to Be Resumed On Sunday

Rained out, along with the evening part of the Venetian Night program, the softball game between the Knight Owls of Charlevoix and the Petoskey Cement team will be played next Sunday.

It will start at 4:30 at the school athletic field. The owls were leading 2 and 0 when rain ended the game.

Coming Events

July 29-30—Methodist food sale and bazaar at Milton Block's Store.

July 29—Skeet shoot and weiner roast at Rod & Gun Club grounds. 7 p. m.

Aug. 1—Congregators Family Night beach picnic at 5 o'clock.

Aug. 2—Alcoholics Anonymous meet at City Hall, 8 p. m.

Aug. 3—Chicken party at Legion Hall, 8:30 p. m.

Aug. 4 — Congregational Womens Guild will meet at Norwood with Mrs. Allen Campbell. Picnic dinner at 1:30.

August 13—Baked goods and apron sale at Milton Block store by the Episcopal Auxiliary.

Jordan Boy Has Role In Comedy At Center Stage '48

The Broadway play "Kiss and Tell" played to large audiences during the past week end at Center Stage '48 at East Jordan.

A surprise to local residents was the appearance of Larry Huckle, East Jordan boy who played the part of Raymond in the play. Originally intending to bring a youngster from New York for the role, Director-managers Lief and Loren decided to cast Huckle in the production after he read the part for them.

Opening at the new summer theatre this week is "Night of January 16th", an audience participation play in which members of the jury will be chosen from the audience. A special matinee will be given on Thursday, when the east will play to boys from Camp Charlevoix. Preformances will also be presented Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings with a matinee at 2:30 Saturday.

Brieske of Michigan Addresses Kiwanis

Jim Brieske, the miracle kicker of the Michigan Rose Bowl team, talked football Monday night to the Kiwanians.

A counselor at Camp Charlevoix, he was introduced by L. N. Reimann, himself a former Michigan gridder.

Brieske told how the championship team really started in 1942, was broken up by the war, missed the title in 1946 but came back to top national honors in 1947.

He is leaving Sunday for the New York Giant's training camp.

President of ABA Here for Vacation

President of the American Bankers Association and of the Detroit Bank, Joseph M. Dodge and Mrs. Dodge are spending a short vacation at the Belvedere.

As head of the ABA and spokesman for U. S. banking, Mr. Dodge has traveled 35,000 miles since his election meeting bankers and addressing public gatherings. He is up here for a brief rest.

Five Directors Elected to Hospital Board

Showing an increase in both public service and in its finances, the annual reports of the Charlevoix Hospital were submitted at the meeting Monday night at the City Hall.

The 59 citizens present, largest turnout in several years, elected five new directors. They are:

C. M. Novak for one year, to succeed Dr. F. F. McMillan.

George Haggard for two years, to succeed Peter Timmer, who resigned.

Gordon Freedman, Fred Willis and Mrs. Edward Shanahan, for three years each, succeeding E. J. Edwards, William Wallace and J. M. Foster who declined reelection.

Members already on the Board are Dr. G. B. Saltonstall, P. D. Campbell, Mrs. Ellen Hamlin and Harry Craig.

Secretary Timmer's report pointed out the two major problems which the Board has faced: obtaining necessary help and

VFW Sponsors Biblical Play On Aug. 4 and 5

Rehearsals have begun on the biblical production "The Light Eternal," which will be presented Thursday and Friday of next week, Mrs. Ruth Lewis, director, announces.

The production will be given by home talent at the school auditorium. The cast will be announced next week. The play is sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars for the benefit of its new building fund.

"The Light Eternal" is the story of the Bible, as told to two small children by their grandfather, the three seated at the right of the stage. It begins with the brothers of Joseph watching their flocks and their sale of Joseph into slavery in Egypt.

A children's matinee will be presented Thursday, 3 p. m.

Jesuit Fathers Officiate Here

For the first time since 1721 when the French missionary for whom this town was named, Father Francis Xavier Charlevoix of the Society of Jesus, made an inspection tour of this area, the Jesuit Fathers have returned to Charlevoix.

They are the priests of West Baden Springs, Ind., who are spending the summer at their vacation home, Marquette Villa, near Omena and who are officiating at two Masses each Sunday at St. Mary church during the summer months.

Rod, Gun Club Will Stage Shoot, Feed

Open to all sportsmen here, the Rod & Gun Club is putting on a skeet shoot and feed tonight at the club ground north of town.

The shoot will start at 7 p. m. with the weiner roast at 8.

Rain Causes Postponement for First Time

Sandwiched between blue and sparkling days, the weather Sunday turned bad for the first time since Venetian Night was started here, forcing its postponement for one week to Aug. 1.

Although the rain was badly needed by the farmers, the rain and a west wind both arrived just in time to wreck any chance of holding Venetian Night and to disappoint an estimated 5000 persons who had thronged to Charlevoix from outside to see the spectacular event.

Next Sunday the only afternoon event will be the softball game between the Knight Owls and the Petoskey Cement teams on the school field at 4:30.

Starting at 7 p. m., the evening program will open with a parade of Queen Jean Hammond and her court of nine. Then will come sea chanteys sung by the Camp Charlevoix's Boys Chorus, cornet solos by Lee Stewart of Camp Charlevoix, negro spirituals sung by the Charlevoix Negro Chorus, piano specialty by Zach Whyte, songs by the SPEB-SQSA Chorus and numbers by the Marine Band.

At 8:30 p. m. the Queen and her court, accompanied by Lieut. Gov. Hugh Cross and Mrs. Cross of Illinois will board the Gele B IV at the Mason street dock. Loaned for the occasion by Mr. and Mrs. George Bisbee of the Belvedere, the boat will make a circle of Round Lake and during the boat procession will be lying off the city park, where the Queen's party will review the parade.

At 9 p. m. the fireworks will be started and shortly afterward the procession of lighted boats will come from Lake Charlevoix. They will go out between 8 and 8:30 and under the direction of Commodore Bob Wexstaff of the Marine Club will form the two lines.

The two lines will make the usual double circle of the Lake and then break up.

Last Sunday afternoon the scheduled sports events were run off at Round Lake under the direction of Dr. John Nordrum. Winners as announced by the Board of Commerce were:

Greased pole: Carl Totzke of the Panchara III, and Bruce Barker, Charlevoix.

Barrel race: Charles Krahnke, Norman Ketchman, James Lewis.

Canoe portage: Carl Totzke and Bud Wallace; Bernie Ward and Dick Hardy; Ben St. Laurena and Charles Southwick of Camp Charlevoix.

Blind dingy: Frank Lagerman, Joe McDermott, Billy Ward.

Canoe race: William Craig, Huron, Ohio, and Tom Taylor of Decatur, Ill. Robert Laugherty of Tampa, Fla., and Make Boswell of Dayton, Ohio. Robert Stockwell of Detroit and Jim Lay of Port Huron.

Canoe tilting: Allie Moore and Ed Eisendrath; Bernie Ward and Dick Hardy.

Deadline On GI Insurance Is July 31

Midnight Saturday marks the last chance for some 400,000 Michigan veterans of World War II to reinstate their insurance without physical examinations.

The Veterans Administration office in Traverse City will be open all day Saturday until the deadline at midnight to assist veterans with reinstating lapsed policies. The local counciling center is also able to assist in this matter.

Under the easy reinstatement provisions, GI insurance that has lapsed may be reinstated in most cases by payment of two monthly premiums and a statement of good health.

China Missionaries Will Speak Here

Rev. and Mrs. Walter Turner, who served many years as missionaries in China will be speakers at the Assembly of God services at 11:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. Sunday, Aug. f.

They spent part of the war years in China and returned from there recently. The public is invited to attend.

They Have Served Charlevoix Well

To the members of the Hospital Board who retire July 31 this community owes a lot.

It always has been an important post. In recent years with financial and related problems piling up, it has become an increasingly difficult one.

At the annual meeeting, E. J. Edwards summed up the position of the Board when he said:

"During all my 16 years as a member, your Hospital Board always has done what it believed was best for the community."

He went on to explain that the members at times might differ over some particular action, but always the final decision made was the one which promised to serve the best interest of the entire Charlevoix community.

So to the five men who no longer are Board members—Dr. F. F. McMillan by death; E. J. Edwards, J. M. Foster, William Wallace and Peter Timmer by asking that others be chosen in their stead—the gratitude of this community should go.

On a Job Well Done

Charlevoix County owes a sincere vote of thanks to the men who headed the drive for the establishment of a Soil Conservation District here.

Defeated three years ago, the proposal was carried by an overwhelming majority at the special election on July 9. Bringing about that change meant work and lots of it.

The committeemen themselves neither got nor will receive anything for their work, except the consciousness of a highly worth while job well done. For the record, their names are: George Klooster, Leonard Babel, Clayton Healey, Peter Winnick, Harold Thomas, Claude Pearsall and Harry Bearringer.

Approval of the Soil District is just the first step. It means that Charlevoix County farmers can have a new and efficient tool to use in building up their farms and production and income.

But no tool is worth anything unless it is used. Whether or not our new District is worth its salt depends on the farmers themselves. It is up to them to profit by it.

— — — —

Leelanau County is having a big furor this summer over its deer herd. Farmers say there are too many deer and they damage orchards. Some sportsmen say the present feeding ground cannot support the herd and many starve each winter. Tourist promoters say the deer are a wonderful tourist attraction and more are needed.

The argument is over the shooting of does. The various groups pretty much are lined up according to what hurts or heips their pocketbook.

Editor Karl Detzer of the Leelanau Enterprise has the most sensible word to say. He suggests getting in Conservation Department men, determining how big a herd the county can and should have, and then maintaining that many. As with most arguments, likely the sensibie thing will meet with small approval.

The State Department of Heaith is going to take pollen counts all over the state again this summer. The Courier will get the reports and post the cards in its front window. If you want to keep the count down, pull that ragweed NOW.

East Jordan realiy is behind Center Stage '48, the new summer theatre over there. Last week six of the city's officials signed a supporting statement which appeared on the front page of the Herald.

Down at Bellaire there was an outboard motor race down the Chain-o-Lakes Sunday. It just goes to prove that Northwestern Michigan needs some sort of setup to avoid duplication of week-end events. Here's a good race on the same day as Venetian Night.

This county would like to support Antrim's event, just as we'd like folks there to come up for the biggest spectacle in these parts. What we need to do is get together and do a little forehanded planning.

What's Cookin' . . .

To the Town's Taste

With Traverse City as our cherry capital of our state, it was no small wonder that the women of the Bethlehem Lutheran church decided to get out a community cook book, featuring some of the prize cherry recipes of that section.

With cherries ripe in Charlevoix, I thought you might like to learn a new rule or two from those women. Here are some of their favorites:

Cherry Chiffon Pie

1 envelope plain gelatin
¼ cup cold water
3 egg yolks
2/3 cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1/3 cup cherry juice
1 cup cherries
1½ tablespoons lemon juice
3 egg whites
1 pastry shell

Soften gelatin in cold water. Beat egg yolks, add 1/3 cup of sugar, salt and cherry juice. Cook in top of double boiler until of custard consistency, stirring constantly. Add softened gelatin and stir until dissolved. Mix cherries and lemon juice and add to custard. Cook and when mixture begins to thicken, fold in stiffly beaten egg whites to which remaining sugar has been added. Pour into a pie shell and chill until firm. Top of pie may be garnished with cherries just before serving. Mrs. L. H. Finnila.

Cherry Icing
(for your favorite cake)

1 cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cream of tartar
2 unbeaten egg whites
3 tablespoons cherry juice or 3 tablespoons finely chopped cherries
1 teaspoon vanilla

Put all ingredients in the top part of double boiler, heat water in lower section and when boiling hot, put top section into lower. Beat until stiff. When using electric beater, beat only 2 or 3 minutes.

—Mrs. William Anderson.

Spiced Cherriss

1 quart pitted cherries (sour or sweet)
1½ pints sugar
1 cup cider vinegar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon allspice
¼ teaspoon cloves
Pinch of salt.

Cook all together until cherries are soft and the mixture has cooked down thick. This relish is especially good with sliced cold meats. —Mrs. W. Maule.

Cherry Olives

An altogether different way to treat cherries is to salt them. Fill quart jar with cherries that are still on the stem. Shake the jar, striking the side frequently with the palm of the hand in order to pack the cherries as closely as possible. Pour a rounding tablespoon of salt into the top of the jar, fill with a mild vinegar and seal.

The cherries will be ready for use in two weeks. This method is especially satisfactory since neither the fruit nor the vinegar requires heating. The cherries are good served as a relish with cold meat, and makes an attractive garnish for the meat plate.

—Mrs. Dorothy L. Smith,
—Mrs. Rudolph Lautner.

Cherry Cheer-Ups

3 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/3 cup shortening
2 eggs, plus enough water to make 1 cup.

Blend as for pie dough. Mix and toss lightly on floured board. Knead gently and roll into ¼ inch thickness. Brush with melted butter and cover with pitted red cherries, drained from juice. Roll up like jelly roll, cut in slices 1½ inch thick. Place cut end down in syrup made as follows:

1 can red pitted cherries, drained.
1½ cups cherry juice, add water if less.
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons butter
1 tablespoon lemon juice.

Mix sugar, cornstarch and salt together, pour over cherry juice, boil until thick and clear. Add cherries, butter and lemon juice and pour into deep well greased baking dish. Put in cherry roll slices and bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, 45 minutes to one hour. —Mrs. Edgar W. Zobel

Road Employees Picnic

The Charlevoix County Road Employees Club held their annual summer picnic at Whiting Park Saturday afternoon with more than 100 members and their families present. Entertainment included races and games for the children and a baseball game for the grown-ups. This was followed by a picnic supper.

Watch Out for Grubs

Water in the shallower lakes about here is beginning to get warm. Warm water almost always means the possibility of grubs in fish, especially along the backbone. Jess George reports catching a fine string of bluegills recently and having to throw them all away for this reason. However, this does not apply to fish from Lake Michigan or Charlevoix or any of the deep or cold spring fed inland lakes. Fish there are free from grubs.

Do credit requirements vary?

Generally speaking, a bank's credit requirements remain rather constant. Loans are made to individuals who pay their bills, have dependable earnings or income, and who are in sound financial condition. One variable factor is whether or not the loan is economically sound—whether or not it is for an essential purpose that is good for the nation as well as for the borrower.

Bass Fishing Is Good: Five-Pounders and Limit Strings Are Brought to Charlevoix

Bass fishing has been good up in these parts this month. Here are shown two sample catches. At the right is Don Feagan of Ironton and two bass caught July 18 at sundown in Nowland Lake.

The five pound large mouth was caught by him; the three pound small mouth by Luther Cole of Batavia, Ohio. Both were using surface plugs and the big bass was caught in eight inches of water.

Below is just half the catch the J. W. Gilbert party brought back July 14 in the Pat-E-Jay from the Beavers and Waugoshance. Shown are Mr. Gilbert and his son, Jay. They didn't want to string all the fish for the picture as the load would be too heavy. In the group were the Gilberts, Capt. Loren Johnson and Frank Johnston.

"We tossed back all but the big ones," Jay said. The fish averaged 2½ pounds.

rising costs of all supplies. These in turn brought on financial problems.

During the year state fire inspectors ordered considerable changes and these have been made. They also gave the hospital two years in which to install a sprinkler system.

A new $4,000 sterilizer has been purchased to take the place of the old one which gave much trouble. Much repainting has been done and the kitchen modernized.

Funeral services for Edward Eagleton, 64, former resident, were held at the See Funeral Home at 2 p. m., Saturday with Rev. W. D. Wood officiating. Burial was in the Brookside cemetery.

Born at Norwood on May 2, 1884, Mr. Eagleton made his home here until going to Ann Arbor about 25 years ago. For many years he operated a draying business here. He died in Ann Arbor on Thursday. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Maude Eagleton of Detroit.

Egg Dealer Fined For Bad Product

Pleading guilty to misbranding and selling inedible eggs, Vernon Lamber, egg trucker of Findlay, Ohio, Friday paid a $25 fine and $3.35 costs in Justice Don Swinton's court.

He brought the eggs north and was selling them in Charlevoix and vicinity according to Jake Klooster, who brought the charge.

Attend Sheriff Meeting

The annual Michigan Sheriff's Association convention was held at Romona Park Hotel July 26-27-28.

Sheriff Floyd Ikens, of Charlevoix County, and Mrs. Ikens attended the sessions.

Camp Q-Gull Has First Visiting Day

First visiting day for parents this year was held at Camp Q-Gull last Sunday.

The Eagle Girls, directed by Hattie Lippman, had charge of the punch table and acted as hostesses. A musical revue, based on Red Riding Hood's story, and a skit "Trees" by the Beaver Boys, demonstrated the dramatic ability of the campers. A swimming contest and games took up the rest of the afternoon.

Owners and directors of the camp are Mrs. Edythe Cugell and her daughters, Mrs. Frances Phillip and Billie Nagler.

- Mr. and Mrs. Joe Alford and daughters, Lois and Judith of Escanaba spent the week end with Mrs. Alford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trimble.
- Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Carey of Detroit, who are vacationing at Wolverine, spent the week end with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Carey.
- Mr. and Mrs. Raiph Kennedy of Pontiac spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Niley Louiselle.
- Mr. and Mrs. Gus Walgren, Mr and Mrs. Cari Walgren of Grand Rapids visited their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Neff over the week end. They also visited their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Walgren at the Loeb farms.

Trips, Inter-Camp Contest Keeps Boys At Charlevoix Busy

Trips and competition with Camp Algonquin were the high lights of the past week, plus the fact that we are on Eastern Standard Time, making it more convenient for visitors, of whom there were many over the week end.

Monday found four cabins taking overnights out of camp. George Campbell and Jim Hales took their groups on a horseback trip over to Mt. McSauba.

Also on the same day, Chuck Southwick and Lee Stewart had their cabins hike over to the same place on Lake Michigan.

Tuesday evening found Webb Wilson's, Bud Sudborongh's, and Herb Brinkman's cabins going into town to the movies, with two groups visiting the Coast Guard. The groups were Bill Kassler's and Phil Steding's boys.

Thursday a green and grey competition was held with every boy competing in every event. Sterling Ragsdale of Grand Rapids was high boy for the Juniors with Max Zeigler, second and Scott Maentz, third. In the Intermediate section, Larry Reisinger was tops, with David Whittingham and Bob James trailing. In the Senior section, Dick Butche was high with Roger Brenner second and Tom Taylor and Ted Grainger tied for third.

Friday, Camp Algonquin was our guests. The Senior softball team lost a close game, 16-14, while the Intermediate team won for Charlevoix, 10-1. The Charlevoix rifle team won its match with Bobby Laugherty, Bill Craig, Jim Lay, Hud Morris and Dale Arn being on the team.

Saturday found many parents in camp. Parents are asked not to bring candy, gum or food. These should not be mailed to the boys as all such articles received in camp will be returned to the sender.

On Sunday morning, Jim Brieske was the speaker at our chapel service. He gave an interesting talk on "Sportsmanship."

Queen to Represent City At St. Ignace

Helen Jean Hammond, Venetian Queen, will represent Charlevoix at the Straits of Mackinac competition Saturday night at St. Ignace.

The contest is to choose a Northern Michigan girl to preside over the Aug. 13-15 celebration of 25 years of ferry service across the Straits.

A swimming race from Mackinac Island to St. Ignace will be a feature of the celebration. It is open only to amateurs.

IT HAPPENED ON . . . . BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

The long dry spell, which damaged the hay crop was finally broken during the week. Several showers not only refreshed the Island, but cooled it off considerably.

This year, Island strawberries both wild and cultivated were extra nice. Mrs. Rosie Bonner's strawberries were about perfect in color, size and taste.

A photostatic copy of the first issue of the Daily Northern Islander, Morman paper published onthe Island was presented to Pat LaFreniere by Chester Ellison of Lansing. Pat has it on display in the LaFreniere store window.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick deBald, Mary Mathews and Joseph Perry all of Springfield, Ohio, spent the past week on the Island. The deBalds are sold on the Island as a vacation spot. Coming each summer for the past seven years is proof.

Mrs. Mike Cull and son, Ralland are visiting in Chicago.

Gen. Burdette Custer and family, Decatur, Ind., are back again to spend their annual vacation. Mrs. Custer's mather was one of the Kelly girls barn an Beaver Island shortly after the exodus of the Mormans. The point on Beaver Island nearest Charlevoix is named after her father, Kelly's Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thornton, Elkhart, Ind., visited Mr. and Mrs. Roger Carlisle for a few days.

Frank McCourt, Chicago, arrived Friday.

From all reports fishing is plenty good at Barney's Lake and Lake Geneserath. Record catches, as they say.

Andrew (Clink) Gallagher and family have arrived to spend until Aug. 15 on the Island. They will occupy the Jahnny Andy Gallagher home. Jahnny and family are spending the remainder of the summer at the Head lighthause.

Henry Allen flew to the Island Wednesday with three of his children, Tom, Mary Agnes and Elizabeth to visit the Hanley family. They returned by plane Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Dick Driggers and Betty Harold, Plant City, Fla., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cull. Mrs. Driggers is the former Ann Left.

It used to be children rushed to the breakfast toble on account of empty tummies. Now, it's a rush to get an empty box or box top from one of the many prepared cereals.

Rita and James Elms (Buster to most of us) celebrated their sixth wedding anniversory Friday, Buster said it with flowers —Rita received a corsage and a bouquet of cut flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McDonough were in Grand Rapids for a few days.

W. E. Nelson, Traverse City, visited the Island during the week. He was a guest at the O'Brien home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Carlisle left Saturday for their home in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Gregg Smith, Boyne City, arrived Saturday by plane to visit her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gallagher. Mrs. Gallagher, also has as her guest Mrs. Emerald Gallagher and doughter, Kathleen.

Francis Stebbins flew in again Saturday afternoon. Mr. Stebbins treated several of his Island friends to sight seeing flights over the Beavers.

It's good to see "Steve" Stevenson back on the Island once more.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Miller spent a few days with Bill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller. Bill particlpated in the Mackinae races, bringing his boat in seventh place.

At Holy Cross church Sunday, bans of marriage were called for Joan Spalding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spalding and Lawrence Malloy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowrence Malloy, Sr. The marriage will take place Aug. 14 on the Island.

Annual School Report

ST. JAMES TOWNSHIP

The annual meeting of School District No. 1, St. James Township, was held July 12, 1946.

The meeting was called to order by the President. The minutes of the lost annual meeting were read and approved. The financial report was read and approved. It was moved and seconded that James W. Gallagher be elected President. Motion carried.

A general discussion was held regarding repairs on the school building.

No further business. Meeting adjourned.

LLOYD McDONOUGH,
Secretary.

HEALTH PROGRAM
Report from September 8, 1947 Through June 30, 1948

Community Nurse—One half time at school; one-half time doing community nursing.

The community nursing service is a new program combining the School Nursing Program with the Public Health Department in the community. It has been acknowledged as an unusually good workable program by the State Public Health Consultants. Because of this merger, it has been possible for the school children to receive a number of additional services offered by the County and State Health Department.

The School Health Program

First Aid and Miscellaneous	331 children treated
Skin Diseases—Scabies, Ringworm, etc.	166 children observed
Head Lice, Nits, Follow-up scalp checks	229
Illnesses (Sore throat, headaches, etc.)	125
	851
Contagious Diseases (reported)	24
Home Calls made	84
Children referred to Central Mich. Children's Clinic	7
Children referred to Ann Arbor	2

Additional Activities:

a. Athletic physical exams by Dr. Litzenburger (assisted) 30
b. Immunization Program for Diphtheria and Small Pox by Dr. Litzenburger (as't'd) 216
c. Snellen Eye Tests 498
d. Children taken to Dr. Conway for further eye exams 11
Children fitted with glasses 10
e. Tuberculin patch tests given to Juniors, Seniors, Teachers, Cooks, Janitors 131
f. Mobile X-ray Unit—rayed all with positive skin tests 41
g. Taught Mrs. Gustafson's Homemaking classes the course "Child Development and Home Nursing".
h. Organized Panel Discussion on "Baby Sitters" for all girls from the 7th through the 12th grades.
i. Ten children taken to doctor or hospital for special treatment.
j. Conferences with State Consultants for Public Health regarding various school children.

Also during the school year, skin and scalp examinations were made periodically. Health and Nutrition classes, through the cooperation of all the teachers, were conducted at various intervals. Because the Community Chest Organization contributed part of the salary of the Community Nurse, St. Mary's School received the services of the Community Nurse and is included in the above statistics.

MARGARET DAVENPORT,
Community Nurse.

Hundreds Helped By Community Nurse's Work

A total of 1134 calls have been made and cases cared for during the past year by the Community Nurse, Mrs. Margaret Davenport.

Breakdown of what has been done is shown in the reports she has submitted to the School Board and the Community Chest, which jointly support her work.

The figures themselves are dull reading compared to the stories behind them.

First aid was given 331 pupils during the school year. These range from a scraped knee suffered by a tear-streaked kindergartener to the fractured wrist resulting from a fall from the playground slides.

Sore throat, headaches and such ills in school occurred and were treated in 125 cases. Skin diseases, such as ringworm, caused 166 cases; head lice cases and follow-up checks totalled 229.

The need for health education and help, Mrs. Davenport says, is shown by the fact that more than half of these last two types came from four families in the case of skin diseases, and five in the case of lice.

These cases, plus 84 home calls made, were the routine part of the school program. Besides, she reported 46 cases of contagious diseases, thus possibly preventing one or more epidemics in school.

She helped Dr. A. F. Litzenberger with his health exam of the football team, helped with the immunization, gave 496 Snellen eye tests, and 131 tuberculin patch tests. As a result, 11 children were fitted with glasses, and 41 were X-rayed for TB by the mobile unit of the TB Association.

As the Community Nurse, Mrs. Davenport goes directly to the homes where she is needed. She made 12 maternity calls and 52 visits for infant or pre-school cases.

Crippled children accounted for 75 visits. On these she talks the situation over with the mother, shows how to care for and treat the youngster, and plans for further medical attention.

Other cases were 53 for adults, where she gave bed and bedside care demonstrations, cared for dressings and treatments under the doctor's orders.

In addition to all this, Mrs. Davenport planned and helped carry out a varied health education program at school, ranging from talks before classes to panel discussions for baby sitters.

Many citizens still do not understand the set-up, she says, thinking of her only as a school nurse.

That is only half the job, she emphasizes.

State Police Warn of Too Fast Driving

"Speed kills— take it easy!"

This is the traffic safety theme to be stressed during the month of July by police agencies of Michigan, according to Sergeant Edgar Welsch commanding officer of the Gaylord post of the Michigan State Police. The campaign is part of a year-around traffic education program sponsored by the National Safety Council under the title of "Operation Safety."

Contrary to general belief, Michigan does have a speed law that applies to the open highway, Sergeant Edgar Welsch pointed out.

"Unless a zone is posted with signs, the law does not designate any specific speed limit outside of business and residental districts," the officer said. 'But it does provide that driving too fast for conditions is a violation. By conditions is meant such considerations as the weather, volume and rate of flow of traffic, condition of highway, and whether it is day or night.

LaLonde-Hamilton Nuptials Celebrated In Church

Arrangements of white Shasta dalsies and larkspur and lighted tapers decorated the altar of the First Congregational church for the wedding of Miss Clara Christine LaLonde and Robert S. Hamilton at 4 p. m. Sunday.

Rev. Jackson E. Turner read the double ring service, in the presence of more than 200 guests. The bride is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heise and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray S. Hamilton.

Preceding the service Brooks Dunbar of Bay View and New York sang "At Dawning", "Because" and "O Promise Me" accompanied by Mrs. A. J. Stelter who also played a program of traditional wedding music and the wedding marches.

Escorted to the altar by her uncle, the bride selected a white satin gown designed with long sleeves and a full skirt. Her fingertip veil was held by a seed pearl tiara and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Clarence Healy, Jr., of Saginaw, sister of the bride was matron of honor and Patsy Hamilton, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. They wore identical gowns of taffeta. Their flowers were bouquets of white thistledown.

Mr. Hamilton assisted his son as best man and ushers were Richard Fochtman, Hubert Olach, Archie Himebauch and Clarence Healy, Jr.

Mrs. Heise wore a pink crepe gown, white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother was attired in an aquo sheer dress, waltz brown hat, white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

After the service a reception was held at 313 Michigon avenue. Miss Ruth Brill of Petoskey cut the cake and Mrs. Donald Holthofer of Keego Harbor, Mrs. Gray DeForest of East Lansing, Mrs. Archie Himebauch and Miss Joan Heise assisted about the rooms.

The couple left on a wedding trip through the Upper Peninsula and Canada. They will make their home here for the remainder of the summer and in the fall will live in Mt. Pleasant.

The bride is a groduate of the Holly high school and is employed at the Burns Clinic, Petoskey. The bridegroom, a groduate of the Charlevoix high school, and a veteran of World War II, is o student at Central Michigan College, Mt. Pleasant.

Among the out of town guests were the Misses Esther and Julia Peterson, of Hoily; Mr. and Mrs. Gray DeForest of East Lansing; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Holthofer of Keego Harbor; Mr. and Mrs. Dan LaLonde of Pontiac; Mrs. Wretta LaLonde of Grond Rapids; Mr. ond Mrs. Leo LaLonde, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence LaLonde, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Healy, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. L. Announcement

To the People of Charlevoix County:

Nominating petitions have been filed with the County Clerk for my re-election to the office of County Road Commissioner.

I greatly appreciate the many endorsements by the citizens of this county.

I have had 10 years of experience at construction and maintenance of roads for Charlevoix County and the State Highway Department.

It has been a pleasant privilege to serve the people of this County, as their County Road Commissioner the past 6 years, in securing new constructed State, County, and Township McNitt Roads.

I assure the people of Charlevoix County to continue a good construction program and efficient maintenance of our roads, if re-elected to this office.

Your support will be greatly appreciated at the primaries Sept. 14, 1948.

News of folks, your neighbors and mine . . . but did you know that—

Clare LaLonde Hamilton had her honeymoon nipped in the bud last week when she was taken to Charlevoix Hospital and underwent an emergency operation for appendicitis. Tough luck, Clare . . . Dr. Louis Mann's sermon Sunday morning at the Congregational Church was a scholarly masterpiece. The church was packed to the last row in the balcony with those waiting to hear his annual message to Charlevoix folks . . .

News for men! Now we are told that the two-pants suit may reappear soon . . . Pete and Peg Hallett of Detroit have been vacationing with the Glenn Sees at their new cottage on Oyster Bay. It's pretty hard to keep away from Charlevoix during the summer and it's a wonderful place to be when the old thermometer soars above the 80 mark and sticky heat greets the city dweller . . .

I am sure that my eyes fairly bunged out of my head when I was holding down the stool at Craft Corner and I heard a woman say, "Have you anything for a little boy? I am buying my Christmas presents already." Don't rush me, lady, don't rush me . . . Charlevoix has surely had its share of windy weather for the past week or more. When you see white caps on little old Round Lake, well that means wind . . . It's been pretty though for the landlubbers.

Rosa Nettleton's lady which appears on her front porch dressed in her many outfits still continues to be a real source of wonderment and admiration for folks on the north side. The children are especially fond of coming to the porch to see the lady who never has a word to say . . . Mr. and Mrs. Ed Beaudoin and young daughter, Brenda, of Detroit have been visiting in Charlevoix. Mr. Beaudoin has returned to Detroit but the women folks in his family remained here . . . Then there was that intellectual resorter who inquired at the Chamber of Commerce "When they filled in with sand down at the beach how far did they run it out?" There was another man who wondered how far it was to Beaver Island. He was told and said that one went by boat. "Oh, no, I won't brother," he said. "Just tell me what the route number is and I'll get there."

Seen on Bridge Street this week end were George and Margaret Holecheck of Bay City who were visiting the Joe Holechecks . . . Mrs. George Whitley has been on the look-out for the past week or so for a letter from her brother, Ralph Ranger, a former resident of Charlevoix, who left three weeks ago for the Philippines. He went to oversee the installing of diesel engines for the government. Shortly after he flew, word came that there had been a terrible typhoon. As yet, no word has been received from him . . . T-shirts are popular these days and from those seen on Bridge Street they range from summer camps and towns all the way from Kalamazoo to Timbuctoo.

Mrs. M. C. Jolley of Oberlin has been here for a few weeks visiting her daughter and family, the Charles Bielas . . . Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Gallagher of Ferndale are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tom Coxe. In the days when the Coxe family lived in Ferndale they were next door neighbors to the Gallaghers . . . More parties are in the offing. One of the big parties of the year was held Saturday night at the Lesser home, a mock grocery party which was much enjoyed.

Ruth McCracken celebrated her birthday last week inviting Joyce Hardy, Karen Smith, Elaine Poole, Pasty Ratigan, Darleen Houck, Sandra Helms, Sue Beaudoin and Alice Thorpe for the occasion. Games were played with several winning prizes. The birthday cake and other refreshments were served by George and Tom Mikos . . .

Clarence Heise has some overworked tomato vines. He is growing some southern variety of the red fruit and the short plants have two and three dozen tomatoes apiece on them.

Albert Beattie, who has lived here for 60 years, had his 87th birthday Sunday. Says he feels good and hopes to reach the 90 mark. . . . Little Billy Zeitler, the lonesome youngster at the University Hospital, is 8 years old. Thanks a million to all the folks who are sending him cards and gifts.

Two folks with nationally famous names were at the Blue Post

Top Quartets to Sing Here at Jamboree

One of the country's top barbershop quartets will be singing from the new and novel stage setting at the sixth annual SPEB-SQSA Jamboree here Sept. 3- 4, 5 and 8.

The quertet is the Mid States Four of Chicago, runnerup last year in the international championship competition at Milwaukee. It arrives here Saturday morning and will sing at the Saturday night concert in the school auditorium.

The stage set is now being built by the scenery committee of the Charlevoix Chapter. While it will not employ black light as did last year's set, it will be different from the usual barbershop background.

Ten quartets so far have written or phoned in stating that they will be on hand for the big Saturday program. Included are several favorite groups of past Jamborees.

Sec. Jerry Scudder Monday received word that the officers and directors of the Michigan District will have their executive session at Charlevoix at the same date. Those who will attend are Mr. and Mrs. William Otto, associate secretary of the international society and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Herrington of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Harvey of Muskegon; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Conklin of Battle Creek and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Smith of Wayne.

During August the Charlevoix Chapter will meet every Thursday at 8:30 at 103 Clinton Street.

Knight Owls Whip Class A Traverse Team by 7-3 Score

Playing a Class A team Sunday, the Charlevoix Knight Owls walked off with a 7 to 3 victory over the Rennie Oils of Traverse City.

Supposedly outclassed by their opponents, the Owls played fast and fancy softball to swamp the visitors. Feature of the game was the three-it pitching of Chick Gallagher, who also hit a homer with two on base.

On the team were three Carey brothers, Junior Supernaw, Gallagher, Irving Manville, Ted Ager, Bill Lusk and Hugh Cross, Jr.

Thursday night East Jordan will send its team here for an 8:30 game.

Tuesday night the Owls beat the JCC team 6 to 1, Gallagher allowing only one hit. He also belted a three run homer. Tom Carey hit a home run and Bob Carey threw out three base stealers.

Mr., Mrs. Holmes Injured In Crash

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Holmes are in a Richmond, Ky., hospital recovering from injuries received in an auto accident near the Kentucky city.

Mr. Holmes received a fracturd nose and slight chest injuries. Mrs. Holmes is being treated for a fractured ankle, facial lacerations and chest injuries. Both are suffering from shock.

The accident occurred late Thursday when they ware forced off the road by an on-coming car and struck a culvert post. The car was badly damaged. They were enroute home from Port Orange, Fla.

Mrs. Holmes' son, Harold Chew, and Miss Marilyn Jordan, left Thursday night to see his parents. They will return to Kentucky later this week to bring them home.

Stephens, Hamlin Enlist In Navy

Earldean Stephens, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stephens, and a recent high school graduate, and Herbert Hamlin, son of Mrs. Ethel Hamlin who graduated in 1947, have enlisted in the U. S. Navy for three years and left Tuesday for Detroit for their final examination.

They will then be sworn into the service and sent to camp for boot training.

Mrs. Fessenden To Show Pictures

An exhibit of water colors of Northern Michigan scenes will be held at the Belvedere Hotel Aug. 12, 13 and 14.

The artist will be Mrs. Manie Fessenden of Charlevoix.

St. Mary's Pushes Plans for Bazaar, Barbecue

Standing in the pasture on his Hayes Township farm, Peter Winnick is holding the Angus steer he is donating to the St. Mary's Bazaar and Barbecue.

Members of St. Mary's parish are completing plans for the summer festival and bazaar to be held on the school grounds Aug. 21-22.

Funds realized from the event will be used for new equipment and enlargement of classroom facilities necessitated by the enlarged enrollment of the school.

A feature of the two-day event will be an ox roast with Peter Winnick, Hayes township farmer and members of the Parish, donating the ox. The beef, which is expected to tip the scales at 700 to 750 pounds when dressed, will be barbecued by Zack Whyte in a special barbecue pit being constructed on the school grounds.

In addition to this there will be booths of all kinds including a doll, baked goods and delicacies, religious goods, ice cream, cake and coffee, amusement booths, a basketball game, a goose booth, a candy booth and a large game booth.

The committee in charge of the planning and construction of the booths are Frank Olcksy, Tom Cox, Jr., Kenneth Cox and Ted Browe. They will be assisted by other parishioners.

Several major prizes including a Chevrolet car, a refrigerator, an electric stove and several cash prirzes will also be given away at the Festival.

H. C. Heckler is general chairman of the arrangements.

Dr. Rush of Adrian To Fill Methodist Pulpit In August

Dr. W. A. Rush, Executive Vice President of Adrian College, will be living at the Methodist Parsonage at 106 State Street and preaching at the church on Aug. 8- 15 and 22.

He has preached each year in the past while the minister and his family have been on their vacation. Recently Dr. Rush has been elevated from Dean of the College to its Vice President.

Rev. Gaylord D. Howell and his family will be leaving on a three week's vacation beginning on Tuesday, Aug. 3, and running through the 27th. They will visit friends and relatives in Indiana.

Will Preach Here

Dr L. Gilbert Little of Wichita, member of the advisory board of the Grace Bible Institute, will preach at the Assembly of God Sunday at the 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. services.

$1.00 for the Way You Looked Tuesday Morning

You are a woman, well known in Charlevoix and on Main Street for you work in one of the shops.

Tuesday morning with broom in hand it looked as though you had started a housecleaning campaign on Bridge Street in the face of so many summer visitors.

You were in front of the building and going right to it with a broom, cleaning a neon sign over the doorway.

"Spidars?" we asked as we passed by.

"No, just flies." And sure enough it looked as though there was a real fly encampment around the neon tubes. Squatters on Main Street! Yes, sir, even flies seemed to know that Charlevoix is a wonderful spot to be in the summertime.

If the woman with broom in hand will come to the Courier office, identify herself, there will be a $1.00 waiting for her.

Concerts begin at 8:30 p.m.

Summer Repertory Group Coming Here

The Michigan Caravan Players, touring summer repertory theater company, will present two stage plays in the Charlevoix high school auditorium.

"Outward Bound" will be staged Tuesday and "The Silver Cord" on Thursday.

Now in its second season the road show company operates out of Benzonia, and has appeared this summer in Frankfort, Glen Arbor, Leland, Northport and Traverse City. The Caravan Players are young professional and college actors.

Board Promis Bigger County Fair This Fall

Plans to make this year's the best Charlevoix County Fair ever held are being pushed by the Fair Board.

Already signed up is a midway from the Play Land United Shows which includes at least eight rides. Free acts for the stage in front of the grand stand will be supplied by the Gus Sun Booking Agency. There will be a complete change of program for the last half of the Fair.

The Fair books now are ready for distribution and can be obtained by writing to County Agent Ed Rebman or by calling at The Courier, the CoOp or Argo

Entry blanks also are ready. Prizes are offered for about everything produced on the farm or in the home. Under state rules, cattle to be exhibited must be tested for Bangs Disease within 30 days of the Fair opening.

To make it easy for these men, Mr. Rebman plans a swing around the county to test all such entries if the names of the owners and the number of cattle to be shown are sent in to him before the 30-day deadline.

Ann Baumgartner To Return Here As Hospital Head

Starting Sept. 1, Ann Baumgartner, R. N., will be superintendent of the Charlevoix Hospital.

On that date she will take the place of Margaret-Ane Gusler, R. N., the present head of the institution, who has asked the Hospital Board to accept her resignation at the end of the month.

Miss Baumgartner formerly was the superintendent here and has been the surgical nurse at Lockwood Hospital at Petoskey. Miss Gusler has been here since Oct. 1.

County Republicans Meet Here Sept. 20

Charlevoix will be host this year to the county Republican Convention on Sept. 20.

It starts at 8 p. m. and will elect four delegates and four alternates to the State Convention in Detroit Sept. 25.

The county's 25 precincts can send a total of 100 delegates, divided as follows: Bay, 3; Boyne Valley, 4; Chandler, 1; Charlevoix, 2; Evangelline, 2; Eveline, 5; Hayes, 4; Hudson, 1; Marion, 4; Melrose, 5; Norwood, 2; Peaine, 1; St. James, 1; South Arm, 5; Wilson, 3; Boyne City, first, 2; second, 4; third, 8; fourth, 8; Charlevoix first, 5; second, 11; third, 9; East Jordan, first, 2; second, 3; third, 7.

Leading Republicans say that for years Charlevioix County has been largely ignored by the state organization and they hope this year to obtain more recognition.

Ironton Ferry Hauls 11,735 Cars In July

New records of carrying folks and cars across the South Arm Narrows were set for July by the Ironton Ferry.

Bud Gill, skipper and publicist of the nation's only free public ferry, says that last month the passengers totaled 35,000, with 11,735 cars being transported.

Originality, Color at Venetian Pageant

Originality and imagination marked Charlevoix's 16th annual lighted boat parade here Sunday night.

With a crowd estimated at from 13,000 to 15,000 lining the banks of Round Lake, the 26 boats in the two lines made the customary circles. The judges announced the winners immediately afterward. The five chosen were:

Hollis Drew, the "Lest We Forget" tableau of colors, green mound, lighted cross and bugler.

L. I. Replogle, with the hard working pirate crew.

Bunny Roe and Sally Bagby with their basket of daisies on the Roe boat.

Kay Fitch, the moth and the flame.

Julius Gilbert depicting fishing on Lake Charlevoix.

The prizes were $50, $40, $30, $20 and $10. The judges were J. J. Schotten of St. Louis, Irving Toplin of Chicago and Robert Paul of East Lansing.

At 7 p. m., there was a parade along Bridge street of Queen Jean Hammond and her court. Then followed the program at the new band platform.

Before the program started Zack Whyte played several piano numbers. He also accompanied the vocalists. Miss Dorothy Myers of West Chicago sang "God Bless America." The Boys Chorus from Camp Charlevoix gave their traditional program of sea chanteys. Leland Stewart, of the Camp, played several cornet solos.

Next the new Charlevoix Negro Spiritual Singers, directed by Horatio Jackson, sang. An acrobatic specialty was given by talent from the VFW dance band. Jeanne Englehart sang, her second number being a composition by Zack Whyte. Lastly, the Marine Band played.

Clarence Odmark, the band director, also served as master of ceremonies.

At 9 p. m. the queen and her court boarded the Gale B IV, loaned for the occasion by L. S. Bisbee of the Belvedere and skippered by Bill Bergmann. They cruised along the shore and then lay off the park while the two lines of boats passed in review. Leading the lines this year were Samuel Freedman's Mary F and Don Clothier's Anna H.

Some of the other interesting things about the Venetian Night were:

Chief Clarence Heise says there were more cars in town than he ever saw on a previous Night. But there wasn't a single accident or bumped fender reported.

Most of the merchants and business places cooperated during the parade by turning off their lights for the benefit of the spectators.

Harbor Changes Its Indian Date

No longer will there be a conflict between two of Northern Michigan's leading summer events.

Last week the Harbor Springs committee in charge of the Ottawa Naming Ceremony formally decided that hereafter the Indian event would be shifted eight days ahead, leaving the last Sunday in July for Charlevoix's 10 year old Venetian Night.

For the last two years, the Harbor Springs ceremony has been held on the traditional Venetian Night date. The date chosen last week is the next to the last Saturday in July, or eight days ahead of Venetian Night.

According to C. E. Marentette, publisher of the Northern Michigan Trav-O-Guide and a citizen of Harbor Springs, the change was made to get away from the duplication of events and to help in building a better summer program for the area.

A Saturday night was chosen for two reasons. Many folks can come North for a week-end but have to be back by Monday morning. A Saturday date will enable them to stay for the ceremony. Also, if Saturday proves to be a bad night, the event can be held Sunday as two successive nights rarely are rainy.

Harbor Springs has just completed a new 0000 capacity outdoor stadium or amphitheatre in which to hold the ceremony.

Chicago Club Six Get $15 for Hospital

Few angles for separating the customers from their cash were overlooked by six young Chicago Club hospital fans last Monday.

They put on a one act skit, written, staged and acted by themselves. They set the price, collected the admission, and even sold chewing gum and candy on the floor.

The play was "The Mystery of the Disappearing Baby." The six were Nancy Tieken, Theo Tieken, Jr., Cynthia Compton, Nancy Hammil, Louise and Suzette Smith. It was staged at the club house, which was donated for the occasion.

The admission was 25 cents for adults, one cent for those under two. The sum of $15.02 was turned over to the Charlevoix Hospital.

Storm Drives Boat Back to Island

Four tired and hungry sailors in a 28 foot sloop were towed into St. James Harbor by the Coast Guard picket boat late Friday after weathering the storm that raged Thursday night and Friday.

Herb Daniels, owner and skipper of the "Virago" left St. James Thursday afternoon. Heading toward Wisconsin near the Foxes, the boat was hit by the storm which forced the crew to drop anchor.

For nine hours they rolled in the light craft. Engine trouble developed, and the four used the sou'wester to head back for the Beavers. Once safe at Gallagher's dock, the four considered themselves lucky to survive the blow. All are from Chicago.

City Band to Play At East Jordan

Charlevoix's City Band will go on a good will trip next Monday night.

It will give a public concert at East Jordan at 8:30 then. The South Arm city has no band this summer and the City group has volunteered to supply them with a concert.

The Rod and Gun Club will send its prize car and loudspeaker along to serve as a public address system.

At 7:30 in the City Park come the first of the contests. It will be a log cutting session between two-man teams with a $20 prize offered.

Twelve inch hardwood logs will be provided. Each man in turn is to chop half through the log, then using a cross cut, they saw off a second block from the log. One team already is signed up, two or three more are wanted.

From 8:15 to 8:45 the Little German band will play, followed by an hour of Conservation Department pictures projected on the side of Block's Quality Store.

Sunday from 9 to 12 a.m. there will be skeet and archery at the club's grounds north of town. Fly, both dry and wet, and bait casting contests will start on Round Lake at 1:30 p. m. At 3:30 there will be one and two man canoe races, an outboard race and a blind dinghy contest. The outboards are limited to stock models and 5 horse motors so there will be no big wash created.

Glenn Ingalls has been named general chairman. Harry Walstad is chairman of the skeet committee, Earl W. Miller, chairman of the casting contest and Art Wexstaff head of the archery committee.

In the skeet shoot prizes totaling $50 will be offered according to the Lewis plan. Prizes will also be offered in all other events.

Annual Beaver Reunion, Dinner To Be Sunday

Sunday will be Beaver Island's big day this summer, the annual Homecoming.

The usual dinner will be served in the Parish Hall from 12 to 3 p. m. Roast beef and baked ham will be main portions with all the usual trimmings added.

In the afternoon there will be a program of entertainment besides the customary visiting around with friends.

A Detroit orchestra is being brought to St. James for the dance to be held in the evening.

City Orders Illegal Retail Shops Closed

Retail businesses operating in strictly residential areas were notified Tuesday morning that they must quit at once.

Monday night the City Council instructed the Chief of Pollee to serve the notices. The Zoning Ordinance forbids this and the Council's instructions were to see that the provision is enforced strictly from now on.

Clare Louise Cummings, who graduated recently from the Highland Park General Hospital, has joined the nursing staff of the Charlevoix Hospital. She is the daughter of Mrs. Glenn Cummings.

Coming Events

Let's Take Advantage of It

We now have a Community Chest for Charlevoix and what amounts to one for the county in the United Health and Welfare Fund.

Both deeldedly are forward steps for all of Charlevoix County. And now that they are organized and funetioning, we of the general public should make use of them.

We can do it in two ways.

First, once having given to the Community Chest, to turn down other requests for similar purposes. By so doing, we will discourage in-between soliciting. If the cause is worthy and the demand immediate, the emergeney fund of the Chest will take eare of it.

Seeond, refuse to work on any soliciting eampaign exeept that of the Chest. If the organizations are worthy, they ean have the funds they need ineluded in the regular Chest budget. Hence, there is no need for a separate solicitation.

An organization which insists on a separate drive lays itself open to one of two charges: it is getting more than its just share from the publle; or its methods and spending will not bear examination. Some are run more for the benefit of the staff than for the purpose served.

So make use of our new eity and eounty Chests by turning down other solicitation. Your money will be better used—and you'll be saved a lot of bother.

Which Was It?

Rabbi Louis Mann in his sermon Sunday here pungently stated the major question faeing the Western world today:

"Splitting the atom before unlting mankind may turn the birth eertifieate of a new seience into the burial permit for eivilization."

Ironton's Secret Is At Last Revealed—Strange Material Developed to Promote Health of Fish

At last the truth about the strange brown material seen floating out from South Arm by many residents has come out.

First seen on the surfaee a couple of weeks ago, it caused considerable questioning and theorizing. Two principal schools of thought developed. One held that some subversive element was surreptitously putting a strange concoction in the South Arm which would work in some mysterious way to destroy all the fish. The other school suspected the Scandinavian Navy from Boyne City of playing a practical joke on the innocents of Ironton.

Finally two interested citizens —Fred England and Frank Millward—went to Don Feagan, secretary of the Ironton Chamber of Commerce, and asked him. After cogitating at length on whether or not to reveal the great secret, Mr. Feagan sent the two the following letter with its momentous story:

Dear Sirs:

We were asked to check the foreign material that you saw in the water Sunday. For your information the substance was a chemical that our own laboratories developed after long research. It is known as sococciliconniccillyonamaeon.

We place the chemical in the water for the benefit of fish life. Particularly, it is for the purpose of preventing rust on the steelhead in Lake Charlevoix.

Please keep all information in this letter confidential for the time being as there are agents from Wisconsin trying to steal the formula.

Very sincerely,
DON FEAGAN.
Commissioner of Water Purification.

(Editor's Note—The research department of The Courier dug up another explanation. The brown stuff is a harmless plant growth from the bottom of the lake which occasionally breaks loose and comes to the top. Frankly, we prefer Mr. Feagan's story as being more colorful.)

Percy J. Shooks Will Wed Grand Rapids Girl

Ellsworth—Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hertel of Grand Rapids have announced the engegement of their daughter, Annabelle, to Perey J. Shooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Shooks of Ellsworth.

The wedding will take place Aug. 17 at Calvin Seminary chapel with a reception following in the parlors of the Fuller Ave. Christian Reformed church. Mrs. Tony Shooks spent several days last week in Grand Rapids and attended several showers honoring the bride-to-be.

Ecuadorian Entertains At Anniversary Party

Joan Nelson, daughter of Mrs. Trina Nelson, celebrated her twenty-first birthday anniversary at a lawn party given by Mrs. Fredric Fechheimer at their summer home on Monday afternoon.

The colorful flowers now in bloom formed a beautiful setting for refreshment table which was centered with a large lighted birthday eake.

Pedro Carrasco, a native of Ecuador and a student at Michigan State entertained the group with several South American dances.

Guests were Don North, of Newaygo; Mr. Carrasco; Elaine Brow, Mr. and Mrs. Howard North, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edwards, Louis Edwards, Elaine Edwards, Versal Shearer, Patsy Hamilton, Albert Edwards, Douglas Byers and Mrs. Nelson.

Lorraine Heise Has Party On Birthday

Mrs. Edward Heise, Jr., entertained with a party at the home of Mrs. William Heise on Thursday honoring her daughter, Lorraine's fourth birthday anniversary. Little guests enjoyed games and refreshments served at a table centered with a birthday cake and decorated with balloons and favors.

Guests were Sandra Yost, Paula Heise, Donald Heise, Perry Smith, Sally and Dickie Herrington, Bobby Marshall, Corky Curtis and Georgia Smith.

• Mrs. Karen Hansen of Chicago, mother of Mrs. Norman Ance is vacationing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ance and also at Pine Point at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Meyer. Mr. and Mrs. Meyer are from High Lake, Ill., and are summering at their Pine Point cottage.

Neighborhood Bee Brings In Hay At Richardson Farm

Laid up with a bad back which prevented his doing any farm work, Cecil Richardson out at Norwood had a demonstration of real neighborliness.

Monday morning ten of his neighbors appeared with teams, tractors, wagons and brought in eight loads of hay. The middle of the week they planned to be back and put up the rest of his hay crop which was not ready Monday.

The ten were George Huebler, Robert Holecheck, Charles Wisler, Carl McBride, Raymond Stafford, Bill Jolliffe, Percy Empey, Leo Ernst, William Parsons and Merrill Richardson.

Some six weeks ago he strained his back. Later injuries made the condition worse until he finally could do no work and had to stay off his feet entirely.

Lansing Warns of Danger to Cattle From Weed Killer

Some cases of fatal poisoning of cattle have been reported to Michigan Department of Agriculture due to eating foliage that has been sprayed with weedkillers containing sodium arsenite.

Such woed killing products have been used effectively to kill weeds and shrubs on roadsides and in fence rows but are highly poisonous to domestic animals if they consume the sprayed forage.

W. C. Geagley, Chief Chemist, Michigan Department of Agriculture, states that considerable 2-4 D is being used in the state on weed control work with apparently good results, and no problems have been reported on livestock poisoning with this product. This contains no sodium arsenite.

The Department warns to check on the label of the content when buying, and any product containing sodium arsenite should not be used if it is to be applied to plants anywhere near to the area to be foraged by farm livestock.

Belvedere News

By Sally Bagby

Venetian Night climaxed a week of activity for the Belvedere, a week marked especially by the number of cottagers who arrived.

Both second and third prizes in the boat parade were taken by Belvedere boats. The younger clement planned and executed the pirate scene on Replogle's Wench, with Mary Talbot Leland being enthusiastically whipped. Others in the crew were Ann Avery, Terry Shwab, Bobby Schrock, Dick Clement, Betsy Replogle, and Mary Talbot's guest, Caroline Cone. Bunny Roe, Dee King and Sally Bagby built the flower basket on the Roe's Roeboat.

A tennis match with classes for all ages will be played Sunday at 10:30 a.m. between the Belvedere and the Little Harbor Club.

Several sailors from the Chicago Club came over for the mid-week race and plan to return for the next. Carton of Belvedere and Randall of Chicago finished in the one-two positions.

New arrivals include the Donahuo family, who were here earlier, the Forsythe Tramels of Evanston, the David Forkers of Cincinnati, Mrs. Stevens of Grosse Pointe, and the David Ingalls of River Forest, Ill., who have rented the Jones cottage for the remainder of the summer. Nancy Knight of Hinsdale, Ill., is visiting Sally Bagby, and the J. J. Schaflys have left for St. Louis.

New Music Group Is Formed Here

Charlevoix has a new musical organization, the Negro Spiritual Singers.

Its members are drawn from the summer population and many have trained voices. The director is Horatio Jackson of Cincinnati, where he directs the choir of St. Andrews Episcopal church. The chorus, sponsored by Zack Whyte, made a hit at the Venetian Night progrom.

In Europe events move with the breathless pace of a play-by-play broadcast, unbroken even by brief pauses for nation identification.—Livingston County Press, Howell.

QUICK TEST TELLS IF GRAIN IS DRY

Farmers who want to avoid loss from grain heating in storage can make this simple test devised by Dr. S. T. Dexter, farm crops research scientist at the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station.

A small waxed cardboard container such as an individual ice cream cup is used in the test. A sample of grain, representing the average condition of the field, is placed in the container. To this is added about a half teaspoon of ammonium chloride salt which can be obtained from the druggist. The container is then closed and shaken vigorously 50 times.

Results of the test are shown in the two photographs above. At the left, the salt comes out of the tube dry and in single grains as it was when first put in. This shows that the grain is dry enough to store under ordinary farm conditions. The salt in the picture on the right is damp and clumped together, showing that the grain is too damp for storage. A little practice makes the test easy and quick. Then samples can be taken and the test performed in the field at harvest time.

Northern Michigan Chicken Barbecue Will Be All-Day Event Aug. 10 At Gaylord

The Chicken Barbecue Aug. 10 at Gaylord, sponsored by Northern Michigan Agricultural Committee, will be an all-day event.

The Gaylord School Band will furnish the music at the Barbecue, to be held at the 4-H Club grounds. The judging of the Junior Farm Bureau Queen will take place in the morning. She will be crowned in the afternoon.

County displays will show the resources and assets of each county.

V. V. Vaniman, regional organizer of the American Farm Bureau, will be the featured speaker. Marshall Wells, with his mobile broadcasting outfit from WJR, will be there.

The chicken will include chicken barbecued over charcoal fires.

M. S. C. Farmer Day Program Is Sept. 2

The 1948 MSC Farmers' Day program will he held Sept. 2, at Michigan State College.

The annual event is again being held in conjunction with the State 4-H Club Show. Aug. 31-Sept. 3, so that farm families may attend the event.

Visitors on the campus will have an opportunity to insoect the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station. Members of the various agricultural deoartments will be on hand at the college farms and at research projects to explain the work being done. Colleg livestock and poultry will also be on exhibition.

Mayor Is Invited To Railroad Fair

Mayor Ray Hamilton has been invited to represent Charlevoix at the Michigan Day, Aug. 9, at the Chicago Railroad Fair.

The Fair is sponsored by 38 rail lines of the United States, is costing $3,000,000 to put on and exhibits the latest in railroad equipment and development. It runs nutil Labor Day.

The Tow Line . . .

this week, Oscar Wilde and Henry Allen. . . . . It's going to be Family Night picnic for the Congregators next Sunday at 5 p.m. at the Lake Michigan beach this side of Floyd Brown's. Each family is to bring a passing dish, drink and sandwiches.

Wonder if there are any summer folks who have been coming to Charlevoix much longer than the Coleman family? Jimmie Coleman is now following in his father's footsteps. . . . . Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Bartels and two daughters have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Trimble. After three weeks here they have returned to Bellwood, Ill.

Now I know the story behind the wooden blue bell that hangs from the porch of the Hollingsworth cottage on the Belvedere. The cottage was built back in '78, and is just three doors down from the hotel. At that time they had to mow down the bluebells that were in a riot of bloom on the lot in order to build the house. It has been the bluebell cottage ever since. G. E. Hollingsworth says that he has spent his summers from babyhood in Charlevoix.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur LaDuke of Everett, Wash., visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jensen, Frances Olmstead and other friends last week.

The LaDukes used to live in Charlevoix and at Oyster Bay 39 years ago. Mrs. LaDuke was formerly Flosie DeWitt and Mr. LaDuke was an East Jordan boy. They thought Charlevoix looked pretty good, there were so many changes. They agreed that the town was rightly named, Charlevoix the Beautiful. Mrs. Nellie Dodd of Detroit is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jensen for three weeks.

The gals from Cedar Springs, the famous Clipper girls who have been written up from coast to coast, had this to say in a recent issue of their paper "Towns try to think of catchy slogans. Some of them are farfetched, some are most appropriate. "Charlevoix the Beautiful" is no exaggeration. This slogan is so true that it comes naturally to say the three words whenever speaking of Charlevoix. It is one of the most beautiful cities in Michigan. Recently we were at the Michigan Press Association there and were royally entertained. Everyone who attended carried away lasting memories of Charlevoix the Beautiful and the hospitality of the town." . . .

Traffic is heavy and many more new faces are seen on Bridge street . . . The lake has so many more pleasure craft on it . . . One might say that we have been having real resort weather. Rains at night so that folks have no trouble sleeping and then it clears off in the morning so that by noon the beaches are filled with folks getting their daily sunbath . . .

Understand that the "new look" is on the way out, and in its place it's the "relaxed look." Well, it that is true, surely Charlevoix has it . . .

Friends of Marion Eisendrath, who has spent several summers here, will be interested in knowing that she is spending this summer in Europe

Kroger

Leading Citizen

A Michigan newspaper recently paid tribute to one of its outstanding local citizens—the manager of the local Kroger store. He is past president of the Exchange Club, third term member of the School Board, a Director of the Board of Commerce. Like Kroger men everywhere, he is a real home-towner, running a home town store.

IT HAPPENED ON . . . . BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

The largest sloop on the Great Lakes, The Sabor tied up at La-Freniere's dock Wednesday. Owned by Roman Brotz, Sheboygan, Wis., the Sabor measures 87 ft. in length; height of spar, 110 ft. beam 14½ ft and total weight, 43 tons. A crew of 18 men is maintained. Everything for comfort even to a bath tub is installed on this deluxe sail boat.

A boat with plenty of experience anchored in Beaver Harbor for two days last week. The Yamaeraw, formerly with the Navy and now in service of the Coast Guard, was in the atomic tests at Bikini. At present, the crew aboard the vessel are laying telephone cable between Beaver, Isle Aux Galets, Lansing Shoals, White Shoals and Gray's Reef.

Thursday evening a ball game was played between a team from the Yamacraw and Beaver Island boys. Score 7-0 in favor of the Beaver Braves.

Tuesday evening a surprise birthday party was given Mrs. Fred Spalding at the Spalding's home by a group of friends.

Freda and Emma Keubler, Grosse Pointe, Mrs. Anna duBail and son, Norman, Battle Creek, spent three days on the Island as the guests of Carl Keubler.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coppen and children, St. Joseph, Mich., are visiting Mrs. Coppen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Gallagher.

Early Friday morning during the terrific electric storm which raged in the village, balls of fire were seen to circle the light plant and seemingly roll out over the harbor. All lights were put out of commission.

A sudden streak of lightning and bingo! Mrs. Wilfred O'Brien's comb that lay on the dresser near a lamp was burned in half. A large tree in the backyard of Mrs. Bid Sandenburg was also struck.

Due to the large number of sail boats in port, both the Mary Margaret and the North Shore had difficulty docking Friday. The strong sou'west which prevailed throughout the day made it unsafe for the sail boats to untie the lines that held them fast in and around the docks. After much maneuvering both boats were able to unload at Galiagher's dock.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gardeski, Grand Rapids, spent their honeymoon on the Island, occupying Roger Ricksgers cabin "The Antler" on Bonner's Bluf.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilcox, Grand Rapids spent their vacation at The Antler.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ricksgers were in Cleveland during the week to attend the wedding of Joseph Ricksgers, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ricksgers.

One of the few sail boats in the Chicago-Mackinac races to depend entirely on the wind is the Hope. Belonging to the Schoendorf boys of Milwaukee, their plucky mother sails right along with her boys, all lads under 24 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harman and sons, Paul and Daniel, Mishawaka, Ind., have been the guests of Mrs. Harman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Connaghan.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Turner, Detroit, spent a few days at the King Strang Hotel. Mr. Turner, test engineer at the Ready Power plant in Detroit, has had a couple of Island boys in his employ, Jewell Gillespie and Roger Ricksgers. Daniel Green is at present working at Ready Power.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith were dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. Russell Palmer at the King Strang Hotel Sunday.

Bans of marriage are being called for Mary Margaret Martin formerly of Beaver Island and Norman Long of Chicago. The marriage will take place Aug. 14 in Chicago.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nackerman were Mrs. Nackerman's mother, Mrs. W. R. Campbell, her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell and her aunt, Mrs. Ellen Campbell.

Sailing Fleet Takes Over Beaver Island

Beaver Island once more turned over the keys of the village to the visiting skippers and their crews who annually tie up in St. James harbor the day after the Chicago-Mackinac race.

Gliding into the harbor Wednesday, 15 sail boats were in port.

Bill Whalen of the Chicago Yacht Club, who has stopped over at the Beavers for years, became mayor of the village the minute he set foot on the Island.

Highlighting the stopover of the sailing yachtmen was the gathering at the Shamrock Tavern in the evening. A master-of ceremonies par excellence, Bill presents an impromptu floor show each year. Starting off with community singing, a special feature this year were songs by professional singers from Chicago. In between songs, Bill kept the crowd entertained with his ready wit.

A trip around the Island, weiner roast at Sand Bay and visiting among Island friends completed the stay-over at the Beavers.

"We'll be seeing you again next year," was the fond farewell as the wind filled their sails and the boats departed for home ports.

Girls Are Hostesses At Surprise Party

Eleanor Gallagher and Rosemary McDonough were hostesses at a surprise lawn party honoring Mrs. Russell Palmer Thursday afternoon at the Palmer's home.

The young hostesses were dressed in dainty yellow organdie frocks to receive their guests.

Luncheon was served after which dancing and singing was enjoyed.

The guests were: Mrs. Peter Gallagher, Mrs. Gregg Smith, Mrs. Emerald Gallagher and daughter, Kathleen, Kay Wilmot, Mrs. Charles Pischner, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spalding and Dr. Palmer.

Hilarious Comedy Next On Schedule Of Center Stage

This week the cast at Center Stage returns to gay, lighthearted comedy with the hilarious "Out of the Frying Pan" a play about a group of ambitious young actors.

"There's an underlying ring of truth in this production for us", said Director Marilyn Lief. "Many of the properties used in the play, we simply moved from our headquarters." In the cast this week will be Lou Prentis, new arrival at Center Stage; Anne Putman Dean, Marilyn Lief, Carey Leverette, Harry Adler, David Young, Suzanne Smith, Enid Pulver, Len Lesser, J. Stevens School, Robert Chapman and Lester Robin.

Each jury that served during the five performances of the play "Night of January 18th" at Center Stage '48 last week, found the defendant Karen Andre not guilty of murder in the first degree. Presiding Judge Heath upbraided jurors for the verdict, which he thought contrary to evidence presented.

Defending attorney Stevens was not at all certain of the outcome during the special matinee on Thursday afternoon when boys and their counselors from Camp Charlevoix served on the jury. After the second act he confided "I'm afraid some of these kids want to see my client hang!" And he was correct; it was the closest vote throughout all performances with four voting for guilty and the remaining eight returning the verdict of not guilty.

Here's the PLOW you need for breaking sod

With Triple-Quick Attaching, plow is attached to the tractor in one minute.

Hydraulic Touch Control raises plow for easy turning, and fast transport on road.

A touch of the Hydraulic lever lowers plow. Automatic control of depth made possible.

No detaching and re-attaching when plow hits an obstruction.

Dearborn FARM EQUIPMENT

This Dearborn plow is made for the Ford Tractor . . . and we think it's the best ever. So simple—it has no wheels, axle, tongue, clutch, springs or levers . . . but good sturdy beams and as fine bases, coulters and jointers as ever turned a furrow.

With Ford Hydraulic Touch Control, you can "take it easy" while two matching well-turned furrows unroll behind you.

Easy adjustments. Only three grease gun fittings to lubricate. Study the pictures, then see us if you want a new plowing experience. Come in soon!

"See Charlevoix County In October" Will Be Theme of New CCCC Promotional Campaign

Michigan and the other neighboring states are going to hear about the marvelous weather Charlevoix County enjoys.

On July 14 the County Chamber of Commerce voted approval of a publicity program to be launched within a month, to tell others that one of the finest of all times to visit here is October.

The publicity will point out that the days are warm, nights cool, fishing better than in the summer, even the few insects have disappeared, the crowds are smaller, and the whole county is a mass of color.

None of the northern counties was more densely forested with hardwood than Charlevoix. This situation is reflected today in a countryside aglow with color in October.

In charge of the promotion will be the secretaries of the various Chambers with S. E. Coleman of Charlevoix as chairman.

Among those attending the July meeting at East Jordan were President Don Feagan, Edward Beene and Glen Williams of Ironton; President Bob Fochtman, Coleman, Kit Carson, Charles Bleha, Dick Edwards and L. E. Tdwe of Charlevoix.

U. of M. Advises North for Hay Fever

Hay fever sufferers still must make that trip to a pollen-free area to have the best chance for relief from that "sneezing season."

That's the word from Dr. John M. Sheldon, head of the Allergy Clinic at the University of Michigan Hospital.

"Although about 200 drugs have been developed to alleviate the sufferings of hay fever victims, these drugs serve only as partial aids and are not the answer to a complete cure," Dr. Sheldon declared.

For people who can travel to avoid pollen irritation, Dr. Sheldon advises the area in Michigan above the Muskegon-Bay City line.

County to Have Best Ski Run In All Middle West

Charlevoix County will have the highest and longest ski run in the Middle West this coming winter when the new Boyne Valley Ski Club opens its first slope.

This statement was made at the meeting of the Charlevoix County Chamber of Commerce at Cal's near East Jordan. The speaker was John Christiansen, manager of the new club. He also introduced the new instructor, Victor Gottschalk, who was instructor at Sun Valley from the time that famous ski resort was opened.

Work on the slope between Boyne Falls and Boyne City is now going forward. The main slope is being cleared. It has, Christiansen explained, a vertical drop of 440 feet. On a straight line, the hill is 000 yards long. But even the most expert skier will go half a mile, or 800 yards. For beginners; there will be a mile and a half course with various other slopes in between for the more proficient.

Christiansen said he was not exaggerating when he called this the best ski spot in the Middle West. He and his associates studied reports from all likely sections and made aerial surveys of most of them. They picked Charlevoix county because of the unexcelled terrain and the dependable snow.

It is obvious economy to change oil instead of changing rings, pistons and bearings. Clean, full-bodied oil will prevent excessive engine wear indefinitely.

Engine oil takes a terrific beating under any circumstances. For instance, do you know the average crankshaft makes approximately 3 million revolutions while you drive 1000 miles? Meanwhile the pistons have made 6 million trips up and down in the cylinders. Some wear takes place of course.

But wear is very slight IF the oil is right.

So we recommend your oil be checked every 1000 miles. If it is dirty and carries abrasive particles of grit and metal change it at once. If it is clean simply add R. O. C. for normal driving or NORTHLAND Motor Oil for high sustained speeds.

Trips, Picture taking, Choral Work Feature Week for Boys At Camp Charlevoix

Parents are already enrolling boys at Camp Charlevoix for the 1949 season, with the 30 places on the Mackinac Island trip next year about all taken already.

Trips again were an important part of the camp program with four cabin groups going into the movies last Monday night and Herb Brinkman and Chuck Bacon taking their boys on a horseback trip. The boys were: Ed Cote, Bart Hickok, Jack McQuiggan, Tom Jaines, Bill Hall, Chuck Kearney, Emerson Dentel, Mike Boswell, Chuck Kurtz, David Sewell, Hans Hennecke, Bob Sommer, Dale Arn and Dick Kruse.

Tuesday was a busy day in camp as the camp pictures were being taken. Paul Gach, the photographer from Grosse Pointe, came to camp and for Tuesday and Wednesday the boys were on their best behavior as one could never tell when his picture was being snapped. We are all anxious for the results.

Wednesday John Cook and Bud Gallup took their boys into Charlevoix to visit the Coast Guard station. The boys enjoying this trip were: Ken Klein, Cliff Argue, Arthur Sullivan, Bill Boswell, Clem Gill, Tony Troug, Austin Pendleton, Bob Streadwick, Warren May, Chuck Schank, Carl Allison, Alan Wood, Duffer Smith and Bill Huefelder.

The entire Senior Section attended a special matinee for Camp Charlevoix over at the Summer Theatre "Center Stage '48" at East Jordan on Thursday afternoon. The play was "The Night of January 16th" and was a mystery play, court scene and all. From all reports Ed Cote as the foreman of the jury, which sat right on the stage with the actors, really enjoyed his part. It was a great experience for the boys.

Also on Thursday Jim Hales and Chuck Southwick took their cabins over to Lake 26 on a fishing trip. These boys were: Bob James, John Tapert, Mike Brenner, Jeff Jennings, Chuck Sorensen, Graham Shipman, Harry Jeffrey and Larry Reisinger, John Prost, Jimmy Logie, Bill Putt, Walter Simmons and Jim Stockwell.

The boys of cabin 16 were enthusiastic about their canoe trip down the Jordan River as it was to be their last trip with their counsellor, Jim Brieske. They had a great time and as the waves were high when they reached the big lake, the camp truck picked them up. These boys were Don Sigismond, Skip Macauley, John Wood, Danny Shields, Don Mendellsohn, Don Pfarrer and Rod Chapman. The Intermediate section took the large truck and visited the State Fish Hatchery at Oden. The Junior Section, not to be outdone, took the little truck and swam in the waves at Lake Michigan. This being a very windy day, the waves were really something.

Saturday evening was a night of a dramatic effort in the Club house with Don Pfarrer, Don Mendelssohn, Danny Shields and Jack McQuiggan playing the leads in a mystery play.

The Rev. Mosser, pastor of the Barnard Reformed church, was the speaker at the Sunday morning chapel service. His topic was "Trees." In the evening the Camp Charlevoix Chorus of 40 boys and men gave a thirty minute program of Sea Chanteys at the Venetian Night celebration in Charlevoix. This has become traditional at camp, and each year for many years the chorus has sung in town at this annual affair.

New Maps of Inland Lakes Now Ready

For 25 cents to $2.50, cottagers along hundreds of Michigan's inland lakes may get a map of their lake, in plain blueprint style if they wish to take it along in the boat to mark the good fishing spots, and in several colors if they want to frame it on a cabin wall.

The new index of inland lake maps just compiled by the conservation department's institute for fisheries research lists maps for lakes in 69 counties. The maps show shorelines and some land features, shoal areas, soundings, bottom contours and weed beds. The character of the bottom material, whether rock, gravel, sand, clay, peat or marl, is shown on the larger more expensive hand-colored maps. The index lists maps prepared both by the institute and by the U. S. forest service.

Lists of the lake maps in stock are available from the conservation department's fish division in Lansing, a separate sheet for each county.

Holstein Produces Over 70 Pounds of Butterfat

A Holstein cow owned by the Meadowbrook Farm at Bellaire, produced 70.8 lbs. of butterfat during June, according to Lee Cook, Supervisor for the Charlevoix-Antrim Dairy Herd Improvement Association. The next highest cow was also a Holstein owned by Elias Somerville. It produced 62.8 lbs. of butterfat. Versal Crawford owned a Guernsey herd of 11 cows that averaged 42.6 lbs. of butterfat for the month.

The average production for all cows was 839 lbs. of milk. The average returns for $1.00 feed cost was $3.04. The average feed cost per lb. of butterfat was 34 cents and per 100 weight of milk was $1.36.

Salt Treatment of Fence Posts

By using a salt treatment on fence posts, it's possible to use many types of trees for posts that you wouldn't normally consider. You can use such trees as aspen, popple, red or black oak, elm, soft maple or even willow.

Three chemicals are recommended for this salt treatment and they are listed in order as to effectiveness: Number one is chromated zinc chloride, and two is ordinary zinc chloride, and number three is copper sulphate or bluestone.

To treat a full length sapling, prepare the solution and place the container near a building or tree so that the saplings can be supported as they stand in the container. Trim the lower branches from the sapling, but leave enough leaves at the top to carry on the process of transpiration. Do the job in spring or summer and on a good sunny day it should take only six to eight hours to treat a full-length sapling.

REGISTRATION NOTICE

Notice is hereby given to the electors of Marion Township that I shall be at my home to take the registration of any qualified voter from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m., on Aug. 25, the last day for registration for the Sept. 14 primary election.

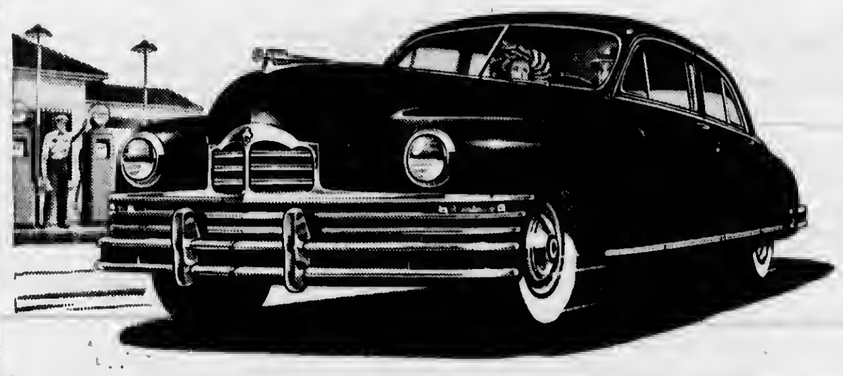
"Free-breathing" gas miser!



As every motorist knows, gasoline mileage varies with terrain, temperature, traffic conditions, speed, and individual driver habits.

But here, in the chart at right, you'll get a good idea of the gasoline economy you can expect from a new Packard . . . thanks to Packard's new "free-breathing" engine design.

These figures—taken from a survey among hundreds of new Packard owners from coast to coast—cover the highway performance of the 130-horsepower Packard Eight, with overdrive. (Packard overdrive is optional equipment, at moderate extra cost. It is being ordered on a majority of the new Packards.)

Study these national figures. And then come in for a complete local review of the power story of the year!

Farm Bureau Report

Liver Meal is a vital feed ingredient. Liver Meal is included in our M. V. P. Poultry Concentrates because it supplies all the known factors for growth and health plus unknown factors.

The University of Georgia ran tests to prove the value, in dollars and cents, of the high calory Connecticut Broiler Ration. One of the Connecticut rations carries liver meal—the other doesn't. Below is a table showing comparative results Birds carried to Eight Weeks of age.

	Ave. Wt.	Ave. Feed Per Bird	Ave. Feed Lb. Gain
With Liver Meal	1.96 lb.	5.90 lb.	3.05 lb.
No Liver Meal	1.90 lb.	6.15 lb.	3.24 lb.

	Income Over Feed Cost per 1000 Broilers	Cost per Ton Feed	Cost per Lb. Meat
With Liver Meal	$234.00	$116.40	17.4c
No Liver Meal	$201.00	$114.20	18.4c

All Farm Bureau Poultry Mashes contain the recommended amount of liver meal.

We are separating wheat and vetch—paying highest market prices. Over 14% moisture content not accepted.

Original Decoration On Boats Seen Thousands Who Flock to City

that rain would ruin the plans again.

The fireworks were set off by Ray Hamilton, helped by Ray O'Brien. Mr. Hamilton has had this job since the aerial displays first were put on as part of Venetian Night.

Three boats which did not win prizes but which showed considerable originality were the Freedman speedboat with its flapping wash on the lines and the sign: "Floating Laundry"; the Myron Culver boat with its big balloon which only needed more light; and Ron Abfalter's big Paul Bunyan amid his pine trees.

The Board of Commerce purchased 800 sockets and 800 low voltage bulbs to loan to boat owners. These strings are returned after the parade and will be used year after year to get away from the dangerous and troublesome candles.

The Roeboat decorations were made of painted chipboard; 1300 petals were cut and stapled to form the daisies in the green and white basket.

The fish behind the Gilbert boat was built by the Gilbert children, helped by their elders, on a small boat covered with chicken netting. Thousands of narrow strips of crepe paper were tied into the meshes of the wire to resemble the 14 foot fish's scales.

Mrs. Karl Erber built the moth for Kay Fitch's boat. At first the wings were designed to flap but last week's high wind forced a change in design and they were anchored fast.

S. E. Coleman says that Station WMBN cooperated in helping publicize the postponement of Venetian Night.

Bob Wexstaff, new commodore of the Marine Club, had charge of lining up the boats which appeared in the parade, of organizing them out in Lake Charlevoix, and of the entire water pageant.

Two Coast Guard boats were on hand during all the parade in case of emergency or need.

The high wind which lasted all day made handling the lines difficult.

That ghost ship in the parade was the Vencedor IV. Bill Tramel, Hugh Cross and Pat Hellerud wanted to be in it. So they got one Japanese lantern, mounted it on the runabout, and entered it as the boat which didn't appear to be there.

Jean Hammond Chosen for Court Of Straits Event

Charlevoix's Venetian Night Queen, Jean Hammond, is one of the six girls chosen to be a member of the Queen's Court at the big Straits of Mackinac celebration Aug. 12, 13, and 14.

She appeared at the dance last Saturday night held at St. Ignance along with some 15 other girls from Upper Peninsula and Northern Michigan towns.

Chosen as Queen of the celebration marking the 25th anniversary of the state Straits Ferry service was Miss Marquette. Miss St. Ignace is her alternate. Members of the Court are the girls from the Soo, Munising, Brevoort, Cheboygan and Charlevoix.

Miss Hammond will be at St. Ignace for all three days of the celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Coleman took her to St. Ignace Saturday, getting back to Charlevoix at 5 a. m. Sunday.

A balloon will be used in the four mile amateur swim race from Mackinac Island to St. Ignace Aug. 14. It will be anchored at St. Ignace, and will serve as a guide for the swimmers. This is the first time swimming this stretch of water in a race has been attempted. A boat will accompany each contestant.

Coast Guard, Fire Pump Save Boat and Crew

The six passengers, four men and two boys, of the freighter, Rambler, looked mighty happy Thursday when she tied up at the city pier here after 15 hours trying to keep her afloat.

Wednesday night, bound for St. James from South Manitou, she started leaking about 11 p. m. At midnight her distress signals were sighted by the freighter B. J. Affleck of Toledo, which took off the six aboard the Rambler, then in a sinking condition.

They were Capt. Russell Brown of St. fgnace, owner; James L. and Glenn Lease, father and son of Alanson; Enos Wasageshik, Ralph Napont, 14, and Gilbert High, 15, of St. James.

The Affleck radioed the Coast Guard, and at 12:30 the Beaver Island picket boat and the Charlevoix lifeboat both started for the Rambler, which had been abandoned 20 miles almost due west of Charlevoix.

The fsland boat took the Rambler's crew off the Affleck and started hunting for the sinking vessel, finally finding it at daybreak west of North Fox. Meanwhile the Chartevoix boat, commanded by Officer Joseph Etienne, had put back. Her crew loaded the big fire pump aboard the picket boat and started out again.

Shortly after 9 a. m. the boats met. The Charlevoix crew transferred the fire pump to the Rambler, which was dangerously low, and took the tow line. The Beaver fsland boat came here alone, then returned to St. James. About 2:30 the Coast Guard boat, towing the Rambler, entered the channel here as shown in the above picture.

She tied up at the city dock, then was moved to Hamilton's to have the leaky seams plugged. During Wednesday night, the water came in so fast that the boat's own pumps and motors were flooded.

Shorty Ray of Beavers Featured in National Magazine, Tells How Fan Gets More Football

A summer resident of Beaver fsland for three decades, Hugh Ray was featured in the leading sports article in the latest issue of Collier's Magazine.

With his coat off and his glasses well down on his nose, Shorty was pictured at his Chicago desk chasing pro football figures around a sheet of paper.

The story by Bill Fay tells how the National League football coaches use the statistics Shorty hands out by the yard. Conzelman of Chicago knows his team gained more ground than their opponents, yet lost the title. Shorty shows him how they lost it by not stopping the run-back of hard work on their big plan of

The story says:

"An amazing man, Shorty Ray, 65 year old, former Western Conference official, retired professor of mechanical drawing, Shorty spends the winter, spring and early aummer analyzing statistics." It did not say that the summer he spent at Beaver fsland soaking up Northern Michigan climate.

The chief interest of the Collier's story seemed to be on the statistics and how the teams use them.

Shorty himself takes an entirely different view of the matter. He grants that the figures and analyses and comparisons are useful to the coaches and teams in picking weak and strong points. But he also thinks of the customer and considers him the important person in the picture, after all.

"You know how many minutes of actual football you will aee during the game," he will ask you as you stand in the sun on the dock at St. James. "Well, an average play only takes . . ." and he quotes the number of seconds to two decimals. "That makes only so many minutes of play a game. The rest of the time you're up there watching the officials get set and the huddles.

"Now what we do is hurry up the rest of the performance so that there will be more plays and you'll see more foothall. That'a why folks like the pro games. There are more plays and they see more game.

"What do you pay for — to watch eleven men put their heads together or to see them open a hole and make a six yard gain through the line? The more plays, the more you get for your money.

"That's why we have two timers on every game. One clocks the officials and one the team. If either one gets slow, he hears about it right now. We've boosted the average from 145.5 plays per game in 1936 to 166.5 plays last year. You're seeing almost one seventh more game than you used to."

Parish Busy Getting Ready for Big Ox Roast, Bazaar At St. Mary's Next Week

Enthusiasm is riding high among the members of St. Mary's Catholic church. Their months of hard work on their big project car drawing, bazaar and ox roast is about to be realized. All this will take place on the week end of Aug. 20 and 21.

Henry Heckler is chairman of the big event and for weeks he and his faithful cohorts have been selling tickets in the park.

The next project in the offing is the making of the many booths. Frank Olcksy is chairman and every man who can wield a hammer in the Parish will be on hand to help construct the booths. Frank promises them to be done on Wednesday evening before so that all the decorating committees can get busy.

Don't think the women are going to be left out. They have been working for weeks making fancy work for that big booth with Ruth Heilig in charge. Then, there will he plenty of baking and cooking that week with the booth in charge of Margaret Campbell and Mrs. Hugh Mayne. Polly Haggard will preside over the Doll Booth. Cornelia Barber will be in charge of the coffee, cake and ice cream booth. There will be a religious booth presided over by Mrs. Tom Cox.

If you have a sweet tooth there will be Mary Margaret Orlowski and Edith Olach who will have candy to sell. Of course there will be many tickets sold and Ray Seymour and Arthur Stack will have their hands full. No bazaar would be complete without a fish pond, and that is Norman Gallagher's special kettle of fish. Bingo and a street dance will also be other features.

The ox roast will be one of the big events with Joe Foster in charge. He will have some seven or eight willing workers. Junior Supernaw will see to the butchering of the ox. Zack Whyte will be in charge of the turning of the ox in its cooking stage. George Haggard will be one of the earvers. Right this way ladies, for a big, juicy sandwich.

It is hoped the City Band will give a concert for the festival and that the Queen and her Court will be on hand to open the week end festivities. Understand some good looking girls may act as hostesses for the street dance. Everyone will be agog about the car. Supposing it rains. No! Quick a prayer to St. Theresa.

Summer Clinic for Kindergarten Will Be Friday

The annual aummer round-up for children who are to enter kindergarten this fall will be held in the classroom of the grade building here Friday at 9 a. m.

Dr. A. F. Litzenberger and Mrs. Dean Davenport will conduct the clinic.

A physical check-up and immunization will be given all children of kindergarten age if the parents wish to bring them in at this time.

Dr. Litzenberger, district health director, emphasizes that it is important all children have a physical examination before entering kindergarten, either by their own doctor or at the clinic.

Businesses Have Formal Opening, First Birthday

A formal opening and a first birthday are being held this week by two Charlevoix businesses.

The anniversary is that of the Edwards Food Mart, which last summer opened the new supermarket on Petoskey avenue.

The formal opening is at the Kit Carson Lumber Co. It actually marks two events — the completion of the enlarged building and the enlarging of the appliance section of the business.

Buildings at County Fair Will Be Improved Now

The Fair buildings at the Charlevoix County Fair grounds in East Jordan will be given a face lifting, according to Ed Rebman, County Agricultural Agent.

He stated that at the last meeting of the Board of Supervisors, they appropriated $2000 to improve these buildings. Among the improvements being carried on are new seats where needed in the grand stand, a paint job on the grand stand and exhibits building, fire proof walls placed in booths under grand stand, and a new arrangement for better exhibits space and those who bring in exhibits.

The race track also is being improved to take care of the racing program this fall. The state of Michigan, through a tax on betting on races, has doubled the purses. This should bring out an excellent group of horses.

Campbell & Supernaw Install New Front

The new front on the Campbell & Supernaw building on South Bridge street will be finished this week.

The old brick of both the corner grocery and of Cunningham'a Radio Shop was relaid where necessary, completely plastered and then painted white. The north window was reset, and the woodwork painted maroon and cream.

Carlton Ikens did the brick work and plastering. The Careys did the painting and A. C. Mort the carpentry.

East Jordan Praises City Band's Concert

"Music hath charms" was truly exemplified Monday night at East Jordan when the Charlevoix Marine Band, on a Goodwill Tour, gave a concert in front of the ffl-Speed Station.

The concert was sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and following the evening's performance the band was given a feed at Duck Inn.

There was a big crowd of enthusiastic listeners and the Band was really given an ovation they will remember for some time.

Chicago Club Show Nets Hospital $51

Fifty one dollars were collected for the Charlevoix Hospital Fund at the showing of the Maryland homes pictures Aug. 3 at the Chicago Club.

Showing the pictures and describing the scenes were Mrs. H. Rowlond Clapp and Mrs. Blanchard Randall nf Baltimore.

New Building to Be Erected at County Park

Bids will be opened by the County Park Board this Saturday on the building of a new community building at the Whiting Park this side of Boyne City.

Specifications call for a building 30 by 60 feet, one atory high. The walls are to be split vertical logs. There will be a cement floor and fireplace at one end. The entire building will be one large room except for toilets.

The building will he put up by the county for two reasons. The park is becoming so popular that some place under a roof is needed for meetings, parties, picnics and similar gatherings.

Sanitary facilities also are needed there to accommodate the growing crowds and the new building will provide these.

The call for bids said that the building is to be done by Nov. f.

Bay Shore 4-H Club Takes Trip To Beaver Island

The pay-off of a lot of work and saving last winter came last Wednesday when the Bay Shore 4-H Club members went to Beaver fsland on the Mary Margaret.

During the winter and spring they worked and saved a club fund to pay for the day's outfng.

Those on the trip were Marilyn and Jacqulyn Johnson, Barbara Raby, Carol and Peggy Brown, Barbara Deschermeier, Darrel and Dwight Lawson, Robert Myers, Edward Deschermeler, Jimmy Raby and Robert Kalmback.

Two leaders who went with them were Mrs. Ann Smith and Mrs. Ruth Hair. Accompanying them were Mrs. Florence Lawson and son, Duane.

Despite some upset stomachs on the way over, the consumption of ice cream and pop on the Island was heavy.

Caravan Players To Present Comedy Tonight At School

"The Silver Chord," a comedy by Sidney Howard, will be given at the high school auditorium tonight by the Michigan Caravan Players.

Their appearance here is sponsored by the Charlevoix Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The east is composed of college and university students who combine in the summer tn give a program of repertory plays in Northern Michigan. With headquarters at Benzonia, the group has played at half a dozen other communities already this season.

Tuesday night, before a small audience, the Caravan Players gave "Outward Bound."

Work of tearing up the old blacktop on Bridge street south of the bridge was completed Tuesday. The new concrete pavement will be like that across the channel.

A-G Store Installs New Vegetable Box

A new walk-in cooler for vegetables and fruit is being installed this week by Dutcher & Johnson.

Made of thick, insulated panels, it is in the basement where it will be handy for unloading from trucks. In size, it is 8 by 10 feet, and is equipped with its individual refrigerating unit.

Road Commission Buys New Tanks, Will Use Brine to Lay Dust on County Roads

County roads in Charlevoix county will be less dusty from now on.

Monday the Road Commissioners approved the purchase of two new 2,000 gallon tank trailer units to be used for hauling brine here from Manistee. The brine acts like calcium chloride as a dust layer and road stabilizer, is much cheaper and less harmful to car finishes.

The brine is sprayed on the road from the tanks where it combines with the gravel. It holds the surface that summer, and to some extent the following year also; although annual treatments are needed.

Some of the brine was used last year, being hauled here in trucks from Manistee but the county found this costly. Sometimes the trucks would arrive on a rainy day and it was a case of applying the brine then and losing part of its effect. By owning the tanks, the county can use its own trucks for hauling, apply the brine when it will do the most good.

During the war the county road system deteriorated. Money and materials were spent more on the township roads. Now the board is turning its attention to the county system. Purchase of the trucks is one of the first steps in this program.

The two units, which already have been put into use cost $3500. The first road treated was the Boyne Falls east;

Also purchased by the Commission is a new cable controlled scraper or earth mover to be used in grading operations and especially in opening cuts which now are problems in the winter from deep drifts.

The two miles of the Marion Center road will be finished this week. The last of the gravel is now being hauled. The old black top south of Charlevoix on the road tn Ellsworth had gone to pieces badly. It also was a badly drifted stretch every winter.

The new road followa the same grade, but it has been filled in to end both the drainage and the snow conditions.

Bids on drainage and grading work on the 2.2 miles of road between Ellsworth and East Jordan are to be opened Thursday.

Memorial Planned for Dr. McMillan

Planned as a tribute to the man whom they had found to be a real friend, a memorial service to Dr. F. F. McMillan is being planned for Sunday by the Negro group of Charlevoix.

It will be at 8:30 at the Methodist church. The program, under the direction of Horatio Jackson of Cincinnati, will last about an hour. It will consist of hymns, spirituals, solos, with a brief tribute to Dr. McMillan. The new Negro Spiritual Singers will take part.

Speaking for the entire group, Jackson said: "Almost all of us are here just in the summer. But we all came to know Dr. McMillan as our friend. He could he depended on to come when we needed him most. fle always was kind."

The group plans to present some kind of a permanent memorial to the church, possible a silver baptismal bowl.

But Who'll Pay For It?

A group at Harbor Springs has revived the old proposition of a Northern Michigan Tourist Council. The standard arguments are used for it: the area is a natural unit, whereas the East and West Michigan associations include everything from South Haven's peach orchards to Wilderness Park; that the associations are dominated by the southern ends while the north provides the color and attractions.

It is true that Northern Michigan is a unit as far as scenery, climate and attractions are concerned. It also is true that the West Michigan group may not be doing as good a job of promotion as it might in all particulars.

But along with all these facts, others should be borne in mind. The Harbor Springs idea is nothing new. Webb McCall, a director of the Michigan Tourist Council, says he has lost count of how many times the same thing has been proposed before. Always it has fallen down, and chiefly on one count.

Who is going to pay the bill?

At a low estimate, a Northern Michigan Council would need an annual budget of $50,000 to $60,000. This would take care of the minimum requirements A good job would call for at least $75,000.

If Harbor Springs, or any other group, can come forward with a definite, detailed and proved plan for raising this much money in Northern Michigan year after year, good times and bad, I'm for the scheme. It does offer some advantages not possible with our present set-up. But until the finances are lined up, we all will be much better off if we stay by the group now serving us—and insist that it do a better job.

We Need a Sign

Speaking of such things, Roland White of the West Michigan association made a highly worth-while suggestion the last time he was here.

Thousands of persons drive through Charlevoix every summer, he says, and never realize that Lake Michigan is a scant three blocks to the west of them. Landlubbers, they do not get the significance of the channel or bridge or the yachts.

He suggested some sort of a big sign telling folks that we have the lake right handy. The Board of Commerce will welcome any ideas that are legal (a sign across Bridge street is not) and within our financial reach.

A B A Adds New Members

The Boyne City Artificial Breeders Association added two new members this past month. These two members are W. H. Cole and Harry Bearringer both of Boyne City. Mr. Cole signed up 5 cows and Mr. Bearringer signed up 0 cows. This brings a total of membership in this association to 74 farmers.

A total of 106 services were made by Curtis Nicloy during July. Of this 106, 49 were first services, 37 were seconds, 14 were thirds and 0 were fourth services.

There will be a vacation at the bull stud at East Lansing from Aug. 27 until Sept. 7. For these 11 days there will be no services available from the Boyne City Association. The purpose of this vacation is to give both the help and the bulls a much needed rest. Farmers should plan their breeding program to take into consideration this rest period.

Milking Shorthorn Cows Produces 57.9 Lbs. of Fat

Lavern McGhan of Charlevoix owned the milking shorthorn cow that produced the highest record in the Charlevoix-Antrim Dairy Herd Improvement Association. This cow produced 57.9 lbs. of butterfat during July. J. Williams owned the Holstein that was second with 56.8 lbs. of fat.

J. Williams owned the herd that produced the highest record in the association. His herd averaged 45.1 lbs. of fat per cow. The next highest herd was that of Versal Crawford, whose herd produced on an average of 36.8 lbs. of fat.

A total of 21 herds were tested during the month by Lee Cook. These 21 herds contained a total of 265 cows. The average production for the entire association was 707 lbs. of milk and 30.1 lbs. of butter fat for the month. Eleven cows produced more than 50 lbs. of butter fat during the month.. The feed cost per pound of butter fat was 40 cents.

Northern Michigan Beaf Tour

Northern Michigan's beef cattle industry will be on exhibit from Aug. 17 to 20 when the annual tour is held. This tour will emphasize the utilization of rouhages which are efficiently grown in this area.

Bill Finley, who represents the Extension animal husbandry department of Michigan State College is planning the tour, says it will start in Ogemaw County on Aug. 17, and continue through Iosco, Alcona, Alpena, Presque Isle and Cheboygan counties, ending Friday afternoon, Aug. 20, with a visit to the Cheboygan County Fair. Cattle sorting, cattle grading, handling with horses, proper pasture management, housing, legume seed production and spraying for parasite control all are on the schedule.

The tour is a cooperative project of the two northern Michigan feeder calf producer associations, the Michigan Hereford Cattle Breeders' association, county agents in the area, and the college animal husbandry department.

Studies Bring New Theory On Smelling

That the sensation of smell is the result of impulses sent out from the smelling organ, as from a radio transmitter, at extremely high frequencies, has been revealed by investigations under way at Yale University in New Haven, Conn. It was formerly thought that "smell" was the result of chemical reactions set up within the organ.

This revolutionary discovery puts smell into the realm of radiation physics. The theory has been developed through highly scientific researches made with the common cockroach and the bee. The high-frequency impulses emanating like one-way radar waves from the nose organ fall within a definite range. Substances falling outside this range — such as, presumably, carbon monoxide—cannot be smelled by human beings.

The new concept of smelling is based on the idea that heat moves toward a source of coolness. The nose organ is "hot"; the odorous gas is "cool." As the sense organ loses heat the gas gains it. When a balance is reached we become insensitive to the odor.

Further research is expected to establish a smell spectrum in which the 4000 to 6000 odors detected by the human nose can be plotted. Thus the guesswork can be removed from smelling.

Long Trips, Competition, Plans for Rodeo On Aug. 21 Fill Camp Charlevoix Calendar

As is the custom each year, the first 30 boys enrolled get a trip to Mackinac Island for the day, and Monday morning early, the Chief, Jun Land, John Ellsworth and Ben St. Laurent took these boys up to the island for the day. The boys were Hayward Allen, Jim and Dale Arn, Ed Cote, Jim Dreyer, David Harding, Bill Heufelder, Bart Hickox, Bob and Tom James, Harry Jeffrey, Larry Lathers, Eric Ludvigsen, Reed Madden, Bud Marshall, Warren May, Hud Morris, Alan Mendelssohn, Bill Putt, Woody Ransom, Chuck Schank, Don Sigismond, Walter Simmons, Duffer Smith, Frank Smith, John Sternberger, Steve and Tony Truog, John and Alan Wood.

Webb Wilson and Lee Stewart took their two cabins on a horse trip and Jack Hawley, thecowboy, was along to supervise both boys and horses. These boya were Bob Baryon, Phil Pardoe, Bill Fors, Alex Cross, Bob Beltz, Tom Kearney, David Whittingham, Al Mendelssohn, John Horton, Bill Hardie, Milo Vega, Max Crook, Phil Giberson, and Henry Sullivan. Fred Kassner took his cabin of Juniors on a hike to Strawberry Cove and they stayed overnight, too. These boys were Sterling Ragsdale, Lev Flournoy, Andre Lobel, Jim Bissel, Stan Bremen, Roger Keeney, and Erle Ludvigsen.

The waterfront has been the scene of much activity this week. 40 non-swimmers at the start of the season, and only elght non swimmers are left. The mile swim is to be the event next Sunday afternoon with an expected entry of 90 boya.

Tuesday the two softball teams, the two swimming teams and the archery team went over to Camp Sancta Maria and had an afternoon of competition. Dick Degener, who swam anchor on the International relay team, started with a ten yard deficit, and ended with a ten yard margin in a fifty yard stretch. Other boys who helped Charlevoix gain its laurels were Don Sigismond, Dale Arn, Roger Faust, Bill Craig, Bob Laugherty, David Harding, John Wood, Alan Mendelssohn, Mike Brenner, Larry Reisinger, Hud Morris, Neil Kalish, Dan Shields, Ken Barolo, Tom Carpenter, Joaquin Reis, Lev Flournoy and Rod Chapman.

Wednesday the first of the three day trips left camp with Fred Kasler and George Campbell taking their boys up to Wilderness State Park. These boys were Bill Phelps, Jim Dreyer, Bob Drulard, Bill Nicklin, Tom Taylor, Rogers Brenner, Tim Barnes, Reed Madden, Dick Barton, Dick Degener, Jerry Craig, Larry Lathers, and Tom Carpenter. Phil Steding took his cabin of the oldest boys in camp to Lake 26 on a fishing trip. These boys were Joaquin Reis, Bill Craig, David Harding, Frank Smith, Jim Jackson, Ken Baralo and Hud Morris.

Friday found five cabins leaving camp for overnights, two hiking down to Youngs State Park, three Junior cabins going to the same place by truck.

Saturday night was dramatic night and a shadow play started off the evening. The final play was "If Campers were Counseliors".

At the Chapel service on Sunday morning, the entire camp took to the chapel in the woods. The speaker was Prof. Bettan of the Jewish Seminary in Cincinnati.

This is the week of long trips, with a canoe trip, a horse trip and a sail boat trip planned.

Boys and horses are busy practicing for the rodeo which will be held Aug. 21. This is the big event of the year, with many parents and guests being present.

More Taxes—Or Less Service Is Question Citizens Must Answer for State Government

If you land a battling rainbow in one of Michigan'a trout streams chances are the Department of Conservation planted him there in the first place.

If you lose your car registration certificate, a letter to the Secretary of State's office will quickly bring you a duplicate.

If you want some seed corn tested, the seed laboratory of the Michigan Department of Agriculture will do the job for a small fee.

More than 100 different departments of Michigan government, offer many thousands of plain and fancy services to the people of the state.

Probably not a day goes by in which the average Michigan citizen does not directly use, or benefit from, one or more of these services. He pays for them, too, though most taxpayers have only a hazy notion of what the state is doing for its people, or whether they are getting their money's worth.

These state services cost money—lots of money. They are the chief reason why Michigan, in the current fiscal year, will for the first time in its history spend over half a billion dollars.

Even with state revenue at an all-time high, Michigan this vear faces the prospect of deficit financing, to the tune of about $14 million. And that posses a problem to the government and the people: "Which shall it be—more taxes, or less service?"

On July 1, 1948, the state had 22,733 employes on its rolls, 20,690 of them under civil service. The 1948-1949 program provides for a further increase of 2,122, at a cost of $6 million a year. Michigan's payroll has, in fact, doubled in the past 10 years. The number of state employes increased 4,516 in the five years ending July 1, 1947.

Chief reasons for employment and cost increases are new activities, heavier work load, and improved standards of services or control. Reduction of the work week and filling of vacancies have also been contributing factors.

Every major division of Michigan state government has shown a substantial increase in personnel except the Highway Department, according to Civil Service figures. That department showed a reduction of 769 employes—but increasing activity is expected soon to change that trend.

"Changing public attitudes toward the relationship between the state and the individual," a Civil Service Commission report, "led to the adoption of social legislation during the thirties. This legislation was designed to meet the needs of large segments of the population during periods of economic adversity, unemployment, old age and illness.

"Expansion of services and employment in these fields today are thus little more than current adaptations to measures which became law many years ago."

Compared with seven other states with populations over 4½ million, Michigan has done a fine job of keeping payrolls down, according to Civil Service figures. The report show that of the seven, only Texas added fewer employes, and only Texas and New York had lower per cent increases in the 5-year period.

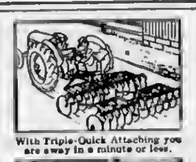
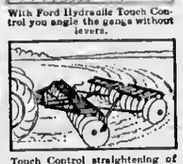
Here is a DISC HARROW that really levels!



With Triple-Quick Attaching you are away in a minute or less.

With Ford Hydraulic Touch Control you angle the gangs without levers.



Touch Control straightening of gangs on turns prevents mounding dirt, saves fuel.

By the same easy straightening of gangs, grassed areas are protected.

• You know how many tandem discs dig in on the outside and ridge up ground in the middle? The improved design of this disc prevents this trouble. Try this disc, and you'll find it leaves the ground flat and level and well pulverized.

Dearborn FARM EQUIPMENT

Best of all, with Ford Hydraulic Touch Control, you angle the gangs or straighten them . . . with finger tip ease . . . for turning, crossing grass or gullies. Saves wear on the disc, tractor fuel and time. Study the pictures, then see us.

Charlevoix County Can Become Ski Center of Mid-West, Manager of Resort Tells Club

Charlevoix county can become the skiing center of the Middle West, the Kiwanis Club was told Monday night at the regular Monday meeting.

The speaker was J. N. Christianson, manager of the new Boyne Mountain Lodge and one of the three founders of the new ski resort being developed at Boyne Falls. With him was Victor Gottschalk, director of the ski school there who was an instructor at Sun Valley from the time it opened.

With seven million skiers in the United States, Michigan has the greatest possibilities for future development of any state. It sells more hunting and fishing licenses than any other state, Christianson pointed out, which showa there is a sports-minded population in and near it.

Recreational skiing in this country dates only from 1932. Between then and Pearl Harbor, 300 ski clubs were formed and the industry grew from nothing to 200 millions annually.

Selection of the Charlevoix County site was no haphazard affair, Christianson said. He and his colleagues checked every good area they heard of. None, exeept some inaccessible ones in the Porcupines, equalled the Boyne Valley hill for drop, slopes, location and future expansion.

The hill has a 500 foot vertical drop. The main drop will give a 2000 foot run. Three trails already are opened up. A clubhouse, 40 by 60 and two stories high, is being built. It will have no sleeping quarters, but will serve as a center for the resort activities.

Next to the hill itself, the most important thing will be the installation of a chair lift. It will be the only one in the country between the East and the Rockies, and will provide a second major attraction to all classes of skiers.

The resort will be opened in December, he said. It will be operated as a public ski area, with lower rates for those who hold membership in the club. No jump is planned, at least at the start, as the vast majority of enthusiasts want to ski, not jump.

Along with the talk, the two men showed colored movies taken at Sun Valley.

Food Buyers Asked To Report Cases of Inferior Quality

Inferior eggs brought Arthur Tyler of Traverse City into Justice Court here Monday.

He was charged with selling inedible and wrongly marked eggs in Charlevoix by Jake Klooster of the state Department of Agriculture. Pleading guilty before Justice Don Swinton, he paid $2.80 costs, had a $25 fine suspended and paid back to the grocer $13.85 he had received for the eggs.

Klooster in commenting on the case made two warnings. Some unethical or fly-by-night outfits downstate seem to feel that they can peddle merchandise that is below standard in the North, particularly in the summer, and get away with it.

He asks that grocers, quantity buyers such as restaurants and hotels, and anyone else buying in large quantities, check all purchases and if they are not up to quality, to report at once to him or any other member of the Agriculture staff. There are stiff penalties provided for violations of the law, and protection for the buyers.

With food prices high, he asks that housewives also check their purchases. Reputable grocers all are on guard against inferior merchandise. But if something should get past their eye, Klooster asks that it be reported back to the grocer or market so that it can be followed up and the error or violation prevented again.

Darwin Mosher is charged with non-support. The divorce actions are: Samuel vs. Florence Arbuckle; Margaret vs. Lester Harwood; Alice vs. Asper Lenn; Lottie vs. Daniel L. Bennett; Evelyn vs. Stephens J. Flees; Charles D. vs. Isabella Gilmore.

The list of jurors drawn for this term are: Leo Weise, Bay; Andrew Matelski, Boyne Valley; Cleo Penfold, Chandler; Blanche Paul, Charlevoix; Russell Cadwell, Evangeline; Donald Feagan, Eveline; Edward Flynn, Hayes; Jerrie Webb, Hudson; James Courier, Marion; Dalton Eastwood, Melrose; Earl Blood, Norwood; Elizabeth McCauley, Pealne; Edward Burke, St. James; Theodore LaCroix, South Arm; Louis Randall, Wilson;

William Looze, Peter Larson, Henry Lee and Raymond Green, Boyne City; Mary Young, Joseph Beacher, Charlevoix; William Taylor, Chris Taylor, Roy Jenkins, East Jordan.

Only two jurors were drawn for Charlevoix City this time.

Railroads Are Safest

Lansing — Railroad operation in 1947, latest year of record, was more than three times as safe as it was 35 years ago and twice as safe as it was 26 years ago, the Michign Railroad Association reports. Numbers of passengers killed in train accidents last year was 34, or one fatality for each 1,350,000,000 miles traveled.

State Audit Shows County Handles $823,668 During Year, Approves Way Books Are Kept

Containing the figures given in the annual reports of the Board of Supervisors, copies of the State's annual financial audit of Charlevoix County have just been received.

Made annually, it covered the calendar year of 1947.

It showed that the county handled $823,008.94 during the year. It does not mention that this is a lot of money for a local unit of government serving a permanent population of 15,000.

The bulk of the money spent was for what the report calls "Trust and Agency Disbursements." In plain language this is money we's paid to the state in indirect or other taxes and get back according to some state formula. Included are such items as $85,048 for county roads, school funds of various kinds, including $248,674 for the primary fund, $58,360 for direct welfare relief.

Cost of operating the county government itself was $08,753.

The county treasurer collected directly $75,187. $45,433 was from fees, licenses, court costs, fines, and refunds. State aid on highways and welfare assistance was $104,287.

The auditors had pats on the back for the way all the county officers kept their records, but did not like the appropriations, Children's Aid Society, Charlevoix Hospital or Holy Childhood School.

Incidentally, the county clerk handed over $17,875.20 in alimony payments during the year.

Lake Is Ninth Wonder

A summer visitor in the office last week said that to a landlubber the great stretches of water to be glimpsed along the highway between Charlevoix and Duluth are a ninth wonder of the world to her. She could scarcely believe there were people on the bus who could look calmly out the window and yawn in teh face of a sunrise over the lake, but such was the case. She thought crossing the Straits of Mackinac City pure adventure. Funny how familiarity breeds contempt even in the face of such beauty! . . . San Francisco may have its flower vendors on the corners (and what a bright spot they made during a foggy day) but Charlevoix can boast of flower girls as well. And it is hard to resist the smile of the little flower girl who comes our way!

Communist Youth Organization Tells Its Moral Program

Have you heard of Komsomol, the only licensed youth organization in the Soviet Union? The organization has just issued a brochure under the title of "The Ten Commandments of Communism." They are: 1. Never forget that the clergy are the bitterest foes of the communist state. 2. Try to win your friends over to communism and remember that Stalin who has given a new constitution to the Russian people is the head of the "God-less" not only in the Soviet Union, but all over the world. 3. Prevail upon your friends to avoid contact with priests. 4. Beware of spies and tell the police about saboteurs. 5. See to it that atheist publications are widely distributed among the people. 8. A good young communist must also be a militant atheist. He must know how to use his weapons and be experienced in the art of war. 7. Wherever you can, fight religious elements and forestall any influence they might bring to bear upon your comrades. 8. A true "God-less" must also be a good policeman. It is the duty of every "God-less" to protect the security of the state. 9. Support the "God-less" movement with money which is needed particularly for our propaganda abroad, under present circumstances, it can only be carried on underground. 10. If you are not a convinced "God-less" you cannot be a good communist and true Soviet citizen. Atheism is insolubly tied in with communism. Both ideals are the foundation of Soviet power . . . Now, after reading these Ten Commandments of Communism, take your Bible and read its Ten Commandments. It's up to you which you choose as regards your God, your home and family, your country. And let's not forget our ballot box and choose the right men!

Lois Walstad Married, To Live in Phoenix

In a quiet ceremony solemnized in the parsonage of the Phoenix Christian Church, Phoenix, Ariz., at 7:30 Friday evening, Miss Lois Fern Walstad of Charlevoix became the bride of Forrest L. Hoover, of Phoenix. Rev. E. J. Downs read the double ring services.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walstad and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Leta Hoover of Phoenix.

The bride selected a white rayon shantung street length dress. She wore a hat of white flowers with a shoulder length veil and gold and white accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of white giamellias and stephanotis.

Mrs. Wayne C. Hoover of Phoenix, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was her only attendant. She wore a pale blue dotted organdy dress and a corsage of white gladioli and blue delphinium.

Mr. Hoover assisted his brother as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of their attendants for relatives and friends.

After a wedding trip to Prescott, Ariz., the couple will make their home at 910-H N. 20th St., Apt. 353.

The bride is a graduate of Charlevoix high school and more recently was with the Michigan Bell Telephone Company. The bridegroom attended Phoenix College and after three years with the Army Medical Corps is now employed by the Phoenix Transportation System.

Chinese Student Addresses Guild

The August Guild meeting of the Congregational church was held at the Norwood home of Mrs. Allan Campbell last Wednesday.

The meeting was a real occassion as Lau Biau-Chin, a Chinese student at Bay View for the summer and an exchange student from Singapore, was the guest of honor and delighted her audience with her talk.

Miss Lau was most informal and told of China, its people and their mode of living. She spoke briefly on the Japanese invasion of their country, its political aspects and of conditions existing for exchange students coming to the U. S.

Miss Lau, who is a music major, spent last year at Adrian College and will be enrolled in the Guilliard School of Music in New York this fall.

Charlevoix Author At Autograph Party

Mrs. Fredrika Shumway Smith of Chicago, who has spent many summers at her cottage at the Chicago Club in Charlevoix, was one of the guests of honor Thursday afternoon at an "autographing party" held at Kilborn's House of Books in Petoskey.

Mrs. Smith has written several books for children, her latest being "Rose and The Ogre" published this spring. She has been working this summer at her cottage on a new book and has the proofs now ready for the publisher.

Another Michigan writer who was also a guest of honor at the autographing party was Mrs. Ruth Russell Davis of Bloomfield Hills who is summering at Ramona Park. She has had a book of poems published "The Questing Self."

Many persons visited the shop during the afternoon, had copies of the writers' books autographed and had the opportunity to meet and talk with these two charming women.

Mrs. Mabel Goddard Georga Elliott Wed

Mrs. Mabel Goddard was married to George S. Elliott Saturday morning at the Robert Bridge home by Rev. Jackson E. Turner.

The couple were unattended. They left Charlevoix that day for a wedding trip in the North.

Mr. Elliott is a commercial artist in Detroit where the couple will make their home.

Farm Bureau Report

Liver Meal is a vital feed ingredient. Liver Meal is included in our M. V. P. Poultry Concentrates because it supplies all the known factors for growth and health plus unknown factors.

The University of Georgia ran tests to prove the value, in dollars and cents, of the high calory Connecticut Broiler Ration. One of the Connecticut rations carries liver meal—the other doesn't. Below is a table showing comparative results Birds carried to Eight Weeks of ago.

	Ave. Wt.	Ave. Feed Per Bird	Ave. Feed Lb. Gain
With Liver Meal	1.96 lb.	5.90 lb.	3.05 lb.
No Liver Meal	1.90 lb.	6.15 lb.	3.24 lb.

	Income Over Feed Cost per 1000 Broilers	Cost per Ton Feed	Cost per Lb. Meat
With Liver Meal	$234.00	$116.40	17.4c
No Liver Meal	$201.00	$114.20	18.4c

All Farm Bureau Poultry Mashes contain the recommended amount of liver meal.

We are separating wheat and vetch—paying highest market prices. Over 14% moisture content not accepted.

IT HAPPENED ON . . . . BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

Visitors Throng to Beaver Island for Big Homecoming

Throngs of visitors were landing on Beaver Island throughout the week end to attend the annual homecoming celebration.

Perfect weather prevailed and with very little wind, the lake smoothed out for those who came by boat.

"The dinner was delicious," said the 500 who were served at the Parish Hall under a canopy of vari-colored crepe paper.

With the price of meat so high and the most of us doing on one meat ball, the big platters of hot roast beef and baked ham was a feast, not only for the tummy, but for the eye.

"The Southern Drifters from Detroit in Western attire furnished the music for dancing.

On August 4, National Coast Guard Day, a holiday was declared aboard the Yamacraw. Open house was held aboard ship from 1 until 4 p. m. while anchored in St. James harbor.

Ruth Bristol, Archie LaFreniere and son, Alvin were dinner guests of Capt. Robert Wilcox on Coast Guard Day aboard the Yamacraw.

Beaver's magnetic pull affects the compass on the Stebbin's See-Bee. The needle invaribly points towards the Beavers after a take-off. Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins were the guests of the Heflins over the August dinner week end.

Joan Spalding arrived Thursday. Enroute to the Island, Joan spent a few days in Pontiac where she was honored with a bridal shower by her sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Spalding.

A year ago the Gat Cole lodge at Nomad was sold to Leo Loew, Holland. The Loews are not strangers to the Island having come here for the past 14 years. Since acquiring the lodge, Loew has put on a new roof, built a new chimney and refurnished the place. Mr. and Mrs. Loew recently spent their vacation at the lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shaskaguay, Holland, were the guests of the Loews during their stay on the Island. With Indian heritage and the courage of a brave, Shashaguay was broken in as guide for the south end of the Island. "I'm not quacking about my name," said Shashaguay, "but in the language of the Ottawas, it means duck."

Mr. and Mrs. Seymore Wilson and daughters, Rita and Lorna Jean, Grand Rapids, are spending their vacation in the Allen's cabin.

The James H. Gallagher home is once more abounding in children's laughter and noise. Sever. grand children plus their Papas and Mamas are visiting Kittie and James. Father Victor Gallagher is also a guest of his parents.

Up in front of Paul Heflin'a home, Paul and young Pat LuFreniere were wading around gathering stones. Suddenly Paul felt a prick then a bite on his unprotected limbs beneath the water. Behold! a hungry bass was attacking. Paul signaled to Patrick and with one lunge, the lad had the bass in his hands. In this predicament, the bass gave up and very agreeably reclined in the frying pan.

To those who could not return to the Island for the August Dinner we missed you. A large number of Beaver Islanders returned and many friends came over for the day. A partial list of visitors follows.

From Chicago: Mrs. Rose Benjamin and son, Bill, Cass Greene, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Elgin, Mrs. Frank Skopp, Owen Boyle, Mrs. Bob Maxwell and daughter, Bonnie, Ray Carnes, Jr., Frances Malloy, Morris Boyle, Darnell Greene, Allen Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Drecker, Mrs. Camila Scholastico.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles McCann and children, Mrs. Steve Dubell, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Pisehner and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Supernaw and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Henley, Mr. and Mrs. Chick Gallagher, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gallagher, Mrs. Ethel Drigget, Charlevoix.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wilson have as their guests, Mrs. Hansz and two sons, Mrs. Howard Hess and three daughters all of Detroit.

Above are several views of the present Michigan State Ferry fleet of four boats—the City of Petoskey, City of Munising, City of Cheboygan and the Straits of Mackinac—operating between St. Ignace and Mackinaw City. At the left is the "Ariel" which inaugurated the ferry service 25 years ago. The silver anniversary of this link between Michigan's two peninsulas will be observed August 13-15 at St. Ignace with a complete program of events. On Sunday, August 15, there will be ceremonies opening the new scenic section of US-2 at the Cut Rivar west of St. Ignace, Governor Kim Sigler, Highway Commissionar Charles M. Ziegler and Congressman John Bennett, of Ontonagon, will speak. "Miss Straits of Mackinac" will cut the ribbon to officially open the naw highway and bridge to traffic.

Wild cabbage is the original of the species of which headad cabbage, broccoli, brussels sprouts, cauliflower and kale are cultural varieties.

The Ancient Peach

The peach has long been cultivated in China, where written records were found about the peach some 2,000 years before its introduction to the Roman world.

Open House Honors Three Birthdays

Open House Saturday evening at the Johnny Andy Gallagher home on Beaver Island honored the birthday of Mrs. Dan Boyle, Dominic Gallagher and Owen Gallagher, whose birthdays all occurred during the week.

All three, brothers and sister, were born on the Island. Mrs. Boyle, affectionately known as Aunt Maggie and the oldest lady on the Beavers, is 83.

Dominic, who has always lived on the Island and was lighthouse keeper before his retirement, is 81. Owen, who left about 40 years ago, is a mere 76.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gallagher, son and daughter-in-law of Dominic, were hosts at the open house. About 100 guests called during the evening.

Courier for the week end. The two girls were school friends together and it wes an especially happy time for them. Sunday there was e beach party . . . Another beach party was held Sunday evening on Lake Michigon when the Ralph McRaes entertained Mr. and Mrs. Earl Moffatt of Chicago and Mrs. Stanley Frook and children of Chicago. The Moffetts heve been making a tour eround the Stete and stopped Sunday to see their old friends.

Mr. Moffatt, who has been with the Brach Cendy Co. for the past 22 years, has been taking his annual vacation and the couple have been making a tour of the state and atopped Sunday to see their friends. Mrs. Frook and children have been summering et Douglas Lake, but have spent the past week with Mrs. McRae at their attractive cottage on Lake Michigan . . .

This has been a summer of work for Mrs. Floyd fkens. Handicapped with a broken erm, they have really had a full house at the county jail. She and her daughters have had 30 guests during the summer weeks . . . A house guest of Mrs. Ruth Miller last week was Mrs. Leslie Joynt of St. Louis, Mo. . . .

"ft's e daisy", a tourist said as he looked at the post cards that were arranged in a flower-like formation about the letter box in the Post Office. All the cards lacked a stamp! And someone back home has not got that old line of "heving a wonderful time here in Charlevoix end wish you were here." Well, maybe it'a a daisy but as far as the postage stamp is concerned, the flower is a FORGET-ME-NOT . . .

Whet a beautiful summer home the Arlo Wickershams have, facing Nowland Lake. Still the home is not the popular idea of a summer home. To the Wickershams the place spells WORK for it is a farm that would be the pride of the State's best farmer. One could easily see why Mrs. Wickershain should be a Garden Club member as she stands and looks out the picture window of her breakfast room. Surely the woman has a green thumb when it comes to growing flowers and friend husband can vie with her for honors when it comes to raising crops, and turkeys . . .

The hoys of Cemp Cherlevoix will be guests of honor at the Congregational Church Sunday. On Venetien Night many e person got a lump in his throat es he stood listening to the boys sing.

The Freedom train will be in Grand Rapids next Saturday. Would that we could go . . . It was a bowl of Queen Anne's lace and it stood on the mantel out at Camp Ta-Wa-Ma-Na. But it looked unlike any we had ever seen. A five cent box of colored chalk had produced the beautiful colors. Each color had been pulverized and put in a sack with the flower and shaken, much in the same manner as you sugar doughnuts. Beautiful blue, rose, yellow blooms were in the bowl. No reason why anyone can't have a bouquet with Queen Anne's lace (or wild carrot) growing so profusely . . . Jean Hammand will be going to St. Ignace Friday for the week's festivities es she is one of the Queen's Court. . . . Mrs. Estelle Hines of Grand Rapids was in Charlevoix last week calling on old neighbors . . . Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Martin of Detroit spent last week visiting at the Will Ager home . . .

Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Starkey were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nowlin and daughter, Guy. Mrs. Nowlin still has a warm spot in her heart for Charlevoix,

Almost laughed out loud Monday afternoon when I passed by some of the bench warmers on Bridge Street end I neard one of the old-timers sey, "Those girls in those hospital jackets running around the streets moke me nervious," what an insult to some of those neocn coats that gals just spent nours in purchasing!

Large bouquets of beautiful gladion have found their way to many homes in Charlevoix, compliments of Mrs. Harrison Trimble who has really had some reat olooms . . . Martha Craig was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Ella Fochtman and Mrs. Blanche Wood at the Fochtman home recently. Miss Craig was given many gifts. . . . Mrs. Charles G. King of the Chicago Club was hostess to a group of her friends at the Club Thursday afternoon with five tables at play at bridge and Oklahoma. Prizes were awarded each table.

Congregetors Hove Summer Picnic

Thirty-five Congregators gathered around the picnic table at the Michigan Beach Park Sunday evening at 5 o'clock. Visiting, softball and beach hikes and the supper made up the evening's fun.

Sure, The Irish Did A Fine Job of Lambasting Sunday

Proving once more that it was a great day for the Irish and that Sassenachs cannot stand up to the good men of Erin, the Beaver Braves Sunday handed a 9 to 6 shilleleghing to a softball nine from Charlevoix.

In fact, the shamrocked Braves faced a team picked from both the Knight Owls and the JCC nines. With Jack, O'Donnell pitching for the Islanders, the Braves pounded out so many hits that the Charlevoix crew used both Chick Gallagher and Junior Supernaw on the mound.

Of course, the mainlanders point out, they had had a tough voyage across the lake, and they had had trouble going directly from the pier to the diamond. Some of them even seemed to suspect that the open hospitality they found at St. James might have had a sinister purpose behind it.

But, as the Islanders say, homecoming comes only once a year and certainly the Irish are entitled to do a little friendly lambasting on their day.

While we're about it, why not change the States name to "Michikim"—It has a good Indian sound and would be quite indicative.—Lake County Star, Baldwin.

State Fair Prizes Are Up 10 Percent

Premium books listing $110,000.00 in agricultural and livestock prizes for the 99th Michigan State Fair and Exposition to be held in Detroit Sept. 3 through 12, are being mailed this week.

This sum amounts to 10 percent more than last year's prizes. Increases throughout all departments have been made with one of the largest increases being in prizes for the Junior Livestock Show which amounts to $10,000, fifty percent more than in 1947.

A potato show will occupy a large area in the Agriculture Building this year, according to H. R. Pettigrove, of Michigan State College, who will direct this show and also that of small grains.

Registered Nurses Hear Sanitarian

The Northern Michigan Registered Nurses Association met at the Charlevoix City Hall Thursday evening. The 36 members present heard a talk by Robert Coleman, sanitarian, who also showed pictures of the garbage disposal system here and in other towns and told what could be done about the situation.

Several committees were appointed. Mrs. L. E. Grate was named on the publicity committee for Charlevoix.

The next meeting will be at the Little Traverse Hospital Nurses Hall on Sept. 2.

Metropolitan areas favor daylight saving time. It gives city folks an extra hour in the evening to spend their wages.—Sanilac Jeffersonian, Croswell.

Lighthouse Crew Rescues Anglers On Lake Michigan

Seven Petoskey anglers ten days ago had to be rescued by the Coast Guard after tackling a Lake Michigan storm in a small boat.

They started out July 31 for Hog Island after bass. On reaching Cecil Bay, they found their small boats too tiny for the weather. So they obtained and set out in a 34 foot boat. At Hog Island they caught their limit in an hour.

The weather was getting rough, Beaver Island was the safest course, but they insisted on heading for home. Off Gray's Reef Light the engine quit cold. Finally they ran up a distress signal and Peter Gallagher, stationed at at the Light, came out in a lighthouse boat and hauled them to Cecil Bay.

The seven were Harry Dunn, Roscoe Pitman, Cleo Harris, Pat McConnell, Win Hinds, John Ulberg, William King and Bruce Horniman.

Council Sticks to Ban on Shops In House Areas

Pies by the pie, and pies by the piece were figuratively tossed at the heads of Charlevoix's City Council Monday night in a hearing on the han against retail business in residential areas.

Pleader against the order was Attorney Floyd Supp, consistent opponent of the present zoning ordinanee, who represented Thomas Olsen of 203 Nettleton.

Oral Permit Given

Mr. Olsen last spring asked for a permit to enlarge the kitchen. Testimony was slightly cloudy as to just what happened. City Supt. A. G. Leitch, saying he understood that only another eating place was intended, told him to go ahead. Mr. Olsen, inferring this oral okay was sufficient, installed a small commercial bakery and started retailing.

Two weeks ago, the Council ordered all such retail shops operoting in residential oreas to elose. Mr. Olsen retained Attorney Supp and the verbal fireworks Monday resulted.

Law Not Read

At no time during the proceedings was the actual provision of the ordinanee read. Instead, boat building on Alice street, renting of horses on the North Side, practicing of law and retailing of meals on Michigan avenue oll were cited as equally illegal proctices along with selling a whole pie.

"If we're going to enforce this law, let's cnforee it all along the line," Mr. Supp told the Council.

Asks Protection

George Haggard, supervisor from the First Ward, spoke for the citizens of that section. He mentioned the faet the First Ward pays half of the city's taxes and more thon either Boyne City or East Jordon. On this basis, he said, property owners there are entitled to some protection from the steady encroachment of business. He asked the Council to enforce the zoning provisions.

C. E. Bellinger, also of the First, reminded Mr. Supp in one of the mildly heated passages, that the Council was composed of six men elected to represent the interest of the whole communiy while he was arguing for the financial interest of o lone individual who had done something expressly prohibited.

New Water Main

Finally everyone cooled down and the Council decided in view of the oral misunderstanding that Mr. Olsen could finish out this season but the order otherwise stood.

The Council approved bills for $29,274.27. Of this $12,150 was repayment of a note, $7110 on the new engine, $5000 for current bills and the rest for payroll.

The property owners on Carpenter avenue asked the Council to extend the water main west of State street. About 900 feet of six inch' pipe would be needed. The aldermen told the Superintendent to get the required permit from the State.

One Bright Note

LeRoy Allers received permission to use the Mason street dock for the balance of the season.

Acting Mayor Harry Hooker closed the session on the most cheerful note of the evening. He read a letter from Howard Warp, owner of the yacht Valhalla, who complimented the city on the fine courtesy shown guests, and enclosed a check by way of appreciation.

News of folks, your neighbors and mine . . . but did you know that—

Dorothea Vratanina says she is keeping her fingers and toes crossed since she got o letter from her husband, Lieut. Robert Vratanina, that he expects to be home from Korea for Christmas with her. 'Here's hoping, Dorotheal' . . . Who is the red head? Several persons asked Sunday as they stood eating some of the good homemade pie or hamburgers at the Rod and Gun Club booth in charge of the wives of the members. It was Deeda Supernaw of Madison, Wis., a good friend of Sally Swinton. Deeda was really in there doing her bit, working, rather than sitting in the park.

The rain Monday morning proved that the summar folks can sport gay umbrellas as wall as sun suits and bathing suits on Bridge street . . . "Those colored folks who gave the wonderful concert Sunday night at the Methodist church had the happiest look on their faces," one of the spectators said. "And they sang as though it came way from their toes." ..The Dr. McMillan memorial sarvice will ba a long remembered one.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Crofford and daughter, Jane, Mr. ond Mrs. Ray Stuart and granddaughter, Janet Wolters, all of Burr Oak, were overnight guests recently at lhe Stroud cabins. Mr. Crofford is the superintendent of schools there. Mrs. Ruth Stroud Bietz is a teacher in the Burr Oak school system and is the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. E. Stroud.

Joan and Sharon Crowell of Detroit were guests for a week at the home nf Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Schoals. The girls came from Detroit and were among those who took the night eruise on the Mary Margaret with the Schoals family Sunday night. This was their first cruise on Loke Michigan and the girls were truly thrilled . . . Carolyn Goldman was up bright and early Monday morning, all set to go to Detroit to meet her husband, Jaek, who was coming in from St. Louis. The couple is quite boat-minded these days . . .

The back to school movement has started for the coming fall and two girls in Charlevoix have already quit their jobs. Dona Sternberg has gone to Saginaw where she is going into nurses training . . . Shirley Sauri has left for SanDiego to enter a Business School and aiso get some voice lessons as well. "But I have already saved up money so that I can come back to Charlevoix for Christmas vacation," Shirley said . . .

Sept. 13 will be the day when school starts. It's always hard to break off vacetion, especially when it is in Charlavoix . . . That handsoma Tarzan who performed on water skils along with Susan Ockrant Sunday night was none other than Charlevoix's Bernia Werd. "Ha should be in tha movies," ona woman was heard to say . . .

Pfc. Harrison Elzinga, who has been home on a 30 day furlough due to his father's illness, left Wednesday night for the marine base at Santa Ana. Harrison is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Horry Elzinga of Birchwood Ranch. Mr. Elzinga has recovered sufficiently from the injury to his back so that he is able to return to his home . . . Mr. and Mrs. Clive Courson and daughter, Loyola of Coopersville are spending a week in Charlevoix. Mr. Courson is a former employee of The Courier . . .

Sportsman's Day Draws Big Crowd to See Contests

Helped by perfeet weather, the Rod and Gun Club held a highly successful Sportsman's Carnival last week end.

Hard work by the club members over a period of weeks accounted for the success.

High spot of the week end was the drawing Sunday at 9 p. m. Henry Dougherty of East Jordan was awarded the maroon Oldsmohile. The electric range went to Walter Rudzewski of Petoskey, John Martin of Charlevoix won the combination radio, while Louis W. Suppe of Eastport received the casting outfit.

Boy Gets Shotgun

A boy's hopes were realized when the automatic shotgun went to Gerald W. Richardson of Charlevoix. That afternoon he had told Club President Bonnie Nickerson that the prize he wauted above all else was the Remington.

Jay Harbaugh, president of the Emmet County sportman's club, officiated at the drawing ond awarded prizes to the contest winners.

These were for easting: bait, Brnce Sheckler, Dick Fochtman and Robert Livingston. Dry fly, Keith Nickerson, Warren Shapton of Traverse City, Kit Corson. Wet fly, Robert Livingston, Keith Niekerson, Bruce Sheckler.

Safety Guards Not Available Now for Roads

More safety for school buses on their country routes was discussed by the Ironton Form Bureau at the August meeting last Wednesday.

Held at the Leonard Bobel home, it was ottended by 13 members.

Albert Carlson reported that a number of the rural school bus routes present hazards because of lack of guard rails on fills. When the matter was put to members of the Road Commission, the latter pointed out thot county road funds do not permit such construction at this time.

The naming of roads and farms in the area was favnred os a project for the Associated Women. On the other hand, the group definitely opposed the proposal that the state Constitution be revised. Mrs. Homer Noason led the discussion on the women's project; Albert Carlson on the constitutional revision.

The next meeting will be ot the Oakley Saunders home Sept. 8.

• Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hayes and daughter, Marilyn, have arrived from Owosso to make an extended visit with Mrs. Hayes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Gibson.

Charlevoix Steelhead So Tame They Can Be Caught by Hand

Don Burke, fifeguard at the Farry ave. beech, got the surprise of his fife Saturday and incidentally one of the bast fish stories heard in a long time, when ha caught a steelhead barehanded.

A larga fish, flopping in tha weter about 30 feet off shore, attrected the attention of the guerd and the bathers. Burke weded out to see what was wrong. He sew the fish threshing about with what ha thought wes a rope attached, and dived for it. The "rope" cama loosa from the tish and he found he hed a lamprey eel in his hand. The fish cama back, and ha grabbed it by the gills and pulled out a two-foot steelhead which dressed six pounds.

St. Mary's Will Hold Festival Saturday, Sunday

St. Mary's Summer Festival and Bazaar will be held at the school grounds on south Bridgo St., this week end, thus climoxing many weeks of preparation by the 105 families of the parish.

Booths at the affair, which is the largest of its kind ever staged by the local parish, will open at 10:00 a. m., Saturday and ot noon on Sunday. The event will go on rain or shine.

Joe Foster, with the aid of such assistants as Edward H. Boss and James Elzinga of Ellsworth and Zack Whyte of Charlevoix, will have the ox in the barbecue pit on Thursday evening. It will be tended continually until the last slice is ent. Such experienced carvers as George Haggard, Henry Supernaw and Homer Brady will be assisted by Ellard Pfaelzer, well-known summer resident, who has offered his services to the conumittee. Mr. Pfaelzer is a member of the meat packing firm of Pfaelzer Bros., Inc., of Chicago and is a buyer for the company.

Ann Dooley and Theresa Sheek of St. Louis, Mo., assisted by other summer girls, will be charge of the games booth. These girls, who are in Charlevoix for only two short months each year, have supported the parish for many years. Many, who are unable to ossist with the games booth, have sold tickets and plan to give various things to the many booths at the bozaar. Until this year they have always presented the summer festival by themselves.

Other features of the festival will be refreshment booths, a doll booth, fancy work booth, various games booths, religious goods booth, a band concert on Sunday evening and the owarding major prizes which include a 1948 Chevrolet Aero Sedan, an electric refrigerator and stove on Sunday.

Henry C. Heckler is the general chairman. He has asked that all books of tickets be returned to him by Thursday evening.

More Pupils At School Is Reason For Festival

More youngsters to be educated is the reason back of the three day bazaar and summer festival being put on this week end by St. Mary's Parish.

The present parochial school, built back in 1906, simply cannot handle the classes of today. Even in the last two years, the enrollment has jumped almost one third.

For 1948-47, St. Mary's enrolled 59 students. Last year there were 72 and in June an even 80 registered for this fall. When school opens it is expected there may be close to 100 students.

With growth like that, the Parish leaders saw that obviously more facilities had to be provided. There was space enough upstairs. But this meant carpenter work, more seats, other equipment and a fire escape.

And those things meant money. The Bazaar and Festival, with its ox roast and prizes, was planned as the answer.

The school is taught by the Dominican Sisters, and operates solely on funds raised in the Parish.

The changes planned will permit the hiring of another teacher in addition to the two, Sister M. Athanasius and M. Leone, who taught there last year.

VFW Auxiliary To Meet Tuesday

Plans for the VFW booth at the Charlevoix County Fair next month will be made at the social meeting of the Auxiliary next Friday.

It will be held at the home of Mrs. Delia Goss at 8 p. m.

Hostess Gives Shower For Mrs. Laurent

Mrs. Robert Laurent was honored guest at a stork shower given Wednesday evening by Mrs. Florine Krahnke and Mrs. Norman Houek at the latters home. A social hour and refreshments were enjoyed by the guests. Lighted tapers and summer flowers decorated the table which held the many gifts.

Invited guests were Edith Olach, Marjorie Webster, Helen Gaskin, Shirley Coatta, Jeanne Englehart, Ann Wilson, Margaret-Ane Gusler, Mrs. Hubert Olach, Mrs. Charles Powell, Mrs. Robert Miller and Mrs. Gerald Chambers.

Sportsman's Day Draws Big Crowd

scoring was used. In the first bracket, winners were Frank Gruler of Petoskey, 48; M. H. Littlebrant of Hart, 46.

In the second bracket, Warren Shapton and Milford Reed of Harbor Springs tied with 44 for first; Gordon Moeller was third with 43.

Son Beats Dad

The third bracket provided the big surprise of the shoot. Jack Gerrit of Petoskey was first with 38. Eleven year old Jay Gilbert, with a 37, beat his dad, Julius, who shot a 35, for second place.

Helen Cox, open women's champion of Illinois, also shot.

The Carnival started officially Saturday afternoon with a demonstration by the Coast Guard of ship-to-shore life saving equipment. There also was open house at the USCG station, with Officer Joseph Etienne as official host.

That evening in the park the log cutting contest was staged for a prize of $20. Because only one team brought along a saw and axe, the contest had to be run against time.

Boss, Potter Win

Frank Boss, and Harry Potter won, sawing and chopping the hard maple log in three sections in 2:28. Clayton Smith and Junior Boss took 6:10. Joe Genia and Joe Dvoracek, last minute entrants, took 6:35. Afterwards the Little German band played. It is composed of Bob and Bruce Shanahan, Nick Hamilton and Jim Niswander.

Final event was a series of four Conservation Department movies in color shown by Ed Warren of Roscommon.

Gives Water Ski Show

Sunday afternoon besides the casting contest, Ken Claunch of Washington, D. C., and Martin Zeldes were winners in the blind dinghy race. Wilford Brow and James Burns won the two man canoe contest.

In the outboard race, Enos Bacon, Billie Ward and Ralph Shapton finished in that order. Bernie Ward was forced out with motor trouble.

Staging a real water ski show were Susan Ockrant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ockrant, and Bernie Ward. Towed by a boat driven by her father, the two did figure eights, jumped waves and performed on one ski. Miss Ockrant is the national women's runner-up on water skis.

Word from Mrs. Bud Englehart of Muskegon says "Buzzy" who underwent so many operations on his leg, is doing fine. His leg is beginning to grow and his limp is becoming less noticeable.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baker and three children of Grand Rapids were week end visitors at the Gerald Burke home.

Bryce Frank, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Frank, left Wednesday for a short visit in Detroit before entering Veteran's Hospital in Dearborn next month. He is to undergo surgery on his arm.

Bike Is Present On 7th Birthday

Johnny Bingham celebrated his seventh birthday anniversary on Friday, Aug. 13, but it was good luck for the youngster as he is now riding his first two-wheel bike.

Ten little friends gathered at the Pine Point home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bingham to help him celebrate the event. They enjoyed swimming and refreshments which included ice cream and cake.

Why doesn't the bank pay interest on checking accounts?

Payment of interest on checking accounts in any insured bank is prohibited by law or regulation. The reason is that the bank can pay interest on deposits only out of earnings from the investment of those deposits. Inasmuch as checking account funds can be withdrawn on demand, cash reserves must be larger to meet withdrawals, therefore the amount available for investment is smaller and the investment period shorter.

IT HAPPENED ON . . . . BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

This month has proved to be busier than any August in many a year. Usually the season tapers off about this time of the summer, but the Island is full with visitors and tourists.

"There's no use talking," said an ardent Beaver Braves fan. "Buddy McDonough is big league timber." Buddy, over six feet tall, has a reach that any big league scout would drool over. He seems to cover the field and how!

Father Thomas Lyons and Arlie Ullrich, Indianapolis, Ind., spent four days vacationing on the Island. Tuesday, Father Lyons met with the Catholic Action group. He told of his experience in street preaching in the rural districts of Indiana.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Huston Aug. 9. The baby has been named Kenneth Arthur. Mrs. Huston was the former Barbara Nackerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Elston Pischner are the proud parents of a baby girl, born Aug. 10. The young lady has been named Helen Alice.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ricksgers, who were recently married in Cleveland, spent their honeymoon on the Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Danney Clark, South Bend, flew in Thursday for an overnight stay on the Island.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Goeller, Mishawaka, were recent guests at the King Strang Hotel.

Due to sufficient rainfall raspberries have been plentiful and delicious.

This reporter wishes to challenge any farmer in Charlevoix County to produce cabbage that surpasses Willie Ricksgers'. Willie's cabbage is not only jumbo in size but tasty.

On the Island in the interest of the House of David are John B. Linderfield, Clarence E. Maxwell and Leon Landl, all of St. Joseph. Object—to peddle High Island.

Michael Culhouse, South Bend, is a guest at the O'Brien home.

The Dominican Nuns returned to the Island during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Carlisle have returned to spend a month in their new home. Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle brought along part of their family for a vacation. Mrs. Jerry Lockwood and daughter, Sharon and Mr. and Mrs. John Carson. Mrs. Lockwood and Mrs. Carson are the Carlisle daughters.

Wind, Lake Stops Plans for Hauling Lumber In Raft

Tony Wojan of Beaver Island tried an old method of hauling lumber across the lake last week by rafting it.

The afternoon of Aug. 9 the Cull's fish tug, LaFond left the harbor towing 120,000 feet of lumber, $15,000 worth in a 100 foot raft. All went well for 18 miles when the wind started whipping up the lake.

The North Shore came along and tied up to the raft also, but the wind and waves proved too strong. Soon more than half the load was washed overside.

The wind continued steady and by Tuesday morning fully three quarters of the lumber was back on Beaver Island, strung along the shore from Little Sand Bay to Coast Guard Point. The raft was picked up at the bell buoy. A busy crew has been working all week picking up the lumber.

The Rambler, which was repaired by Charles Martin during the week, has been engaged to haul the recovered lumber to the mainland.

Joan Spalding Is Entertained At Shower

Miss Joanne Spalding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spalding, and bride-elect of Lawrence Malloy, Jr., was entertained Wednesday evening with a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. James Elms and Mrs. Lawrence McDonough in the latter's home.

Among those present were the Mesdames Lester Connaghan, Norman Gallagher, Walter Wojan, Ted Wojan, Roberta Danks, George Miller, John Montgomery, Archie LaFreniere and David Pike and the Misses Marilyn Van Erkle, Dorothy McCann, Charlotte McDonough, Margaret and Katherine Ricksgers, Loyola and Mary Malloy, Marjorie and Dorothy Gatliff and Joy McDonough.

Refreshments were served and games were enjoyed by all. Prizes went to Miss Dorothy McCann and Miss Marjorie Gatlif. Miss Spalding received many gifts.

Spalding-Malloy Nuptials Are Celebrated

Joanne Elizabeth Spalding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spalding, and Lawrence J. Malloy, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Malloy, were married Saturday morning with a Nuptial Mass at Holy Cross church, Father Fabian Keenan officiating.

The bride entered with her father, who gave her in marriage. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Robert Malloy.

The bride was attired in white silk jersey, full gathered skirt ending in a cathedral train. Her full length veil was held in place with a Juliet cap. The bride carried a white satin prayer book festooned with a pale lavendar orchid and cascade of lillies of the valley.

Mary Malloy, sister of the groom, served as maid of honor. She was gowned in turquoise moire and carried a nosegay of roses.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Arthur Ryan, sister of the groom, Mrs. William Spalding, sister-in-law of the bride, Dorothy Lee McCann, Madonna McDonough entered in pairs. Their gowns were identical in design with the maid of honor's. They carried nosegays of roses.

Richard Ryan, young nephew of the groom was ring bearer. He was dressed as were the ushers in summer tuxedo.

Serving as ushers were Arthur Ryan, William Spalding, Gene Connaghan and James Meany.

Mrs. Spalding wore navy blue crepe, navy blue hat with pink accessories. Her corsage was a white gardinia, surrounded with pale pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Malloy, mother of the groom, wore a dress of burnt sugar crepe with matching hat and accessories and corsage of a white gardenia surounded with yellow rosebuds.

During the Mass, Charles Ziebarth sang Schubert's Ave Maria and Panis Angelicus. Mrs. Harold Foster accompanied Mr. Ziebarth.

After the wedding, breakfast was served at the King Strang Hotel to 65 guests.

A reception was held at the home of the bride in the afternoon. During the reception, Mrs. Harold Foster entertained with piano selections. Mrs. Arthur Miller accompanied by Mrs. Russell Palmer sang "I Love You Truly."

In the evening, a dance was held in the Parish Hall.

Out-of-town guests who came for the wedding were: Mrs. Clara MacLachlan, Mr. and Mrs. John Walton and son, Bob, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Janke and son, Dick, all of Bay City.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mark and daughter, Esther, Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Foster and daughters, Nancy and Sally and son, Duncan, East Lansing; Mr. and Mrs. William L. Spalding, Pontiac; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graham, Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ryan, Chicago; James Meany, Manitowoc, Wis.; Leon Land, Gene Sexover, St. Louis; Roberta Danks, Chicago.

Swim Coach Visits Here

Charles McCaffree, Jr., swimming coach at Michigan State, was a Charlevoix visitor Thursday. He was on his way to St. Ingace to the Straits races on Saturday. Two of his swimmers are in the Olympics at London.

Ohio Couple Are Married Here

Ronald W. "Bud" Becker of Charlevoix and Toledo and Antoinette Burns of Cleveland were married at a quiet ceremony solemnized Aug. 5 by Rev. A. B. Claypoole. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. James B. Jazdagh of Cleveland.

MICHIGAN Believes in Promoting Rural Health

Rural health is a great deal more than a discussion topic to the medical doctors of Michigan—it is a vital program that has their fullest support. This is evidenced in many ways, as will be brought out at the Michigan Rural Health Conference which is to be held at Michigan State College, September 16-17. Being one of the sponsors, Michigan doctors of medicine will utilize this Conference to search out the further avenues in which they can most practically enlarge their health services in Michigan's rural areas. This concern of organized medicine, and many other health organizations, with the health improvement of all the people of the State is one of the reasons why Michigan leads the way in health progress.

MICHIGAN STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY

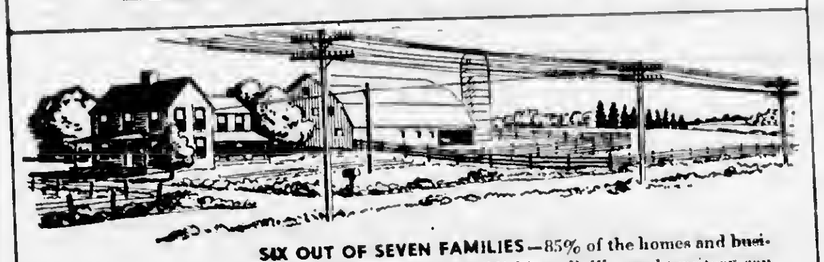
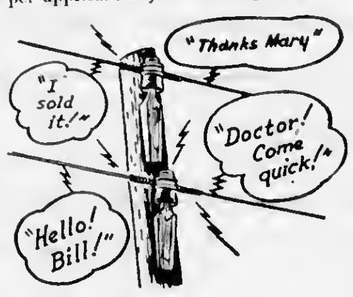
Rural Tele-news



SIX OUT OF SEVEN FAMILIES—85% of the homes and business establishments within Michigan Bell's rural territory can have telephone service without paying any construction charges. Today's liberalized rural construction plan allows one-half mile of free line construction per applicant beyond existing lines.

MORE WIRES — MORE CALLS — By means of special equipment, one pair of wires in effect becomes six pairs, carrying six separate conversations simultaneously. Michigan Bell has in operation several such experimental lines using this new equipment, known as "telephone line carrier," which may prove helpful in serving rural areas.



PARTY-LINE COURTESY PAYS OFF—Rural telephone service is good service, particularly when everyone co-operates by spacing out calls . . . being careful to hang up the receiver after each call . . . not interrupting when others are talking, except in an emergency . . . and by giving up the line when others have emergency calls to make.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

Our $83,000,000 post-war rural construction program means more and better rural telephone service.

Tune in Henry J. Taylor, Mutual Network, Mondays and Fridays

• Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McLean arrived Tuesday from Detroit to spend a week with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. McCarthy.

• Mrs. A. J. Usher left Sunday for Camp Northwood near Pellston to spend several days with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Dick.

Rodeo Rehearsals, Long Trips, Milé Swim, Birthday Party Keep Campers Busy

Rodeo rehearsals, long trips, and the mile swim were the highlights of the past week at Camp Charlevoix.

On Monday of last week, three long trips left camp. The cowboys, Jack Hawley and Frank Smith, took the best riders in camp on a 50 mile ride around the lake. The boys taking this trip were Dick Butcke, Tom and Charles Kearney, Bill Phelps, Bob Inch, Jeff Jennings, Tim Barnes, Jimmy Stockwell, Rod Chapman, Dave Whittingham, Bill Putt, Roger Faust and Webb Wilson, a counselor.

The three day sail trip took to their sails under the leadership of George Campbell, Phil Steding and Bob Laugherty. These sailors were Milo Vega, Henry Sullivan, Don Sigismond, Woody Ransom, Dave Harding, Ken Barolo, Jim Jackson, Joaquin Reis, Dave Sewell and Mike Boswell.

The four day canoe trip was through the Intermediate Chain of lakes, the trip passing through nine lakes and the connecting rivers. The two canoe instructors Ben St. Laurent and Chuck Southwick, supervised this trip and the boys were Bill Craig, John Wood, Don Pfarrer, Bob Stockwell, Jack McQuiggan, Alan Mendelssohn, Mike Brenner, Bob Sommer, Larry Reisinger, Tom Taylor, Hud Morris and Bill Hall.

Tuesday found the rest of the Senior Section going up to Wilderness State Park for a three day trip with Herb Brinkman, Chuck Bacon and George Linn in charge. The camp really seemed empty on Wednesday and Thursday with seventy boys out on trips.

Friday found everyone safely back in camp. Saturday night was dramatic night again with Bud Sudborough directing several campers in a play called "Spooks". The young actors were Tim Barnes, Hayward Allen, Bud Marshall, Woody Ransom, Eddie Vardon and Jerry Craig. "The Lighthouse Keeper" was given by several of the staff, including Bud Gallup, Lee Stewart, Dag Deversten, and Chuck Southwick.

Sunday was the day when the entire camp was taken into the First Congregational church in Charlevoix for the service. The Charlevoix Rod and Gun Club staged an archery meet in which Fred Kassner, the archery instructor here, entered four of his best men. Ten year old Bob Beltz won the championship. Rod Chapman took third place honors.

Sunday noon the Annual Birthday party was held for all the 27 boys and staff in camp who have had birthdays during the camp season. A huge birthday cake with candles was brought in. Dick Smith whose birthday was on Sunday had the honor of blowing out the candles.

Another Sunday afternoon event was the Annual Swim. About 80 boys entered this year with an even 60 finishing. There are a few boys who are to swim it this week, so that about seventy boys will swim the mile this year as against 52 last year. Once again Bob Laugherty of Tampa, Fla., won the event with Bill Craig a close second. The other leaders, in order, were Dave Harding, John Wood, Jim Jackson, Joaquin Reis, Bob Inch, Hud Morris, Jimmy Logie, Frank Smith, Skippy Macauley, Alan Mendelssohn, Henry Sullivan, Bill Hardie, Don Mendelssohn and Chick Kimball. The first Junior to finish was nine year old Ralph Greene of Grand Rapids with Jimmy Bissell, also of Grand Rapids a close second. Other Juniors to finish were Norman Cassill, Duffer Smith, Alan Wood, Max Zeigler, Sterling Ragsdale, Bob Streadwick, and Stanley Bremen.

The camp Rodeo on Saturday is getting much publicity. The steers and calves will be here on Thursday. Monday night is the final Council Fire to which parents and guests are invited, and on Tuesday the season of 1948 is over.

Red Cross Official Visits Mother Here

Mrs. E. C. Sterritt had as her guests several days last week, her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sterritt and son, John of Washington, D. C.

Mr. Sterritt is the director of radio public relations for the American Red Cross.

They were enroute to their home from a Canadian vacation trip and had visited Mrs. Sterritt's parents in Petoskey before coming here.

• Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Grigsby and daughter of French Lick, Ind., regular summer visitors to Charlevoix, arrived last Wednesday for a week or ten days. They are staying at the Hallett.

LILLIAN SWINTON,

Body of Missing Man Found; Rites Held Saturday

Ellsworth — While walking through the woods Thursday on an adjoining farm, Richard Moore who lives on Charlevoix R. I, about three miles north of here, discovered the body of Thomas Klooster, who has been missing from his farm home in Bentley Hill vicinity since May 24.

Antrim county sheriff Howard Tanner and Coroner Byron Ditton, who investigated, said death was probably due to exhaustion. At the time of his disappearance, Klooster was last seen by Willard Herrington, a neighbor, with whom he had spent the night.

Mr. Klooster was a native of The Netherlands, born there on June 14, 1888 and had lived in this vicinity about 51 years. Surviving are five children, Margaret, Mae, Andrew and Arnold at home and Pvt. Lawrence of Fort Knox. Ky., and the children's graodfather, Arend DeYoung.

Funeral services were held Saturday at Atwood Christian Reformed church with Rev. Dykstra, former pastor of Barnard Reformed church officiating. Burial was in Atwood cemetery.

Groups of neighbors had searched all the surrounding territory at the time seeking Mr. Klooster, but missed the body.

The Tow Line

News of folks, your neighbors and mine . . . but did you know that—

"The best prize I won this week," said Mrs. Gerald Gibbons, "was the return of my son." Charles arrived home Sunday from Camp Stoneman, Calif. And to make the occasion a real one the family left this week for Detroit and Windsor to visit relatives. Charles will have a month's furlough . . . Harold Chew drove down to Kentucky last week and returned with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Holmes, who had been in an automobile accident and hospitalized. Hr. Holmes is able to be up and about but Mrs. Holmes will have to take things a bit easier. With a broken ankle bone she gets about with a walking iron. In another four weeks she will lose the east on her right leg . . . Mrs. Clyde Warner has returned from a three weeks trip to New Mexico and California. She got to see the famous Redwoods and Yellowstone, two "musts" of the West. Mrs. Warner went with friends from Grand Rapids in their station wagon . . .

When we casually give a number to the telephone girl, I wonder if we ever stop to think how many hundreds of calls she has put through before we decided to call up Aunt Emme to inquire how she is feeling. Tho hello girls have really had a busy summer and have dona their best to serve all of us. Just ona dey recently 872 long distance colls alone went through tha local switchboard, besides the thousands of locel calls. And than tha girls ara asked to hava a smila in their voice. I sey "a big orchid to each end everyone of them."

Had an interesting chat with some tourists last week who were on their way to Canada. They had stopped in Owosso to see what Thomas Dewey's home town looked like. Dewey was born in an apartment above a store that is now an electrical appliance store run by Harold D. Colvin. Poor Mr. Colvin declared that he cannot stay in business and operate a national shrine. He is pestered to death with tourists begging to see the room where Dewey was born. (And the situation would be doubly worse if the poor man happened to be a Democrat.)

Bet they would hete to admit it openly, but dollers to doughnuts they are a good many H. S. students who are secretly glad thet school is about to start even though they are terrified at the thought that they may be called upon to recognize a verb the first day of school . . . Another fellow who is mighty glad to be homo on furlough is Sgt. Williom C. Hannah, who hails from Williams Field, Chandler, Ariz.

It was one of the women on the north side who summed up things in a nutshell in Charlevoix when she said, "We cannot go to Koch's any more, so this summer we have had to manufacture our own fun and parties." And what parties there have been during the past few weeks—formal parties, bingo parties, informal parties of all kinds, birthday parties, cocktail parties, doggy parties and still more porties in the offing . . .

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Everts and daughter, Donno, left early Saturday for a ten day trip to Niogara Falls, Flint, Detroit and Jackson. The Everts are observing their 28th wedding anniversary and don you think of a better way? . . . It was a feast of the gods that the members of the Garden Club had last week when they had a "Fetchit luncheon" at the Ironton home of Mrs. Hildo Alexander. It was o real lawn party after which the members held a short business meeting with Mrs. Albert Edwards presiding, making plans for the fall meetings . . .

Congratulations to tha members of St. Mary's Parish on their successful festival thay staged. It meant many months of preperation os well as hours of work. It was a sad looking day Saturdey but Sunday made up for tho bed weethar and everything ended in a grand finale . . . Mrs. Ida Barnes of Charlotta is visiting Mrs. Eva Blenchard at her Clinton Street home . . . Tha Earl Febers, ere on e two week's vacation in Holland, end east to Staten Island where Mrs. Faber's ralatives liva . . .

If ever a gal got a professional touch to a cake it was Opal Ingalls who made a three tiered

40 Ton Beams Swung Into Place On New US-31 Underpass

The big steel on the new underpass of US-31 at Bay Shore is half up.

The second of the four 49-ton girders was swung into place at 11 a. m. Friday. Still remaining to be placed were wo of the 49-ton and one 20-ton girder. The different lengths are due to the road crossing the railway line at a sharp angle.

The girders had been brought to Bay Shore on gondolas, three railway cars to the girder. There cranes had lifted them off the cars and set them beside the track. Then a big truck and a heavy duty trailer were jockeyed into position beside them.

Next the cranes lifted the 99-foot long pieces of steel and set it on the truck and trailer, 59 feet apart but connected by a chain. Once the big beam was securely tied down, and with a traveling crane trailing behind and steadying the beam which is 8½ feet high, the trip down the incline to the bottom of the cut began.

It took 30 minutes to go the 609 feet. Once there, the cranes lifted the girder, the truck and trailer pulled out and the beam was set on the ground. Braces were taken off. Then in less than three minutes the cranes had swung the beam 18 feet in the air and were carefully setting it down on the supports atop the big square piers.

The L. W. Lamb Co., of Holland is building the underpass. The Argo Steel Construction Co., of Detroit has the contract for putting up the steel.

The concrete work is almost done, only one more abutment wing remaining to be poured. The work likely will be completed by Oct. 1.

Work May Start This Fall On Rod, Gun Club House

As soon as two steps are taken, actual work will be started on the proposed club house of the Rod and Gun Club.

This was decided Thursday night when the club members met at the skeet range for a hamburger feed, business meeting and birthday party.

The first step is the obtaining of a lease from the city on the grounds needed for the club house. The present site is part of the former Chicago Club golf links, turned over to the city for civic purposes.

The club house, say the Rod and Gun members, would be available for public meetings.

The second step will be drafting of plans. The members now favor a full basement under a 30 by 60 one-story structure. The basement would house a rifle and pistol range.

At the business meeting reports were made on the Sportsman's Carnival.

The birthday party was a surprise on Bonnie Nickerson, club president. Mrs. Glenn Ingalls had baked a big cake, suitably inscribed, and presented it to him.

More Things Are Needed for White Elephant Sale

More things are needed for the Kiwanis White Elephant Sale this fall.

Rev. W. D. Wood, chairman, says that very little has been turned in so far.

The sale serves two purposes. It raises money to carry on the youth work of the club and it provides an economical place for many Charlevoix families to obtain articles before winter sets in.

By calling Rev. Wood, phone 731, arrangements can be made to have any contribution picked up.

Mrs. Walstad New Head of Auxiliary

The American Legion Auxiliary held its annual election of officers ot the regular meeting at the Legion Hall Monday evening.

Mrs. Vance Walstad was named president to succeed Mrs. Lyda Johnson. Others elected yere: first vice president, Mrs. Lillian Ulrich; second vice president, Mrs. Ruth Smith; secretary, Mrs. Lela Goss; treasurer, Mrs. Lyda Johnson; historian and publicity, Mrs. Lela Allard; chaplain, Mrs. Florence Ripley; sergeant at arms, Mrs. Kathleen Brady.

Plans were made for the gifts the local group will send to the Veterans Gift Shop at Percy Jones Hospital. Each organization is asked to send gifts for an imaginary family to the shop where they are displayed ond the patients are given the gifts to send to their families for Christmas.

Center Stage Will Give Two More Plays

Residents and summer visitors from the surrounding area will have the opportunity to see two more plays at Center Stage '48, new summer theatre in East Jordan, before the group completes their first ten week season.

"All My Sons" by Arthur Miller, who received both the Pulitzer Prize and the Drama Critics Award for the play, will open Thursday with performances also on Friday and Saturday evenings at 8: 30. and a Saturday matinee at 2:30.

Center Stage '48 will close the first season in East Jordon next week with "Dear Ruth". A special matinee and evening performance will be presented by the group on Labor Day.

Methodist Bishop To Preach Sunday

Bishop Frederick Leete of the Methodist church will preach at the regular morning worship here next Sunday at 11 a. m.

An annual speaker at the Bay View Assembly, Rev. Gaylord Howell invited him to occupy the Charlevoix Methodist pulpit this week.

Elected bishop in 1912 when he was pastor of the Central Church in Detroit, Bishop Lecte has held many positions in the church since. He also is the author of many articles and books.

Ha Made a Perfect Scora

In correcting the story last week on the Sportsman's Day, one name accidentally was omitted. It was that of Keith Nickerson in the skect shoot. He merely shot 59 birds in a row, a perfect score, and won first place.

Registration for Draft to Start Next Monday

Call for registration under the new Selective Service Act has been made by the County Draft Board.

All men 10 years old and under 26 must register.

Seventeen days have been set aside for it, with four places prepared to take the registrations. These are:

East Jordan area, home of Dr. Bernard J. Bueker.

Boyne City area: Gilbert Lindsay's store.

Beaver Island: St. James postoffice.

Charlevoix area: Probate Office in Court House.

All places will be open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. It is better for the registrant to go to the office nearest his regular residence, although this is not essential.

On this original registration, men born in different years will register on different days to avoid jamming the offices. The complete schedule and instructions are given in the notice on page 9.

The Charlevoix County Draft Board met Wednesday evening and made plans for the reopening of the board for the registration of all men 18 through 26 years of age.

Dr. Bernard J. Beuker was renamed chairman of the board, an office he held on the wartime board. J. M. Foster of Charlevoix is secretary. George Secord of East Jordan is the third member and Mrs. Anna Eccleston has resumed her position as clerk of Draft Board No. 15.

Harold Totten Heads New Milk Producers Group

Harold Totten, Norwood township farmer, has been elected president of the newly-organized Antrim-Charlevoix unit of Michigan Milk Producers Association.

An organization meeting was held at Atwood last week with 39 milk producers from the area taking part.

This unit, which will be affiliated with the state association, is composed of milk producers which supply towns in the two-county area.

In explaining the purpose of the new organization Mr. Totten said, "Basically the Michigan Milk Producers Association is a co-operative marketing grottp and will market our product to the best advantage. In the 'off-season' from September until June when we hove a surplus of milk they will sell the product to a company which will utilize the milk in manufactured products."

Hawley to Attend School for Bankers

E. D. Hawley, cashier of the Charlevoix County Slate Bank, is back attending school again.

In this case it is the School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin at Madison, a two weeks session attended by 450 bankers from 27 states, who range from junior officers to presidents and board chairmen.

Nine Barbershop Groups Will Sing at Annual Jamboree Concert Sept. 4

The Charlevoices, who will sing at the SPEB Barbershop Jamboree Concert Sept. 4.

Those who attend the Sixth Annual Barbershop Jamboree Concert here a week from Saturday will be hearing one of the finest programs presented by the Charlevoix SPEB chapter since its founding.

Eight quartets ond a trio will take part. Headlining the program will be the Mid States 4 of Chicago, second place winners in international competition, and a whole program in themselves.

The trio will be Charlevoix's own Charlevoices. One quartet will be composed of four women barbershoppers from Grand Rapids, the Feminaires, who ore coached by Frank B. Goodwin, director also of the Grand Rapids Schubert Club.

Muskegon is sending up two quartets, the Chordmasters and the Pitch Blends. Manistee will be represented by the Salt City Four, a new organization which makes fine harmony according to those who have heard it.

From Grand Rapids, besides the Feminaires, will come the Pitch Pipers. Boyne City is sending over the Boyne Aires and Loton Willson to direct the Snow Belt Chorus.

One new feature is being added this year. There will be a Mystery Quartet, which will not be announced until it takes the platform at the school auditorium that night.

Committees named and working on the Jamboree are: stage, Bob Miles; program and stage director, Dal Henry; Casino party, Charles Sessions; Afterglow, Dal Henry; entertainment, Dr. D. C. Nettleton; Ladies' party, Charles Hamlin; registration and printing, Jerry Scudder; park events, Don Feagan; promotion, Lorry Towe; tickets, Clarence Odmark; signs, Barney Englehart.

Team Protests Ruling In Softball Semi-Final Game

If the ruling favors the Knight Owls, the remaining 2¼ innings will be pleyed Thursdey night et Petoskey.

Charlevoix is protesting the umpire's ruling which robbed the Knight Owls Tuesday of the semi-final round in the Northern Michigan Softball Tournament.

The games was at Cheboygan against the Center Tool team. It started at 6:45 on a field without lights. At the end of the fifth inning the score was 7 to 6 for Charlevoix. At the end of the sixth it was 19 to 7 for Cheboygan. Midway in the seventh the umpire called the game for darkness with Charlevoix leading 11 to 10.

John Knight, team manager, plans to protest the game to Robert Woodruff, tournament manager, and possibly to Herb Kipke, softball commissioner at Lansing.

The umpire ruled that the score at the end of the last full inning decided the game.

Ironton Home Sold To Petoskey Man

Mrs. S. Walter Mower has sold her home, Gwellentop, at Ironton, to William N. Achenbach of Petoskey.

She left Sunday with her son, Curtis V. Mower of Grosse Pointe. She will make her home in Ann Arbor where she will study French.

Mrs. Mower's two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth MacArthur of Kansas City and Mrs. Edna Allen of Long Island have returned to their homes after a visit here.

Library to Closa

The Charlevoix Public Library will be closed the week of Aug. 23 through Aug. 29, Miss Floranz Milner, librarian has announced.

Honored On Birthdey

Mrs. F. C. McFarland of the Parkside had a birthday Saturday. The girls who have been working for her all summer presented her with an orchid corsage.

600 Mink Keep Owners Busy Year Around

Biggest problem in raising mink, says John Caldwell of Ironton, is the work.

It is a 12 hour a day job, for just about the entire year. Add the fact that the little furred beauties are among the most savage animals known, and enjoy nothing more than sinking needle teeth into o hand, or chewing up one onother—well, mink raising has its moments and they aren't dull.

For the last three years, Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell have operoted their Norquest Ranch, a mile east of the ferry. Before that there were other fur ranches in other part of the state, including both Detroit and Alpena.

Smell Ranch—600 Mink

At Norquest, Mr. Caldwell has what he considers a small fur ranch. Right now he has obout 600 mink. It is about the right size for one man; much larger and he would have to have steady help.

Two thirds of his mink are the natural dark Yukon, actually almost black. The rest are silver blue. He expects to build up the latter until he has half of each.

Right now he is busy separating the 8 and 9 week old kits into furring pens, simply wire

Belvedere Golfers Play to Tie Twice In Semi Final Round

With two contestants so evenly matched they have played to ties two times in succession, the Belvedere Ladies Golf tournament still is undecided.

Wednesday Mrs. A. P. Leland and Mrs. S. R. Leatherman were scheduled to try for the third time to break their semi-final tie. The winner then will meet Mrs. Gordon Geilfus for the championship.

Those entering the quarter finals were Mrs. E. C. Orr, Mrs. E. W. Donahue, Mrs. Harold Simpsun, Mrs. Enid Carney, Mrs. Leland Bishee, Mrs. Leland, Mrs. Geilfus and Mrs. Leatherman. The last four were winners and competed in the semi-finals with Mrs. Geilfus winning 1 up from Mrs. Bisbee.

C. Kendrick won the men's championship Sunday when he defeated Ted Orr, 3 and 2. In the semi-finals Kendrick won 1 up from J. Penny, while Orr defeated John Knight 4 and 3.

In the quarter finals L. Thompsun defaulted to Kendriek; Penny bent D. Moss 4 and 3; Orr won 1 up from B. Morrow and Knight won 1 up on the 19th from R. Kelly.

Load On Electric Plant Reaches New High Mark

Charlevoix would have been in serious trouble this summer if the new diesel generator had not been installed at the power plant.

Loads of 1480 and 1480 kilowatts are a regular thing. High point was hit Saturday at 6 p. m. when the meters read 1600. Last summer the load went to 1350 once, a big overload on the equipment then operating.

Band Will Give Last Concert Next Wednesday

The Charlevoix City Band will play their last concert of the 1048 season in East Park next Wednesday evening, their directer, C. A. Odmark, has announced.

Features of the last program will be two solos: Bob Gill on the baritone will play "Willow Echoes" and Ken Hardy, music student at Western Teachers College, Kolamazoo, will play "Stars in a Velvety Sky."

Wednesday evening the bond played one of its most difficult programs of the year featuring such numbers as Poet and Peasant Overture, The Clarinet Polka, the march, Onward and Upward and Sousa's march, Sabre and Spurs.

Vocational Help Man Here Monday

Roger B. Moon, Field Agent for the Vocational Rehabilitation Division will be in the Charlevoix City Hall, Community Room, on Monday at 1:99 p. m., and will interview any persons who are disabled.

The purpose of Vocotional Rehabilitotion is to give service to those people who are handicapped in any way, bnt who could, through surgery, medication, training, guidance, the furnishing of tools or equipment, become or continue to be self-supporting.

Frank Andrews Seeks Seat in Senate

Individual attention to the needs of the six northern counties, better roads paid for by the users, and sound conservation are three things advocated by Frank Andrews of Hillman, candidate for State Senator at the primary Sept. 14.

Better known on the east side of the district than here, Andrews is deseribed by Editor Al Weber of Cheboygan as "a big man in a small town." Opposing him is incumbent Otto W. Bishop.

Maet County Needs

"If elected, I intend to pay attention to the needs of the individnol county up here and not devote all my time to some part of the governor's program," he said Monday on a visit to The Courier office.

"We need more roads. We can't say we have good roads now, but we con make them good. They will have to be paid for by taxes. That means more gas tox and a fair readjustment of the weight tax. By fair I mean that the big machine should pay more proportionately than private cars.

Agoinst Doe Shooting

On one hot conservation issue he is outspoken. He's against shooting does.

"I agree with Prof. Herbert of M. S. C. We have a deer herd of a million ond we could support three million if we'd just use the idle land to grow food for them. The Department should use o little money investigating new feeds and new ways to grow more forage."

Operated Hotel

Fifty-four years old, Andrews has been a citizen of Northern Michigan since 1932. Born ond educated at St. Louis, he worked in Detroit auto plants until 1919 when he opened a boat and engine business there.

Coming north in the depression, he first ran a filling station, for ten years owned and operated the hotel at Hillman, known as the Highway Inn. Selling that three years ago, he has had an insurance agency since.

Served At Home

Too old for war service, he made a distinguished record at home. Among the various things he did were:

Served as county disaster chairman of the Red Cross.

Member for five years of the county draft board.

County chairman and organizer of the Civilian Defense Corps.

Chairman and honorary chairman of the War Bond Committee.

Orgoizer and chairman of the Veterans Advisory Council.

Sent 18,756 Lattars

During the war he sent 18,756 home town letters to the boys in the services, addressing each envelope personally. He still treasures the 7300 letters he received in reply, keeping them filed under each writer's name.

At present he is president of the Hillman Sportsmen's Club, a director of the Michigan Crippled Children's Commission, a member of the Hillmon Rotary Club and the Alpena Elks. He has served seven terms as president of his home village and 13 years as president of the Hillman Chamber of Commerce.

It's Our Fair

Week after next will see the opening of the Charlevoix County Fair over at East Jordan.

In recent years the Fair has had some tough sledding but this year the patrons and the county will be offered some fine attractions.

Ed Rebman says the midway will be good. And those rides and attractions are as essential to a proper fair as hot dogs and taking your best girl.

The Supervisors have spent $2000 on fixing up the buildings. More exhibits are being solicited and have been promised.

Altogether some $2000 added money is being offered as race prizes, one day has been added to the racing and faster events scheduled.

With all these changes, the Charlevoix County Fair promises to be a credit to its sponsors. Now it's up to us citizens of the county to turn out and see it for ourselves.

It's One of Our Big Assets

After the Sportsman's Carnival and Venetian Night there can be little question as to the value of our city parks along Round Lake.

If any further proof is needed, just spend an hour there any evening. Those parks with their seats, trout pool, shuffleboard, and view of the lake and boats, are one of the finest things Charlevoix has to offer its guests.

There isn't another community in this part of the state that has such a combination of park, lake and business district all together. Only one thing is needed—more of the same.

That was a mighty fine gesture of appreciation made two weeks ago by our Negro group in memory of Dr. F. F. McMillan. It was precisely the sort of thing he would have appreciated, too.

Those who went (and the Methodist church was filled) heard some fine singing.

Auto Club Lists Charlevoix As One of Five Best Places In State for Hay Fever Victims

Charlevoix is one of five places in Michigan recommended by the Automobile Club of Michigan for severe hay fever sufferers.

The others are St. Ignace, the Soo, Cheboygan and Rogers City. All had total pollen counts of less than 1000 last season.

Helen May Hamlin is Brida of W. E. Henshew

In a candlelight service at 8 p. m. Saturday, Helen May Hamlin, daughter of Mrs. Ethel Hamlin, became the bride of William Earl Henshaw, of Anderson, Ind., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Henshaw, of St. Louis, Mo.

Baskets of white gladioli, palms and tapers formed the background for the single service performed by Rev. W. D. Wood in the presence of more than 150 guests.

Preceding the ceremony Robert Feidler, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Mark Feidler, sang "Largo," "Always" and "The Indian Love Call." Immediately after the ceremony while the couple knelt at the altar he sang Mallott's "Lord's Prayer" after which the bride and bridegroom sang a duet "I Love You Truly". Mrs. Feidler also played the traditional wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her uncle Maxim Hawks of Petoskey, the bride selected a gown of marquisette and taffeta designed with a lace yoke, long sleeves and full skirt ending in a train. A tiara of white flowers held her veil. She carried a white Bible topped with white gladioli and white streamers. She also wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Davida Blake of Chicago was maid of honor, Edna Mary Dell of Lansing, and Mrs. Robert Shaw of Charlevoix were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of dotted swiss. Miss Blake's gown was a light green and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli. Miss Dell's and Mrs. Shaw's gowns were lavender and they had wrist corsages of white daisies.

Edwin Gregory of Traverse City, cousin of the bride, was best man and Robert Shaw, Eldean Chew and Howard Struthers seated the guests.

Mrs. Hamlin was attired in a navy and gray print gown, navy accessories and a corsage of coral gladioli. Mrs. Henshaw wore a black ensemble with black and white accessories and a corsage of yellow gladioli.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the Community room.

The couple left on an extended wedding trip to Mackinac Island, the Upper Peninsula, Wisconsin and St. Louis, Mo.

They will make their home in Anderson, Ind., where the bridegroom is a junior and the bride a senior at Anderson College. The bride graduated from the Charlevoix high school and the bridegroom from the Beaumont High School, St. Louis, and served in the Navy for 39 months.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hamlin of Marquette; Mrs. Mary Henshaw, Mrs. Dora Henshaw and Mrs. Lueva Brundino of St. Louis, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gregory of Traverse City; Mr and Mrs. Maxim Hawks of Petoskey; Mrs. Hilda Stout of Stanton.

IT HAPPENED ON . . . . BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

Beaver Island's gardens are looking good. With very few scorching days and plenty of rainfall the harvest is gratifying. Farmers are bringing beans, beets, cabbage, peas and cucumbers to market.

There seems to be no end to the amount of raspberries and huckleberries one can pick this summer. Anthony and Danny Wojan picked 18 quarts of huckleberries near Mt. Pisgah this week. The Indian lads brought in buckets of raspberries to sell in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Gallagher, with their son, Father Victor Gallagher, have returned from their vacation at Chicago. Father Victor officiated at the marriage of Mary Margaret Martin and Norman Long. Going by way of Detroit they traveled through Canada to Peterborough, Ont., where they had a visit with Mother Mary Agnes at the Precious Blood Monastery. Mother Mary Agnes is a cousin of Mr. Gallagher.

550 feet of sidewalk have have added to the village. 225 feet extend from Main St., up Freesoil Ave. 325 feet was laid from Main St. to the Herman Pischner's home. Mickey Belfy had the contract.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Rasmussen and daughter are spending two weeks in their cottage, known as Bundy's cottage.

Nonie Gallagher fairly threw her clothes in the suit case when she suddenly decided to go along with Buck and Myrtle Deitlefson on a trip to International Falls, Minn. They left the Island Thursday.

Mrs. David Pike and children returned to their home in Montague Wednesday after spending two weeks on the Island.

Joy McDonough and Mary Malloy are in Chicago attending the summer school of Catholic Action.

Mrs. Carrie Sonderegger recently had as her guests her daughter-in-law Mrs. V. H. Sonderegger, Mrs. Ann Faller, her granddaughter and great granddaughter Carolyn Faller, all from New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Boyle, Chicago, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McDonough and other relatives.

The North Shore remained in port Thursday night, after bringing over a load of oil, to accommodate the Christian Brothers who wished to leave Friday morning. Shortly after 5 a. m. the boat pulled out with 32 brothers who came from all over the U. S., Canada and Rome, Italy for retreat.

During August, Pazetown became a bustling camping community. Boy Scouts from Camp Fairwood under councellors Lou Wood and Rabbit Merrivale; Girl Scouts from Camp Fairwood, under Skip Cardigan; Boy Scouts of Decatur, Ind., under Steve Eberhart and Berdette Custer came at intervals for three days of camping.

Visiting the Vesti McDonoughs are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Teter, Lake Forrest, Ill., and Bernard Helfrich, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. John DenBoer, Grand Rapids, were guests at the Wilfred O'Brien's home.

The first plane to land in the harbor after dark came in Saturday night about 9:30. Arthur McArthur, Pellston pilot, made a perfect landing in his SeeBee without the aide of moonlight or flood lights. The passengers were Mrs. Marguerite Stevens and daughter, Detroit, and Bussie LaFreniere.

Mrs. Vernon LaFreniere and sons, Paul and Leon left Saturday by plane to visit Mrs. LaFreniere's mother, Mrs. Erwin Belfy, Charlevoix.

Mrs. Earl Gallagher and son have arrived to visit Mr. and Mrs. James H. Gallagher.

Mrs. Edwin McCann returned home recently with a beautiful black Chrysler.

Mrs. Grace Behm, Arlington, Va., stopped over for a few days to visit her sister, Mrs. Irene LaFreniere.

Russell Greene left during the week for Detroit where he will be employed. Lillian Greene returned to Chicago with her sister, Bernelle Greene.

Beaver Island's "Has Beens" came out of retirement to hand the B. I. regular team a trouncing Sunday afternoon. Score 21-9. Exciting from start to finish.

James McCann Opens New Island Tavern

The grand opening of the new Beachcomber Tavern on Beaver Island was somewhat rushed, but it opened it's doors for operation Aug. 14.

The building was the former James Donlevy Store built in 1904 and was ready to be torn down for salvage two years ago when James McCann undertook to rebuild it for it's present use. The front and interior is of native knotty pine. Large windows which allow an excellent view of the harbor, named Paradise Bay by James J. Strang, King of the Morman's in the early 1850's.

The bar was designed and built by the owner and his brother, Emmett. It is made entirely of Beaver Island timber—a combination of yellow birch, poplar, white and cork pine. The bar and back bar are only partially completed, however, and will not be consldered as finished by the owner for sometime. A dance floor will be added later.

• Mr. and Mrs. George Scott, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. George Scott, Jr., have returned to their homes in Hazel Park after spending a week with the former's sister, Mrs. Charles Hyers, and other relatives.

Fly From West Coast

Dr. Clarence Dee Marsa and a friend, Jack Kele Keller, last week flew here from Los Angeles for a two day visit with his father, Percy Marsa and the Walter J. Smith family. The two men left Thursday morning for Los Angeles.

For the best In Dairy Production

Feed Farm Bureau 18% Service Dairy or use 24% Milkmaker with your own grains.

HERE ARE THE REASONS:

1. Pasture grass is probably the greatest stimulant for milk production we have. But it's unbalanced for maintaining body weight and continued heavy production.
2. Pasture grass when lush carries as high as 30% protein. It needs carbohydrates (barley, corn, oats) to help maintain body weight and balance it properly, and a minimum of protein.
3. Pasture grass carries all the "B"-complex vitamins —vitamins "A" and "E", all in super abundance— vitamin "D" in the sunshine.
4. Pasture grass is rich in sotuble minerals depending on the soil. Added calcium, phosphorus and trace minerals are practical and profitable.
5. Grain costs less and better supplements pasture grass for milk production, health and weight.

Farm Bureau feeds are all scientifically fortified to supply your livestock and poultry with all minerals and vitamins necessary for the best growth and production.

600 Mink at Norquest Ranch, Provide Full Time Job for Mr. and Mrs. John Caldwell

"When you see a picture of a man holding a big beautiful mink, usually it's dead," explained John Caldwell, when he brought in two of his mink to be photographed. After watching them make passes at fingers, it seemed much wiser to leave them safely in the handling cages. Mr. Caldwell is holding a silver blue, Mrs. Caldwell a natural brown Alaska.

cages with one mink in each.

"Why don't you leave the litter together?"

"You'd lose 'em. Put two mink together, even females, and they'll fight until one's dead. Usually it doesn't take long. Even in the wild, if two mink meet, they fight like wildcats. They're savage. One of them bit my wife and I had to pry its jaws open to get her arm free."

The sooner the young are separated, the more even the fur will be at pelting time which starts about Nov. 27. With a fur coat made up of about 100 pelts, evenness of fur is an advantage.

Short Days Bring Good Furs

It isn't so much the cold weather which starts the fur growing, but the shorter days. Pelting takes six to eight days. Mr. Caldwell does his own.

The skins are put on pelting boards—flat, thin pieces of basswood five inches wide—and set in the ten fou freezer. Then when there is time, they are taken out, all the fat is scraped off, they are stretched on the boards again, wiped off every day and dried for 10 to 14 days.

Selects Own Stock

When ready, he ships them to the Great Lakes Marketing Association, of which he is a member. The association sells them in New York for him.

Each year he keeps back about 125 of the best mink for his breeding stock. Last year he had 92 females and 26 males. The secret of better fur, Mr. Caldwell says, is careful inbreeding plus the addition of superior animals whenever he can find them.

"The only way is to have a clear picture in your mind of what you want and select according to that picture."

Must Watch Diet

In addition to all the other tasks, the mink raiser must be a skilled dietician. Meat protein makes up three quarters of their diet, with the rest composed of grain meal, brewers yeast, bone meal, tomato pulp and minerals. But the formula must be varied all the time according to the season.

A big male will eat about 10 ounces a day.

"But I feed them all they'll eat," he says. "That wastes a little food but it's the only way to get the best fur."

Ideal for Fur Ranch

The Caldwells plan to expand as soon as materials are more plentiful.

"We'll have another yard here north of the barn," he explains, "with sheds. The mink have to have shade in the summer and it makes work easier in the winter. We're just in the starting stage now. Eventually we can handle 2500 to 5000 on this place.

"We have just the right combination here of moisture from the lakes and cold weather. This is the ideal spot in Michigan for a fur ranch."

Pine for Planting Is Being Offered By State This Fall

Four classes of pine planting stock will be available, at no increase in price, to farmers and others planning reforestation plantings this fall, the conservation department's forestry division announces. Order blanks are being mailed now from the division's Lansing office.

Stock available includes two and three-year old red pine seedlings, two-year old jack pine seedlings and three-year old red pine transplants. White pine will not be available for another year. The fixed quota per customer, maintained on some classes of stock in recent seasons, has been lifted, as demand normally is light in the fall.

Stock is not lifted at the pine nursery until after the first frost has hardened it. The normal shipping season is Sept. 20 to Oct. 15. Pines produced in the conservation department nursery at Higgins Lake may be used only for reforestation, and may be ordered only on order blanks from the forestry division's Lansing office that show that legal description of the lands to be planted.

Norway Is Beautiful, Says Mrs. Noble, But Is Glad to Be Back Here After Trip to Europe

"It was wonderful going to Norway, but it's good to be back," was the comment Mrs. Christiana Noble made last week after having been gone from Charlevoix for the past four months.

It was in the spring that Mrs. Noble joined a group of others at Chicago bound for Europe and returned to her native land, Norway, to visit cousins and old friends.

"Strange I did not realize that Norway was so beautiful when I was there before. The mountains and the towns at the foot of them along the water made it a picture. Larvik was one of these towns and it was there and near there that I was. Bergen is also so beautiful."

A letter from Mrs. Henry Issacson told Mrs. Noble of relatives of Jorn Nordrum who lived at Larvik. Mrs. Noble visited them and returned bearing gifts from the relatives. Sonja Nordrum is most proud of the handmade puteevars (pillowcases to you) and a hand-carved crochet box more like a jewel case, brought to her.

Norway still bears many battle scars, especially in the north where there was quite a bit of devastation. Now new homes are being built, as well as cottages and summer homes on the moontainsides. Mrs. Noble saw trenches dug in the mountains that led into rooms where the Germans had built fortifications. From these moontain hideouts they could see but not be seen.

"Along the beach it looked as though there were hundreds of tall tombstones," she said. "I asked why so many were there. Then I was told the stone slabs were erected for the enemy to stand behind for protection. They looked so odd."

Everything in Norway is rationed. There are not many materials to be had. America has been a good friend and many of the clothes now worn have been sent from here. Norwegians are very hospitable and one has about 5 meals a day but food is rationed. Meat can be had about once a month, but fish is plentiful. "In spite of it, I gained 10 pounds," Mrs. Noble laughingly added.

Norwegian money is not much good now and everything is expensive. The people over there all want American dollars, which will buy much.

"I had a hard time for the first two weeks I was there with my language," she said. "Here in America, they say I speak with an accent and it is hard for them to understand me, and over there they thought I was so American in my accent that they could hardly understand me. But after two weeks and I sounded like a native."

Socialism is strong in Norway, Mrs. Noble said, when we asked about the political situation. Of course Communists are working too. "There was the neighbor boy who used to help me tend sheep when I was a girl back there. Now he is going about trying to make Communists out of the folks. Funny, they think we are in bondage over here in America. I kept telling them that we are not, that we were kind to one another and helped each other out."

"What was one of my big thrills in Norway?" she asked. "I think it was fishing over there and I caught flounders. It was really fun."

Board of Commerce To Back County Labor Day Picnic

The annual Labor Day picnic for Charlevoix county will be held at Whiting Park this year on Monday, Sept. 6, according to Ed Rebman, County Agricultural Agent. In the past the picnic has been financed by an appropriation from the Board of Supervisors. However, an appropriation of this kind is illegal according to the state auditors.
